Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws;
Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 18, 2009, the Board of Directors of Noble Roman's, Inc. (the "Company") adopted amended and restated By-laws of the Company.

The Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Company contained the following amendments:

- o The By-laws previously provided that the President of the Company had the authority to take certain actions, including determining the time and place of shareholder and Board of Director meetings, calling special shareholder and Board of Director meetings, assigning powers and duties of officers, and signing stock certificates and other documents on behalf of the Company. The Amended and Restated By-Laws provide that in addition to the President, these actions may be taken by the Chief Executive Officer.

- o The By-laws previously provided that shareholders representing at least fifty percent of the votes entitled to be cast on an issue could call a special meeting of the shareholders to consider the issue. The Amended and Restated By-Laws provide that shareholders may only call a special meeting to consider an issue if shareholders representing at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the issue request the meeting.
- o The Amended and Restated By-laws added provisions permitting electronic transmission of notices to shareholders and delivery of a single notice to shareholders that share a common address if certain procedures are followed.
- o The Amended and Restated By-laws added provisions detailing the procedures for the conduct of shareholder meetings. Among other items, these provisions set forth who will preside at shareholder meetings, the procedures for conducting votes at shareholder meetings, which items may be properly brought before a meeting, the procedures that shareholders must follow in order for a shareholder proposal to be considered at a meeting, the information that a shareholder must provide to the Company in connection with any shareholder proposal, the deadlines within which shareholder proposals must be received in order to be considered at a meeting, and the conditions under which a shareholder proposal may be included in a proxy statement prepared by the Company.
- o The Amended and Restated By-laws added provisions detailing the procedures for shareholder nominations of individuals to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. Among other items, these provisions set forth the procedures that shareholders must follow in order for a shareholder nominee to be considered at a meeting, the information that a shareholder must provide to the Company with respect to itself and the nominee, and the deadlines within which a shareholder nomination must be received in order to be considered at a meeting.
- o The Amended and Restated By-laws added provisions clarifying the methods by which a proxy may be executed and transmitted. The amendments update the proxy provision to conform to current Indiana law.
- o The Amended and Restated By-laws provide for the Board of Directors to be classified into three classes of directors. The directors of each class of directors will serve for three-year terms with one-third of the directors up for election each year. The Board of Directors adopted these amendments to conform to recent changes in Indiana law.
- o The By-laws of the Company previously provided that all holders of shares of the capital stock of the Company were entitled to a certificate representing such shares. The By-laws were amended to permit the Company to issue uncertificated shares. This change will make the Company's stock eligible for participation in a direct registration system. The amendment and restatement also clarified the procedures for handling uncertificated shares and made other conforming changes throughout the By-laws.

- o The Amended and Restated By-Laws added a provision clarifying the procedures that apply to shareholder requests for inspection of the Company's records and the Company's ability to impose reasonable rules regarding such inspections, including imposing a condition that the shareholder execute a confidentiality agreement, to protect the interests of the Company and its shareholders.
- o Certain other unrelated non-material changes were also included in the amendment and restatement.
