The Company today issued the following press release:

First National Lincoln Corporation Declares Dividend

DAMARISCOTTA, Maine--(BUSINESS WIRE) -- December 18, 2003--The Board of Directors of First National Lincoln Corporation (NASDAQ NM: FNLC), today declared a quarterly dividend of $0.30 per share. This fourth quarter dividend, which is payable January 30, 2004, to shareholders of record as of January 9, 2004, represents an increase of 15.4% or $0.04 per share over the fourth quarter dividend declared in 2002.

"With this increase of $0.01 to $0.30 per share per quarter, the Company has now raised its dividend for 33 consecutive quarters," noted Daniel R. Daigneault, FNLC's President & Chief Executive Officer. "This translates into an annual dividend of $1.20 per share, and based on today's closing price of $48.50 per share, our dividend yield is 2.47%.

"FNLC's price per share has increased $17.02 or 54.1% since December 31, 2002, based upon the year-end closing price of $31.48 per share and today's closing price of $48.50 per share. In addition to our strong earnings performance in the first three quarters, I feel that our excellent dividend yield continues to be a major factor in the performance of our stock in 2003," President Daigneault added. "The change in tax-treatment of dividends earlier this year has also been positive for companies like ours with a healthy dividend yield in the current low interest rate environment. For all of these reasons, I continue to view First National Lincoln Corporation as an extremely attractive investment alternative."
