INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 17, 2014, Avon Products, Inc. (the "Company") announced that it had entered into agreements with the U.S. Department of Justice (the "DOJ") and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") related to the previously disclosed Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") investigations.

The agreements include aggregate payments of $135 million to the two U.S. government agencies, with $68 million in fines payable to the DOJ and $67 million in disgorgement and prejudgment interest payable to the SEC, in connection with charges that the Company violated the books and records and internal controls provisions of the FCPA. As previously disclosed, the Company has accrued $135 million for the FCPA matters. Under a deferred prosecution agreement (the "DPA"), which received court approval today, the DOJ will defer criminal prosecution of the Company for a period of three years in connection with the charged violations of the FCPA. The Company has agreed to the imposition of a corporate compliance monitor, which with the approval of the government can be replaced after 18 months by the Company's agreement to undertake self-monitoring and reporting obligations for an additional 18 months. If the Company remains in compliance with the DPA during its term, the charges against the Company will be dismissed with prejudice. In addition, as part of the agreement with the DOJ, Avon Products (China) Co. Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company operating in China, pleaded guilty today to conspiring to violate the books and records provision of the FCPA and was sentenced to pay the agreed $68 million fine to the DOJ.

Final resolution of the SEC matter is subject to approval by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. There can be no assurances regarding if and when the court will approve the SEC settlement.

The foregoing descriptions of the agreements do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to copies of the press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, the Deferred Prosecution Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2, the SEC Proposed Final Judgment, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3, the SEC Consent, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.4, and the Plea Agreement of Avon Products (China) Co. Ltd., attached hereto as Exhibit 99.5, each of which is incorporated herein by reference.
