Report on Executive Compensation

It is the responsibility of the Compensation Committee to administer the compensation policies related to the executive management of the Company, including those named in the Summary Compensation Table above.

Executive compensation is based upon the need to provide a compensation package that will allow the Company to attract and retain qualified and experienced executives, balanced with a pay-for-performance philosophy.

Compensation for the 2001 and prior fiscal years has historically been salary based, with bonuses and other incentives for senior officers where suitable. Salaries, including that for the CEO, are determined considering experience, industry expertise and level of responsibility in relation to other similar companies and/or competitors.

Stock options have also been granted to the executive officers. The Company has a share option plan (the "Plan") in place to assist executive officers and certain others to participate in the growth and development of the Company. The Plan allows compensation of participants while providing additional incentive to work toward long term Company performance. The Plan is used to provide share purchase options which are granted in consideration of the level of responsibility of the executive officer as well as their impact and/or contribution on the longer-term operating performance of the Company. In determining the number of options to be granted to the executive officers, the Compensation Committee takes into account the number of options previously granted to such executive officer, if any, and the exercise price of such option in order to ensure that the grants are in accordance with the policies of the Toronto and American Stock Exchanges, and to closely align the interests of the executive officers with the interests of shareholders.

Named Executive Officers

The salary of the Named Executive Officers was determined by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors on the basis of the value of the benefit derived by the Company from the input and presence of the Named Executive Officers. In addition, the Named Executive Officers received stock options determined on the same basis as grants of stock options to the executive officers.

Presented by the Compensation Committee: John Derek Douglas and Vincent Lum.

As consideration for not requiring the interest rate to be increased from 18% to 36% per annum, the Company agreed to grant Timothy Gamble, the former Director and President of the Company and W.D. Cameron White, the Chairman of the Company, warrants to purchase up to a total of 70,000 Class B Subordinate Voting Shares at a price of $1.255 per share until 30th June 2003.

It was a further term of the Subordinate Debt refinancing that the Company agreed, subject to regulatory approval, to reduce the exercise price from $5.00 per share to the current market price of the Company's shares in respect of an aggregate 19,795 Class A Multiple Voting Shares extension warrants and 13,500 Class B Subordinate Voting Shares extension warrants which were issued pursuant to Loan Agreements dated August 2000, but not exercisable until after 15th February 2002.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

None of the directors or senior officers of the Company, no management nominee for election as a director of the Company, none of the persons who have been directors or senior officers of the Company since the commencement of the Company's last completed financial year and no associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing has any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon at the Meeting other than as disclosed under the headings "Executive Compensation" and "Particulars of Matters to be Acted Upon".

STATEMENT OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

Under the rules of The Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSE"), the Company is required to disclose information relating to its system of corporate governance, with reference to the guidelines set out in the TSE Company Manual (the "Guidelines"). The Company's disclosure addressing each of the Guidelines is set out in Schedule "A" to this Information Circular.

PARTICULARS OF MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Approval of Private Placements

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

In order for the Company to raise funds to expand its activities, the Company may require further funding which would be raised under one or more private placements.

At the Meeting, shareholders will be asked to approve a resolution authorizing the Board of Directors to enter into one or more private placements in the 12 month period following the Meeting to issue additional shares to subscribers who are substantially at arm's length to the Company. Pursuant to the rules adopted by The Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSE"), shareholder approval is required for issuance of shares by private placement of more than 25% of the number of shares which are currently outstanding (on a non-diluted basis) in any six month period. Accordingly, it is prudent to have authority for such private placements at the present time to save the time and expense of seeking shareholder approval at future special meetings of shareholders.

It is not the intention of management to issue the entire number of shares authorized pursuant to the proposed resolution. The private placements will be negotiated only if management believes the subscription price is reasonable in the circumstances and if the funds are required by the Company to expand its activities. The issuance of shares pursuant to these private placements will not materially affect the control of the Company. Each such private placement will be made in accordance with applicable by-laws and rules of the TSE, which require the approval of the TSE prior to completion of each individual private placement. These rules provide that private placements be priced at the closing price on the day prior to the notice of private placement, subject to prescribed discounts as set forth below:

Market Price	Maximum Discount Therefrom
$0.50 or less	25%
$0.51 to $2.00	20%
Above $2.00	15%

As well, warrants may accompany shares issued under the private placement, where such warrants are priced at or above market and do not exceed the number of shares issued under the private placement.

Paragraph 620 of the TSE Company Manual (the "Manual") provides that the total number of shares of a listed company which are issued or subject to issuance pursuant to private placement transactions during any six month period must not exceed 25% of the number of shares of the Company which are outstanding prior to giving effect to such transactions. The Manual, however, permits this restriction to be relaxed with shareholders approval on certain terms.

Shareholders are being asked, therefore, to pass a resolution authorizing additional private placements which would take place within one year of the date of the Meeting. Such future private placements will be subject to the following terms:

1. All of the private placement financings will be carried out in accordance with the guidelines of the TSE in accordance with paragraphs 619 and 622 of the Manual.
2. Such future private placements would not result in additional shares of the Company being issued in any amount exceeding the current number of issued and outstanding shares (in the aggregate) of the Company.
3. Any of the future private placements would be substantially at arm's length and would not materially affect control of the Company.

The resolution with respect to private placement financings requires confirmation by a majority of the votes cast thereon at the Meeting. In the event the resolution is not passed, the Company will not proceed with any private placement that requires shareholder approval under the rules of the TSE unless and until such shareholder approval is received.

The text of the resolution to be submitted to the shareholders at the Meeting is set forth in Schedule B attached to this Information Circular.

- d. Communications policy

Directors, monitors the performance of Senior Management.

It is the duty of each of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") to review and, where required, approve statutory disclosure documents prior to their distribution to shareholders.

- e. Integrity of internal control and management information systems

In addition, the Company has a shareholder relations process to respond to shareholder questions and concerns. All communications from shareholders are referred to the appropriate corporate officer or investor relations consultant for response, consideration or action. Management promptly advises the Board of Directors if any significant issues are raised by shareholders. In addition, the Company communicates with its shareholders, securities analysts and media regularly on developments in its business and results, through the annual report, quarterly financial statements and reports to shareholders, press releases and material change reports, when needed.

