The following constitutes Amendment No. 1 ("Amendment No. 1") to the Schedule 13D originally filed by Lior Bregman ("Mr. Bregman") with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on November 19, 2003. This Amendment No. 1 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Edgar Filing: BREGMAN LIOR - Form SC 13D/A

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

Mr. Bregman has purchased the shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock") of Merrimac Industries, Inc. (the "Issuer") for investment purposes. Mr. Bregman has extensive experience and relationships in the defense and wireless telecommunications industries and has intended to work with the management of the Issuer to maximize stockholder value.

On August 18, 2004, Mr. Bregman delivered a letter to Mason N. Carter, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer, a copy of which is attached as an exhibit hereto and incorporated herein by reference (the "Letter"), expressing Mr. Bregman's disappointment with the Issuer's management and board of directors failure to act in the best interests of the Issuer's stockholders or to allow Mr. Bregman to use his experience and industry contacts to assist the Issuer either via a Board membership or a consulting agreement. Mr. Bregman has proposed that the Board immediately appoint a special committee of disinterested directors to engage a qualified investment banker to evaluate the Company's strategic alternatives and seek to effect a transaction that will maximize shareholder value. Mr. Bregman will consider, among other matters, forming a group to seek to acquire control of the Company and/or to nominate himself for election to the Issuer's board of directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Issuer.

Mr. Bregman does not have any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, except as set forth herein. Depending on various factors, including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and investment strategy, the price levels of the Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, Mr. Bregman may in the future take such actions with respect to his investment in the Issuer he deems appropriate, including, without limitation, purchasing additional shares of Common Stock, selling some of all of his shares of Common Stock or changing his intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Item 5 are hereby amended as follows:

(a) and (b) As of August 19, 2004, Mr. Bregman beneficially owns 175,000 shares of Common Stock. Mr. Bregman has the sole power to vote and dispose of all such shares. Such shares constitute approximately 5.59% of the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding. The percentage of the outstanding Common Stock set forth above is based on 3,130,944 shares of Common Stock reported as outstanding as of August 13, 2004 by the Issuer on its Form 10-QSB for the quarter ended June 30, 2004, filed with the SEC on August 17, 2004.

(c) The following table sets forth the purchase of Common Stock of the Issuer (totaling 7,500 shares) made by Mr. Bregman from June 19, 2004 through August 19, 2004. All such sales were made in open market transactions on the American Stock Exchange:

Mr. Mason N. Carter
Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer
Merrimac Industries, Inc.
41 Fairfield Place
West Caldwell, New Jersey 07006

Dear Mr. Carter:

As you know, I am the beneficial owner of over 5% of the stock of Merrimac Industries, Inc. (the "Company"). Despite my efforts to increase my involvement with the Company, I have been disappointed by the failure of the Company's management and its board of directors (the "Board") to act in the best interests of the Company's stockholders and to allow me to use my experience and industry contacts to assist the Company.

In a constructive effort to assist the Company's management, I arranged for, and accompanied the Company's management on a business development trip to Israel to meet with potential customers. I believe the trip was very successful and created good will and real revenue potential. However, since our return, the Company has done virtually nothing to keep me informed about progress made nor did it attempt to take advantage of my offer to arrange similar meetings with U.S.-based potential customers.

I have specifically offered to assist the Company by becoming a member of its Board, a well-justified proposal in view of my significant holding and relevant background from financial and business development perspectives. If this was not acceptable for some reason, I was willing to act as a consultant to the Company (with whatever reasonable compensation might be agreed upon between us). I have coupled these offers with a willingness to enter into a standstill agreement in order to assure the Company that my intentions were clearly to be a positive force. I have offered to purchase additional shares from the company or enter a relationship that involves the award of warrants. I have agreed to enter into an agreement to hold any material non-public information in confidence in order to assure the Company that it would not run afoul of SEC restrictions. All of these offers have been rebuffed.

I am hard pressed to understand why the Company's Board has not pursued these avenues further. While the Company's financial performance has improved considerably in recent quarters, I believe its stock remains dramatically undervalued in the financial marketplace. Every effort I have made to formalize my relationship with the Company has failed to be answered in a constructive manner.

I propose that the Board immediately appoint a special committee of disinterested directors to engage a qualified investment banker to evaluate the Company's strategic alternatives and seek to effect a transaction that will maximize shareholder value. If ignored again, I will be forced to take steps aimed at shifting control of the Company to stewards who will be open to broader horizons than those targeted by the Company's current management and Board. I have had preliminary discussions with several investment banks and strategic partners and will consider forming a group to seek to acquire control of the Company. I am also considering soliciting proxies from the Company's stockholders for my election to the Board. I feel that these are steps that I will be forced to undertake to ensure a fair return on the investments made by the Company's stockholders.

Edgar Filing: BREGMAN LIOR - Form SC 13D/A

I hope that you will take this letter as a call to action rather than as a threat. My intention remains to work with Company if it is seeking the future that I believe is available to it. However, if my pleas continue to fall on deaf ears, I will be forced to act to compel a change.

I have recently acquired additional shares of the Company and will be amending my Schedule 13D to reflect these purchases, as well as my intentions, as expressed in this letter. Please address any correspondence to me at 10 Sinclair Terrace, Short Hills, New Jersey 07079, telephone (973) 467-5021, facsimile (973) 467-9223, with a copy to my counsel, Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, 919 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Richard H. Gilden, telephone (212) 715-9486, facsimile (212) 715-8085.

I look forward to your prompt response.

Best regards,

/s/ Lior Bregman
