NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2006
(Unaudited)

1. Organization and Description of Business

Ashford Hospitality Trust, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) is a self-advised real estate investment trust (REIT), which commenced operations on August 29, 2003 when it completed its initial public offering (IPO) and concurrently consummated certain other formation transactions, including the acquisition of six hotels (initial properties). The Company owns its lodging investments and conducts its business through Ashford Hospitality Limited Partnership, its operating partnership. Ashford OP General Partner LLC, its wholly-owned subsidiary, serves as the sole general partner of the Company's operating partnership.

The Company elected to be treated as a REIT for federal income tax purposes. As a result of limitations imposed on REITs related to operating hotel properties, each of the Company's hotel properties is leased or owned by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company that is treated as a taxable REIT subsidiary for federal income tax purposes (collectively, such subsidiaries are referred to as Ashford TRS). Ashford TRS then engages third-party or affiliated hotel management companies to operate the hotels under management contracts. Remington Lodging & Hospitality, L.P. (Remington Lodging), one of the Company's primary property managers, is beneficially wholly owned by Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., the Company's Chairman, and Mr. Montgomery J. Bennett, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. As of September 30, 2006, Remington Lodging managed 30 of the Company's 73 hotel properties while unaffiliated management companies managed the remaining 43 hotel properties.

As of September 30, 2006, 72,321,695 shares of common stock, 2,300,000 shares of Series A preferred stock, 7,447,865 shares of Series B preferred stock, and 14,133,571 units of limited partnership interest held by entities other than the Company were outstanding. During the nine months ended September 30, 2006, the Company completed the following transactions:

On January 25, 2006, the Company issued 12,107,623 shares of common stock in a follow-on public offering.

On March 28, 2006, the Company issued 642,557 shares of restricted common stock to its executive officers and certain employees of the Company and its affiliates.

On May 2, 2006, the Company issued 16,000 shares of common stock to its directors as compensation for serving on the Board of Directors through May 2007.

On July 13, 2006, the Company issued 3,814,842 units of limited partnership interest in connection with the acquisition of a hotel property.

On July 25, 2006, the Company issued 14,950,000 shares of common stock in a follow-on public offering.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2006, the Company issued 773,346 shares of common stock in exchange for 773,346 units of limited partnership interest.

As of September 30, 2006, the Company owned 73 hotel properties in 22 states with 12,963 rooms, an office building with nominal operations, and approximately $97.6 million of mezzanine or first-mortgage loans receivable.

2. Basis of Presentation

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) for interim financial information and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, these financial statements do not include certain information and disclosures required by GAAP for complete financial statements. However, in the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments and accruals, considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

In addition, the following items affect the Company's reporting comparability related to its consolidated financial statements:

The operations of the Company's hotels have historically been seasonal. This seasonality pattern causes fluctuations in the Company's operating results. Consequently, operating results for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2006.

Marriott International, Inc. (Marriott) manages 24 of the Company's properties. For these 24 Marriott-managed hotels, the fiscal year reflects twelve weeks of operations for the first three quarters of the year and sixteen weeks for the fourth quarter of the year. Therefore, in any given quarterly period, period-over-period results will have different ending dates. For these 24 Marriott-managed hotels, the third quarter of 2006 ended September 8th.

Certain previously reported amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and footnotes for the year ended December 31, 2005, included in the Company's Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 14, 2006. The accounting policies used in preparing these consolidated financial statements are consistent with those described in such Form 10-K.

Table of Contents3. Significant Accounting Policies Summary

Principles of Consolidation The Company's consolidated financial statements include the Company and its majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions among the consolidated entities have been eliminated in these consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition Hotel revenues include room, food, beverage, and ancillary revenues such as long-distance telephone service, laundry, and space rentals. Interest income from notes receivable represents interest earned on the Company's mezzanine and first-mortgage loans receivable portfolio. Asset management fees relate to asset management services performed on behalf of a related party, including risk management and insurance procurement, assistance with taxes, negotiating franchise agreements and equipment leases, monitoring compliance with loan covenants, preparation of capital and operating budgets, and property litigation management. Revenues are recognized as the related services are delivered.

Use of Estimates The preparation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

In addition, in connection with the Company's acquisition of Marriott Crystal Gateway hotel in Arlington, Virginia, on July 13, 2006, the Company assumed the existing management agreement, which expires in 2017 with three ten-year renewal options and provides for a base management fee of 3% of the hotel's gross revenues plus certain incentive management fees. Based on the Company's review of this management agreement, the Company concluded that the terms are more favorable to the manager than a typical current market management agreement. Hence, the Company recorded an unfavorable contract liability of approximately $15.8 million related to this management agreement as of the acquisition date based on the present value of expected cash outflows over the initial term of the agreement.

Investment in Hotel Properties The initial properties are stated at the predecessor's historical cost, net of any impairment charges, plus approximately $8.1 million of minority interest partial step-up recorded upon the Company's formation related to the acquisition of minority interest from unaffiliated parties associated with four of the initial properties. Hotel properties acquired subsequent to the Company's formation are stated at cost. All improvements and additions which extend the useful life of hotel properties are capitalized.

Impairment of Investment in Hotel Properties Hotel properties are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values of such hotel properties may not be recoverable. The Company tests for impairment in several situations, including when current or projected cash flows are less than historical cash flows, when it becomes more likely than not that a hotel property will be sold before the end of its previously estimated useful life, and when events or changes in circumstances indicate that a hotel property's net book value may not be recoverable. In evaluating the impairment of hotel properties, the Company makes many assumptions and estimates, including projected cash flows, holding period, expected useful life, future capital expenditures, and fair values, which considers capitalization rates, discount rates, and comparable selling prices. If an asset was deemed to be impaired, the Company would record an impairment charge for the amount that the property's net book value exceeds its fair value. To date, no such impairment charges have been recognized.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense Depreciation expense is based on the estimated useful life of the Company's assets, while amortization expense for leasehold improvements is based on the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the related assets. Presently, hotel properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over lives which range from 15 to 39 years for buildings and improvements and 3 to 5 years for furniture, fixtures, and equipment. While the Company believes its estimates are reasonable, a change in estimated lives could affect depreciation expense and net income (loss) as well as the gain or loss on the potential sale of any of the Company's hotels.

Restricted Cash Restricted cash includes reserves for debt service, real estate taxes, and insurance, as well as excess cash flow deposits and reserves for furniture, fixtures, and equipment replacements of approximately 4% to 6% of property revenue for certain hotels, as required by certain management or mortgage debt agreement restrictions and provisions.

Assets Held For Sale and Discontinued Operations The Company records assets as held for sale when management has committed to a plan to sell the assets, actively seeks a buyer for the assets, and the consummation of the sale is considered probable and is expected within one year. The related operations of assets held for sale are reported as discontinued if a) such operations and cash flows can be clearly distinguished, both operationally and financially, from the ongoing operations of the Company, b) such operations and cash flows will be eliminated from ongoing operations once the disposal occurs, and c) the Company will not have any significant continuing involvement subsequent to the disposal.

Notes Receivable The Company provides mezzanine and first-mortgage financing in the form of loans. Loans receivable are recorded at cost, adjusted for net origination fees and costs. Premiums, discounts, and net origination fees are amortized or accreted as an adjustment to interest income using the effective interest method. Loans receivable are reviewed for potential impairment at each balance sheet date. A loan receivable is considered impaired when it becomes probable, based on current information, that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the loan's contractual terms. The amount of impairment, if any, is measured by comparing the recorded amount of the loan to the present value of the expected cash flows or the fair value of the collateral. If a loan was deemed to be impaired, the Company would record a reserve for loan losses through a charge to income for any shortfall. To date, no such impairment charges have been recognized.

