Montreal, Quebec, August 1, 2007– CGI Group Inc. (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB) reported fiscal 2007 third quarter revenue today of $933.3 million, representing 7.7% year-over-year growth.

On a constant currency basis, the Company grew by 8% year-over-year – 6% in Canada; 10% in the U.S.; and 15% in Europe and Asia Pacific – and slightly improved on a sequential basis.

Net earnings in Q3 were $64.4 million or 6.9% of revenue compared with net earnings of $35.9 million or 4.1% of revenue in the same quarter last year. This represents an 80% increase year-over-year.

Basic earnings per share in the third quarter were 20 cents, and 19 cents on a fully diluted basis. This compares with 11 cents on both a basic and fully diluted basis in the same period last year.

The Company generated $134.6 million in cash from its operating activities, or 14.4% of revenue. This compares with $107.6 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2006. Over the last twelve months, CGI has generated $481.6 million or $1.45 in cash per share from its operating activities.

“Our strategic initiatives, including our full offering business development strategy and the accelerated deployment of our global delivery model, continue to yield the desired positive outcomes of increased bookings, revenue and margins,” said Michael E. Roach, President and Chief Executive Officer.

During the quarter, the Company booked $1.0 billion in new contract wins, extensions and renewals, resulting in a book-to-bill of 108% in the quarter. At the end of June 2007, the Company's backlog stood at $12.4 billion or more than 3.5 times annualized revenue.

As part of its Normal Course Issuer Bid, the Company repurchased for cancellation 1.3 million subordinate class A shares during the third quarter at an average price of $11.28 per share, for a total investment of $14.4 million. To date in fiscal 2007, the Company has bought 6.7 million shares at an average price of $9.53 per share for a total investment of $63.8 million.

In addition, long-term debt decreased by $75.9 million during the quarter. At the end of June 2007, net debt was reduced to $421.4 million, improving the Company's net debt to capitalization ratio to 17.7%. The Company continues to enhance its financial flexibility to invest in large outsourcing contracts, accretive acquisitions, buy back additional shares of CGI and continue to reduce debt.

"I am very pleased with our strong overall performance this quarter and year-to-date. I am also pleased that the market has begun to reflect our performance in the valuation of CGI's equity. As we continue executing to our strategic plan, there remain significant appreciation opportunities," concluded Michael E. Roach.
