INTERVOICE-BRITE, INC.

COMMON STOCK

This document relates to an aggregate of 7,600,000 shares of common stock of InterVoice-Brite, Inc. that may be offered and sold from time to time by various shareholders listed on page 10, whom we collectively refer to in this document as the "selling shareholders." Information on the selling shareholders and the times and manner in which they may offer and sell shares of our common stock under this document is provided under "Selling Shareholders" and "Plan of Distribution."

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of our common stock by the selling shareholders. We will, however, bear all expenses in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document forms a part, except that the selling shareholders will pay the fees and expenses of their legal and professional advisors and all underwriting discounts and commissions.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "INTV." On June 24, 2002, the last reported sale price of our common stock on the Nasdaq National Market was $2.59 per share.

SEE "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 1 TO READ ABOUT CERTAIN RISKS THAT YOU SHOULD CONSIDER BEFORE ACQUIRING ANY OF THE COMMON STOCK BEING OFFERED BY THE SELLING SHAREHOLDERS.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR DETERMINED IF THIS DOCUMENT IS TRUTHFUL OR COMPLETE. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

THE DATE OF THIS PROSPECTUS IS JUNE 27, 2002.

RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to acquire any common stock in connection with this offering, and when you evaluate our performance and the forward-looking statements in this document, you should carefully consider the following risk factors, as well as the other information contained in this prospectus.

WE HAVE EXPERIENCED RECENT OPERATING LOSSES AND MAY NOT OPERATE PROFITABLY IN THE FUTURE.

We incurred net losses of approximately $44.7 million in fiscal 2002, $2.3 million in fiscal 2001 and $14.8 million in fiscal 2000. For the first quarter of fiscal 2003, we incurred a net loss of $24.5 million. Factors affecting our first quarter 2003 results included:

- o approximately $2.6 million in special charges associated with strategic actions;
- o approximately $0.4 million in special charges related to the write off of previous debt issuance costs;
- o a $15.8 million non-cash, special charge resulting from goodwill impairment as a result of our required adoption of Statements of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 141 and 142 (See our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2002 for a description of how Statements of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 141 and 142 pertain to us); and
- o a one time tax benefit of $5.7 million, offset by a $1.4 million

addition to our tax valuation allowance, related to changes in federal tax law.

We may continue to incur losses, which could hinder our ability to operate our current business. We cannot provide assurances that we will be able to generate sufficient revenues from our operations to achieve or sustain profitability in the future.

GENERAL BUSINESS ACTIVITY HAS DECLINED.

Our sales are largely dependant on the strength of the domestic and international economies and, in particular, on demand for telecommunications equipment, computers, software and other technology products. The market for telecommunications equipment has declined sharply, and the markets for computers, software and other technology products also have declined. In addition, there is increased concern that demand for the types of products we offer will further soften as a result of domestic and global economic and political conditions following the attacks by terrorists on September 11, 2001.

IN RECENT QUARTERS, WE HAVE FALLEN SHORT OF OUR SALES AND EARNINGS EXPECTATIONS.

Many of our transactions are completed in the same fiscal quarter as ordered. The size and timing of some transactions have historically caused sales fluctuations from quarter to quarter. While in the past the impact of these fluctuations was mitigated to some extent by the geographic and vertical market diversification of our existing and prospective customers, we have become increasingly prone to quarterly sales fluctuations because of our sales to the enhanced telecommunications services systems market. The quantity and size of large sales, which we value at approximately $2.0 million or more, during any quarter can cause wide variations in our quarterly sales and earnings, as such sales are unevenly distributed throughout the fiscal year. Our accuracy in estimating future sales is largely dependant on our ability to successfully qualify, estimate and close system sales during a quarter. Our systems sales and, as a result, our total sales during recent quarters have fallen short of guidance we publicly provided. As a result, we did not provide sales and earnings guidance for the first quarter of fiscal 2003.

WE ARE SUBJECT TO POTENTIAL AND PENDING LAWSUITS AND OTHER CLAIMS.

We are subject to certain potential and pending lawsuits and other claims that we discuss in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and other SEC filings. We believe that each of the potential and pending lawsuits and other claims to which we are subject is without merit and intend to defend each matter vigorously. There can be no assurances, however, that we will prevail in any or all of the litigation or other matters. An adverse judgment in any of these matters, as well as our expenses relating to the defense of a given matter, could have consequences materially adverse to us.

