RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors and warnings before making an investment decision. The risks described below are not the only ones that we face. Additional risks of which we do not yet know or that we currently think are immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition, or results of operations could be materially adversely affected. In such case, the trading price of our Class A common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. You should also refer to the other information set forth in this Prospectus.

This Prospectus contains or incorporates by reference certain forward-looking statements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our or our industry's actual results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements to be materially different from any future results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Those risks include, among others, those listed under the risk factors set forth below. In evaluating forward-looking statements, you should specifically consider various factors, including the risks outlined below. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, these statements are only predictions and we cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements. Actual events or results may differ materially.

In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expects," "anticipates," "plans," "believes," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," or "continue" or the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology.

Moreover, neither we nor any other person assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any forward-looking statements. We are under no duty to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this Prospectus in order to conform such statements to actual results.

THERE MAY BE ADVERSE EFFECTS ON OUR REVENUES, EARNINGS, AND PROSPECTS IF THE SECURITIES MARKETS DECLINE.

Our results of operations are affected by certain economic factors, including the level of the securities markets. We benefited from the favorable performance of the securities markets in recent years, which attracted a substantial increase in the investments in the securities markets. The securities markets have declined in recent months, however, and the continuation of adverse market conditions or continued volatility in the securities markets could result in investors withdrawing from the markets or decreasing their rate of investment, either of which could adversely affect our revenues, earnings, and growth prospects. Because our revenues are, to a large extent, investment management fees based on the value of assets under management, a decline in the value of these assets adversely affects our revenues. Our growth is dependent to a significant degree upon our ability to attract and retain mutual fund assets, and in an adverse economic environment, this may prove difficult. Our growth rate has varied from year to year and there can be no assurance that the average growth rates sustained in the recent past will continue. The combination of adverse markets reducing sales and investment management fees could compound on each other and materially affect earnings. Adverse conditions in the U.S. domestic stock market are particularly material to us due to the high concentration of assets under management in that market.

THERE MAY BE ADVERSE EFFECTS ON OUR REVENUES AND EARNINGS IF OUR FUNDS' PERFORMANCE DECLINES.

Success in the investment management and mutual fund businesses is dependent on the investment performance of client accounts. Good relative performance stimulates sales of the Funds' shares and tends to keep redemptions low. Sales of the Funds' shares in turn generate higher management fees and distribution revenues. Good relative performance also attracts institutional and separate accounts. Conversely, poor relative performance results in decreased sales, increased redemptions of the Funds' shares, and the loss of institutional and separate accounts, resulting in decreases in revenues. Failure of our Funds to perform well could, therefore, have a material adverse effect on our revenues and earnings.

THERE MAY BE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS IF OUR INVESTORS REMOVE THE ASSETS WE MANAGE ON SHORT NOTICE.

A majority of our revenues are derived from investment management agreements with our Funds that, as required by law, are terminable on 60 days' notice. Each investment management agreement must be approved and renewed annually by the disinterested members of each Fund's board or its shareholders, as required by law. Some of these investment management agreements may not be renewed or may be terminated, and new agreements may be unavailable. In addition, mutual fund investors may redeem their investments in the Funds at any time without any prior notice. Investors can terminate their relationship with us, reduce the aggregate amount of assets under management, or shift their funds to other types of accounts with different rate structures for any number of reasons, including investment performance, changes in prevailing interest rates, and financial market performance. The decrease in revenues that could result from any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business.

OUR ABILITY TO HIRE AND RETAIN KEY PERSONNEL AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS IS SIGNIFICANT TO OUR SUCCESS.

Our continued success depends to a substantial degree on our ability to attract and retain qualified personnel to conduct our fund management and investment advisory business. The market for qualified fund managers, investment analysts, and financial advisors is extremely competitive. We are dependent on our sales force and select third party distributors to sell our mutual funds and other investment products. Our growth prospects will be directly affected by the quality, quantity and productivity of financial advisors we are able to successfully recruit and retain. There can be no assurances that we will be successful in our efforts to recruit and retain the required personnel.