The Board of Directors duties include the assessment of the integrity of the Company's internal controls and information systems. In addition, the Audit Committee has oversight responsibility of internal controls and management information systems.

2. Majority of Directors should be unrelated (independent of management and free from conflicting interest) to the Company and the Company's significant shareholder, if any. A significant shareholder is defined as "a shareholder with the ability to exercise a majority of the votes for the election of the board of directors".

The Board of Directors is composed of six persons. Of the six Directors, four are "unrelated" under the Guidelines and the two others are Senior Officers of the Company. The Company does not presently have any "significant shareholder" as that term is defined in the Guidelines.

3. The Board is required to disclose, for each Director, whether he is related, and how that conclusion was reached.

Juliet Jones: Related. President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

W.D. Cameron White: Related. Chairman of the Company.

Vincent Lum. Unrelated.

Alan Hibben. As a nominee of RBC Capital Partners. Unrelated.

John Derek Douglas. As a nominee of Working Opportunity Fund (EVCC) Ltd. Unrelated.

Yad Garcha. As a nominee of Working Opportunity Fund (EVCC) Ltd. Unrelated.

17

The Board is cognizant of the fact that Messrs. Douglas and Garcha are nominees of lenders, and Mr. White is also a lender, to the Company of amounts, the repayment of which is secured by charges on the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, but considers that the only "related directors" are the Directors that are members of management. No other Directors are felt to have any business or other interest that could materially interfere with the Directors' ability to act in the best interests of the Company.

4. The board of directors of every corporation should appoint a committee of directors composed exclusively of outside, i.e. non-management directors, a majority of whom are unrelated directors, with the responsibility for proposing to the full board new nominees to the board and for assessing directors on an ongoing basis.

The President/CEO submits to the Executive/Corporate Governance Committee candidates to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors. If the candidacy is endorsed by the Executive/ Corporate Governance Committee, it is then submitted for approval to the Board of Directors. While there is no formal process for assessing the Directors on an ongoing basis, the Directors feel free to discuss specific situations from time to time among themselves and/or with the President/CEO and if need be, steps are taken to remedy the situation.

The Executive/Corporate Governance Committee is composed of one member of Senior Management and two unrelated outside Directors.

5. Implement a process for assessing the effectiveness of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors.

See Item 4 above.

6. Provide orientation and education programs for new Directors.

There are no formal orientation or education programs for new Directors, however new Directors are provided with information and documentation relating to the commercial activities of the Company and the internal organization of the Company. Senior Management and certain of the Directors also meet with potential new Directors. The meetings in which new Directors participate as well as discussions with other Directors and with management permit new Directors to familiarize themselves rapidly with the operations of the Company.

7. Consider reducing size of Board, with a view to improving effectiveness.

The Board of Directors is of the view that its size and composition are well suited to the circumstances of the Company and allow for the efficient functioning of the Board as a decision-making body.

8. Board should review compensation of Directors in light of risks and responsibilities.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors reviews periodically compensation policies in light of market conditions and practice and in light of risks and responsibilities.

9. Committees of the Board should generally be composed of outside (non-management) Directors, a majority of whom are unrelated Directors.

The Compensation Committee is composed of two unrelated outside Directors, with a third Director to be appointed to fill the vacancy at the Directors' Meeting which will follow the Company's Annual General Meeting.

The Audit Committee is composed of three unrelated outside Directors.

The Executive/Corporate Governance Committee is presently composed of one member of Senior Management and two unrelated outside Directors.

10. Board should expressly assume responsibility for, or assign to a committee the general responsibility for, approach to corporate governance issues.

The Board of Directors is responsible for developing and monitoring the Company's approach to governance issues and for the Company's response to the Guidelines.

11. a. Define limits to management's responsibilities by developing mandates for:

(i) the Board:

The Board of Directors is, by law, responsible for managing the business and affairs of the Company. Any responsibility which is not delegated to either management or a committee remains with the Board. Except where specifically delegated to management, generally, all matters of policy and all actions proposed to be taken which are not ordinary course business require the prior approval of the Board or of a Board Committee to which approval authority has been delegated.

(ii) the CEO

The corporate objectives which the President/CEO is responsible for meeting, with the rest of Management placed under her supervision, are determined by the strategic plans and the budget as same are approved on an on-going basis by the Company's Board of Directors.

b. Board should approve CEO's corporate objectives.

See Item 11(ii).

12. Establish procedures to enable the Board to function independently of management.

While there is no formal structure in place to ensure that the Board can function independently of Management, the Board of Directors of the Company is free to ask one or more members of Management to withdraw during certain discussions and the Directors of the Company would not hesitate to meet without the presence of the members of Management who are also Directors, if the circumstances were to so require.

13. a. Establish an Audit Committee with a specifically defined mandate.

The roles and responsibilities of the Audit Committee include the review of the Annual and quarterly financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee has direct communication channels with the external auditors to discuss and review specific issues as appropriate.

b. All members should be non-management Directors.

The Audit Committee is composed of three outside Directors, all of whom are unrelated to the Company.

14. Implement a system to enable individual Directors to engage outside advisors, at the Company's expense.

Individual Directors could, if required, retain outside advisors at the Company's expense.

To Our Shareholders

Fiscal 2001 has been a year of achievement for Peace Arch's factual and dramatic television divisions. Peace Arch expanded its profile worldwide as audiences around the globe witnessed our largest slate of television programming ever.

This time last year, we told you fiscal 2000 was a year of building, the results of which would be seen in fiscal 2001. This year, we reported our highest revenue ever, increasing our hours of programming by over 50%. During fiscal 2001:

We produced four brand new television series and one renewal, adding 72 new episodes of programming to our library.

We added 5 movies to our library, including Now and Forever starring Adam Beach ("Windtalkers", "Smoke Signals") and Mia Kirshner ("Not Another Teen Movie", "Mad City", "Exotica"), the trilogy of Christy movies based on Catherine Marshall's bestseller and the family film, The Impossible Elephant, winner of the 2001 Silver Sprocket award at the Toronto International Film Festival for Children.

