PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Despite diligent efforts, the work necessary to complete the accounting and reporting of income taxes for certain complex transactions and an assessment of our accounting for planned major maintenance activities could not be completed without unreasonable expense and effort in sufficient time to permit filing our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 24, 2006 on the scheduled due date of November 4, 2006. Specifically, the accounting and reporting of income taxes related to the sale of the aluminum suspension components business, additional analysis of our accounting for planned major maintenance activities in interim reporting periods and other post-closing procedures have required additional time and effort.

The Company expects that it will be able to complete the remaining work described above in time for the Company to file its Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 24, 2006 within the five-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.