WE FACE INTENSE COMPETITION BASED ON PRODUCT CAPABILITIES AND EXPERIENCE EVER INCREASING DEMANDS FROM OUR ACTUAL AND PROSPECTIVE CUSTOMERS FOR OUR PRODUCTS TO BE COMPATIBLE WITH A VARIETY OF RAPIDLY PROLIFERATING COMPUTING, TELEPHONY AND COMPUTER NETWORKING TECHNOLOGIES AND STANDARDS.

The ultimate success of our products is dependent, to a large degree, on our allocating our resources to developing and improving products compatible with those technologies, standards and functionalities that ultimately become widely accepted by our actual and prospective customers. Our success is also dependent, to a large degree, on our ability to implement arrangements with other vendors with complementary product offerings to provide actual and prospective customers greater functionality and to ensure that our products are compatible with the increased variety of technologies and standards. The principal competitors for our ESD systems are AVAYA, IBM and Nortel Networks; the principal competitors for our NSD systems are Comverse Technology, Ericsson, Lucent Technologies and UNISYS. Many of our competitors have greater financial, technological and marketing resources than we have. Although we have committed substantial resources to enhance our existing products and to develop and market new products, there is no assurance that we will be successful.

WE MAY NOT BE ABLE TO RETAIN OUR CUSTOMER BASE AND, IN PARTICULAR, OUR MORE SIGNIFICANT CUSTOMERS, SUCH AS BRITISH TELECOM.

Our success depends substantially on retaining our significant customers. The loss of one of our significant customers could negatively impact our results of operations. Our installed base of customers generally is not contractually obligated to place further systems orders with us or to extend their services contracts with us at the expiration of their current contracts. Moreover, we have phased out a number of Brite products and have attempted to migrate Brite customers over to our own functionally similar products, but there can be no assurance that we will be able to maintain Brite's customer base. Sales to British Telecom and its affiliates, which purchase both systems and managed services from us, accounted for approximately 15% of our total sales during fiscal 2002, 19% in fiscal 2001 and 16% in fiscal 2000. Under the terms of our managed services contract with BT Cellnet and at exchange rates in effect at June 24, 2002, we will recognize revenues of approximately $0.9 million per month through July 2003, down from a fiscal 2002 high of approximately $2.6 million per month. The amounts received under the agreement may vary based on future changes in the exchange rate between the dollar and the British pound.

OUR RELIANCE ON SIGNIFICANT VENDOR RELATIONSHIPS COULD RESULT IN SIGNIFICANT EXPENSE OR INABILITY TO SERVE OUR CUSTOMERS IF WE LOSE THESE RELATIONSHIPS.

Although we generally use standard parts and components for our products, some of our components, including semi-conductors and, in particular, digital signal processors manufactured by Texas Instruments and AT&T Corp., are available only from a small number of vendors. Likewise, we license speech recognition technology from a small number of vendors. To date, we have been able to obtain adequate supplies of needed components and licenses in a timely manner. If our significant vendors are unable or cease to supply components or licenses at current levels, we may not be able to obtain these items from another source. Consequently, we would be unable to provide products and to service our customers, which would negatively impact our business and operating results.

OUR INABILITY TO PROTECT OUR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AGAINST INFRINGEMENT AND INFRINGEMENT CLAIMS COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT OUR BUSINESS.

The protection of our patent, copyright, trademark and other proprietary rights in our products and technologies is critical to the continued success of our business. Although our proprietary rights are protected by a combination of intellectual property laws, nondisclosure safeguards and license agreements, it is technologically possible for our competitors to copy aspects of our products in violation of these protected rights. Moreover, it may be possible for competitors to provide products and technologies competitive to ours without violating our protected rights. Even in cases where patents protect aspects of our technology, the detection and policing of the unauthorized use of the patented technology is difficult. Further, judicial enforcement of patents, trademarks and copyrights may be uncertain, particularly in foreign countries. Unauthorized use of our proprietary technology by our competitors could negatively impact our business, operating results and financial condition.

IF THIRD PARTIES ASSERT CLAIMS THAT OUR PRODUCTS OR SERVICES INFRINGE ON THEIR TECHNOLOGY AND RELATED INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, WHETHER THE CLAIMS ARE MADE DIRECTLY AGAINST US OR AGAINST OUR CUSTOMERS, WE COULD INCUR SUBSTANTIAL COSTS TO DEFEND THESE CLAIMS.