We completed delivery of the first season of our action adventure series, The Immortal, starring Lorenzo Lamas. This was our first syndicated series airing in approximately 80% of the U.S. The Immortal is seen by audiences around the world.

We launched Big Sound, our half-hour comedy series set in the music industry, which airs on Global in Canada and is being distributed around the world. This high profile series, executive produced and directed by David Steinberg ("Mad About You", "Friends", "Seinfeld"), features cameo performances from personalities including Melissa Etheridge, MC Hammer, Jann Arden, Scott Stapp of Creed and Stuart Copeland.

We began production of Animal Miracles, which was renewed and is now in production for a second season. The second season has commenced airing in prime time on PAX TV in the U.S., and on Life Network in Canada, to excellent ratings. This series, developed and produced by our factual programming division, represents a genre of programming that we expect to grow over the next few years.

We commenced production of Sausage Factory, our half-hour teen series produced with Nelvana. It premiered on The Comedy Network four weeks ago to excellent ratings and is now one of the Comedy Network's top rated shows. It will be premiering in the U.S. on MTV Network in the New Year (under a title to be announced). We are optimistic that this series will appeal to audiences around the world.

The array of new series and movies we added to our television library represents greater ownership and control of rights, consistent with our long-term strategy and our dedication to build value.

Our relationships with producers and distributors around the globe flourished, greatly increasing our access to top notch programming opportunities and improved financing alternatives.

Although fiscal 2001 was a year of accomplishments, it also provided a number of challenges. These challenges were not unique to Peace Arch. In fact, many major entertainment companies throughout North America are feeling the effect of these challenging times.

As anticipated and consistent with other producers of film and television programming, we reported the effects of the new U.S. accounting policy. We made a further adjustment to provide for the currently soft worldwide market for television programming. We are confident that in time these markets will turn around. We amortize capitalized productions costs in the ratio of current revenues to total estimated revenues. The new accounting policy limits the revenue streams and sources that we may include in our accounting estimate of future revenues. We believe that our library is a significant asset, which will provide revenues to the Company for years to come. We will continue to add programming to our library to build shareholder value.

In addition, our record production slate expended significant capital resources. This, combined with a decline in U.S. ad sales, which has a direct impact on syndication revenues, and a dispute with a U.S. broadcaster resulting in non-payment, caused the Company's working capital to decrease, resulting in the violation of certain financial covenants of our subordinated debt. Subsequent to our year-end, we restructured our debt, significantly strengthening our balance sheet, providing the operational flexibility to pursue our vision.

Our outlook for the future is positive, despite the current economic climate. Our proven track record of producing quality programming, cost effectively, which is now more important than ever, sets us apart. We are focusing on building relationships with U.S. producers and broadcasters who can benefit from the efficiencies of doing business with a Canadian company. A key factor for our future success will be our ability to produce programming that drives significant viewer-ship at a cost-effective price. We are confident in our ability to do this.

Peace Arch will continue to add programming that has worldwide audience appeal, with a focus on genres that are currently salable in all major markets. Our library of content will be selected based on long-term earnings potential. We will look to all revenue streams to ensure full exploitation of our rights, increasing our exploitation of program ancillary rights and branding.

We will continue to build our Factual Division and our Dramatic Division. We will also focus on perfecting all of our existing operations, reducing overheads where possible, and adding scalability, while ensuring that we have the resources to achieve our long-term vision. While we diversify our program library to meet market demand, we recognize that it is important to concentrate on doing few things very well.

Peace Arch is the largest independent producer of television programming in Western Canada. In fiscal 2002 we will focus on expanding the reach of our Company globally, as this is a global business. We will concentrate on forming new relationships and expanding existing relationships with broadcasters and producers around the world. We must be in touch with worldwide markets, as we sell our programming into these markets and as we look at the world as a means to finance our projects.

We will continue to grow our library of valuable content focusing on ownership and control. With the advent of broadband, which will come, we will see less limitation on delivery of content and more emphasis on the value of the content itself. It is, and always will be, about content. It is our vision to be recognized worldwide as an accomplished producer and distributor of high quality, owned television content.

I would like to thank our employees, directors and shareholders, who have supported us throughout fiscal 2001.

/s/ JULIET JONES

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion and analysis for the years ended August 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999 should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements contained in this annual report.

The discussion below is based on Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Material reconciling items to United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles are quantified and disclosed in Note 21 to the consolidated financial statements.

General

We develop, produce and distribute proprietary television programming for worldwide markets. These activities have comprised Peace Arch's core business since 1996 and have accounted for its rapid growth. Peace Arch continues to operate its other businesses, which include production activities on a fee for services basis.

Peace Arch operates through several subsidiaries, which are established for each production or series. We finance the costs of production through presales, borrowings under the Company's bank credit facility, contributions from equity participants and working capital. Typically we retain rights for our proprietary programming for exploitation in future periods and in additional markets and media.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

The Company's continued growth is dependent not only on its ability to successfully identify, develop, finance and produce its proprietary programming but also to distribute its programming in all markets and media throughout the world. The impact of economic recession, particularly in the United States, sharply reduced the demand for television programming in many markets during Fiscal 2001. In particular, due to a decline in United States advertising revenues and a general downturn in the international television markets, earning revenues from our library of proprietary programming and commencing production of new programming has been a challenge in 2001. This reduced demand contributed to an acceleration of amortization of capitalized costs related to certain television series, which resulted in a non-cash charge against earnings in 2001. World television markets are an important factor for our growth and success in the future.

In June 2000, the Accounting Standards Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants issued Statement of Position 00-2 (SoP 00-2). SoP 00-2 establishes new accounting standards for producers or distributors of films including changes in revenue recognition and accounting for exploitation costs, including advertising and marketing expenses. Additionally, in June 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board rescinded SFAS 53 "Financial Reporting by Producers and Distributors of Motion Picture Films". Companies that were previously subject to SFAS 53 must now comply with SoP 00-2. Peace Arch was compliant with SFAS 53 reporting. We elected to adopt SoP 00-2 early and, we have applied the changes retroactively as required under Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. The effect of the adoption of SoP 00-2 to fiscal 2001 is a cumulative one time, after tax, non-cash charge to our opening deficit at September 1, 2000 of $10.7 million and a $2.1 million after tax, non-cash charge for our 2001 year. The total after tax effect of implementing SoP 00-2 was a one time, non-cash charge in fiscal 2001 of $12.8 million. These changes arose due to the retroactively calculated implications of the accelerated amortization of previously capitalized investment in film program costs.

