PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

July 25, 2001

GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of CSB Bancorp, Inc. ("CSB"), the principal executive offices of which are located at 6 West Jackson Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting") of CSB to be held on Wednesday, July 25, 2001, at 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, at 10:00 a.m. local time. This proxy statement and the accompanying notice of meeting are first being mailed to shareholders on or about June 25, 2001.

The Meeting has been called for the following purposes: (i) to elect three directors, each for a three-year term and (ii) to transact any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

CSB's common shares, par value $6.25 per share (the "Common Shares"), can be voted at the Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by written notice to the Secretary of CSB (addressed to: CSB Bancorp, Inc., 6 West Jackson Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, Attention: Shirley J. Roberts, Secretary) or by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. A proxy will not be voted if a shareholder attends the Meeting and votes in person. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below or as otherwise described herein in the event cumulative voting for directors is properly requested. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by CSB and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by CSB. In addition to use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone, telegraph or telefax by directors, officers and employees of CSB.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 11, 2001 are entitled to (i) notice of the Meeting and (ii) one vote on each matter to be considered at the Meeting for each Common Share held on that date. The presence at the Meeting in person or by proxy of at least a majority of such shares will be required to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Common Shares held by holders who abstain from voting, and all Common Shares held by brokers who do not have the discretionary authority to vote on certain matters, will be included in determining the presence of a quorum.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires CSB's officers, directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of CSB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required to furnish CSB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on CSB's review of the copies of such forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors that they complied with all applicable filing requirements, CSB's officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CSB's Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three and not more than twenty-five persons. CSB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and set their terms at three years. The Board of Directors, pursuant to CSB's Regulations, has established the number of directors at ten.

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the Meeting so that a quorum exists, the three nominees for director of CSB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors. Shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. In order to exercise the right to vote cumulatively, a shareholder must give written notice to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the meeting, and the shareholder's demand for cumulative voting must be announced at the commencement of the meeting by or on behalf of the shareholder. If cumulative voting is elected, a shareholder may cast as many votes in an election of directors as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held. The Board of Directors has nominated Phillip W. Smith, Jr., John R. Waltman and Samuel M. Steimel to serve until the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Mr. Steimel, Mr. Smith and Mr. Waltman are incumbent directors (or are expected to be incumbent directors) whose present terms expire at the Meeting.

Mr. David W. Kaufman resigned from the Board of Directors, effective May 24, 2001. Mr. David C. Sprang, Mr. H. Richard Maxwell, and Mr. Samuel P. Riggle, Jr. resigned from the Board of Directors, effective June 28, 2001. Respectively, Messrs. Kaufman, Sprang, Maxwell and Riggle served 13, 10, 37 and 19 years as directors. CSB wishes to thank them for their years of valuable service.

It is the intent of the Board of Directors to appoint Mr. Phillip W. Smith, Jr., Mr. Ronald G. Holtman, Mr. John R. Waltman and Mr. Eddie Lee Steiner to the Board of Directors to replace Messrs. Kaufman, Sprang, Maxwell and Riggle, respectively. The Board of Directors intends to appoint and swear in Messrs. Smith, Holtman, Waltman and Steiner at the June 28, 2001 meeting of the Board of Directors.

If it is intended that Common Shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should, at the time of the Meeting, be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominees and any substitute nominee(s) designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The Board of Directors recommends that Shareholders vote "FOR" the election of the Nominees.

The following table sets forth information concerning nominees for directors of CSB, including their principal occupation or employment during the past five years. Each nominee, if elected, will serve for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders in 2004.

⁶ Mr. Saporito held the position of Senior Vice President-Operations of First Citizens Bank from January 1996 until May 2001, when he was appointed Chief Operating Officer and Chief Information Officer of the Bank.

The Board of Directors conducts its business through meetings of the Board and its committees. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors are held on a monthly basis. The Board of Directors held 12 regular meetings during the year ended December 31, 2000. No director attended fewer than 75% of such meetings. Directors receive no compensation from CSB, except that Mr. Lang, Mr. Sprang and Mr. Riggle each received $150 as compensation for serving on the Nominating Committee, and Mr. Lang, Mr. Miller, Mr. Sprang, Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Steimel each received $150 as compensation for serving on the Acquisition Committee. In addition, each director of CSB also serves as a director of The Commercial and Savings Bank of Millersburg, Ohio (the "Bank"), a subsidiary of CSB, for which outside directors were compensated at a rate of $10,000 annually, plus $150 per Board Meeting attended or reviewed, and $150 per Committee Meeting.