If any of these claims is ultimately successful, a third party could require us to pay substantial damages, discontinue the use and sale of infringing products, expend significant resources to acquire non-infringing alternatives, and/or obtain licenses to use the infringed intellectual property rights. Moreover, where the claims are asserted with respect to our customers, additional expenses may be involved in indemnifying the customer and/or designing and providing non-infringing products.

WE ARE EXPOSED TO RISKS RELATED TO OUR INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS THAT COULD INCREASE OUR COSTS AND HURT OUR BUSINESS.

Our products are currently sold in more than 75 countries. Our international sales, as a percentage of our total sales, were 44% in fiscal 2002, 48% in fiscal 2001 and 45% in fiscal 2000. International sales are subject to certain risks, including:

- o fluctuations in currency exchange rates;
- o the difficulty and expense of maintaining foreign offices and distribution channels;
- o tariffs and other barriers to trade;
- o greater difficulty in protecting and enforcing intellectual property rights;
- o general economic conditions in each country;
- o loss of revenue, property and equipment from expropriation;
- o import and export licensing requirements; and
- o additional expenses and risks inherent in conducting operations in geographically distant locations, including risks arising from customers speaking different languages and having different cultural approaches to the conduct of business.

OUR INABILITY TO PROPERLY ESTIMATE COSTS UNDER FIXED PRICE CONTRACTS COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT OUR PROFITABILITY.

Some of our contracts to develop application software and customize systems provide for the customer to pay a fixed price for our products and services regardless of whether our costs to perform under the contract exceed the amount of the fixed price. If we are unable to estimate accurately the amount of future costs under these fixed price contracts, or if unforeseen additional costs must be incurred to perform under these contracts, our ability to operate profitably under these contracts will be adversely affected. Many of our contracts, particularly for managed services, foreign contracts and contracts with telecommunication companies, include provisions for the assessment of liquidated damages for our delayed performance. Since our projects frequently require a significant degree of customization, it is difficult for us to predict when we will complete such projects. Accordingly, we have had to pay liquidated damages in the past and may have to pay additional liquidated damages in the future. Any such future liquidated damages could be significant.

INCREASING CONSOLIDATION IN THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND FINANCIAL INDUSTRIES COULD AFFECT OUR REVENUES AND PROFITABILITY.

Several of our significant customers are in the telecommunications and financial industries, which are undergoing increasing consolidation as a result of merger and acquisition activity. This activity involving our significant customers could decrease the number of customers purchasing our products and/or delay purchases of our products by customers that are in the process of reviewing their strategic alternatives in light of a pending merger or acquisition. If we have fewer customers or our customers delay purchases of our products as a result of merger and acquisition activity, our revenues could decline.

GOVERNMENT ACTION AND, IN PARTICULAR, ACTION WITH RESPECT TO THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1996 REGULATING THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS INDUSTRY COULD HAVE A NEGATIVE IMPACT ON OUR BUSINESS.

Future growth in the markets for our products will depend in part on privatization and deregulation of certain telecommunication markets worldwide. Any reversal or slowdown in the pace of this privatization or deregulation could negatively impact the markets for our products. Moreover, the consequences of deregulation are subject to many uncertainties, including judicial and administrative proceedings that affect the pace at which the changes contemplated by deregulation occur, and other regulatory, economic and political factors. Any invalidation, repeal or modification of the requirements imposed by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, the uncertainties associated with deregulation could cause our customers to delay purchasing decisions pending the resolution of such uncertainties.

SIGNIFICANT MARKET FLUCTUATIONS COULD AFFECT THE PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK.

Extreme price and volume trading volatility in the U.S. stock market has had a substantial effect on the market prices of securities of many technology companies, frequently for reasons other than the operating performance of such companies. These broad market fluctuations could adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

OUR ISSUANCE OF THE CONVERTIBLE NOTES AND WARRANTS COULD SUBSTANTIALLY DILUTE THE INTERESTS OF SHAREHOLDERS.