We amortize capitalized production costs in the ratio of current revenues to total estimated revenues. The new rules as they apply to Peace Arch specify the revenue streams and sources that we may include in our accounting estimate of future revenue.

During the fourth quarter of 2001 we wrote off goodwill of $2.7 million that originally arose from a business combination in 1996 and we adjusted our estimate for amortization of investment in television programming by $9.1 million, resulting in a total non-cash reduction in pretax earnings of $11.8 million.

Operating results

Over the past five years we have enjoyed compound annual revenue growth of 57% while adding proprietary programming to our library of rights.

Revenue for fiscal 2001 increased by 56% to a record $55.4 million up from revenue of $35.4 million for the prior comparable year. This revenue increase was derived from the delivery of our largest slate of programming, comprised of five television series (72 episodes), five movies and two documentaries. Revenue for fiscal 2000 decreased by 31% from revenue for fiscal 1999.

The net loss before taxes increased by 365% over the prior comparable year, primarily due to an increase in amortization of goodwill, the adoption of SoP 00-2 and the increased amortization of the capitalized costs of the Company's investment in television programming, resulting from a change in accounting estimates. Restated net loss before taxes for fiscal 2000 reflected a 372% decrease over fiscal 1999 restated net earnings.

($ millions Canadian)	1999	2000	2001
Revenue	51.5	35.4	55.4
Earnings (loss) before income taxes	1.1	(3.0)	(14.0)
Net Earnings (loss)	0.5	(3.3)	(14.3)

Revenue

During the year ended August 31, 2001 approximately 83% of revenue was derived from the production and distribution of proprietary programming, compared with 90% in 2000 and 92% in 1999. For 2001, revenue from proprietary programming increased by 45% in comparison to 2000. We delivered 13 episodes of "First Wave", completing its third 22-episode season, 15 episodes of the inaugural 22-episode season of "The Immortal", the inaugural 22 episodes of "Big Sound", and the inaugural 13 episodes of "Animal Miracles". Peace Arch also delivered five movies in 2001.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Production services revenue represented 16% of total revenue compared with 8% in 2000 and 7% in 1999. For 2001 production services revenue increased by 216% in comparison to 2000. The increase is due primarily to the delivery of 9 episodes of the inaugural 13-episode season of "Sausage Factory".

Management anticipates that revenue for the first two quarters of 2002 will reflect a significant decrease when compared to the comparable quarters of 2001 due to a reduction in proprietary programming. We will deliver the remaining four episodes of the 13-episode season of "Sausage Factory", 13 episodes of the second season of "Animal Miracles" and we will be in production with our new 13-episode series, "Whistler Stories".

Amortization of Television Programming

During the year the Company earned a gross margin (loss) on its proprietary programming of (11%), compared with 2% for 2000 and 9% for 1999. Before the adjustment for SoP 00-2, the Company earned a gross margin (loss) on its proprietary programming of (7%), compared with 17% for 2000 and 15% for 1999. The Company periodically reviews its estimates for future revenue from television programming and adjusts its amortization accordingly. During the year the Company increased amortization expense by $9.1 million due to a change in estimates due to the currently weak worldwide television markets.

Selling, General and Administrative Expense

Selling, general and administrative expense increased by 23% primarily due to an increase in advertising and promotion expenses and general administration expenses associated with the Company's increased production slate. The Company has taken steps to reduce certain selling, general and administrative expenses for fiscal 2002.

Interest Expense

Interest expense of $1.909 million is comprised $9,000 of interest on bank indebtedness and other balances and the remainder of interest on long-term debt. Bank indebtedness relates to the Company's credit facility. Interest on long-term debt relates $0.3 million to loans to acquire plant and equipment and $1.6 million to other long-term debt. During the first quarter of 2002 the Company repaid $2.2 million of its debentures of $7.9 million at August 31, 2001. We also sold one of our real estate properties in the first quarter of 2002 and paid off $865,125 of related long-term debt.

Interest expense increased by 107% from the prior year due to the new subordinate loan of $7.9 million that was secured in August of 2000.

Interest expense is expected to increase in 2002 due to the amendment of the terms of the Company's $5.7 million of debentures, which increased the cash interest rate to 36% per annum from 18% and due to the conversion of a $6.6 million current unsecured liability into a three year loan bearing interest at 10%. Of the $5.7 million of debentures, $1.2 million was repaid on December 17, 2001. The Company estimates that it will repay a significant portion of the debentures by the end of the third quarter of 2002.

Taxes

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

At August 31, 2001 the Company had operating losses for tax purposes of $23 million which are available for carry forward to future years. The benefits of the tax loss carry-forwards have not been reflected in the financial statements.

During the year ended August 31, 2001 the Company reported an effective tax rate of 2.3% which is comprised of the corporate statutory income tax rate of 45%, a 0.4% increase from the utilization of previously unrecognized tax losses, less 2% due to non-deductible expenses and less 45.3% for the change in valuation allowance of future tax assets. The Company's effective tax rate for fiscal 2000 was 8.8% (1999 - 57.3%) comprised of the statutory income tax rate of 46%, a increase of 7% utilization of previously unrecognized tax losses, less 13% for non-deductible expenses and less 48% for the change in valuation allowance of future tax assets.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company is required to fund significant expenditures to produce television programs at times in advance of receipt of revenues from these programs, which are received over an extended period of time after their completion. The Company typically finances the capitalized costs of its proprietary television programming through presales from customers, borrowings under the Company's bank credit facility, contributions from equity participants and working capital. In the past, the Company has also funded its capital requirements through the issuance of shares, warrants and debentures. The Company has used real estate mortgages and leases to finance the acquisition of its production facilities and equipment. Management believes that it can earn sufficient cash flow from operations to meet interest and repayment commitments on its debt.

