Lawsuits Challenging Wilber Merger Dismissed

On March 28, 2011, New York State Supreme Court Justice Kevin Dowd granted motions for summary judgment filed by Community Bank System, Inc. (“Community”), The Wilber Corporation (“Wilber”), and the directors of Wilber to dismiss two shareholder actions in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated October 22, 2010, by and between Community and Wilber (the “Merger”). The first action was commenced on November 3, 2010 and was captioned, Robert E. Becker v. The Wilber Corporation, et al., Index No. 2010-1266 (Otsego County). The second action was commenced on November 17, 2010 and was captioned Richard N. Soules v. The Wilber Corporation, et al., Index No. 2010-1317 (Otsego County). Both lawsuits were brought on behalf of a putative class of Wilber’s common shareholders, and both complaints named Wilber, Wilber’s directors, and Community as defendants. The lawsuits alleged that the director defendants had breached their fiduciary duties by failing to maximize shareholder value in connection with the merger. The complaints further alleged that Community had aided and abetted those alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. The complaints sought declaratory and injunctive relief to prevent the consummation of the merger.

Community and Wilber both answered the complaints and moved for summary judgment dismissing both cases. Plaintiffs cross-moved to consolidate the two actions, to appoint co-lead counsel for a class of Wilber shareholders and to amend their complaints. Justice Dowd heard argument on the motions on January 14, 2011.

In his decision on March 28, 2011, Justice Dowd held that the Wilber directors fulfilled their fiduciary duties and acted appropriately within the scope of the New York business judgment rule base on evidence presented and that plaintiffs had produced no evidence of any improper conduct by the Wilber directors. Accordingly, he granted the motions to dismiss the complaints. He denied the plaintiffs’ motions to consolidate, appoint lead class counsel and amend as moot. Plaintiffs have 30 days in which to file a notice of appeal.

The shareholders of Wilber approved the Merger on March 25, 2011, and the Merger is expected to be completed as of the close of business on April 8, 2011.