WE COULD EXPERIENCE ADVERSE EFFECTS DUE TO STRONG COMPETITION FROM NUMEROUS AND SOMETIMES LARGER COMPANIES.

We compete with stock brokerage firms, investment banking firms, insurance companies, banks, Internet investment sites, and other financial institutions. Many of these companies not only offer mutual fund investments and services but also offer an ever-increasing number of other financial products and services. Many of our competitors have more products and product lines, services, and brand recognition and may also have substantially greater assets under management. Many larger mutual fund complexes have developed relationships with brokerage houses with large distribution networks, which may enable those fund complexes to reach broader client bases. In recent years, there has been a trend of consolidation in the mutual fund industry resulting in stronger competitors with greater financial resources than us. There has also been a trend toward online Internet financial services. If existing or potential customers decide to invest with our competitors instead of with us, our market share, revenues and income would decline.

POTENTIAL MISUSE OF FUNDS AND INFORMATION IN THE POSSESSION OF OUR EMPLOYEES AND/OR FINANCIAL ADVISORS COULD RESULT IN LIABILITY TO OUR CLIENTS.

Our employees and financial advisors handle a significant amount of funds and financial and personal information for our clients. Although we have implemented a system of controls to minimize the risk of fraudulent taking or misuse of funds and information, there can be no assurance that our controls will be adequate or that a taking or misuse by our employees and/or financial advisors can be prevented. We could have liability in the event of a taking or misuse by our employees and/or financial advisors and we could also be subject to regulatory sanctions. Although we believe that we have adequately insured against these risks, there can be no assurance that our insurance will be maintained or that it will be adequate to meet any future liability.

THERE ARE NO ASSURANCES THAT WE WILL PAY FUTURE DIVIDENDS.

Our Board of Directors currently intends to continue to declare quarterly dividends on our Class A common stock; however, the declaration and payments of dividends is subject to the discretion of our Board. Any determination as to the payment of dividends, as well as the level of such dividends, will depend on, among other things:

general economic and business conditions;

our strategic plans;

our financial results and condition;

contractual, legal, and regulatory restrictions on the payment of dividends by us or our subsidiaries; and such other factors as our Board of Directors may consider to be relevant.

We are a holding company and, as such, our ability to pay dividends is subject to the ability of our subsidiaries to provide us with cash. There can be no assurance that the current quarterly dividend level will be maintained or that we will pay any dividends in any future period.

REGULATORY RISK IS SUBSTANTIAL IN OUR BUSINESS.

Our investment management and broker-dealer business is heavily regulated. Noncompliance with applicable laws or regulations could result in sanctions being levied against us, including fines and censures, suspension, or expulsion from a certain jurisdiction or market or the revocation of licenses. Noncompliance with applicable laws or regulations would adversely affect our reputation, prospects, revenues, and earnings. In addition, changes in current laws or regulations or in governmental policies could adversely affect our operations, revenues, and earnings.

WE ARE AT RISK OF LITIGATION WHICH COULD RESULT IN SUBSTANTIAL COSTS TO US AND ADVERSELY IMPACT OUR EARNINGS.

As previously disclosed, we are in litigation with United Investors Life Insurance Company ("UILIC") in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Alabama over the terms of a disputed compensation agreement executed in July 1999 by UILIC and one of our subsidiaries, Waddell & Reed, Inc. ("W&R"), (the "Letter Agreement") and the replacement of UILIC variable annuity policies with Nationwide variable annuity policies by our customers.

On March 19, 2002, the jury found for UILIC, awarding compensatory damages of $50.0 million. Jurors rejected plaintiff's demand for punitive damages and our demands for counterclaim damages. The jury did not allocate the compensatory damages between the two major causes of action.