During the year, the Company's used $12.7 for operating activities as compared to $4.2 million in 2000 and $3.8 million in 1999. Included within the operating activities is the 2001 investment in television programming of $52.1 million, compared with $31.6 in 2000 and $44.2 million in 1999. Investment in television programming was previously disclosed as a component of cash flows from investing activities. The Company's investing activities used $0.3 million in 2001 as compared with $2.1 million in 2000 an inflow of $0.1 million in 1999. The Company generated $12.6 million in 2001 primarily from the increase in its senior bank indebtedness. In the prior year $6.4 million was raised due primarily to the issuance of debt and in 1999 $6.2 million was raised from the issuance of common shares, increase in bank indebtedness and increase in debt.

The Company renewed mortgages relating to its real property in the aggregate amount of $3.3 million during the year. Subsequent to the year-end the Company sold one property and repaid the mortgage in the amount of $865,125. The Company entered into an agreement to sell a second property that is scheduled to close on January 7, 2002. The estimated net proceeds of $950,000 following discharge related mortgage obligations will be utilized to pay down our debenture holders. The Company will also take back a $1.0 million second mortgage on the sale of the property.

The Company's principal debt funding is through its $29.5 million bank credit facility. This facility bears interest at a rate equal to the Canadian prime rate plus 1% per annum, with monthly payment of interest only drawn from an interest reserve held by the bank. The facility is secured by refundable tax credits, distribution rights to certain film properties and a general security interest on the assets of the Company. During the year the Company increased borrowings under its credit facility by $12.6 million.

The Company at August 31, 2001 was in violation of certain covenants with respect to its debentures. On November 30, 2001 we entered into a amended debt agreement and accordingly was in compliance with the revised covenants contained in the amended agreement. The Loan Agreement was amended to extend the maturity date to December 31, 2002, from February 16, 2002. Under the amendment, with the exception of $251,963 of debentures due to Officers of the Company, the interest rate was increased to 36% per annum, compounded monthly, and payable monthly. The amended agreement was structured with no prepayment penalties and the company repaid $1.2 million of the debt on December 17, 2001 with further repayments estimated in the following two quarters. No principal payments, however, are due within the next year.

Management believes that the Company has adequate resources to meet its current cash requirements and its requirements well into fiscal 2002. If, however, the business climate does not improve in fiscal 2002, there is risk that the Company may not earn revenues from its library of television programming as anticipated. Management believes it will have to raise additional capital to meet its cash requirements should this occur.

Risks and Uncertainties

There are risks and uncertainties that could impact revenues and earnings from operations. In addition to interest rate risk and credit risk that are referred to in the notes to the consolidated financial statements, there are several other risks specific to the Company and its industry.

Business Risks

The business of producing and distributing television programming is highly competitive. The Company faces intense competition with other producers and distributors, many of whom are substantially larger and have greater financial resources. The Company competes with other companies for ideas and storylines created by third parties, as well as for actors, directors and other personnel.

Results of operations for any period depend on the number of television programs that are delivered. Consequently, results may vary from period to period, and the results of any one period may not indicate results for future periods. Cash flows may also fluctuate and may not directly correlate with revenue recognition.

Actual production costs may exceed budget, perhaps significantly, due to factors within or beyond the Company's control. These factors may delay or prevent completion of a production. If there are significant cost overruns, the Company may have to seek additional financing to complete the production. Financing on terms acceptable to the Company may not be available. The Company may be unable to recoup the additional costs, which could have a material adverse impact on operating results and liquidity.

Revenues derived from the production and distribution of television programming depend primarily upon acceptance by the public, which is difficult to predict. Some or all of the proprietary television programs of the Company may not be commercially successful, resulting in its failure to recoup its investment or realize its anticipated profits.

The film and television industry in British Columbia operates under collective agreements with several unions. In the event that one or more of these unions should take strike action, the Company may be unable to hire the required personnel to produce its programming. This could result in a delay or cancellation of production, causing a reduction in revenues and operating profits.

Investments in television programming are amortized against revenues in the ratio that current revenues bear to management's estimate of ultimate revenues for each program. As a result of our policy we typically amortize a minimum of 80% of the costs over a three-year period. Management periodically reviews its estimates and adjusts the amortization of its programming accordingly. In the event that management should determine that the capitalized costs for a program exceed its fair value, capitalized costs would be written down in the current period, resulting in a corresponding decrease in earnings.

The Company's revenues have increased to $55.4 million for fiscal 2001 from $35.4 million for fiscal 2000. The Company has undergone rapid production growth in 2001, which has placed increasing demands on the Company's financial resources. There is no assurance that the Company will have the liquidity and financial resources to continue at this rate of expansion. In addition, the Company may fail to make the contracted payments or meet the financial covenant requirements of its debt, causing the Company's lenders to demand immediate repayment of its debt.

Government Incentives

Refundable tax credits and other government incentives are important to the Company's business. If these tax credits and incentives were to be discontinued, the Company may be unable to pursue its growth strategy.

Currency Risk

The Company receives a portion of its revenues from U.S. and international sources in U.S. dollars, while its costs are payable primarily in Canadian dollars. Accordingly, operating results can be affected by fluctuations in the US dollar exchange rate. The Company does not maintain U.S. currency balances in excess of its estimated US payables. In addition, costs may be payable in currencies other than Canadian and U.S. dollars. The Company typically does not enter into agreements for hedging instruments except as disclosed in note 19(c) to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Outlook

The Company's primary objective is to expand its operations in the development, production and distribution of proprietary programming. During fiscal 2001 the Company expanded its development activities, which was reflected by the largest slate of delivered programming in the Company's history. The Company will focus on programming that will add long-term library value.

Major television networks around the world are faced with increasing competition from various sources including basic and specialty cable channels, satellite, digital stations and the Internet. This fragmentation of the market, combined with downward price pressure due to a weak worldwide market for television programming, has resulted in a demand for more cost-effective programming. In order to meet market demands, the Company will increase the production of lower cost reality and factual programs, will continue to take advantage of tax credits and government incentives and will focus on programming with global market appeal.

PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC.NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*(Dollar amounts in tables expressed in thousands of Canadian dollars, except per share amounts)*1. Operations

Based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc., together with its subsidiaries, (collectively, the "Company") is a fully integrated company that creates, develops, produces and distributes film, television and video programming for world-wide markets.

2. Future Operations

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which presumes the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the normal course of operations. The application of the going concern basis is dependent upon the Company achieving profitable operations to generate sufficient cash flows to fund continuing operations or, in the absence of adequate cash flows from operations, obtaining additional financing. Management continues to review operations in order to identify additional strategies, including obtaining future sales contracts, designed to generate cash flow, improve the Company's financial position, and enable the timely discharge of the Company's obligations. If management is unable to identify sources of additional cash flow in the short term, it may be required to reduce or limit operations.

As at August 31, 2001, the Company was in violation of certain covenants with respect to its debt and subsequent to year end, entered into an amended debt agreement as described in note 23(a). Accordingly, at December 19, 2001 the Company was in compliance with the revised covenants contained in the amended agreement. The Company believes it will remain in compliance with the financial covenants of the renewed debt throughout 2002. There can be no assurances that the covenants will be met, and future violation of the covenants could result in a requirement to immediately repay the debt.

3. Significant Accounting Policies*(a) Basis of Presentation*

The consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada and, except as explained and quantified in note 21, comply, in all material respects, with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, all of which are wholly owned. All material intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

(b) Change in Accounting Policy

In June 2000, the Accounting Standards Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA") issued Statement of Position 00-2 ("SOP 00-2"), "Accounting by Producers or Distributors of Films". SOP 00-2 supercedes Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 53, "Financial Reporting by Producers and Distributors of Motion Picture Films" establishing new accounting standards on revenue recognition, capitalization and amortization of film costs, accounting for exploitation costs, including advertising and marketing expenses, and presentation and disclosure of related information in financial statements.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

The Company has elected to early adopt SOP 00-2 commencing with its year ended August 31, 2001 and has applied the change retroactively. Prior years' financial statements have been restated accordingly. The effects of the change in accounting policy on the statement of operations for the years ended 1999, 2000, and 2001 are as follows:

- (i) Amortization of television programming increased by $2,883,000, $4,833,000, and $2,055,000, respectively.
- (ii) Net earnings decreased by $1,382,000, $4,080,000, and $2,055,000 (net of income taxes of $1,501,000, $753,000, and nil), respectively.
- (iii) Net earnings (loss) per share decreased by $0.45, $1.07, and $0.53, respectively.

Cash outflows incurred to acquire or produce films are now required to be shown under Operating Activities on the Statement of Cash Flows. These items were previously disclosed as a component of cash flows from Investing Activities.

(c) Revenue Recognition

- (i) Revenues from television programming are recognized only when persuasive evidence of a sale or licensing arrangement with a customer exists, the film is complete and has been delivered or is available for immediate and unconditional delivery, the license period has commenced, the arrangement fee is fixed or determinable, collection of the arrangement fee is reasonably assured, and other conditions as specified in the respective agreements have been met.
- (ii) Revenues from production services for third parties are recognized when the production is completed and delivered. All associated production costs are deferred and charged against earnings when the film is delivered and the revenue recognized.
- (iii) Cash received in advance of meeting the revenue recognition criteria described above is recorded as deferred revenue.

(d) Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with terms to maturity of 90 days or less when purchased.

(e) Investment in Television Programming and Productions in Progress

Investment in television programming represents the unamortized cost of completed proprietary television programs (net of related tax credits received or receivable) which have been produced by the Company or to which the Company has acquired distribution rights. Productions in progress represent the costs of incomplete programs and are carried at the lower of cost and estimated fair value.

For episodic television series, capitalized costs are limited to the amount of revenue contracted for each episode until estimates of secondary market revenue can be established. Costs in excess of this limitation are expensed as incurred.

Participation and exploitation costs are capitalized when they are likely to be incurred and can be reasonably determined.

The Company records amortization based on the ratio that current revenues bear to estimated remaining unrecognized ultimate revenue as of the beginning of the current fiscal year. Investment in television programming is recorded at the lower of remaining unamortized film costs and estimated fair value, determined on an individual program basis.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Estimates of ultimate revenue to be received in respect of a particular film includes revenue from a market or territory only when persuasive evidence exists that such revenue will occur, or the Company has a history of earning such revenue in the market or territory.

(f) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and amortized on the following basis:

Buildings	5% declining balance
Computers, furniture and equipment	20% declining balance
Production equipment	20% declining balance

(g) Deferred Costs

Deferred costs represent financing costs, which are recognized over the term of the related financing, and development costs incurred on projects prior to production. Upon commencement of production, the development costs are reclassified to productions in progress. Development costs are written off when it is determined that they will not be recovered, normally within three years of the first capitalized transaction for each project not yet set for production.

(h) Goodwill

Goodwill is amortized on a straight line basis over 10 years. Management performs annual assessments to determine whether the amortization of the goodwill balance over its remaining life can be recovered through undiscounted future operating cash flows of the acquired operation. When the future cash flows are less than the carrying value, the excess is charged against income.

(i) Government Assistance

The Company has access to several government programs that are designed to assist film and television production in Canada. Amounts received in respect of government programs are recorded as revenue in accordance with the Company's revenue recognition policy for completed film and television programs. Refundable tax credits are recorded as a reduction of the cost of related films as described in note 3(e).

(j) Income Taxes

Future income taxes are recorded for using the asset and liability method. Under the asset and liability method, future tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Future tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply when the asset is realized or the liability settled. The effect on future tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that substantive enactment occurs. To the extent that the Company does not consider it to be more likely than not that a future tax asset will be recovered, it provides a valuation allowance against the excess.

(k) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars at exchange rates in effect at the end of the period. Revenues and expenses are translated at exchange rates in effect at the time of the transaction. Translation gains and losses are included in income except for unrealized gains and losses arising from the translation of long-term monetary assets and liabilities, which are deferred and amortized over the life of the asset or liability. For each year presented, the Company has no long-term monetary assets or liabilities denominated in a foreign currency.

