(5) Mr. Burdick and Ms. Davidson will be eligible to participate in FHNC's active compensation plans and programs for non-employee directors. Additional information concerning FHNC's plans and programs for non-employee directors is provided in the following previously-filed material, which is incorporated into this item by reference: the "Director Compensation" section of FHNC's proxy statement for the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders appearing on pages 80-84; sections of FHNC's Director Policy pertaining to compensation, filed as Exhibit 10.4 to FHNC's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2017; and a description of other compensation and benefit arrangements for non-employee directors, filed as Exhibit 10.8(b) to FHNC's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2009.

ITEM 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

FHNC's Board of Directors amended FHNC's Bylaws as discussed below. Each amendment took effect immediately upon its related action by the Board. The amended and restated Bylaws are filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1.

Amendment of Bylaws—Board Size

On January 28, 2019, the Board of Directors amended Section 3.2 of FHNC's Bylaws. The amendment to Section 3.2 increased the size of FHNC's Board of Directors, from twelve to fourteen persons, in order to accommodate the election of two additional directors as discussed in Item 5.02(d) above.

Amendment of Bylaws—Proxy Access

On January 29, 2019, the Board of Directors amended Section 3.6 (procedures for director nominations) and added a new Section 3.16 (shareholder nominations included in FHNC's proxy materials) to FHNC's Bylaws, creating a new process for a shareholder to nominate a person for election to the Board in advance of an annual meeting and for FHNC to include that nomination in its annual meeting proxy statement. The Board also amended Section 2.8 (procedures for bringing business before a shareholder meeting) to accommodate amended Section 3.6 and new Section 3.16.

The amendments to Section 3.6(a) added a third process for nominating a person for election to FHNC's Board of Directors at an annual meeting of shareholders. Specifically, beginning with the annual meeting to be held in 2020:

- (a) a shareholder or group of up to 20 shareholders
- (b) that has held at least 3% of FHNC's common stock
- (c) for at least three years
- (d) may nominate up to the greater of two directors or 20% of the Board and have those nominees appear in FHNC's proxy statement, subject to the eligibility, notice, and other specific requirements in new Section 3.16 of FHNC's Bylaws.

In addition, the amendments to Section 3.6(b) clarified that FHNC may require any proposed nominee (no matter how nominated) to furnish to FHNC information needed to determine independence or needed to comply with applicable law. Other amendments technically conformed Section 3.6 to the amendments discussed in this paragraph, or to the provisions of new Section 3.16.

New Section 3.16 requires FHNC to include in its annual meeting proxy statement (starting in 2020) a nomination for the Board of Directors, including various specified disclosures, if the nomination is timely made by an eligible nominating shareholder (as defined in Section 3.16) in conformity with the requirements of Section 3.16, using a nomination notice also in conformity with that Section. To be eligible to become a nominating shareholder, a person: (1) must own of record at least 3% of FHNC's outstanding common shares continuously for at least the three-year period preceding and including the submission date of the nomination notice and for the additional period from the submission date through the annual meeting date; or (2) must timely provide to FHNC's Secretary evidence of such ownership through intermediaries (such as brokerage firms), which evidence is acceptable to FHNC as provided in Section 3.16. Certain disclosures and representations to FHNC, and certain agreements with FHNC, must be timely made in accordance with Section 3.16 in order for the nomination to be compliant and effective. Among other things, Section 3.16 contains provisions relating to: the time periods during which a nomination notice and other key communications will be considered timely; the minimum required contents that a nomination notice must have to be compliant with Section 3.16, including certain disclosures, representations, and agreements; required and permitted supplemental disclosures to FHNC, some or all of which may be included in the proxy statement; limits on the number of nominations permitted in various circumstances, both per nominating shareholder and in total among all nominating shareholders; the ability of two or more shareholders to make a nomination as a group; the definition of “owns” and other key terms; and, a recitation of circumstances, in addition to non-compliance with Section 3.6 and 3.16, under which FHNC may reject a nomination and/or omit the nomination from its proxy statement. Section 3.16 refers to several disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Rule 14a-9 and Schedule 14N, which should be read in conjunction with Bylaw Sections 3.6 and 3.16.

The amendments to Section 2.8 clarify that it does not govern director nominations, which are governed by Sections 3.6 and 3.16.

Amendment of Bylaws—Technical

On January 29, 2019, the Board of Directors amended Section 2.9 of FHNC’s Bylaws, adding “SEC” as a defined term in reference to the Securities and Exchange Commission.