The $10.0 million in convertible notes we issued in May 2002 are convertible by the holders into shares of our common stock at any time prior to their maturity in June 2003 at a conversion price of $6.184, or 200% of the weighted average price of our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National

Edgar Filing: INTERVOICE BRITE INC - Form 424B3

Market on the date of issuance, subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, stock combinations and other similar transactions. Moreover, the conversion price of the convertible notes could be lowered, perhaps substantially, in a variety of circumstances, including:

- o our issuance of common stock below the convertible notes' conversion price, either directly or in connection with the issuance of most securities that are convertible into, or exercisable for, shares of our common stock;
- o our failure to comply with specific registration and listing obligations applicable to the common stock into which the convertible notes are convertible; and
- o our breaching other obligations to the holders of the convertible notes.

Correspondingly, we issued to the holders of convertible notes in May 2002 three-year warrants entitling the warrant holders to purchase an aggregate of 621,304 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $4.0238 per share. Both the number of warrants and the exercise price are subject to adjustments that could make them further dilutive to our shareholders. Neither the convertible notes nor the warrants establish a "floor" that would limit reductions in the conversion price of the convertible notes or the exercise price of the warrants that may occur under certain circumstances. Correspondingly, there is no "ceiling" on the number of shares that may be issuable under certain circumstances under the anti-dilution adjustments in the warrants.

WE ARE REQUIRED TO REPAY ANY OUTSTANDING LOANS UNDER OUR CURRENT CREDIT FACILITY BEFORE ANY INSTALLMENT OF PRINCIPAL ON THE CONVERTIBLE NOTES CAN BE PAID IN CASH. ANY REQUIRED PAYMENTS IN STOCK COULD BE DILUTIVE TO OUR SHAREHOLDERS. SUCH DILUTION COULD BE MADE WORSE BY THE NOTE AND WARRANT HOLDERS' HEDGING ACTIVITIES.

Our revolving credit facility contains a covenant prohibiting us from paying any installments on the convertible notes in cash at any time we have indebtedness outstanding under our credit facility. On June 19, 2002, we repaid the approximately $4.0 million of indebtedness then outstanding under our revolving credit facility. By paying off all remaining loans under the revolving credit facility, we have satisfied this covenant. Accordingly, and for so long as no new borrowings are outstanding under the credit facility, we may pay installments on the convertible notes in cash instead of common stock. However, if at any time there are borrowings outstanding under our credit facility, we will effectively be required to pay such installments on the convertible notes through a partial conversion of the convertible notes into shares of our common stock. The conversion price, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments, would be the lower of:

- o $6.184, representing 200% of the weighted average trading price for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on the issuance date; or

- o 95% of the average of the weighted average trading prices of our common stock during the time period to which the installment relates.

Since our inability to pay installments in cash would most likely occur when we are experiencing unsatisfactory operating results and lower trading prices for our common stock, the number of shares required to pay an installment in a partial conversion of the convertible notes could increase significantly, with the resultant dilution further depressing our stock price. In addition, to the extent the selling shareholders convert the convertible notes and then sell the shares of our common stock they receive upon conversion, our stock price may decrease due to the additional amount of shares available in the market. The subsequent sales of these shares could encourage short sales by our shareholders and others which could place further downward pressure on our stock price. Moreover, the note and warrant holders may hedge their positions in our stock by shorting our stock, which could further adversely affect the stock price. The effect of these activities on our stock price could increase the number of shares required to be issued on the next installment date.

OUR FAILURE TO SATISFY OUR REGISTRATION, LISTING AND OTHER OBLIGATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE COMMON STOCK UNDERLYING THE CONVERTIBLE NOTES AND THE WARRANTS COULD RESULT IN ADVERSE CONSEQUENCES, INCLUDING ACCELERATION OF THE CONVERTIBLE NOTES.

We are required to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement, of which this document forms a part, covering the resale of the common stock underlying the convertible notes and the warrants, until the earlier of the date the underlying common stock may be resold pursuant to rule 144(k) under the Securities Act of 1933 or the date on which the sale of all the underlying common stock is completed, subject to certain exceptions. We will be subject to various penalties for failing to meet our registration obligations and the related listing obligations for the underlying common stock, which include cash penalties and the forced redemption of the convertible notes at the greater of:

- o 125% of the principal amount, plus accrued interest at 6% per annum; or
- o the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion, multiplied by the weighted average price of our common stock on the trading day immediately preceding our registration or listing default.