(l) Net Earnings (Loss) per Common Share

Net earnings (loss) per common share is calculated by dividing the net earnings (loss) attributable to common shareholders for the period by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

Fully diluted earnings (loss) per common share is computed similar to basic net earnings (loss) per share except that the weighted average shares outstanding are increased to include additional shares from the assumed exercise or conversion of stock options, warrants, and convertible securities, if dilutive. The imputed interest on cash proceeds to be received on exercise of the dilutive securities is added to net earnings (loss) for the year.

(m) Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation granted to certain directors, employees, and service providers in exchange for services rendered using the intrinsic value method set out in APB Opinion No. 25. Under this method, compensation expense is recorded on the date of grant only if the then current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price. As the Company's policy is to grant options and warrants with the exercise prices equal to the market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant, no expense is typically recognized for these type of awards.

(n) Comparative Figures

Certain comparative figures have been restated to conform to the basis of presentation adopted for the current year.

(o) Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may ultimately differ from those estimates.

Investments in television programming are carried at the lesser of unamortized capitalized cost and estimated fair value determined on a film-by-film basis. Future changes in general economic conditions, market preferences and other factors may result in the carrying value of a particular film becoming impaired as management revises its estimates of the ultimate revenue to be received in respect of each film.

Productions in progress, goodwill and tax credits receivable are asset accounts that also require significant use of management estimates to determine recoverability.

All amounts are subject to final determination by the relevant tax authorities. During the year, tax credits aggregating $13,538,134 were recorded (2000 - $7,814,639).

Bank indebtedness is drawn under a credit facility of up to $29.5 million (August 31, 2000 - $25 million) for production financing and is comprised of demand loans bearing interest at prime plus 1% per annum with monthly payments of interest only withdrawn from reserves held by the bank. As at August 31, 2001, the prime rate was 5.75% (August 31, 2000 - 7.50%). 19. Financial Instruments

(a) Fair Values

As at August 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, the Company's financial instruments included cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and amounts due to directors and shareholders. As at these dates, the carrying value of these financial instruments approximated their fair value due to their ability for prompt liquidation or short term to maturity, with the exception of tax credits and short-term notes included in accounts receivable, which are receivable over a period of up to two years. As at August 31, 2001, the fair value of tax credits receivable is estimated to be $22,643,065 (August 31, 2000 $9,638,185) based on discounted cash flows to the expected timing of receipt of the tax credits.

Also included as a financial instrument is long-term debt consisting of mortgages, demand loans and debentures. The fair value of long-term debt has been estimated to approximate carrying value based upon discounting future cash flows at the rate currently offered for debt that is estimated by management to be of similar maturity and credit quality.

(b) Concentration of Credit Risk

Although all of its revenue is generated from production in Canada, the Company derived over 77% (2000 - 84%, 1999 - 85%) of its revenues from export sales to the U.S. and Europe.

In the year ended August 31, 2001, two customers represented 19% each, a third represented 16%, a fourth represented 11%, a fifth represented 9%, a sixth represented 7%, and two represented 5% of total revenues.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

In the year ended August 31, 2000, one customer represented 48%, a second represented 21%, a third represented 13%, and a fourth represented 7% of total revenues.

In the year ended August 31, 1999, one customer represented 36%, two customers represented 14% each, and a fourth customer represented 14% of total revenues.

At August 31, 2001, approximately 84% (August 31, 2000 - 62%) of accounts receivable was comprised of refundable federal and provincial tax credits. These credits are subject to audit by the appropriate regulatory authorities.

(c) Currency Risk

During the year ended August 31, 2001 the Company derived approximately 59% (2000 - 41%; 1999 - 74%) of its revenues in U.S. funds. The Company estimates its obligations payable in U.S. funds and converts all U.S. funds in excess of these obligations into Canadian currency as they are received. The Company earns revenue in foreign currencies and employs from time to time derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk.

(d) Interest Rate Risk

The Company's exposure to interest rate risk is limited to the cash flow risk associated with variable rate debt as disclosed in notes 8 and 12.

20. Segmented Information

The Company manages its operations in two business segments: production services for projects in which the Company does not hold a financial interest in a film or video program, and proprietary programming which is programming the Company owns or in which it holds a financial interest. The Company operates only in Canada, although its programs are distributed throughout the world (note 19(b)). Selected information for the Company's operating segments, net of inter-company amounts, is as follows:

	Production Services	Proprietary Programming	Other	Total
1999
Revenue	$ 3,765	$ 47,298	$ 484	$ 51,547
Gross profits	1,220	4,089	154	5,463
Total assets	1,597	37,471	1,638	40,706
2000
Revenue	$ 2,853	$ 31,723	$ 862	$ 35,438
Gross profits	696	579	862	2,137
Total assets	1,553	49,678	109	51,340
2001
Revenue	$ 9,017	$ 45,860	$ 522	$ 55,399
Gross profits	620	(5,110)	522	(3,968)
Total assets	10,349	35,354	1,567	47,270

Gross profits are comprised of revenue less amortization of television programming, production costs, and other costs of production and sales.

In 2001 and 2000, revenues from other business include interest earned on short term investments and government assistance. In 1999 revenues from other business were mainly attributable to the rental of production assets.

21. United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada ("Canadian GAAP") which differ in certain respects with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("US GAAP"). Material differences to these consolidated financial statements are as follows:

(a) Earnings Per Share:

Under US GAAP, shares that are contingently returnable to treasury are excluded from the weighted average number of shares outstanding for purposes of the calculation of basic earnings per share for all periods prior to the period in which the contingency is resolved and the shares are released from escrow. They would be included in diluted earnings per share prior to release under certain limited circumstances (see note 7).

In addition, under US GAAP the weighted average number of shares used in the calculation of diluted earnings per share would be calculated by the treasury stock method whereby it is assumed that proceeds received by the Company from the exercise of dilutive securities are used to repurchase outstanding shares in the market.

