MERGER PROPOSAL YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Umpqua Holdings Corporation (Umpqua) and North Bay Bancorp (North Bay) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization pursuant to which North Bay would merge with and into Umpqua. We are sending you this document to ask you to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Upon completion of the merger, North Bay shareholders will be entitled to receive 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock for each share of North Bay common stock that they own. Based on this exchange ratio, the implied value per share of North Bay common stock is equal to $, based on the market value of Umpqua common stock on , 2007.

Umpqua common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol UMPQ and North Bay common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol NBAN . On January 17, 2007, the date prior to announcement of the proposed merger, Umpqua common stock closed at $28.77 and North Bay common stock closed at $30.00.

The value of the merger consideration to North Bay shareholders will depend on the value of Umpqua common stock upon completion of the merger and will fluctuate with the market price of Umpqua common stock. If the transaction closed on January 17, 2007 you would have been entitled to receive 121 shares and approximately $20.63 in cash for fractional shares for each 100 shares of North Bay common stock held. This amount will vary with the price of Umpqua s stock.

After careful consideration, each of the boards of directors of Umpqua and North Bay determined the merger to be fair to its shareholders and in its shareholders best interests, and unanimously approved the merger agreement. Umpqua s and North Bay s board of directors each received an opinion of its respective financial advisor as to the fairness of the consideration to be paid, in the case of Umpqua, and the exchange ratio, in the case of North Bay, to their respective shareholders from a financial point of view.

Your vote is very important. We cannot complete the merger unless North Bay s shareholders approve the merger proposal. North Bay s board of directors is soliciting proxies from shareholders to vote at a special shareholder meeting. You do not need to attend the meeting to vote your shares, although you are invited to do so. Whether or not you choose to attend, please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy or follow the instructions on the proxy for telephone or internet voting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING AND THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Q:

What are North Bay shareholders being asked to vote on at the special shareholder meeting?

A: North Bay shareholders will vote on a proposal to approve the principal terms of the merger agreement and related plan of merger and, if necessary, a proposal to approve adjournment or postponement of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal.

Q:

What do I need to do now?

A: First, carefully read this document in its entirety. Then, vote your shares by one of the following methods:

mark, sign, date and return your proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible;

call the toll-free number on the proxy card and follow the directions provided;

go to the web site listed on the proxy card and follow the instructions provided; or attend the shareholder meeting and submit a properly executed proxy or ballot. If a broker holds your shares in street name, you will need to get a legal proxy from your broker to vote in person at the meeting.

Q: What vote is required to approve the merger agreement?

A: The merger agreement will be approved if the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of North Bay common stock vote in favor of the merger proposal. Accordingly, a failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal, except for the purpose of preserving any dissenters' rights that a North Bay shareholder may have.

Q: Have Umpqua's and North Bay's boards of directors approved the merger?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, the board of directors of each of the companies determined the merger to be fair to and in the best interests of its respective shareholders, and North Bay's board of directors unanimously recommend that you vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Q: Who is eligible to vote?

A: Holders of record of North Bay common stock at the close of business on March 1, 2007 are eligible to vote at the special meeting of shareholders.

Q: Are there dissenters' appraisal rights?

A: Under California law, North Bay shareholders may exercise dissenters' rights as provided in the California General Corporation Law. If you meet all the requirements under California law and follow all of its required procedures, you may receive cash in the amount equal to the fair market value (as determined by mutual agreement between you and North Bay, or if there is no agreement, by a court) of your shares of North Bay common stock as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of the merger. The procedure for exercising your dissenters' rights is summarized under the heading DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS. The relevant provisions of the California General Corporation Law on dissenters' rights are attached to this document as Appendix E. A vote in favor of the merger proposal will preclude you from exercising dissenters' rights; you must vote against the merger.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card or voted by telephone or electronically?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, you can do this by:

calling the toll-free number on the proxy card at least 24 hours before the meeting and following the directions provided;

going to the web site listed on the proxy card at least 24 hours before the meeting and following the instructions provided;

submitting a properly executed proxy prior to the meeting bearing a later date than your previous proxy;

Table of Contents

notifying North Bay's corporate Secretary in writing of the revocation of your proxy before the meeting; or voting in person at the special meeting, but simply attending the meeting will not, in and of itself, revoke a proxy.

If you vote through your broker, you must contact your broker to receive instructions on changing your vote.

Q: Can I attend the shareholder meeting even if I vote by proxy?

A: Yes. All shareholders are welcome to attend and we encourage you to do so.

Q: What if I do not vote or I abstain?

A: If you fail to respond or you mark your proxy "abstain", it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal. Your vote is very important. If you sign and submit your proxy but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the merger proposal.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: No. If your shares are held by your broker (or other nominee), you should receive this document and an instruction card from your broker. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. If you do not tell your broker how to vote, your broker cannot vote your shares. This will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Q: Should North Bay shareholders send stock certificates at this time?