If we are unable to issue common stock under the convertible notes or warrants because the amount issuable would exceed the number of shares that we are permitted to issue without shareholder approval under applicable Nasdaq National Market requirements (an aggregate number of shares equal to or in excess of 20% of our issued and outstanding shares), then we may be required to redeem the convertible notes at 100% of the principal plus accrued interest at 6.0%.

WE ARE OBLIGATED TO MAKE SIGNIFICANT PERIODIC PAYMENTS OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST UNDER OUR FINANCING INSTRUMENTS.

We have material amounts of indebtedness outstanding under:

- o a mortgage loan with Beal Bank, S.S.B. secured by our office

Edgar Filing: INTERVOICE BRITE INC - Form 424B3

facilities in Dallas, Texas; and

- o the convertible notes.

We are required to make periodic payments of interest on each of the above financial instruments and, in the case of the convertible notes, periodic payments of principal. We may, from time to time, have additional indebtedness outstanding under our revolving credit facility, which provides us a revolving credit line of up to $12.0 million. Additionally, we have the option to issue an additional $10 million of convertible notes, together with the accompanying warrants, through July 1, 2002. As of June 25, 2002 we do not expect to issue additional convertible notes. We are not in default under any of our existing financing instruments and believe we will have the resources to make all required principal and interest payments. If, however, we at any time default on any of our payment obligations or other obligations under any financing instrument, the creditors under the applicable instrument will have all rights available under the instrument, including acceleration, termination and, with respect to the credit facility and mortgage loan, enforcement of security interests. The financing instruments also have certain qualified cross-default provisions, particularly for acceleration of indebtedness under one of the other instruments. Under such circumstances, our cash position and liquidity would be severally impacted, and it is possible we would not be able to pay our debts as they come due.

OUR BUSINESS

InterVoice-Brite, Inc. is a technology leader in enhanced services for network service providers and automated and interactive information systems for enterprises. We have recently operated in two global divisions, each focusing on a separate market. Our Network Solutions Division, or NSD, provides products and services that are designed to create opportunities for network carriers and service providers to increase revenue through value-added service and reduce costs through automation. Our Enterprise Solutions Division, or ESD, provides automated customer service and communications systems that reduce costs and improve customer service levels through enabling accurate and efficient communications and transactions between an enterprise and its customers and business partners. In addition, NSD and ESD each provides a suite of professional services that supports its installed systems. Services provided include maintenance, implementation, and business and technical consulting services. To further leverage the strong return on investment afforded by our systems offerings, both divisions also offer enhanced communications solutions to network and enterprise customers on an outsourced basis as an Application Service Provider, or ASP.

On June 24, 2002 we announced that we had begun a process to effect an internal reorganization and consolidation to reduce expenses and to more efficiently and effectively manage the Company. We will be eliminating the NSD/ESD divisional structure and reducing our workforce by approximately 80 to 130 positions. Robert Ritchey, the President and General Manager of ESD, will transition to President of the Company; David W. Brandenburg will continue in his capacities as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

For the fiscal year ended February 28, 2002, we reported revenues of approximately $211.6 million, with systems sales representing approximately 60% of revenues and services sales representing approximately 40% of revenues.

RECENT FINANCING TRANSACTIONS AND OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The shares of InterVoice-Brite offered by the selling shareholders under this document have been or will be issued to the selling shareholders upon conversion of their convertible notes and exercise of their warrants. The convertible notes and warrants were issued by us in May 2002 as part of an overall financing transaction that consisted of the private placement of the convertible notes and warrants to the selling shareholders, a mortgage loan secured by our Dallas, Texas office facilities, the sale of our Wichita, Kansas facility and the repayment of approximately $26.0 million under our credit facility. Information about the selling shareholders is contained in this document under the caption "Selling Shareholders."

ISSUANCE OF NOTES AND WARRANTS

On May 29, 2002, we entered into a securities purchase agreement among us and the selling shareholders pursuant to which they agreed to purchase convertible notes, in an aggregate principal amount of $10.0 million, convertible into shares of our common stock, and warrants to purchase shares of our common stock. The following is a summary of certain terms of the convertible notes, the warrants and certain registration requirements

The convertible notes were issued on May 30, 2002. They have a term of 13 months and bear interest at the rate of 6% per year. Our obligation to pay principal and interest under the convertible notes begins September 1, 2002 and ends June 30, 2003. We may meet our payment obligations under the convertible notes in either cash or, through a partial conversion of the convertible notes, shares of our common stock, provided certain conditions are met. We also have the right under specified circumstances to make voluntary cash prepayments of any portion or all of the outstanding principal under the convertible notes. The selling shareholders have the right at any time to convert the convertible notes into shares of our common stock at a conversion price of $6.184, representing 200% of the volume weighted average price of our common stock at May 30, 2002, subject to adjustment. The convertible notes are initially convertible into 1,617,077 shares of our common stock, excluding accrued and unpaid interest. This number of conversion shares is subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of certain events described in the convertible notes.