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, as revised (FIN No. 46), variable interest entities, as defined, are required to be consolidated by their primary beneficiaries if the variable interest entities do not effectively disperse risks among parties involved. The Company's mezzanine and first-mortgage loans receivable are each secured by various hotel properties or partnership interests in hotel properties and are subordinate to primary loans related to the secured hotels. All of these loans receivable are considered to be variable interests in the entities that own the related hotels, which are variable interest entities. However, the Company is not considered to be the primary beneficiary of these hotel properties as a result of holding these loans. Therefore, the Company does not consolidate such hotels for which it has provided financing. Interests in entities acquired or created in the future will be evaluated based on FIN No. 46 criteria, and such entities will be consolidated, if required. The analysis utilized by the Company in evaluating FIN No. 46 criteria involves considerable management judgment and assumptions.

Due From Third-Party Hotel Managers Due from third-party hotel managers primarily consists of amounts due from Marriott related to cash reserves held at the Marriott corporate level related to capital, insurance, real estate taxes, and other items.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended and interpreted (SFAS No. 133), establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. As required by SFAS No. 133, the Company records all derivatives on the balance sheet at fair value. Accounting for changes in the fair value of derivatives depends on the intended use of the derivative and the resulting designation. Derivatives used to hedge the exposure to changes in the fair value of an asset, liability, or firm commitment attributable to a particular risk, such as interest rate risk, are considered fair value hedges. Derivatives used to hedge the exposure to variability in expected future cash flows, or other types of forecasted transactions, are considered cash flow hedges.

For derivatives designated as fair value hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivative and the hedged item related to the hedged risk are recognized in earnings. For derivatives designated as cash flow hedges, the effective portion of changes in the fair value of the derivative is initially reported in other comprehensive income (outside of earnings) and subsequently reclassified to earnings when the hedged transaction affects earnings, and the ineffective portion of changes in the fair value of the derivative is recognized directly in earnings. The Company assesses the effectiveness of each hedging relationship by comparing the changes in fair value or cash flows of the derivative hedging instrument with the changes in fair value or cash flows of the designated hedged item or transaction.

The Company's objective in using derivatives is to increase stability related to interest expense and to manage its exposure to interest rate movements or other identified risks. To accomplish this objective, the Company primarily uses interest rate swaps and caps as part of its cash flow hedging strategy. Interest rate swaps designated as cash flow hedges involve the receipt of variable-rate amounts in exchange for fixed-rate payments over the life of the agreements without exchange of the underlying principal amount. Interest rate caps designated as cash flow hedges provide the Company with interest rate protection above the strike rate on the cap and result in the Company receiving interest payments when rates are above the cap strike.

Income Taxes As a REIT, the Company generally will not be subject to federal corporate income tax on the portion of its net income (loss) that does not relate to taxable REIT subsidiaries. However, Ashford TRS is treated as a taxable REIT subsidiary for federal income tax purposes. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, the Company accounts for income taxes for Ashford TRS using the asset and liability method under which deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. For the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, the benefit from (provision for) income taxes relates to the net (loss) income associated with Ashford TRS.

Segments The Company presently operates in two business segments within the hotel lodging industry: direct hotel investments and hotel financing. Direct hotel investments refers to owning hotels through either acquisition or new development. Hotel financing refers to owning subordinate hotel-related mortgage receivables through acquisition or origination.

Stock-based Compensation The Company accounts for stock-based compensation using the fair-value method. In connection with the Company's formation, the Company established an employee Incentive Stock Plan (the Stock Plan). Under the Stock Plan, the Company periodically issues shares of restricted and non-restricted common stock. All such shares are charged to compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period based on the Company's stock price on the date of issuance. Under the Stock Plan, the Company may issue a variety of additional performance-based stock awards, including nonqualified stock options. As of September 30, 2006, no performance-based stock awards aside from the aforementioned stock grants have been issued.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share Basic earnings (loss) per common share is calculated by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average common shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings (loss) per common share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares were exercised or converted into common shares, whereby such exercise or conversion would result in lower earnings per share. The following table reconciles the amounts used in calculating basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands, except share and per share amounts):

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, minority interest of approximately $1.2 million and $4.6 million, respectively, and weighted average units of limited partnership interest of approximately 13.6 million and 11.8 million units, respectively, are excluded from the diluted earnings per share calculation as such units are anti-dilutive.

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005, dividends related to convertible preferred shares of approximately $1.3 million and $2.9 million, respectively, and weighted average convertible preferred shares outstanding of approximately 7.5 million and 3.5 million shares, respectively, are excluded from the diluted earnings per share calculation as such shares are anti-dilutive. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005, minority interest of approximately $873,000 and $3.1 million, respectively, and weighted average units of limited partnership interest of approximately 11.1 million and 9.7 million units, respectively, are excluded from the diluted earnings per share calculation as such units are anti-dilutive.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS No. 123R), effective January 1, 2006. SFAS No. 123R is a revision of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. SFAS No. 123R requires the cost of share-based awards to employees to be measured based on an award's fair value at the grant date, with such cost to be amortized over the appropriate service period. Previously, entities could elect to continue accounting for such awards at their grant date intrinsic value under APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. In addition, SFAS No. 123R requires future forfeitures of stock awards to be estimated and accounted for currently rather than as such forfeitures occur. The Company's adoption of SFAS No. 123R in the first quarter of 2006 using the modified prospective application had no impact on the Company's results of operations. As required by SFAS No. 123R, the Company reclassified unearned compensation on its balance sheet to additional paid-in capital.

Forfeitures of stock grants have been and are expected to continue to be insignificant.

In June 2006, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) ratified EITF No. 06-3, How Taxes Collected from Customers and Remitted to Government Authorities Should be Presented in the Income Statement (That Is, Gross versus Net Presentation). EITF No. 06-3 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2006, with earlier application permitted. EITF No. 06-3 relates to taxes assessed by a governmental authority imposed on revenue-producing transactions, such as sales taxes. EITF No. 06-3 states that gross versus net income statement presentation of such taxes is an accounting policy decision requiring disclosure. EITF No. 06-3 further requires disclosure of the amount of such taxes reflected at gross, if any. The Company does not believe the adoption of EITF No. 06-3 will impact its financial condition or results of operations.

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN No. 48), effective January 1, 2007. FIN No. 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the recognition and measurement of a tax position taken in a tax return. FIN No. 48 requires that a determination be made as to whether it is more likely than not that a tax position taken, based on its technical merits, will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any appeals and litigation processes. If the more-likely-than-not threshold is met, the tax position must be measured to determine the amount of benefit, if any, to recognize in the financial statements. FIN No. 48 applies to all tax positions related to income taxes subject to FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, but does not apply to tax positions related to FASB Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of FIN No. 48 for adoption in the first quarter of 2007. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of FIN No. 48, if any, will be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings on January 1, 2007.

On April 1, 2006, the Company reclassified approximately $38.9 million from assets held for sale to investment in hotel properties related to its decision to discontinue sales efforts related to seven hotel properties. See Note 5 for further discussion.

