CELLCOM ISRAEL ANNOUNCES APPROVAL OF CONTROL
TRANSFER; AMENDMENT TO CELLULAR LICENSE AND CHANGE IN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NETANYA, Israel, January 30, 2017 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (the “Company”) announced today that the Israeli Ministry of Communications approved the previously reported transfer of control in IDB Development Corporation Ltd. to corporations controlled by Mr. Elsztain. In addition the Israeli Ministry of Communications amended the Company's cellular license so as to: (1) reduce the percentage that Israeli citizens and residents from among the Company's founding shareholders must hold to at least 5% of the Company's outstanding shares and other means of control and an extension period (subject to certain requirements and ending July 2017) in order for the Company's controlling shareholder to comply with the updated provision; and (2) reduce the percentage of directors that must be appointed by Israeli citizens and residents among the Company's founding shareholders to 10%.

Following the completion of such amendments, the previously reported appointment of Mr. Mauricio Wior as the Company's Vice Chairman and member of the board of directors came into effect and Mr. Ari Bronshtein resigned from his office as member of the Company's board of directors.

For additional details see the Company's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2015, dated March 21, 2016, on Form 20-F, under “Item 3. Key Information – D. Risk Factors - Risks Related to our Business – There are certain restrictions in our licenses relating to the ownership of our shares. As a result of a change in control of IDB, we are currently not in compliance with the terms of our licenses” and “Item 4. Information on the Company – B. Business Overview – Government Regulations – Our Principle License” and “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees – A. Directors and Senior Management” and the Company's current report on Form 6-K dated November 14, 2016 under “Other developments during the third quarter of 2016 and subsequent to the end of the reporting period –Director Nomination”.
