(2) Payable following execution of all definitive documentation for the purchase of the relevant vessel.

The Company further disclosed today that under the terms of its new $1.4 billion credit facility announced yesterday, subject to certain capital tests, the Company expects to pay up to $6,250,000 or such lesser amount as is available from net cash flow each fiscal quarter to reduce borrowings under the facility. Such payment is to be made within one business day after completion of payment of dividends declared for that quarter. The credit facility is subject to the completion of definitive documentation.

“Safe Harbor” Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

The information set forth in this Item 7.01 contains forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and observations. Included among the factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward looking statements contained in the Exhibit are the following: (i) execution of additional definitive documentation for the Company’s agreement to acquire the nine drybulk vessels; (ii) execution of definitive documentation for the Company’s new $1.4 billion credit facility; (iii) the fulfillment of the closing conditions under the Company's agreement to acquire the nine drybulk vessels; and other factors listed from time to time in our public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission including, without limitation, the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, its Quarterly Reports on 10-Q, and its reports on Form 8-K.