CSB has an Acquisition Committee, which formulates plans for potential candidates of acquisitions and mergers. The Acquisition Committee in 2000 consisted of Mr. Lang, Mr. Miller, Mr. Sprang, Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Steimel. The Acquisition Committee did not meet in 2000.

CSB has a Nominating Committee, which selects the nominees for election as directors. The Nominating Committee in 2000 consisted of Mr. Lang, Mr. Sprang and Mr. Riggle. John F. Canfield, a shareholder of CSB, assisted the Nominating Committee as an ad hoc member, for which he was not compensated. The Nominating Committee met one time in 2000. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees for election as directors submitted by shareholders of CSB. No nominations for directors, except those made by the Nominating Committee, shall be voted upon at the Meeting unless other nominations are submitted by shareholders to the Secretary of CSB in writing not less than fourteen nor more than fifty days prior to the date of the Meeting.

CSB has an Audit Committee, the members of which in 2000 were Ms. Vincent, Mr. Riggle, Mr. Sprang and Mr. Steimel. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, and a copy is attached as Appendix A. The Audit Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning the engagement of independent auditors, reviews with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviews the adequacy of the Bank's internal accounting controls. The Audit Committee met a total of 12 times in 2000.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors consists entirely of outside directors, currently three in number. The Compensation Committee met two times in 2000. The Compensation Committee is responsible for developing and recommending CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs to the Board of Directors.

The Compensation Committee believes that in representing the Board of Directors, it must act in the best interest of the shareholders as it reviews and determines CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs. The Compensation Committee's essential goal is to create a balance by which CSB is able to attract and retain qualified management personnel, while at the same time providing for maximization of CSB's financial performance and safeguarding CSB's assets. In compensating CSB's executive officers, the Committee seeks to achieve the following goals:

1. motivate executive officers to strive for and achieve outstanding corporate performance which provides a direct benefit to shareholders;

2. attract highly-qualified key management personnel; and

3. reward superior performance in reaching corporate objectives with aggressive compensation levels and provide that a significant portion of compensation will be dependent on CSB's annual performance.

Base salaries for executive officers in 2000 were determined after review of an analysis of salaries paid for comparable positions and consideration of the competition for executive talent within CSB's industry. CSB's review included a survey by the Ohio Bankers Association of executive salaries. CSB's compensation philosophy is to target executive salaries close to the mean of the market rate paid for comparable positions by similarly sized bank holding companies.

Mr. Akins' 2000 base salary, shown in the "Salary" column of the Compensation Table below, was increased by 10% from his 1999 base salary. Mr. Akins' compensation was determined by the Committee and approved by the Board. We believe that his salary is within the range of industry standards for a financial institution of CSB's size. In addition, as of January 1, 1997, the Committee granted Mr. Akins an option to purchase 1,800 Common Shares at an exercise price of $9.05 per share (as adjusted for the 1998 stock split). The Committee granted the stock option as an additional incentive to Mr. Akins to work to maximize shareholder value. Mr. Akins exercised this stock option in 2000.

Mr. Bess' 2000 base salary, shown in the "Salary" column of the Compensation Table below, was determined by the Committee and approved by the Board. Given the nature of Mr. Bess' experience and his responsibilities with CSB, we believe that his salary is within the range of industry standards for a financial institution of CSB's size. In addition, the Committee granted Mr. Bess an option to purchase 20,000 Common Shares at an exercise price of $15.00 per share, which option shall expire on March 1, 2006. The Committee granted the stock option as an additional incentive to Mr. Bess to work to maximize shareholder value.

Effective March 1, 2001, CSB's Board of Directors elected C. James Bess as President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as a Director, of CSB. In conjunction with Mr. Bess' election as President and Chief Executive Officer, CSB entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Bess which provides for a two year term, an agreed upon annual salary, benefits, the stock option grant discussed above, and provisions concerning termination of employment upon sale or change in control of CSB.

Effective November 16, 2000, CSB entered into a separation, waiver and mutual release agreement with Douglas D. Akins which provides for the termination of employment of Mr. Akins and certain payments of salary and benefits to Mr. Akins pursuant to such termination.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following Audit Committee Report is provided in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the Board of Directors of CSB. The committee has also reviewed and discussed with Crowe, Chizek and Company LLP ("Crowe Chizek"), CSB's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2000, the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, as may be modified or supplemented. The Audit Committee also has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as may be modified or supplemented and, as required, has discussed with Crowe Chizek its independence.

Based on the foregoing discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in CSB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000.

THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

F. Joanne Vincent

Samuel P. Riggle, Jr.