On April 19, 2006, the Company acquired the Pan Pacific San Francisco Hotel in San Francisco, California, for approximately $95.0 million. Considering closing costs, this acquisition generated an increase in Investment in Hotel Properties of approximately $96.5 million.

See Note 17 for further discussion.

5. Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations

On March 16, 2005, the Company acquired 21 hotel properties for approximately $250.0 million. Soon thereafter, the Company made a strategic commitment to sell eight of these properties, six of which were sold prior to December 31, 2005. On January 17, 2006, the Company sold the remaining two properties for approximately $10.7 million, net of closing costs. Operating results related to these eight hotel properties during the periods such hotels were owned are included in income from discontinued operations for both the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. In addition, in late 2005, the Company made a strategic commitment to sell a portion of one of the other hotel properties acquired in this acquisition, which resulted in approximately $2.5 million of carrying value classified as assets held for sale at September 30, 2006. No significant gain or loss or adverse tax consequences have resulted or are expected to result from the sales of these properties.

On June 17, 2005, the Company acquired 30 hotel properties for approximately $465.0 million. Soon thereafter, the Company made a strategic commitment to sell 15 of these properties. On March 24, 2006, the Company sold eight of these properties for approximately $100.4 million, net of closing costs. Operating results related to these eight hotel properties during the periods such hotels were owned are included in income from discontinued operations for both the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. No significant gain or loss or adverse tax consequences have resulted from the sales of these properties.

Subsequent to March 31, 2006, Company management made a strategic decision to discontinue further sales efforts related to the seven remaining hotels acquired on June 17, 2005. The Company periodically evaluates its hotels from a short, mid, and long-term hold perspective. These seven hotels have performed better than expected, and the Company is optimistic about their future. Accordingly, the Company made the decision to maintain these hotels in its ongoing portfolio. Consequently, the Company has classified such assets and operating results in continuing operations as of September 30, 2006 and for the three and nine month periods then ended. In addition, all income statement results previously reported as discontinued related to these hotels have been reclassified to continuing operations for all comparative periods shown. Likewise, assets previously reported as assets held for sale related to these hotels have been reclassified to investment in hotel properties for all periods shown. The Company recorded such assets in investment in hotel properties at approximately $38.9 million, which represents the carrying value of such assets (net of depreciation not recognized while said assets were held for sale of approximately $863,000), which is lower than such assets' estimated fair values.

Such costs are amortized over the related remaining lease terms, which expire between 2008 and 2015. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, amortization expense related to these intangibles was approximately $52,000 and $159,000, respectively.

During the next five fiscal years, amortization expense related to these intangibles will range from approximately $211,000 in 2006 decreasing to approximately $125,000 in 2010.

On February 27, 2006, April 18, 2006, and July 14, 2006, the Company completed draws of approximately $10.0 million, $88.9 million, and $25.0 million, respectively, on this credit facility. On June 28, 2006, the Company paid down this credit facility by approximately $25.0 million. On July 25, 2006, the Company repaid the $98.9 million outstanding balance on this credit facility. On September 8, 2006, the Company modified this credit facility to increase its capacity to $150.0 million with the ability to be increased to $200.0 million subject to certain conditions and reduce the interest rate from LIBOR plus a range of 1.6% to 1.95% to LIBOR plus a range of 1.6% to 1.85% depending on the loan-to-value ratio. As of September 30, 2006, there was no outstanding balance on this credit facility.

On February 9, 2006, the Company paid down its $45.0 million mortgage loan, due October 10, 2007, at an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2%, to $100. On April 3, 2006, the Company modified this mortgage note payable to a $47.5 million revolving credit facility, with a revolving period through October 11, 2006, maturity remaining October 10, 2007, and interest rates during the revolving period ranging from LIBOR plus 1% to LIBOR plus 1.5% depending on the outstanding balance. After the revolving period expires, the interest rate resumes its original rate of LIBOR plus 2%. Consistent with the original mortgage, the modified credit facility requires monthly interest-only payments and has three one-year extension options. On April 18, 2006 and June 6, 2006, the Company completed draws of approximately $15.0 million and $15.0 million, respectively, on this credit facility. On July 25, 2006, the Company repaid the $30.0 million outstanding balance on this credit facility. On July 26, 2006, the Company modified this credit facility to extend both the revolving period and maturity date by one year to October 11, 2007 and October 10, 2008, respectively. As of September 30, 2006, approximately $100 was outstanding on this credit facility. On March 24, 2006, in connection with the sale of eight hotel properties for approximately $100.4 million, net of closing costs, the buyer assumed approximately $93.7 million of mortgage debt, which had an interest rate of 5.32% and matured July 1, 2015. This reduced the Company's $580.8 million mortgage note payable outstanding at December 31, 2005, secured by 40 hotels, with an average interest rate of 5.4%, to $487.1 million outstanding at September 30, 2006, secured by 32 hotels, with an average interest rate of 5.41%. In connection with the buyer's assumption of this debt, the Company wrote-off unamortized loan costs of approximately $687,000.

On May 30, 2006, the Company repaid its then outstanding $11.1 million balance on its mortgage note payable, due April 1, 2011, which resulted in the write-off of unamortized loan costs of approximately $102,000.

On July 13, 2006, in connection with the acquisition of the Marriott Crystal Gateway hotel in Arlington, Virginia, the Company assumed a mortgage note payable of approximately $53.3 million, due December 1, 2017, at an interest rate of 7.24% through December 31, 2007 and 7.39% thereafter. The Company originally recorded this mortgage at a premium of approximately $2.1 million as the fixed interest rate on this mortgage exceeds current interest rates the Company would otherwise incur on similar financial instruments. The debt premium is amortized as an adjustment to interest expense over the term of the mortgage using the effective interest method, which resulted in a reduction to interest expense of approximately $76,000 for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006.

9. Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

On October 28, 2005, the Company purchased a 7.0% LIBOR interest rate cap with a $45.0 million notional amount, which matures October 15, 2007, to limit its exposure to rising interest rates on $45.0 million of its variable-rate debt. The Company designated the $45.0 million cap as a cash flow hedge of its exposure to changes in interest rates on a corresponding amount of variable-rate debt.

As of September 30, 2006, no derivatives were designated as fair value hedges or hedges of net investments in foreign operations. Additionally, the Company does not use derivatives for trading or speculative purposes, and currently does not have any derivatives that are not designated as hedges.

As of September 30, 2006, derivatives with a fair value of approximately $257 were included in other assets, and derivatives with a fair value of $0 were included in other liabilities. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, the change in accumulated other comprehensive income of approximately ($291,000) and ($1.0 million), respectively, for derivatives designated as cash flow hedges is separately disclosed in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005, the change in accumulated other comprehensive income of approximately $491,000 and $722,000, respectively, for derivatives designated as cash flow hedges is separately disclosed in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. For both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, no hedge ineffectiveness was recognized. Amounts reported in accumulated other comprehensive income related to derivatives will be reclassified to interest expense as interest payments are made on the Company's variable-rate debt. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, the change in accumulated other comprehensive income reflects a reclassification of approximately $290,000 and $1.0 million, respectively, from accumulated other comprehensive income to reduce interest expense. During the next twelve months, the Company estimates that approximately $369,000 will be reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income existing at September 30, 2006 to reduce interest expense.