On June 25, 2002 the Court entered an order denying our post-trial motions regarding the jury verdict, including our motions to disregard it and for a new trial. In addition, the Court found that there was not a binding agreement between the companies regarding variable annuity basis point compensation pursuant to the Letter Agreement and ordered that UILIC was entitled to the funds that have been deposited with the Court since the entry of the jury verdict. Finally, the Court ruled in favor of the Company in denying a request by UILIC for an injunction preventing the replacement of UILIC variable annuity policies with Nationwide variable annuity policies by our customers.

The judgment has been stayed with the posting of an appeal bond with the Court in the amount of $62.5 million. The Company has filed its notice of appeal with the Court and will appeal the jury verdict and the finding of the Court regarding the Letter Agreement to the Supreme Court of Alabama.

Management believes that the jury verdict is not supported by the evidence or case law in Alabama. Pending further developments, the size and nature of payments, if any, is unknown and not reasonably determinable; therefore no liability has been recorded in the consolidated financial statements of Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc.

Also previously disclosed, in June 2002 the New York Supreme Court confirmed the punitive damage award and reduced the compensatory damage award made by a NASD Dispute Resolution panel regarding a former W&R financial advisor who was terminated in 1997. The Court reduced the compensatory damages to $1.08 million and confirmed the original punitive damage award of $25 million. The judgment has been stayed with the posting of an appeal bond with the Court in the amount of $28.7 million backed by a line of credit in the amount of $36 million. The Company has filed its notice of appeal with the Court and will appeal the judgment to the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court.

In the opinion of management, the size and nature of the award, if any, is unknown and not reasonably determinable; therefore no liability has been recorded in the consolidated financial statements of Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc.

PROVISIONS OF OUR ORGANIZATIONAL DOCUMENTS COULD DETER TAKEOVER ATTEMPTS.

Under our Certificate of Incorporation, our Board of Directors has the authority, without action by our stockholders, to fix certain terms and issue shares of our Preferred Stock, par value $1.00 per share. Actions of our Board of Directors pursuant to this authority may have the effect of delaying, deterring, or preventing a change in control of the Company. Other provisions in our Certificate of Incorporation and in our Bylaws impose procedural and other requirements that could be deemed to have anti-takeover effects, including replacing incumbent directors. Our Board of Directors is divided into three classes, each of which is to serve for a staggered three-year term after the initial classification and election and incumbent directors may not be removed without cause, all of which may make it more difficult for a third party to gain control of our Board. In addition, as a Delaware corporation we are subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. With certain exceptions, Section 203 imposes restrictions on mergers and other business combinations between us and any holder of 15% or more of our voting stock.

OUR STOCKHOLDERS RIGHTS PLAN COULD DETER TAKEOVER ATTEMPTS.

Under certain conditions, the rights under our stockholders rights plan entitle the holders of such rights to receive shares of our Class A common stock having a value equal to two times the exercise price of the right. The rights are attached to each share of our outstanding Class A common stock and generally are exercisable only if a person or group acquires 15% or more of the voting power as represented by our Class A common stock. Our stockholders rights plan could impede the completion of a merger, tender offer, or other takeover attempt even though some or a majority of our stockholders might believe that a merger, tender offer, or takeover is in their best interests and even if such transactions could result in our stockholders receiving a premium for their shares of our stock over the then current market price of our stock.

THE TERMS OF OUR CREDIT FACILITY IMPOSE RESTRICTIONS ON OUR OPERATIONS. THERE ARE NO ASSURANCES WE WILL BE ABLE TO RAISE ADDITIONAL CAPITAL.

