(1) This Registration Statement also relates to such indeterminate number of additional shares of Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Perini Corporation (the "Common Stock") as may be required pursuant to the Perini Corporation 2004 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the "Plan") in the event of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, forfeiture of stock under the Plan or other similar event.

(2) This estimate is made pursuant to Rule 457(c) and (h) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, solely for the purposes of determining the amount of the registration fee. The registration fee is based upon the average of the high and low sales price for a share of Common Stock, as reported on the New York Stock Exchange as of June 9, 2004, a date within five business days prior to filing this Registration Statement.

(3) This Registration Statement also relates to rights to purchase shares of Series A Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Registrant which are attached to all shares of Common Stock issued, pursuant to the terms of the Registrant's Amended and Restated Shareholder Rights Agreement dated January 17, 1997, as amended. Until the occurrence of certain prescribed events, the rights are not exercisable, are evidenced by the certificates for the Common Stock and will be transferred with and only with such stock. Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Restated Articles of Organization, as amended, of the Company provide for the elimination of liability of directors to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for negligent acts or omissions to the extent permitted by Section 13 of the Business Corporation Law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Section 67 of the Business Corporation Law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts gives corporations the power to indemnify directors, officers, employees and other agents and persons under certain circumstances.

The Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company, as amended (the Bylaws) provide for indemnification of officers, directors and certain other corporate representatives for all expenses incurred by them in defense of any proceeding or lawsuit in which they are successful on the merits. In such a situation, the right to receive indemnification is mandatory and does not require an affirmative determination by the Board of Directors.

The Bylaws also authorize indemnification of officers, directors and certain other corporate representatives for expenses and liabilities in cases other than those in which they are successful on the merits, subject to specified conditions. No indemnification shall be provided with respect to any matter as to which an officer, director or corporate representative shall have been adjudicated not to have acted in good faith and in the reasonable belief that his action was in the best interest of the Company, or, with respect to a criminal matter, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. No indemnification shall be provided for any director or officer or corporate representative with respect to a proceeding by or in the right of the Company in which he or she is adjudicated to be liable to the Company.

The Bylaws provide that if a proceeding is compromised or settled in a manner which imposes a liability or obligation upon a director or officer or corporate representative, no indemnification shall be provided to him or her with respect to (i) a proceeding by or in the right of the Company unless the Board of Directors determines in its discretion that indemnification is appropriate under the circumstances, and (ii) any other type of proceeding if it is determined by the Board of Directors that said director or officer or corporate representative is ineligible to be indemnified under the Bylaws of the Company.

The Bylaws provide that any indemnification other than mandatory indemnification shall be authorized in each case as determined by the Board of Directors, which may act on the indemnification request notwithstanding that one or more of its members are parties to the proceeding or otherwise have an interest in such indemnification. The Bylaws also authorize the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of officers and directors against liabilities incurred by them in their capacities as such, whether or not the Company would have been able to indemnify them for such liabilities. The Company has obtained insurance covering its directors and officers against losses and insuring the Company against certain of its obligations to indemnify its directors and officers.

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and officers. The agreements provide that each director and officer will be indemnified for expenses and liabilities incurred in any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding brought against such person as a result of his or her status as a director or officer of the Company.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, if known or discoverable by the registrant at the time of filing of the prospectus, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered does not exceed 20% of the aggregate offering amount for the offering) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 10% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in "Calculation of Registration Statement" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change in the information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) herein do not apply if the information to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in a post-effective amendment undersigned registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is included in the Registration Statement;

relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be sought by the directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred by any director, officer, or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by agreement, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of that court.
