FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PITNEY BOWES REPORTS THIRD QUARTER 2001 EARNINGS

- o Excluding Special Items:
 - Diluted Earnings Per Share of 57 Cents
 - Approximately $179 Million in Free Cash Flow
- o 1.7 Million Shares Repurchased During The Quarter

STAMFORD, Conn., October 18, 2001 - Pitney Bowes Inc. (NYSE: PBI) today announced third quarter results that included income from continuing operations of $140.2 million and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations of 57 cents, excluding special items. Revenue grew nine percent to $1.04 billion when compared to third quarter 2000.

As previously announced, special items in the third quarter of 2001 included: a non-cash pre-tax charge of $10 million associated with the company's plan to transition to the next generation of digital, networked mailing technology; and, a pre-tax charge related to incremental restructuring plan initiatives of $18 million.

Commenting on the quarter, Pitney Bowes Chairman and CEO Michael J. Critelli said, "Recent extraordinary events have dampened an already weakening economy, slowing or delaying the decision making of many of our customers, and causing some to renew current equipment leases or continue existing rental programs rather than upgrading to more functional, higher-value equipment. While we believe that businesses, large and small, will continue to recognize and demand the benefits of our products and services, we are seeing some softness in many parts of our business as our customers reevaluate their operating and capital spending in a slowing economic environment."

Mr. Critelli also addressed recent heightened concerns over mail safety and security, including the sending of biological agents. "As the leader in secure mail handling and processing, we and the U.S. Postal Service are working with our common customers, especially through Pitney Bowes Global Mailing Systems and Pitney Bowes Management Services, to strengthen safety and security protocols which protect both our employees and our customers. We are actively exploring additional processes and technologies to further enhance the integrity of mail and package handling, even at our most secure customer sites."

The Global Mailing Segment includes worldwide revenues and related expenses from the sale, rental and financing of mail finishing, mail creation and shipping equipment, related supplies and services, postal payment solutions, small business solutions and software. In the third quarter, Global Mailing revenue was flat when compared to the prior year while operating profit declined four percent. Excluding the impact of unfavorable foreign currency, Global Mailing revenues increased one percent.

The mailing business in the U.S. experienced a marked slow-down towards the end of the quarter, as recent events coupled with a slowing economy resulted in many customers delaying purchasing or upgrade decisions. This was particularly true for higher value mail creation and shipping products.

Within the Global Mailing segment, international operations posted double-digit revenue growth on a local currency basis. Although revenue growth was adversely affected by continued weakness in the U.K. and Canada, international revenues were helped by strong growth in most European operations, which were stimulated by meter migration mandates and market share gains, as well as revenues from our recent acquisition of Bell & Howell's international operations in Europe and Asia.

The Enterprise Solutions Segment includes Pitney Bowes Management Services and Document Messaging Technologies. Revenues from Management Services include facilities management contracts for advanced mailing, reprographic, document management and other value-added services to large enterprises. Revenues from Document Messaging Technologies include sales, service and financing of high speed, software-enabled production mail systems, sorting equipment, incoming mail systems, electronic statement, billing and payment solutions, and mailing software. The Enterprise Solutions segment, which represents more than one-quarter of consolidated revenue, reported revenue growth of 39 percent and operating profit growth of 23 percent. Revenue and operating profit comparisons include a full quarter of contribution from the recently completed Danka Services International (DSI) acquisition.

Edgar Filing: PITNEY BOWES INC /DE/ - Form 8-K

Pitney Bowes Management Services achieved its eighth consecutive quarter of improving revenue, recording a 54 percent increase over 2000. Excluding DSI, Pitney Bowes Management Services revenues grew 12 percent while operating profit grew at an even faster pace. The growth in business resulted from new, value-added services for existing clients and new contracts for large enterprise organizations. These positive contributions were offset somewhat by the impacts of the slowing economy on volume based business in the financial and legal markets.