The effect of these items would be to reduce the weighted average number of shares outstanding to:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001
Basic	2,935,202	3,794,714	3,843,929
Diluted	2,954,319	3,808,430	3,843,929

(b) Application of US GAAP:

- (i) As described in note 9, for Canadian accounting purposes, during the year ended August 31, 1999, the Company recognized a partial gain on the sale of real estate. For US GAAP purposes, no gain is recognized due to the existence of a note receivable. Under US GAAP, this transaction would be accounted for using the finance method.
- (ii) As discussed in note 3(b), the Company has changed its accounting policy for accounting for film costs. For Canadian accounting purposes, changes in accounting policy are applied retroactively with the prior years' financial statements restated accordingly. For US GAAP purposes, changes in accounting policy are applied prospectively with a cumulative adjustment to the current year's financial statements.
- (iii) As described in note 13(c)(iv), the Company granted warrants to retain an investment banker as its financial advisor. As discussed in note 3(m), for Canadian accounting purposes, the Company accounted for these warrants using the intrinsic value method and did not record an adjustment for compensation expense. For US GAAP purposes, compensation expense would be recorded based on the fair value of the warrants at the date of grant.

The effect of these differences on net earnings (loss) and earnings (loss) per share (calculated by reference to the weighted average number of shares outstanding) under US GAAP would be as follows:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001

Under US GAAP, total assets and shareholders' equity would be:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001
Total assets	$ 51,330	$ 64,330	$ 47,270
Shareholders' equity	25,539	27,065	1,541

(c) Stock-Based Compensation

As described in notes 13(b) and 13(c)(iv), the Company has granted stock options and warrants to certain directors, employees, and service providers. These options and warrants are granted for services provided to the Company. For US GAAP purposes, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123"), requires that an enterprise recognize or, at its option, disclose the impact of the fair value of stock options and other forms of stock-based compensation in the determination of income. The Company has elected under SFAS 123 to continue to measure compensation cost on awards to employees by the intrinsic value basis set out in APB Opinion No. 25. As options and warrants are granted at exercise prices based on the market value of the Company's shares at the date of grant, no adjustment for compensation expense is required.

Under SFAS 123, where a company chooses to continue to apply APB Opinion No. 25 in its basic financial statements, supplementary pro forma information as if the fair value method was applied must be disclosed. This pro forma information is set out below. The pro forma stock compensation expense has been determined by reference to an option-pricing model that takes into account the stock price of the grant date, the exercise price, the expected life of the option, the estimated volatility of the underlying stock, expected dividends and the risk free interest rate over the term of the option.

The calculations applied have assumed that the expected life of all options granted equals 60% of the maximum term. Based on actual experience, no dividends will be paid, and expected average volatility and risk free interest rates are:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001
Volatility %	43	57	104
Risk free interest rate %	4.86	6.38	4.40

Unaudited pro forma information with respect to impact of the fair value of stock options at the date of grant on reported loss for the periods presented is as follows:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001
Earnings (loss), US GAAP	$ 1,666	$ 999	$ (25,040)
Stock compensation expense	(403)	(753)	(589)
Pro forma earnings (loss), US GAAP	$ 1,263	$ 246	$ (25,629)
Pro forma basic earnings (loss) per share, US GAAP	$ 0.43	$ 0.06	$ (6.67)

The per share weighted average fair value of stock options granted during 2001 was $3.58 (2000 - $5.78; 1999 - $7.96) on the date of grant using the Black Scholes option-pricing model with the assumptions reported above.

(d) Supplementary Information Allowance for Doubtful Accounts:

Accounts receivable is disclosed net of allowance for doubtful accounts. Changes in the allowance for each of the periods presented are as follows:

	Years ended August 31,
	1999	2000	2001
Balance, beginning of period	$ 316	$ 304	$ 66
Charges to expenses:
Expensed	37	25	911
Recovered/written-off	(49)	(263)	(927)
Balance, end of period	$ 304	$ 66	$ 50

Years ended August 31,

22. Contingency

The Company has guaranteed a loan to a maximum of US$2,074,750 on behalf of a co-production partner. As at August 31, 2001, the amount of the outstanding related debt was US$2,016,317.

23. Subsequent Events

Subsequent to August 31, 2001, the debentureholders granted the Company a forbearance expiring November 30, 2001 (note 2).

On September 12, 2001 and October 15, 2001, the Company repaid $750,000 and $1,462,838 (note 23(c)), respectively, of the outstanding debentures. On December 17, 2001, the Company repaid a further $1,200,000 of the outstanding debentures under the amended Loan Agreement.

On November 30, 2001 the Loan Agreement was amended to extend the maturity date to December 31, 2002. Under the amendment, with the exception of an aggregate $251,963 of debentures due to officers of the Company, the interest rate was increased to 36% per annum, compounded monthly, and payable monthly. In addition, the financial covenants were amended December 19, 2001 to provide that the Company is no longer in violation as at December 19, 2001. No principal payments are due within the next year.

In connection with the amendment to the Loan Agreement, the Company granted as consideration to the debentureholders, warrants to purchase up to 230,000 Class B shares at an exercise price of $1.20 exercisable to June 30, 2003. Also in connection with the amendment, the Company canceled 85,205 Class A warrants and re-priced to $1.20 per share from $5.00 per share the remaining 19,795 Class A warrants and 13,500 Class B warrants originally granted as contingent consideration in the event of an extension of the original Loan Agreement at February 16, 2002 (notes 12 and 13(c)(ii)). As a result of the amendment to the Loan Agreement, the re-priced warrants vested immediately and will expire February 16, 2004.

Subsequent to the year end, the Company converted $6,626,297 of accounts payable due to an unsecured creditor into a three year loan bearing interest at 10% per annum and payable monthly. The loan is secured by a general charge on the assets of the Company and a specific charge on copyright for certain of the Company's television programs. Principal payments of $750,000 are due within the next year.

(c)

Subsequent to the year end, the Company sold two of its real estate properties:

(i)

The first property sold for a gain of $109,170. Net proceeds from the sale of $2,327,963 were used to repay the balance of the mortgage due on November 1, 2001 in the amount of $865,125 (note 12(i)) and a portion of the outstanding debentures in the amount of $1,462,838 (note 23(a)).

(ii)

The Company has entered into an agreement to sell the second property for $4,720,000 for a gain of $738,000. The closing date of the sale is January 7, 2002.
