On June 28, 2002, Infinity Infusion, LLC and Infinity Infusion II, LLC (together, "Buyers"), both Delaware limited liability companies and wholly owned subsidiaries of Curative Health Services, Inc., a Minnesota corporation ("Curative"), acquired all of the outstanding partnership interests of Infinity Infusion Care, Ltd., a Texas limited partnership ("Infinity") pursuant to a Purchase Agreement by and among Curative, Buyers and IIC GP, LLC, Azar I. Through its acquisition of Infinity, Curative has acquired all of the assets of Infinity including customer and supplier contracts, licenses, inventory, real estate leases and office equipment. The aggregate consideration paid by Curative consisted of $18,000,000 cash and promissory notes in an aggregate principal amount of $6,000,000, convertible into an aggregate of 373,111 shares of Curative common stock. The purchase price for Infinity was determined through arms'-length negotiations between Curative and the Sellers.

Edgar Filing: CURATIVE HEALTH SERVICES INC - Form 8-K

WHEREAS, capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings given such terms under the Purchase Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Parent, Buyers and the Sellers' Representative agree that Section 1.5(a) of the Purchase Agreement shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"(a) The Purchase Price shall be decreased or increased, on a dollar for dollar basis, to the extent that the Working Capital of the Partnership as of the Closing (as defined below) is less or more than $1,461,782 (the "Working Capital Amount"); provided, that, in no event shall the Purchase Price be increased by more than Three Hundred Forty Nine Thousand Seven Hundred Seventy Six Dollars ($349,776) (the "Cap"), determined in accordance with the procedures contained in this Section 1.5. (b) For purposes of this Agreement, "Working Capital of the Partnership" shall mean cash, the accounts receivable, allowance for doubtful accounts, inventory and accounts receivable--employees of the Partnership, less the accounts payable, accrued payroll and retirement plan liabilities of the Partnership, each determined in accordance with GAAP applied on a basis consistent with the preparation of the Annual Financial Statements (except that inventory shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.5(c)), provided that any amounts attributable to Indebtedness of the Partnership or to the investment account of the Partnership with Brown & Company Securities shall not be included in the calculation of Working Capital of the Partnership.

(c) At such time as Buyers and the Sellers' Representative may agree, but no later than the Closing Date (the "Inventory Date"), a physical inventory of all pharmaceutical and biological inventory and disposable supplies (the "Inventory") maintained by the Partnership shall be taken by the Sellers' Representative or his agent and may be observed and checked by Buyers or their agent. The Sellers' Representative shall cause a statement (the "Inventory Statement") to be prepared in connection with the Inventory that lists, by product category or as is otherwise customary, the number and cost of each item of Inventory, on hand as of the Inventory Date. The cost of the Inventory shall be determined on the basis of its historical cost, determined on a first in, first out basis, except that Inventory that is not saleable in the Ordinary Course of Business, including without limitation, Inventory with an expiration date at or prior to the Closing Date shall have not be included in the Inventory. In the event of any disparity between the Partnership's inventory records and the Inventory, the Partnership's inventory records will be adjusted to conform to the listing of Inventory quantities developed during the physical inventory. (f) The Sellers' Representative shall permit Buyers and Parent reasonable access to the data and information on which the Working Capital Statement was prepared and to any representatives and agents, including any accountants, who assisted in the preparation, including without limitation access to any accountant's working papers. Buyers and Parent shall be deemed to have accepted the Working Capital Statement unless, within 15 Business Days after delivery of such Working Capital Statement (the "Objection Period"), Buyers provide written notice to the Sellers' Representative of any objection thereto (an "Objection Notice"), setting forth in reasonable detail the item to which any objection relates and the basis for such objection. If Buyers give an Objection Notice within the Objection Period, then Buyers and the Sellers' Representative shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute concerning the item(s) subject to such objection.