David C. Sprang

Samuel M. Steimel

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Crowe Chizek, certified public accountants, acted as CSB's auditors for the 2000 fiscal year. The Board of Directors, acting on the recommendation of the Audit Committee, dismissed Crowe Chizek following the date of completion of the audit of financial statements and reports for the year ended December 31, 2000, which shall be effective March 31, 2001. The reports on CSB's financial statements for the past two years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion nor were they qualified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During CSB's two most recent fiscal years (ended December 31, 1999 and 2000), there were no disagreements with Crowe Chizek on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure. On February 28, 2001, the Board of Directors engaged the firm of Clifton Gunderson LLP, certified public accountants, as CSB's auditors for the 2001 fiscal year. A representative of both Crowe Chizek and Clifton Gunderson LLP is expected to be present at the Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Crowe Chizek for professional services rendered for the audit of CSB's financial statements for the most recent fiscal year were $58,750.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees and All Other Fees

There were no services rendered by Crowe Chizek in connection with financial information systems design and implementation. The aggregate fees billed by Crowe Chizek for non-audit services and all other fees for services rendered to CSB for the most recent fiscal year were $99,535.

The Audit Committee has considered and ultimately determined that the provision of any of the non-audit or other services provided by Crowe Chizek to CSB is compatible with maintaining Crowe Chizek's independence.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

APPENDIX A

AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CHARTER

I PURPOSE

The primary function of the Audit Committee (the "Committee") is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial reports and other financial information provided by CSB to any governmental body or the public; CSB's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that management and the Board have established; and CSB's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes generally. Consistent with this function, the Committee should encourage continuous improvement of, and should foster adherence to, CSB's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are to:

- Serve as an independent and objective party to monitor CSB's financial reporting process and internal control systems.

- Review and appraise the audit efforts of CSB's independent accountants and internal auditing function (or the efforts of the outsourced internal audit service provider, if applicable.)

- Provide an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, the internal auditing function, and the Board of Directors.

The Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter.

II COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more independent directors, free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee. All members of the Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, and at least one member of the Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise. Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by CSB or an outside consultant.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual organizational meeting of the Board or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least four times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. As part of its job to foster open communication, the Committee should meet at least annually with management, the director of the internal auditing function and the independent accountants in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately. In addition, the Committee or at least its Chair should communicate with the independent accountants and management quarterly to review CSB's financials consistent with IV.4 below.

IV RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties the Committee shall:

Documents/Reports Review

Independent Accountants

13. Recommend to the Board of Directors the selection of the independent accountants, who are accountable to the Board and to the Committee as representatives of the shareholders, considering independence and effectiveness; and approve the fees and other compensation to be paid to the independent accountants. On an annual basis, the Committee should review and discuss with the accountants all significant relationships the accountants have with CSB to determine the accountants' independence.

14. Review the performance of the independent accountants and approve any proposed discharge of the independent accountants when circumstances warrant.

15. Periodically consult with the independent accountants out of the presence of management about internal controls and the fullness and accuracy of the organization's financial statements.

Financial Reporting Processes

17. In consultation with the independent accountants and the internal auditors, review the integrity of the organization's financial reporting processes, both internal and external.

19. Consider and approve, if appropriate, major changes to CSB's auditing and accounting principles and practices as suggested by the independent accountants, management, or the internal auditing function.

Process Improvement

20. Establish regular and separate systems of reporting to the Committee by each of management, the independent accountants and the internal auditors regarding any significant judgments made in management's preparation of the financial statements and the view of each as to appropriateness of such judgments.

21. Following the completion of the annual audit, review separately with each of management, the independent accountants and the internal auditing department any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information.

22. Review any significant disagreement among the management and the independent accountants or the internal auditing function in connection with the preparation of the financial statements.

23. Review with the independent accountants, the internal auditing function and management the extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices, as approved by the Committee, have been implemented. (This review should be conducted at an appropriate time subsequent to implementation of changes or improvements, as decided by the Committee.)

Ethical and Legal Compliance

24. Review management's monitoring of CSB's compliance with the organization's Ethical Code, and ensure that management has the proper review system in place to ensure that CSB's financial statements, reports and other financial information disseminated to governmental organizations, and the public satisfy legal requirements.

25. Review activities, risk based audit policy and plan, organizational structure, and qualifications of the internal audit department.

26. Review, with the organization's counsel, legal compliance matters including corporate securities trading policies.

27. Review, with the organization's counsel, any legal matter that could have a significant impact on the organization's financial statements.

28. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, CSB's By-laws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

29. The Committee shall have the power to conduct and authorize investigations into any matters within the committee's scope of responsibilities. The Committee shall be empowered to retain independent counsel, accountants, or others to assist it in the conduct of any investigation.