Table of Contents17. Business Combinations

On March 16, 2005, the Company acquired 21 hotel properties and an office building from selling entities controlled by affiliates of Fisher Brothers, Gordon Getty Trust, and George Soros, which collectively owned approximately 78% of the acquired properties, and certain members of the Company's senior management, which collectively owned approximately 22% of the acquired properties, for approximately $250.0 million. The $250.0 million purchase price consisted of approximately $35.0 million in cash, approximately $164.7 million in assumed mortgage debt, and approximately $50.3 million worth of limited partnership units, which equates to 4,994,150 units based on $10.07 per share, which represents the average market price of the Company's common stock for the 20-day period ending five business days before executing a definitive agreement to acquire these properties on December 23, 2004. Company management received their net consideration in the form of limited partnership units, whereas the third parties received 50% of their consideration in limited partnership units and 50% in cash. The Company used proceeds from its sale of Series B cumulative convertible redeemable preferred stock on December 30, 2004, its follow-on public offering on January 20, 2005, and its $15.0 million draw on a credit facility on March 16, 2005 to fund the acquisition of these properties. In connection with this acquisition, the Company recognized intangible assets of approximately $1.3 million associated with existing tenant leases of the acquired office building, primarily representing market-rate adjustments, occupancy levels, customer relationships, and origination fees.

On March 22, 2005, the Company acquired the Hilton Santa Fe hotel property in Santa Fe, New Mexico, from Santa Fe Hotel Joint Venture for approximately $18.2 million in cash. The Company used proceeds from borrowings and its follow-on public offering on January 20, 2005 to fund this acquisition.

On June 17, 2005, the Company acquired a 30-property hotel portfolio from CNL Hotels and Resorts, Inc. for approximately $465.0 million in cash. To fund this acquisition, the Company used proceeds from several sources, including: a $370.0 million mortgage loan executed on June 17, 2005, approximately $65.0 million from the issuance of 6,454,816 shares of Series B convertible redeemable preferred stock to a financial institution on June 15, 2005, and cash remaining from its follow-on public offering on April 5, 2005.

On October 28, 2005, the Company acquired the Hyatt Dulles hotel property in Herndon, Virginia, from Dulles Airport, LLC for approximately $72.5 million in cash. The Company used proceeds from borrowings to fund this acquisition, including a portion of its $210.8 million mortgage loan executed on October 13, 2005 and its $45.0 million mortgage loan executed on October 28, 2005.

On February 24, 2006, the Company acquired the Marriott at Research Triangle Park hotel property in Durham, North Carolina, from Host Marriott Corporation for approximately $28.0 million in cash. The Company used proceeds from its sale of two hotels on January 17, 2006 and its follow-on public offering on January 25, 2006 to fund this acquisition.

On April 19, 2006, the Company acquired the Pan Pacific San Francisco Hotel in San Francisco, California, from W2001 Pac Realty, L.L.C. for approximately $95.0 million in cash and immediately re-branded the property as a JW Marriott. The Company used proceeds from two credit facility draws of approximately $88.9 million and $15.0 million to fund this acquisition. The Company expects to incur at least $10.0 million to renovate and upgrade the property, of which approximately $51,000 had been incurred as of September 30, 2006. In addition, Marriott contributed $5.0 million related to the re-branding of this property. The Company recorded this contribution as deferred incentive management fees, which is being amortized as a reduction to management fees on a straight-line basis over the term of the management agreement, which expires in 2026.

On July 13, 2006, the Company acquired the Marriott Crystal Gateway hotel in Arlington, Virginia, from EADS Associates limited Partnership for approximately $107.2 million. The purchase price consisted of the assumption of approximately $53.3 million of mortgage debt, the issuance of approximately $42.7 million worth of limited partnership units, which equates to 3,814,842 units valued at $11.20 per unit, approximately $2.5 million in cash paid in lieu of units, the reimbursement of capital expenditures costs of approximately $7.2 million, and other net closing costs and adjustments of approximately $1.5 million. The limited partnership units issued represent Class B common units, with a fixed dividend rate of 6.82% in years 1-3 and 7.2% thereafter based on the $11.20 per unit price, and have priority in payment of cash dividends over holders of common units. After ten years, either party may convert these units to common units. For accounting purposes, these units were valued at approximately $40.6 million or $10.64 per unit, which represents the average market price of the Company's common stock from five business days before the definitive agreement was finalized on May 18, 2006 to five business days after such date. In addition, the Company assumed the existing management agreement which expires in 2017 with three ten-year renewal options. The management agreement provides for a base management fee of 3% of the hotel's gross revenues plus certain incentive management fees. Based on the Company's review of this management agreement, the Company concluded that the terms are more favorable to the manager than a typical current market management agreement. Hence, the Company recorded an unfavorable contract liability of approximately $15.8 million related to this management agreement as of the acquisition date.

In connection with these acquisitions, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include the results of the acquired hotels since the acquisition dates, all purchase prices were the result of arms-length negotiations, the Company did not assign any value to goodwill or other intangible assets aside from the office building previously discussed, and purchase price allocations related to certain acquisitions completed within the last year are preliminary subject to further internal review and third-party appraisals.

The following unaudited pro forma statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 are based on the historical consolidated financial statements of the Company adjusted to give effect to the completion of the aforementioned acquisitions and the related debt and equity offerings to fund these acquisitions as if such transactions occurred at the beginning of the periods presented (in thousands, except per share amounts):

EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW:

We are a real estate investment trust (REIT) that commenced operations upon completion of our initial public offering (IPO) and related formation transactions on August 29, 2003. As of September 30, 2006, we owned 73 hotels and approximately $97.6 million of mezzanine or first-mortgage loans receivable. Of these 73 hotels, six were contributed upon our formation, nine were acquired in the fourth quarter of 2003, 18 were acquired during 2004, 37 were acquired during 2005, and three were acquired in the first nine months of 2006 (one hotel acquired in each quarter).

The four non-comparative hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations contributed approximately $20.0 million and $629,000 to our total revenue and operating income, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2006, and had no impact for the three months ended September 30, 2005 as none of these hotels were acquired that quarter. The 40 non-comparative hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations contributed approximately $212.5 million and $39.8 million to our total revenue and operating income, respectively, for the nine months ended September 30, 2006, and approximately $88.8 million and $18.8 million to our total revenue and operating income, respectively, for the nine months ended September 30, 2005.

Based on our primary business objectives and forecasted operating conditions, our key priorities or financial strategies include, among other things:

acquiring hotels with a favorable current yield with an opportunity for appreciation, implementing selective capital improvements designed to increase profitability, directing our hotel managers to minimize operating costs and increase revenues, originating or acquiring mezzanine loans, and other investments that our Board of Directors deems appropriate.

Throughout 2005 and the first nine months of 2006, strong economic growth in the United States economy combined with improved business demand generated strong RevPar growth throughout the lodging industry. For the remainder of 2006, forecasts for the lodging industry continue to be favorable.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS:

Marriott International, Inc. (Marriott) manages 24 of the Company's properties. For these 24 Marriott-managed hotels, the fiscal year reflects twelve weeks of operations for the first three quarters of the year and sixteen weeks for the fourth quarter of the year. Therefore, in any given quarterly period, period-over-period results will have different ending dates. For these 24 Marriott-managed hotels, the third quarter of 2006 ended September 8th.

RevPAR is a commonly used measure within the hotel industry to evaluate hotel operations. RevPAR is defined as the product of the average daily room rate (ADR) charged and the average daily occupancy achieved. RevPAR does not include revenues from food and beverage or parking, telephone, or other guest services generated by the property.

