Execution of a $30,000,000 Credit Agreement

On August 27, 2010, American Oil & Gas Inc. (the Company ) entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement ) with the Hess Corporation (Hess ) in connection with the July 27, 2010 Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) by and between the Company, Hess and Hess Investment Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hess. Pursuant to the Credit Agreement, Hess has agreed to provide the Company a senior secured revolving credit facility pursuant to which Hess may make loans (each, a Loan ) to the Company in an aggregate amount not to exceed at any time $30,000,000 between August 27, 2010 and the earliest of (i) February 28, 2011, (ii) the date on which any Termination Fee (as defined in the Merger Agreement) is payable by the Borrower in accordance with Section 8.3 of the Merger Agreement, (iii) the date on which any Expense Reimbursement (as defined in the Merger Agreement) is payable pursuant to Section 8.3(c)(iii) of the Merger Agreement as a result of a willful breach of the Merger Agreement, (iv) the date occurring 90 days after the date of termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1 thereof and (v) the date that is five Business Days after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement). Each Loan may be made only on the first and the fifteenth day of any month, shall be in a principal amount of $250,000 or a whole multiple of $50,000 in excess thereof, and shall be due and payable to Hess thirty days after the borrowing of such Loan. Each Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount at the reserve adjusted one-month LIBOR Rate plus an initial margin of 3.00% per annum. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement, the margin rate adjusts proportionately to 3.50% on the date of termination, to 4.00% thirty days after the termination date, and to 4.50% sixty days after the termination date. The Loans and commitments outstanding under the Credit Agreement may be prepaid in whole or in part without premium or penalty other than LIBOR breakage costs. The Credit Agreement contains customary mandatory prepayment requirements with respect to asset sales, issuance of debt and equity and receipt of insurance proceeds. The Credit Agreement also has customary representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and Events of Default, as well as customary conditions precedent to the extensions of credit.

The obligations owing pursuant to the Credit Agreement shall be secured by a perfected security interest on all existing and after-acquired property (tangible and intangible) of the Company, including without limitation, all accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, intellectual property, cash, deposit accounts (other than payroll accounts and any deposit account that has a principal balance less than $200,000) and other personal property, all real property, whether owned or leased, including all oil and gas interests (but excluding the Company's oil and gas properties located in Wyoming and South Dakota), and a pledge of the capital stock of the Company's subsidiaries. The Company entered into the Security Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.2 hereto and the Mortgage, Security Agreement, Financing Statement and Assignment of Production attached as Exhibit 2.3 hereto to grant the security interests described above. In addition, on a post-closing basis, the Company will execute a springing Deposit Account Control Agreement with Hess and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association to grant Hess a security interest in its operating account and savings account.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, the Company will be obligated to pay Hess a facility fee equal to 1.00% per annum (or 0.50% per annum if the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company because of a breach of the Agreement by Hess) of the aggregate principal amount of the commitments under the Credit Agreement. In addition, in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated, commitment fees in the amount of 0.75% times the daily average unused portion of the Credit Agreement shall accrue from the date of termination.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from any Loan borrowed pursuant to the Credit Agreement to help finance the Company's planned exploration and production activities and other working capital needs through the closing date of the Merger Agreement.