Document Messaging Technologies revenues grew one percent during the quarter. Worldwide demand for high-speed, software enabled production mail equipment and mail processing software has slowed as worldwide business capital spending slows. The placement of incoming mail and sortation equipment offset some of this revenue softness. The market continues to develop for this innovative and efficient means to automate the incoming mail process. Operating profit for Document Messaging Technologies was adversely impacted by expenses associated with the introduction and marketing of new products and the lower placements of higher margin customized production mail equipment.

Total Messaging Solutions, the combined results of the Global Mailing and Enterprise Solutions segments, reported a nine percent increase in revenues and a two percent decrease in operating profit. Excluding foreign currency impacts and the revenues from recent acquisitions (DSI and the European and Asian operations of Bell & Howell), Total Messaging Solutions revenues increased one percent.

The Capital Services Segment includes primarily asset- and fee-based income generated by financing or arranging transactions of critical large-ticket customer assets. Revenue for the quarter increased eight percent and operating profit increased 14 percent. The increase in revenues and operating profit were driven by higher asset sales and related fee income compared to the prior year.

During the quarter, the Company repurchased 1.7 million shares, leaving $83.8 million of authorization for future share repurchases. Free cash flow from continuing operations, excluding payments associated with special items, was approximately $179 million during the quarter.

Also during the quarter, the company announced that it has completed the steps necessary to receive the regulatory and tax approvals required for a tax-free 100 percent spin-off of its Office Systems operations to its shareholders, which is anticipated to occur in the fourth quarter 2001.

As a result of the slowdown in the economy and the considerable uncertainty concerning future economic activity, the company is revising its earnings guidance. For the fourth quarter, the company expects revenue growth to be in a range of eight to ten percent, and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations to be in a range of 56 cents to 59 cents. Diluted earnings per share from continuing operations for the full year 2001 are estimated at $2.24 to $2.27.

Given the assumption that difficult economic conditions will persist in 2002, the company is projecting that diluted earnings per share from continuing operations will be in the range of $2.35 to $2.40, excluding the impact of any changes in accounting for goodwill amortization.

Third quarter 2001 revenue included $541.9 million from sales, up 15 percent from $469.8 million in the third quarter of 2000; $365.7 million from rentals and financing, almost flat with the prior year which was $366.8 million; and $136.8 million from support services, up 11 percent from $123.4 million. Income from continuing operations for the period was $122.1 million, or 49 cents per diluted share. Excluding special items in the third quarter 2001 and 2000, income from continuing operations was $140.2 million, or 57 cents per diluted share compared to third quarter 2000 income from continuing operations of $144.9 million, or 57 cents per diluted share. Special items in the third quarter of 2000 included: an after-tax charge of approximately $11 million related to the consolidation of information technology staff and infrastructure, as well as a $12 million tax benefit related to state tax law changes. Third quarter 2001 net income was $117.2 million or 47 cents per diluted share compared to third quarter 2000 net income of $161.4 million or 63 cents per diluted share. Third quarter 2001 net income includes a loss of $4.9 million from discontinued operations or two cents per diluted share, while third quarter 2000 net income included $15.7 million of income from discontinued operations, or six cents per diluted share.

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001, revenue was $3.032 billion, up four percent from $2.902 billion in 2000. Income from continuing operations for 2001, before special items in both periods, was $416.3 million, or $1.68 per diluted share compared to $424.7 million or $1.63 per diluted share in 2000. Year-to-date net income for 2001 was $398.2 million or $1.60 per diluted share compared to $474.3 million or $1.82 per diluted share in 2000. The year-to-date net income for 2001 included a $15.7 million loss from discontinued operations, or six cents per diluted share, compared to $53.5 million in income from discontinued operations or 21 cents per diluted share, less a $4.7 million charge from a change in accounting or two cents per diluted share in 2000.

Management of Pitney Bowes will discuss the company's financial results in a conference call today, scheduled for 5 p.m. EDT. Instructions for listening to the conference call over the WEB are available on the Investor Relations page of the company's web site at www.pitneybowes.com.