Edgar Filing: WADDELL & REED FINANCIAL INC - Form S-8 POS

We have entered into a 364-day revolving credit facility with various lenders for a total of $235.0 million, whereby the banks could, at their option upon our request, expand the facility to $330.0 million. In August 2000, we also began utilizing money market loans, which function similarly to commercial paper. At July 22, 2002, there was no outstanding under the line of credit and the outstanding balance related to the money market loans was $50.2 million. The terms and conditions of our revolving credit facility and the money market loans impose restrictions that affect, among other things, our ability to incur additional debt, make capital expenditures and acquisitions, merge, sell assets, pay dividends, and create or incur liens. Our ability to comply with the financial covenants set forth in the credit facility can be affected by events beyond our control and there can be no assurance that we will achieve operating results that will comply with such terms and conditions, a breach of which could result in a default under the credit facility. In the event of a default, the banks could elect to declare the outstanding principal amount of our credit facility, all interest thereon, and all other amounts payable under our credit facility to be immediately due and payable.

Our ability to meet our cash needs and satisfy our debt obligations will depend upon our future operating performance, asset values, perception of our creditworthiness, and indirectly, the market value of our stock. These factors will be affected by prevailing economic, financial and business conditions and other circumstances, some of which are beyond our control. We anticipate that borrowings from our existing credit facility or its refinancing and/or cash provided by operating activities will provide sufficient funds to finance our business plans, meet our operating expenses, and service our debt requirements as they become due. However, in the event that we require additional capital, there can be no assurance that we will be able to raise such capital when needed or on satisfactory terms, if at all, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to refinance our credit facility upon its maturity or on favorable terms. If we are unable to raise capital or obtain financing, we may be forced to incur unanticipated costs or revise our business plans.

SYSTEMS FAILURE MAY DISRUPT OUR BUSINESS.

Our business is highly dependent on communications and information systems, including our mutual fund transfer agency system maintained by a third party service provider. We are highly dependent on our ability to process a large number of transactions on a daily basis and also on the proper functioning of computer systems of third parties. We rely heavily on financial, accounting, and other data processing systems. If any of these do not function properly, we could suffer financial loss, business disruption, liability to clients, regulatory intervention, or damage to our reputation. If our systems are unable to accommodate an increasing volume of transactions, our ability to expand could be affected. Although we have back-up systems in place, we cannot be sure that any systems failure or interruption, whether caused by a fire, other natural disaster, power or telecommunications failure, acts of terrorism/war, or otherwise will not occur, or that back-up procedures and capabilities in the event of any failure or interruption will be adequate.

WE MAY HAVE DIFFICULTY EXECUTING OUR ACQUISITION STRATEGY, WHICH COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT OUR GROWTH.

Our business strategy contemplates our selective pursuit of acquisitions and alliances that will add new products or alternative distribution systems to accelerate earnings growth. There can be no assurance that we will find suitable acquisition candidates at acceptable prices, have sufficient capital resources to realize our acquisition strategy, or be successful in entering into definitive agreements for desired acquisitions. In addition, we have limited experience in finding, acquiring, and integrating other companies and we may not be successful in the integration of acquired companies. An acquisition may not prove to add new products or distribution systems or otherwise be advantageous to us.

OUR HOLDING COMPANY STRUCTURE RESULTS IN STRUCTURAL SUBORDINATION AND MAY AFFECT OUR ABILITY TO FUND OUR OPERATIONS AND MAKE PAYMENTS ON OUR DEBT.