The warrants were also issued on May 30, 2002. They may be exercised for a term of three years. The number of shares of our common stock initially issuable upon exercise of the warrants is 621,304 shares at an initial per share exercise price of $4.0238. Both the number of warrant shares and the exercise price are subject to adjustment from time to time upon the occurrence of certain events described in the warrants.

In connection with the issuance of the convertible notes and the warrants, we also entered into a registration rights agreement under which we are required to register 150% of the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible notes and all of the common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants, pursuant to applicable securities laws. We are further obligated to hold a meeting of shareholders on or before August 28, 2002 to vote on a proposal to approve, as required by the Nasdaq National Market, the potential issuance of shares, upon conversion of the convertible notes and exercise of the warrants, equal to or in excess of 20% of our issued and outstanding shares.

MORTGAGE LOAN

On May 29, 2002, we entered into a three-year mortgage loan on our Dallas, Texas office facilities for $14 million. Interest is payable monthly under the mortgage and will be computed at the greater of the prime rate of interest plus 2% or 10.5%. The entire principal amount is payable at the end of the mortgage term.

SALE OF WICHITA FACILITY

On May 31, 2002, we sold our Wichita, Kansas facility to a third party for approximately $2.0 million.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM FINANCING TRANSACTIONS AND CHANGES IN CREDIT FACILITY

These financing transactions were required, in part, because from February 28, 2002 through May 30, 2002, we had been operating under a temporary waiver of one of four financial covenants required by our credit facility. The waiver related to the fixed charge coverage ratio covenant. We had, however, timely made all payments required by the credit facility.

On May 30, 2002 we used the proceeds from the mortgage loan and convertible notes to extinguish our $22.5 million term loan and to repay a portion of the $7.5 million in borrowings under our revolving credit facility, reducing our total bank debt under the credit facility to approximately $6 million. Our lender group agreed to waive our breach of the fixed charge coverage ratio covenant under the credit agreement and agreed to continue to provide us with a revolving credit line of up to $12.0 million. The amount that we may borrow under the revolving credit line at any point in time will be determined by a borrowing base based on our U.S. accounts receivable plus our U.S. raw materials inventory. The revolving credit facility is cross-defaulted with the convertible notes, so that a default or the occurrence of certain other events under the convertible notes will be a default under the credit facility. On May 31, 2002, we used the proceeds from the sale of our Wichita, Kansas facility to further reduce our borrowings under our revolving credit facility to approximately $4.0 million. On June 19, 2002, we repaid the approximately $4.0 million of then outstanding indebtedness under our revolving credit facility. We intend to maintain our revolving credit facility for liquidity and working capital purposes.

ADDITIONAL POSSIBLE FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

Under the terms of the convertible notes issued on May 30, 2002, we are permitted to issue additional notes in a principal amount of up to $10.0 million on or before July 1, 2002. These convertible notes are required to be on substantially the same terms as, and may not be senior to, those convertible notes issued on May 30, 2002. Furthermore, these additional convertible notes may only be issued to persons reasonably acceptable to the selling shareholders. There can be no assurances that we will be able to issue additional convertible notes on such terms or in such amounts. As of June 25, 2002 we do not expect to issue additional convertible notes.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document, including the documents incorporated by reference, includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this document or the documents incorporated by reference that address activities, events or developments that we expect, project, believe or anticipate will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Although we believe the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct.

Our forward-looking statements may be affected by many factors, including the risks described in the "Risk Factors" section of this document and the "Risk Factors" and the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" sections of the documents incorporated by reference. Most of these factors are beyond our control. We caution you that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and that actual results or developments may differ materially from those projected in these statements. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement, and we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the common stock by the selling shareholders. We will, however, bear all expenses in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document forms a part, except that the selling shareholders will pay the fees and expenses of their legal and professional advisors and all underwriting discounts and commissions.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The selling shareholders listed below acquired convertible notes and warrants from us in May 2002 in a private placement. Under the related registration rights agreement, we agreed to register 150% of the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible notes and all of the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants.

