Gross profit margin was 42.3%, compared with 47.7% in the third quarter of 2003. Itzick Sharir, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sapiens, commented:

"The results of the third quarter do not yet show a positive trend in revenue and we face further delays in penetrating the insurance industry, mainly due to a seasonal summer quarter. However, we have effectively succeeded in reducing costs and thus slightly improved our bottom line results. We expect to achieve further improvements in the fourth quarter of 2004 and continue to believe that we can return to profitability as a result of growing revenues and further cost cutting. Our pipeline for insurance applications continues to develop, in both the life & pension and property & casualty sectors, while we continue to service our customers in all sectors of industry.