Although RevPAR does not include these ancillary revenues, it is generally considered the leading indicator of core revenues for many hotels. We also use RevPAR to compare the results of our hotels between periods and to analyze results of our comparable hotels. RevPAR improvements attributable to increases in occupancy are generally accompanied by increases in most categories of variable operating costs. RevPAR improvements attributable to increases in ADR are generally accompanied by increases in limited categories of operating costs, such as management fees and franchise fees.

Comparison of the Three Months Ended September 30, 2006 and September 30, 2005

Revenue. Total revenue for the three months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $25.6 million or 25.4% to approximately $126.3 million from total revenue of approximately $100.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2005. The increase was primarily due to approximately $20.0 million in incremental revenues attributable to the four hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations and approximately $5.7 million increase in revenues for comparable hotels, primarily due to increases in room revenues, offset by a slight decrease of approximately $173,000 in income earned on the Company's $97.6 million mezzanine loans receivable portfolio as a result of the slight decline in the average balance outstanding compared to the same period last year.

Room revenues at comparable hotels for the three months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $4.9 million or 6.2% compared to the same quarter of 2005, primarily due to an increase in RevPar from $75.94 to $82.32, which consisted of a 6.1% increase in ADR and a 2.1% increase in occupancy. Due to the continued recovery in the economy and consistent with industry trends, several hotels experienced increases in both ADR and occupancy. In addition to improved market conditions, certain hotels also benefited from the following:

renovations were completed at several hotels in 2005, which generated increased occupancy in 2006 as rooms previously under renovations became available, certain hotels were successful in increasing or garnering more favorable group room-night contracts in 2006, and certain coastal-area hotels occupancy levels were negatively affected in 2005 due to nearby hurricanes. Food and beverage revenues at comparable hotels for the three months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $690,000 or 5.2% compared to the third quarter of 2005 primarily due to the overall increase in occupancy.

Other revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 increased approximately $853,000 or 20.6% due to an increase at comparable hotels of approximately $101,000 or 2.4%, primarily resulting from increases in occupancy, and an increase of approximately $752,000 related to incremental revenues attributable to the four hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations.

Interest income from notes receivable decreased to approximately $3.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to approximately $3.8 million for the third quarter of 2005 due to a slight decrease in the average mezzanine loans portfolio balance outstanding during the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period last year, which was partially offset by increased interest rates.

Asset management fees were approximately $299,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to approximately $292,000 for the third quarter of 2005. Asset management fees relate to 27 hotel properties owned by affiliates for which the Company provided asset management and consulting services. The Company acquired 21 of these hotel properties from said affiliates on March 16, 2005, and the affiliates subsequently sold the remaining six hotel properties. However, the affiliates, pursuant to an agreement, will continue to guarantee a minimum annual fee of approximately $1.2 million through December 31, 2008.

Hotel Operating Expenses. Hotel operating expenses, which consists of room expense, food and beverage expense, other direct expenses, indirect expenses, and management fees, increased approximately $16.6 million or 25.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005, primarily due to approximately $14.7 million of expenses associated with the four hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations. In addition, hotel operating expenses at comparable hotels experienced an increase of approximately $1.9 million or 2.9% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005 primarily due to increases in rooms and indirect expenses.

Rooms expense at comparable hotels increased approximately $858,000 or 4.8% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005 primarily due to increased occupancy at most hotels and virtually flat costs at hotels experiencing comparable occupancy due to the fixed nature of maintaining staff. Indirect expenses at comparable hotels increased approximately $602,000 or 2.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005. Indirect expenses increased as a result of:

- increased hotel-level general and administrative expenses due to increased salaries and staffing needs consistent with increased revenues,

- increased sales and marketing expenses due to increased room availability at certain hotels as a result of rooms undergoing renovations during the third quarter 2005,

- increased franchise fees due to increased room revenues at certain hotels in 2006, and

- increased energy costs due to increased utility rates.

Property Taxes, Insurance, and Other. Property taxes, insurance, and other increased approximately $1.9 million or 34.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005 due to approximately $1.2 million of expenses associated with the four hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations. Aside from additional costs incurred at these acquired hotels, property taxes, insurance, and other expense increased approximately $646,000 in the third quarter of 2006 when compared to the third quarter of 2005 primarily resulting from increased property insurance rates, primarily due to 2005 hurricanes, and increased property value tax assessments at certain hotels.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased approximately $4.8 million or 52.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005 primarily due to approximately $3.3 million of depreciation associated with the four hotel properties acquired since June 30, 2005 that are included in continuing operations. Aside from these additional hotels acquired, depreciation and amortization increased approximately $1.4 million in the third quarter of 2006 compared to the third quarter of 2005 as a result of capital improvements made at several comparative hotels since the second quarter of 2005.

Corporate General and Administrative. Corporate general and administrative expense increased to approximately $4.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006 compared to approximately $3.9 million for the third quarter of 2005 primarily due to overall company growth and an increase in non-cash expenses associated with stock-based compensation from approximately $952,000 in the third quarter of 2005 compared to approximately $1.4 million in the third quarter of 2006. As a percentage of total revenue, however, corporate general and administrative expense remained flat at approximately 3.8% and 3.9% during the third quarters of 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Operating Income. Operating income increased approximately $1.5 million to approximately $19.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006 from approximately $17.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2005 as result of the aforementioned operating results.

Interest Income. Interest income increased approximately $735,000 from approximately $270,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2005 to approximately $1.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006 primarily due to interest earned on funds received from borrowings and equity offerings during the third quarter of 2006 in excess of interest earned on funds received from borrowings and equity offerings during the third quarter of 2005.

Interest Expense and Amortization of Loan Costs. Interest expense and amortization of loan costs decreased approximately $1.1 million from approximately $12.6 million for the three months ended September 30, 2005 to approximately $11.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006. The decrease in interest expense and amortization of loan costs is associated with the lower average debt balance over the course of the two comparative periods and a $641,000 decrease in amortization of loan costs due to the payoffs of the related loans prior to the third quarter of 2006, offset slightly by increased interest rates.

Benefit from (Provision for) Income Taxes. As a REIT, the Company generally will not be subject to federal corporate income tax on the portion of its net income that does not relate to taxable REIT subsidiaries. However, the Company leases each of its hotel properties to Ashford TRS, which is treated as a taxable REIT subsidiary for federal income tax purposes. For the three months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, the benefit from (provision for) income taxes of approximately $929,000 and ($1.2) million, respectively, relates to the net (loss) income associated with Ashford TRS. For the three months ended September 30, 2005, an additional benefit from income taxes of approximately $166,000 is included in discontinued operations.

Minority Interest. Minority interest represents a reduction to net income of approximately $1.2 million and $873,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Upon formation of the Company on August 29, 2003, minority interest in the operating partnership was established to represent the limited partners proportionate share of the equity in the operating partnership. Revenue. Total revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $134.9 million or 58.4% to approximately $365.9 million from total revenue of approximately $231.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2005. The increase was primarily due to approximately $123.7 million in incremental revenues attributable to the 40 hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations, approximately $2.0 million increase in interest income earned on the Company's $97.6 million mezzanine loans receivable portfolio, which represents an increase in the portfolio of approximately $17.9 million since December 31, 2004, and approximately $9.2 million increase in revenues for comparable hotels, primarily due to increases in room revenues.