The number of shares that may actually be sold by any selling shareholder will be determined by the selling shareholder. Because the selling shareholders may sell all, some or none of the shares of common stock that they hold, no estimate can be given as to the number of shares of common stock that will be held by the selling shareholders upon termination of the offering. Nevertheless, the convertible notes and warrants expressly prohibit any selling shareholder from converting any convertible notes or exercising any warrants to the extent such conversion or exercise would result in the selling shareholder holding in excess of 4.99% of our issued and outstanding shares following such conversion or exercise. The calculation of this percentage excludes the number of shares of common stock which would be issuable upon conversion of any convertible notes that have not been converted and upon exercise of any unexercised warrants beneficially owned by the selling shareholder and its affiliates. Even though no selling shareholder may convert its convertible notes or exercise its warrants if upon such conversion or exercise such selling shareholder, together with its affiliates, would beneficially own more than 4.99% of our outstanding common stock following such conversion or exercise, this restriction does not prevent a selling shareholder from selling a substantial number of shares in the market. By periodically selling shares into the market, an individual selling shareholder could eventually sell more than 4.99% of our common stock while never holding more than 4.99% at any specific time.

9

None of the selling shareholders have, or within the past three years have had, any position, office or other material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates, except as described in this document.

The table below sets forth the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling shareholders as of June 11, 2002.

Total	2,241,571	7,600,000

(1) The shares of common stock considered beneficially owned by each selling shareholder equal that number of shares of our common stock that such selling shareholder could acquire by converting its convertible notes at the initial conversion price of $6.184 per share, taking into account accrued but unpaid interest as of June 11, 2002, and by exercising the warrants. See "Risk Factors - Our issuance of the convertible notes and warrants could substantially dilute the interests of shareholders."

(2) The selling shareholders may sell up to 7,600,000 shares of our common stock under this document, despite having beneficial ownership equal to 2,241,571 shares as of June 11, 2002. As discussed in footnote (1) above, the selling shareholders may convert the convertible notes into shares of our common stock at any time at the initial conversion price of $6.184 per share, subject to certain adjustments. We may elect to satisfy our obligation to make payments under the convertible notes, and under certain circumstances we may be obligated to satisfy such obligations, by requiring partial conversions of the convertible notes into shares of our common stock. In addition to those circumstances where we do not have a sufficient amount of cash to make a required payment, our revolving credit facility prohibits us from paying any installments on the convertible notes in cash at any time we have indebtedness outstanding under our credit facility. Under such circumstances we will effectively be required to satisfy installments on the convertible notes through a partial conversion of the convertible notes into shares of our common stock. If such a partial conversion takes place, the conversion price, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments, would be the lower of:

Edgar Filing: INTERVOICE BRITE INC - Form 424B3

- o $6.184, representing 200% of the weighted average trading price for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on the issuance date; or
- o 95% of the average of the weighted average trading prices of our common stock during the time period to which the installment relates.

Therefore, as required by the registration rights agreement entered into among us and the selling shareholders, which requires us to register at least 100% of the shares of our common stock issuable on exercise of the warrants and 150% of the shares of our common stock underlying the convertible notes at the lower of the conversion prices discussed above, and based on the average of the weighted average trading prices of our common stock during the ten trading days ended June 24, 2002, the total number of shares of common stock covered by this document and which may be offered by the selling shareholders is 7,600,000 shares.

- (3) Promethean Asset Management, LLC, a New York limited liability company ("Promethean"), serves as investment manager to HFTP Investment L.L.C. ("HFTP"), Gaia Offshore Master Fund, Ltd. ("Gaia") and Caerus Fund Ltd. ("Caerus") and may be deemed to share beneficial ownership of the shares beneficially owned by HFTP, Gaia and Caerus. The ownership information for each of these three selling shareholders does not include the ownership information for the others. Promethean disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares beneficially owned by HFTP, Gaia and Caerus and each of HFTP, Gaia and Caerus disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares beneficially owned by the others. James F. O'Brien, Jr. indirectly controls Promethean. Mr. O'Brien disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares beneficially owned by Promethean, HFTP, Gaia and Caerus.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The common stock covered by this document may be sold from time to time by the selling shareholders, or by their donees, assignees, pledgees or successors-in-interest selling shares received after the date of this document, subject to certain restrictions, on any stock exchange, automated interdealer quotation system or other trading facility on which the shares are listed, quoted or traded, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The shares may be sold at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at fixed prices that may be changed or at prices otherwise negotiated. The common stock may be sold by one or more of the following methods, without limitation:

- o ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchases;
- o block trades in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- o purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its own account pursuant to this document;

- o an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of any stock exchange on which the shares are listed;
- o privately negotiated transactions;
- o short sales and through the settlement of short sales;
- o through the writing or settlement of put or call options, whether or not the options are listed on an options exchange, by means of the establishment or settlement of other hedging transactions, including forward sale transactions, and through the loan of the shares to brokers or dealers who are counterparties to hedging transactions, whereby such brokers or dealers may sell the shares so borrowed into the public market;
- o through the distribution of the shares by any selling shareholder to its partners, members, beneficiaries or shareholders;
- o one or more underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;
- o any combination of any of these methods of sale; and
- o any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling shareholders may also transfer the shares by gift. We do not know of any arrangements by the selling shareholders for the sale of any of the shares.

The selling shareholders may effect sales transactions by selling the common stock directly to purchasers or through or to brokers or dealers, and such brokers or dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders, and/or from the purchasers of the common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, or both, which compensation as to a particular broker or dealer might be in excess of customary commissions. Any brokers and dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in effecting sales of the shares. These brokers or dealers may act as principals, or as an agent of a selling shareholder. Broker-dealers may agree with a selling shareholder to sell a specified number of the shares at a stipulated price per share. If the broker-dealer is unable to sell shares acting as agent for a selling shareholder, it may purchase as principal any unsold shares at the stipulated price. Broker-dealers who acquire shares as principals may thereafter resell the shares from time to time in transactions on any stock exchange, automated interdealer quotation system or other trading facility on which the shares are then listed, quoted or traded at prices and on terms then prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the then-current market price or in negotiated transactions. Broker-dealers may use block transactions and sales to and through broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above.

Upon our being notified by a selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of any of the common stock offered hereby through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, to the extent required a prospectus supplement will be filed that will set forth the specific shares to be sold and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any underwriters or dealer-agents, any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from the selling shareholders and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers. In addition, upon our being notified that a donee or pledgee intends to sell more than 500 shares, if required a supplement to this prospectus will be filed.

Any of the shares covered by this document which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 may be sold under that rule rather than pursuant to this document.

We cannot assure you that the selling shareholders will sell any or all of the common stock offered by them under this document.

A selling shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, and the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with that selling shareholder, including, without limitation, in connection with distributions of the shares by those broker-dealers. A selling shareholder may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the shares offered hereby to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer those shares pursuant to this document, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction. In addition, a selling shareholder may, from time to time, sell the shares short, and, in those instances, this document may be delivered in connection with the short sales and the shares offered under this document may be used to cover short sales. A selling shareholder may also pledge the shares offered hereby to a broker-dealer or other financial institution, and, upon a default, the broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged shares pursuant to this document (if required, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

We will pay all fees and expenses incident to the preparation and filing of the registration statement and this document, including legal and accounting fees and expenses and any printing expenses, except for transfer taxes payable on the sale of the common stock and the fees and expenses of the selling shareholders' legal and professional advisors. All underwriting discounts and any selling commissions payable with respect to sales of the common stock will be paid by the selling shareholders. We will receive no part of the proceeds from sales of the common stock. We will keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of the date that the underlying common stock may be resold pursuant to rule 144(k) under the Securities Act of 1933 or the date on which the sale of all the underlying common stock is completed.

The selling shareholders and any broker-dealer acting in connection with the sale of the common stock offered hereby may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, in which event any discounts, concessions or commissions received by them, or any profit on resales of the common stock by them, may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act of 1933. We have advised the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M promulgated by the SEC may apply to their sales in the market and have informed them that they will be subject to the applicable prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. The selling shareholders may agree to indemnify any agent, broker or dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of our common stock against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933. We have agreed to indemnify the selling shareholders against certain liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 from sales of our common stock.
