INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 4, 2006, Sterling Financial Corporation, a Washington corporation ( Sterling ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with FirstBank NW Corp., a Washington corporation ( FirstBank ). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, FirstBank will be merged with and into Sterling, with Sterling being the surviving corporation in the merger. The Merger Agreement also provides for the merger of FirstBank s financial institution subsidiary, FirstBank Northwest, with and into Sterling s financial institution subsidiary, Sterling Savings Bank, with Sterling Savings Bank being the surviving institution.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, each share of FirstBank common stock will be converted into 0.789 shares of Sterling common stock and $2.55 in cash, subject to certain conditions. Based upon the closing price for Sterling s common stock on June 2, 2006, of $31.19 per share, the consideration is equivalent to $27.16 per share of FirstBank common stock. Outstanding options to purchase shares of FirstBank common stock will be assumed and converted into options to purchase Sterling common stock. The transaction, which is valued at approximately $169.6 million, is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2006, pending FirstBank shareholder and regulatory approval, and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. The parties have agreed to pay termination fees in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain conditions. All of the directors and certain officers of FirstBank have entered into voting agreements pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction.

Additional Information And Where To Find It

Sterling intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement on Form S-4, and FirstBank expects to mail a proxy statement/prospectus to its security holders, containing information about the transaction. Investors and security holders of Sterling and FirstBank are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials when they become available because they will contain important information about Sterling, FirstBank and the proposed merger. In addition to the registration statement to be filed by Sterling and the proxy statement/prospectus to be mailed to the security holders of FirstBank, Sterling and FirstBank file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents (when they become available) and any other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at its website at www.sec.gov. The documents filed by Sterling, may also be obtained free of charge from Sterling by requesting them in writing at Sterling Financial Corporation, 111 North Wall Street, Spokane, WA 99201, or by telephone at (509) 227-5389. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Sterling on its website at www.sterlingfinancialcorporation-spokane.com. The documents filed by FirstBank may also be obtained by requesting them in writing at FirstBank NW Corp., 1300 16th Avenue, Clarkston, WA 99403 or by telephone at (509) 295-5100. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by FirstBank on its website at www.fbnw.com.

Sterling, FirstBank and their respective officers and directors may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the security holders of FirstBank NW with respect to the transactions contemplated by the proposed merger. Information regarding Sterling s officers and directors is included in Sterling s proxy statement for its 2006 annual meeting of shareholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 24, 2006. Information regarding FirstBank s officers and directors is included in FirstBank s proxy statement for its 2005 annual meeting of shareholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 17, 2005. A description of the interests of the directors and executive officers of Sterling and FirstBank in the merger will be set forth in FirstBank s proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission when they become available.

This Form 8-K and the Exhibits hereto may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about: (i) the benefits of the merger between Sterling and FirstBank, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) Sterling's or FirstBank's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates or words of similar meaning generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the management of Sterling and FirstBank and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements because of numerous possible uncertainties.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of Sterling and FirstBank may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer, be more difficult, time-consuming or costly to accomplish than expected; (2) the expected growth opportunities and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (3) operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (4) governmental approvals of the merger may not be obtained, or adverse regulatory conditions may be imposed in connection with governmental approvals of the merger; (5) the shareholders of FirstBank may fail to approve the merger; (6) adverse governmental or regulatory policies may be enacted; (7) the interest rate environment may further compress margins and adversely affect net interest income; (8) results may be adversely affected by continued diversification of assets and adverse changes to credit quality; (9) competition from other financial services companies in Sterling's and FirstBank's markets could adversely affect operations; and (10) an economic slowdown could adversely affect credit quality and loan originations. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Sterling's and FirstBank's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

Sterling cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Sterling or any person acting on Sterling's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Sterling does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.