Room revenues at comparable hotels for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $8.5 million or 8.0% compared to the same period of 2005, primarily due to an increase in RevPar from $76.44 to $82.58, which consisted of a 4.1% increase in ADR and a 3.7% increase in occupancy. Due to the continued recovery in the economy and consistent with industry trends, several hotels experienced increases in both ADR and occupancy. renovations were completed at several hotels in 2005, which generated increased occupancy in 2006 as rooms previously under renovations became available, and certain hotels were successful in increasing or garnering more favorable group room-night contracts in 2006. Food and beverage revenues at comparable hotels for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 increased approximately $206,000 or 1.0% compared to the same period of 2005 due to the overall increase in occupancy. This overall increase is net of a $700,000 decrease at the Hyatt Anaheim hotel resulting from the cancellations or downsizing of several sizable banquets in the first half of 2006 and large banquets booked in the first half of 2005 that did not repeat in 2006.

Other revenues the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 increased approximately $4.5 million or 46.3% due to an increase at comparable hotels of approximately $488,000 or 9.3%, primarily resulting from increases in occupancy, and an increase of approximately $4.0 million related to incremental revenues attributable to the 40 hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations.

Asset management fees were approximately $934,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to approximately $940,000 for the same period of 2005. Asset management fees relate to 27 hotel properties owned by affiliates for which the Company provided asset management and consulting services. The Company acquired 21 of these hotel properties from said affiliates on March 16, 2005, and the affiliates subsequently sold the remaining six hotel properties. However, the affiliates, pursuant to an agreement, will continue to guarantee a minimum annual fee of approximately $1.2 million through December 31, 2008.

Hotel operating expenses, which consists of room expense, food and beverage expense, other direct expenses, indirect expenses, and management fees, increased approximately $83.4 million or 57.1% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005, primarily due to approximately $79.0 million of expenses associated with the 40 hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations. In addition, hotel operating expenses at comparable hotels experienced an increase of approximately $4.4 million or 5.0% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 primarily due to increases in rooms, food and beverage, and indirect expenses.

Table of Contents

Rooms expense at comparable hotels increased approximately $1.6 million or 6.7% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 primarily due to increased occupancy at most hotels and virtually flat costs at hotels experiencing comparable occupancy due to the fixed nature of maintaining staff. Food and beverage expense at comparable hotels for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 also increased approximately $412,000, which is consistent with the increase in food and beverage revenues at most hotels and the overall increase in occupancy. Indirect expenses at comparable hotels increased approximately $1.9 million or 4.8% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005. increased franchise fees due to increased room revenues at certain hotels in 2006, and increased energy costs due to increased utility rates.

Property Taxes, Insurance, and Other. Property taxes, insurance, and other increased approximately $7.9 million or 65.7% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 due to approximately $7.6 million of expenses associated with the 40 hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations. Aside from additional costs incurred at these acquired hotels, property taxes, insurance, and other expense increased approximately $245,000 in the first nine months of 2006 when compared to the same period of 2005 primarily resulting from increased property insurance rates, primarily due to 2005 hurricanes, and increased property value tax assessments at certain hotels.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased approximately $17.9 million or 93.5% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 primarily due to approximately $16.1 million of depreciation associated with the 40 hotel properties acquired since December 31, 2004 that are included in continuing operations. Aside from these additional hotels acquired, depreciation and amortization increased approximately $1.8 million in the first nine months of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 as a result of capital improvements made at several comparative hotels since December 31, 2004.

Loss on Reclassification from Discontinued to Continuing. Subsequent to March 31, 2006, Company management made a strategic decision to discontinue further sales efforts related to seven hotels acquired on June 17, 2005 that had been classified as discontinued operations. Consequently, the Company reclassified such assets and operating results back to continuing operations as of September 30, 2006 and for the three and nine month periods then ended. Regarding these seven hotels, the Company recorded such assets in investment in hotel properties at approximately $38.9 million, which represents the carrying value of such assets (net of depreciation not recognized while said assets were held for sale of approximately $863,000), which is lower than such assets' estimated fair values.

Corporate General and Administrative. Corporate general and administrative expense increased to approximately $15.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 compared to approximately $10.4 million for the same period of 2005 primarily due to overall company growth and an increase in non-cash expenses associated with stock-based compensation from approximately $7.9 million in the first nine months of 2005 compared to approximately $10.8 million in the comparable 2006 period. As a percentage of total revenue, however, corporate general and administrative expense decreased from approximately 4.5% during the first nine months of 2005 to approximately 4.1% for the comparable 2006 period due to corporate synergies inherent in overall growth.

Operating Income. Operating income increased approximately $20.3 million to approximately $63.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 from approximately $43.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 as result of the aforementioned operating results.

Interest Income. Interest income increased approximately $1.3 million from approximately $727,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 to approximately $2.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 primarily due to interest earned on funds received from borrowings and equity offerings during the first nine months of 2006 in excess of interest earned on funds received from borrowings and equity offerings during the same period of 2005.

Interest Expense and Amortization of Loan Costs. Interest expense and amortization of loan costs increased approximately $9.8 million from approximately $25.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 to approximately $35.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. The increase in interest expense and amortization of loan costs is associated with the higher average debt balance over the course of the two comparative periods and increased interest rates.

Write-off of Loan Costs and Exit Fees. On March 24, 2006, in connection with the sale of eight hotel properties for approximately $100.4 million, net of closing costs, the buyer assumed approximately $93.7 million of mortgage debt, due July 1, 2015. Related to this assumption, the Company wrote-off unamortized loan costs of approximately $687,000. On May 30, 2006, the Company repaid its then outstanding $11.1 million balance on its mortgage note payable, due April 1, 2011, which resulted in the write-off of unamortized loan costs of approximately $102,000. On January 20, 2005, the Company repaid its $15.5 million mortgage note payable, due December 31, 2005, and its $7.0 million mortgage note payable, due July 31, 2007, which resulted in the write-off of unamortized loan costs of approximately $151,000.

Loss on Debt Extinguishment. On March 30, 2005, the Company paid down mortgage debt assumed in the 21-property hotel portfolio acquisition on March 16, 2005 by approximately $18.2 million, which generated a loss on early extinguishment of debt of approximately $2.3 million, which is net of the write-off of the related portion of debt premium of approximately $1.4 million. During the nine months ended September 30, 2006, there were no losses on debt extinguishments.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, the benefit from (provision for) income taxes related to continuing operations of approximately $661,000 and ($1.2) million, respectively, relates to the net (loss) income associated with Ashford TRS. Upon formation of the Company on August 29, 2003, minority interest in the operating partnership was established to represent the limited partners proportionate share of the equity in the operating partnership. Net income (loss) is allocated to minority interest based on the weighted-average limited partnership percentage ownership throughout the period.

Soon thereafter, the Company made a strategic commitment to sell eight of these properties, six of which were sold in the second quarter of 2005. On January 17, 2006, the Company sold the remaining two properties. Operating results related to these eight hotel properties during the periods such hotels were owned are included in income from discontinued operations for both the nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. On June 17, 2005, the Company acquired 30 hotel properties for approximately $465.0 million. Soon thereafter, the Company made a strategic commitment to sell eight of these properties, which were sold on March 24, 2006. Operating results related to these 8 hotel properties during the periods such hotels were owned are included in income from discontinued operations for the nine month periods ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. No significant gain or loss or adverse tax consequences resulted from the sales of these properties.

In connection with this sale, the Company recognized a non-cash preferred dividend of approximately $1.0 million related to the difference in the market value of the Company's common stock and the $10.07 conversion price on June 6, 2005, which represents the date at which the Company notified the financial institution of its intention to exercise its option to sell the preferred shares.