We are a holding company and, accordingly, substantially all of our operations are conducted through our subsidiaries. As a result, our cash flow and our ability to service our debt, including our $200.0 million principal amount 7.5% senior notes due 2006, are dependent upon the earnings of our subsidiaries. In addition, we are dependent on the distribution of earnings, loans or other payments by our subsidiaries to us. Our subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities. Our subsidiaries have no obligation to pay any amounts due on our debt or provide us with funds for our payment obligations, whether by dividends, distributions, loans or other payments. In addition, any payment of dividends, distributions, loans or advances to us by our subsidiaries could be subject to statutory or contractual restrictions. Payments to us by our subsidiaries will also be contingent upon our subsidiaries' earnings and business considerations. Our right to receive any assets of any of our subsidiaries upon their liquidation or reorganization, and therefore the right of the holders of the notes to participate in those assets, would be effectively subordinated to the claims of that subsidiary's creditors, including trade creditors. In addition, even if we were a creditor of any of our subsidiaries, our rights as a creditor would be subordinate to any security interest in the assets of our subsidiaries and any indebtedness of our subsidiaries senior to that held by us.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Class A common stock being offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this Prospectus may be sold from time to time by the selling stockholders, or by pledgees, donees, transferees, or other successors in interest, regardless of whether such successors in interest are successors in interest with respect to the shares being offered. Such sales may be made on one or more exchanges, in the over-the-counter markets, or otherwise, at prices and on terms then prevailing, at prices related to the then-current market price of the Class A common stock, or in negotiated transactions. In addition, any securities covered by this Prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Act may be sold under such rule rather than pursuant to this Prospectus.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate. Brokers or dealers will receive commissions or discounts from selling stockholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale. The selling stockholders and agents who execute orders on their behalf may be deemed to be underwriters as that term is defined in Section 2(11) of the Securities Act and a portion of any proceeds or sales discounts, commissions, or other compensation may be deemed to be underwriting compensation for purposes of that Act.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from this offering.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the shares of Class A common stock offered by this Prospectus has been passed upon for us by Hughes & Luce, L.L.P., Dallas, Texas.

EXPERTS

Our Consolidated Financial Statements as of December 31, 2000 and 2001, and for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2001 incorporated by reference into this Prospectus have been so included in reliance on the report of KPMG LLP, independent certified public accountants, incorporated by reference elsewhere in this Prospectus, and upon the authority of said firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

INDEMNIFICATION

Our Certificate of Incorporation provides that each person who was or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was one of our directors or officers or is or was serving at our request as a director or officer of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, will be indemnified and held harmless by us to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law as the same exists or may be amended after the date of this Prospectus (but, in the case of any amendment, only to the extent that amendment permits us to provide broader indemnification rights than the Delaware General Corporation Law permitted us to provide prior to that amendment), against all expense, liability, and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by that person in connection therewith and that indemnification will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, and administrators.

The Delaware General Corporation Law permits Delaware corporations to include in their certificates of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting director liability for monetary damages arising from breaches of their fiduciary duty. The only limitations imposed under the statute are that the provision may not eliminate or limit a director's liability: (i) for breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or known violations of law; (iii) for the payment of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; or (iv) for transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit. In addition, directors and officers are insured, at our expense, against certain liabilities which might arise out of their employment.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action brought by or in the right of a corporation, the corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which that person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless a court finds that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, that person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for those expenses as the court deems proper.

Insofar as indemnification for liability arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors or officers or persons controlling us pursuant to the foregoing provisions, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in that Act and is therefore unenforceable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Our Certificate of Incorporation provides that each person who was or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was one of our directors or officers or is or was serving at our request as a director or officer of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, will be indemnified and held harmless by us to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law as the same exists or may be amended after the date of this Prospectus (but, in the case of any amendment, only to the extent that amendment permits us to provide broader indemnification rights than the Delaware General Corporation Law permitted us to provide prior to that amendment), against all expense, liability, and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by that person in connection therewith and that indemnification will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, and administrators.

The Delaware General Corporation Law permits Delaware corporations to include in their certificates of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting director liability for monetary damages arising from breaches of their fiduciary duty. The only limitations imposed under the statute are that the provision may not eliminate or limit a director's liability: (i) for breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or known violations of law; (iii) for the payment of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; or (iv) for transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit. In addition, directors and officers are insured, at the Registrant's expense, against certain liabilities which might arise out of their employment.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action brought by or in the right of a corporation, the corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which that person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless a court finds that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, that person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for those expenses as the court deems proper.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

- (a) We hereby undertake:
- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by us pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.
 - (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) We hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of our annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) We hereby undertake to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Exchange Act; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(d) Insofar as indemnification by us for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by one of our directors, officers or controlling persons in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