Funds From Operations

The White Paper on Funds From Operations (FFO) approved by the Board of Governors of the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT) in April 2002 defines FFO as net income (loss) computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), excluding gains or losses from sales of properties and extraordinary items as defined by GAAP, plus depreciation and amortization of real estate assets, and net of adjustments for the portion of these items related to unconsolidated entities and joint ventures. NAREIT developed FFO as a relative measure of performance of an equity REIT to recognize that income-producing real estate historically has not depreciated on the basis determined by GAAP.

We compute FFO in accordance with our interpretation of standards established by NAREIT, which may not be comparable to FFO reported by other REITs that either do not define the term in accordance with the current NAREIT definition or interpret the NAREIT definition differently than us. FFO does not represent cash generated from operating activities as determined by GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to a) GAAP net income (loss) as an indication of our financial performance or b) GAAP cash flows from operating activities as a measure of our liquidity, nor is it indicative of funds available to satisfy our cash needs, including our ability to make cash distributions. However, to facilitate a clear understanding of our historical operating results, we believe that FFO should be considered along with our net income (loss) and cash flows reported in the consolidated financial statements.

The following table reconciles net income available to common shareholders to FFO available to common shareholders for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (in thousands, unaudited):

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES:

Our principal source of funds to meet our cash requirements, including distributions to stockholders, is our share of the operating partnership's cash flow. The operating partnership's principal sources of revenue include: (i) cash flow from hotel operations, (ii) interest income from our notes receivable portfolio, and (iii) guaranteed payments related to our asset management and consulting contracts with an affiliate.

Cash flows from hotel operations are subject to all operating risks common to the hotel industry, including:

Competition for guests from other hotels;

Adverse effects of general and local economic conditions;

Dependence on demand from business and leisure travelers, which may fluctuate and be seasonal;

Increases in energy costs, airline fares, and other expenses related to travel, which may deter traveling;

Increases in operating costs related to inflation and other factors, including wages, benefits, insurance, and energy;

Overbuilding in the hotel industry, especially in particular markets; and

Actual or threatened acts of terrorism and actions taken against terrorists, which create public concern over travel safety.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2006, we completed the following significant transactions, which have or will affect our cash flow and liquidity:

The increase in net cash flow provided by operating activities was primarily attributable to improved operating income in 2006, which resulted from improved operations at the 33 comparable hotels as well as the 40 hotels acquired since December 2004 included in continuing operations.

Net Cash Flow Used In Investing Activities. For the nine months ended September 30, 2006, net cash flow used in investing activities was approximately $170.9 million, which consisted of approximately $142.5 million related to acquisitions of hotel properties, $27.0 million related to deposits for future acquisitions of hotel properties, $26.3 million related to acquisitions or originations of notes receivable, and $29.7 million of improvements to various hotel properties. In general, we are focused exclusively on investing in the hospitality industry across all segments, including direct hotel investments, first mortgages, mezzanine loans, and eventually sale-leaseback transactions. We intend to acquire and, in the appropriate market conditions, develop additional hotels and provide structured financings to owners of lodging properties. We may incur indebtedness to fund any such acquisitions, developments, or financings. We may also incur indebtedness to meet distribution requirements imposed on REITs under the Internal Revenue Code to the extent that working capital and cash flow from our investments are insufficient to fund the required distributions. However, no assurances can be given that we will obtain additional financings or, if we do, what the amount and terms will be. Our failure to obtain future financing under favorable terms could adversely impact our ability to execute our business strategy. In addition, we may selectively pursue mortgage financing on individual properties and our mortgage investments.

We will acquire or develop additional hotels and invest in structured financings only as suitable opportunities arise, and we will not undertake such investments unless adequate sources of financing are available. Funds for future hotel-related investments are expected to be derived, in whole or in part, from future borrowings under a credit facility or other loan or from proceeds from additional issuances of common stock, preferred stock, or other securities. However, other than the aforementioned acquisitions and those mentioned in subsequent events discussion below, we have no formal commitment or understanding to invest in additional assets, and there can be no assurance that we will successfully make additional investments.

Our existing hotels are located in developed areas that contain competing hotel properties. The future occupancy, ADR, and RevPAR of any individual hotel could be materially and adversely affected by an increase in the number or quality of the competitive hotel properties in its market area. Competition could also affect the quality and quantity of future investment opportunities.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

On October 11, 2006, the Company issued 5,122 shares of common stock in exchange for 5,122 units of limited partnership interest.

On November 2, 2006, the Company issued 616,024 shares of common stock in exchange for 616,024 units of limited partnership interest.

INFLATION:

We rely entirely on the performance of our properties and the ability of the properties' managers to increase revenues to keep pace with inflation. Hotel operators can generally increase room rates rather quickly, but competitive pressures may limit their ability to raise rates faster than inflation. Our general and administrative costs, such as real estate and personal property taxes, property and casualty insurance, and utilities, are subject to inflation as well.

SEASONALITY:

Our properties' operations historically have been seasonal as certain properties maintain higher occupancy rates during the summer months. This seasonality pattern causes fluctuations in our quarterly lease revenue under our percentage leases. We anticipate that our cash flow from the operations of the properties will be sufficient to enable us to make quarterly distributions to maintain our REIT status. To the extent that cash flow from operations is insufficient during any quarter due to temporary or seasonal fluctuations in lease revenue, we expect to utilize other cash on hand or borrowings to fund required distributions. However, we cannot make any assurances that we will make distributions in the future.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The critical accounting policies which we believe are the most significant to fully understand and evaluate our reported financial results are described below:

Use of Estimates The preparation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

In addition, in connection with the Company's acquisition of Marriott Crystal Gateway hotel in Arlington, Virginia, on July 13, 2006, the Company assumed the existing management agreement, which expires in 2017 with three ten-year renewal options and provides for a base management fee of 3% of the hotel's gross revenues plus certain incentive management fees. Based on the Company's review of this management agreement, the Company concluded that the terms are more favorable to the manager than a typical current market management agreement. Hence, the Company recorded an unfavorable contract liability of approximately $15.8 million related to this management agreement as of the acquisition date based on the present value of expected cash outflows over the initial term of the agreement.

Investment in Hotel Properties The initial properties are stated at the predecessor's historical cost, net of any impairment charges, plus approximately $8.1 million of minority interest partial step-up recorded upon the Company's formation related to the acquisition of minority interest from unaffiliated parties associated with four of the initial properties. Hotel properties acquired subsequent to the Company's formation are stated at cost. All improvements and additions which extend the useful life of hotel properties are capitalized.

Impairment of Investment in Hotel Properties Hotel properties are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values of such hotel properties may not be recoverable. The Company tests for impairment in several situations, including when current or projected cash flows are less than historical cash flows, when it becomes more likely than not that a hotel property will be sold before the end of its previously estimated useful life, and when events or changes in circumstances indicate that a hotel property's net book value may not be recoverable. In evaluating the impairment of hotel properties, the Company makes many assumptions and estimates, including projected cash flows, holding period, expected useful life, future capital expenditures, and fair values, which considers capitalization rates, discount rates, and comparable selling prices. If an asset was deemed to be impaired, the Company would record an impairment charge for the amount that the property's net book value exceeds its fair value. To date, no such impairment charges have been recognized.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense Depreciation expense is based on the estimated useful life of the Company's assets, while amortization expense for leasehold improvements is based on the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the related assets. Presently, hotel properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over lives which range from 15 to 39 years for buildings and improvements and 3 to 5 years for furniture, fixtures, and equipment. While the Company believes its estimates are reasonable, a change in estimated lives could affect depreciation expense and net income (loss) as well as the gain or loss on the potential sale of any of the Company's hotels.

Assets Held For Sale and Discontinued Operations The Company records assets as held for sale when management has committed to a plan to sell the assets, actively seeks a buyer for the assets, and the consummation of the sale is considered probable and is expected within one year. The related operations of assets held for sale are reported as discontinued if a) such operations and cash flows can be clearly distinguished, both operationally and financially, from the ongoing operations of the Company, b) such operations and cash flows will be eliminated from ongoing operations once the disposal occurs, and c) the Company will not have any significant continuing involvement subsequent to the disposal.

Table of Contents

Notes Receivable The Company provides mezzanine and first-mortgage financing in the form of loans. Loans receivable are recorded at cost, adjusted for net origination fees and costs. Premiums, discounts, and net origination fees are amortized or accreted as an adjustment to interest income using the effective interest method. Loans receivable are reviewed for potential impairment at each balance sheet date. A loan receivable is considered impaired when it becomes probable, based on current information, that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the loan's contractual terms. The amount of impairment, if any, is measured by comparing the recorded amount of the loan to the present value of the expected cash flows or the fair value of the collateral. If a loan was deemed to be impaired, the Company would record a reserve for loan losses through a charge to income for any shortfall. To date, no such impairment charges have been recognized.

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, as revised (FIN No. 46), variable interest entities, as defined, are required to be consolidated by their primary beneficiaries if the variable interest entities do not effectively disperse risks among parties involved. The Company's mezzanine and first-mortgage loans receivable are each secured by various hotel properties or partnership interests in hotel properties and are subordinate to primary loans related to the secured hotels. All of these loans receivable are considered to be variable interests in the entities that own the related hotels, which are variable interest entities. However, the Company is not considered to be the primary beneficiary of these hotel properties as a result of holding these loans. Therefore, the Company does not consolidate such hotels for which it has provided financing. Interests in entities acquired or created in the future will be evaluated based on FIN No. 46 criteria, and such entities will be consolidated, if required. The analysis utilized by the Company in evaluating FIN No. 46 criteria involves considerable management judgment and assumptions.

Stock-based Compensation The Company accounts for stock-based compensation using the fair-value method. In connection with the Company's formation, the Company established an employee Incentive Stock Plan (the Stock Plan). Under the Stock Plan, the Company periodically issues shares of restricted and non-restricted common stock. All such shares are charged to compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period based on the Company's stock price on the date of issuance. Under the Stock Plan, the Company may issue a variety of additional performance-based stock awards, including nonqualified stock options. As of September 30, 2006, no performance-based stock awards aside from the aforementioned stock grants have been issued.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS No. 123R), effective January 1, 2006. SFAS No. 123R is a revision of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. SFAS No. 123R requires the cost of share-based awards to employees to be measured based on an award's fair value at the grant date, with such cost to be amortized over the appropriate service period. Previously, entities could elect to continue accounting for such awards at their grant date intrinsic value under APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. In addition, SFAS No. 123R requires future forfeitures of stock awards to be estimated and accounted for currently rather than as such forfeitures occur. The Company's adoption of SFAS No. 123R in the first quarter of 2006 using the modified prospective application had no impact on the Company's results of operations. As required by SFAS No. 123R, the Company reclassified unearned compensation on its balance sheet to additional paid-in capital. Forfeitures of stock grants have been and are expected to continue to be insignificant.

In June 2006, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) ratified EITF No. 06-3, How Taxes Collected from Customers and Remitted to Government Authorities Should be Presented in the Income Statement (That Is, Gross versus Net Presentation). EITF No. 06-3 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2006, with earlier application permitted. EITF No. 06-3 relates to taxes assessed by a governmental authority imposed on revenue-producing transactions, such as sales taxes. EITF No. 06-3 states that gross versus net income statement presentation of such taxes is an accounting policy decision requiring disclosure. EITF No. 06-3 further requires disclosure of the amount of such taxes reflected at gross, if any. The Company does not believe the adoption of EITF No. 06-3 will impact its financial condition or results of operations.

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN No. 48), effective January 1, 2007. FIN No. 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the recognition and measurement of a tax position taken in a tax return. FIN No. 48 requires that a determination be made as to whether it is more likely than not that a tax position taken, based on its technical merits, will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any appeals and litigation processes. If the more-likely-than-not threshold is met, the tax position must be measured to determine the amount of benefit, if any, to recognize in the financial statements. FIN No. 48 applies to all tax positions related to income taxes subject to FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, but does not apply to tax positions related to FASB Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of FIN No. 48 for adoption in the first quarter of 2007. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of FIN No. 48, if any, will be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings on January 1, 2007.

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Our primary market risk exposure consists of changes in interest rates on borrowings under our debt instruments that bear interest at variable rates that fluctuate with market interest rates. The analysis below presents the sensitivity of the market value of our financial instruments to selected changes in market interest rates.

As of September 30, 2006, our $753.7 million of outstanding debt consisted entirely of fixed-rate debt, with interest rates ranging from 5.41% to 7.24%.

In addition, on October 28, 2005, the Company purchased a 7.0% LIBOR interest rate cap with a $45.0 million notional amount, which matures October 15, 2007, to limit its exposure to rising interest rates on $45.0 million of its variable-rate debt. The Company designated the $45.0 million cap as a cash flow hedge of its exposure to changes in interest rates on a corresponding amount of variable-rate debt.

Our objective in using derivatives is to increase stability related to interest expense and to manage our exposure to interest rate movements or other identified risks. To accomplish this objective, we primarily use interest rate swaps and caps as part of our cash flow hedging strategy. Interest rate swaps designated as cash flow hedges involve the receipt of variable-rate amounts in exchange for fixed-rate payments over the life of the agreements without exchange of the underlying principal amount. Interest rate caps provide us with interest rate protection above the strike rate on the cap and result in us receiving interest payments when rates are above the cap strike. As of September 30, 2006, derivatives with a fair value of approximately $257 were included in other assets, and derivatives with a fair value of $0 were included in other liabilities.

As of September 30, 2006, our $97.6 million portfolio of notes receivable consisted of approximately $74.6 million of outstanding variable-rate notes and approximately $23.0 million of outstanding fixed-rate notes. For the nine months ended September 30, 2006, the impact to our results of operations of a one-point change in interest rate on the outstanding balance of variable-rate notes receivable as of September 30, 2006 would be approximately $560,000. The above amounts were determined based on the impact of hypothetical interest rates on our borrowing and lending portfolios, and assume no changes in our capital structure. As the information presented above includes only those exposures that exist as of September 30, 2006, it does not consider those exposures or positions which could arise after that date. Hence, the information presented herein has limited predictive value. As a result, the ultimate realized gain or loss with respect to interest rate fluctuations will depend on the exposures that arise during the period, the hedging strategies at the time, and the related interest rates.

ITEM 4: CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report have been designed and are functioning effectively to provide reasonable assurance that the information required to be disclosed by us in reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. We believe that a controls system, no matter how well designed and operated, cannot provide absolute assurance that the objectives of the controls system are met, and no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within a company have been detected. Management is required to apply judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

There have been no changes in our internal controls over financial reporting during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal controls over financial reporting.