A: No, please do not send in your certificates until you receive instructions to do so. If you do not know where your stock certificates are located, you may want to find them now, so you do not experience delays receiving your merger consideration. If you have lost or misplaced your North Bay stock certificates, contact North Bay's transfer agent, Registrar and Transfer Company, 10 Commerce Drive, Cranford, NJ 07016, (800) 368-5948. After completion of the merger, you will receive instructions for exchanging your North Bay stock certificates for Umpqua stock certificates.

Q: Where do I get more information?

A: If you have questions about the merger or submitting your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this document, the proxy card or any documents incorporated by reference, you should contact:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will North Bay shareholders receive in the merger?

A: North Bay shareholders will receive 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock in exchange for each share of North Bay common stock. This represents an implied value of North Bay common stock of $35.01 per share, based upon the last reported price of Umpqua common stock on January 17, 2007, the last full trading day prior to public announcement of the merger, and an implied value of North Bay common stock of $ per share, based upon the last reported price of Umpqua common stock on March , 2007.

Q: Will the exchange ratio of 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock for one share of North Bay common stock adjust under any circumstances?

A: If the average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected merger closing date, or the Umpqua measuring period, is less than $26.42, then North Bay may elect to terminate the merger agreement. However, if North Bay exercises this termination option, Umpqua may choose to increase the number of shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued by increasing the exchange ratio such that the exchange ratio equals the quotient of $32.15 divided by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period.

If the average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the Umpqua measuring period is greater than $33.58, the exchange ratio will automatically adjust to an exchange ratio equal to the quotient of $40.87 divided by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period. This would have the effect of reducing the exchange ratio to an amount lower than 1.217.

Q: Did the Umpqua and North Bay boards of directors receive fairness opinions?

A: Yes. Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc. issued an opinion to the North Bay board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to North Bay shareholders. Milestone Advisors, LLC issued an opinion to the Umpqua board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be offered by Umpqua to North Bay shareholders.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger?

A: We have structured the merger so that Umpqua and North Bay and most of our respective shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes in the merger, except for taxes payable with respect to cash received by North Bay shareholders:

in lieu of fractional shares,

in the event Umpqua's stock price is less than $26.42 over the Umpqua measuring period and Umpqua elects to fill with cash instead of increasing the exchange ratio, or who have properly exercised dissenters' rights.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the merger?

A: We encourage you to read the detailed information about the merger in this document, including the RISK FACTORS section beginning on page .

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible and we anticipate the merger will be completed in the second quarter of 2007. Because the merger is subject to shareholder and regulatory approval and other factors beyond our control, we cannot predict with accuracy the exact timing for completing the merger.

Q: What regulatory approvals are required to complete the merger?

A: We must obtain written approvals or waivers from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services acting through the Division of Finance and Corporate Securities.

Table of Contents

Q: Who will manage the combined company?

A: Umpqua will be the surviving corporation in the merger and the executive officers and directors of Umpqua immediately prior to the merger will be the executive officers and directors of Umpqua following the merger.

Terry L. Robinson, President and Chief Executive Officer of North Bay, will work with William T. Fike, President of Umpqua Bank's California Region, to oversee completion of the merger. Glen Terry, President of The Vintage Bank, has executed an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with Umpqua to serve as a regional executive for Napa and Solano Counties effective with the closing of the merger. Other executive officers of North Bay are expected to continue with the combined company during a three to twelve month integration period after closing, but few are likely to have a continuing role with the combined company.

Umpqua s directors and executive officers beneficially owned shares of Umpqua common stock as of , 2007.

Interests of North Bay Directors and Executive Officers (page)

North Bay executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of other shareholders, which may create potential conflicts of interest. North Bay s board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement. When considering the recommendation of North Bay s board of directors, you should be aware that:

All unvested North Bay stock options and all North Bay restricted stock awards will become fully vested at the closing of the merger;

Members of North Bay s executive management are parties to agreements, which provide for, subject to their willingness to remain employed with Umpqua or Umpqua Bank for up to one year following the merger and compliance with confidentiality and non-solicitation covenants, an amount payable in monthly installments over a period of time of up to twenty-four months following termination. The aggregate amount of cash severance payable under all existing North Bay severance agreements and the amended agreements is estimated at $2.7 million;

The merger agreement requires Umpqua to indemnify, following the effective time of the merger, the present and former directors and officers of North Bay to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law against costs and expenses related to matters existing at or prior to the effective time of the merger; and

The merger agreement requires Umpqua to provide North Bay s existing directors and officers with liability insurance for a period of three years after the effective time of the merger.

A special meeting of North Bay shareholders will be held on April , 2007 at a.m., local time, at , Napa, California. At the meeting, shareholders will be asked to approve the principal terms of the merger agreement and related plan of merger. Holders of North Bay common stock as of March , 2007 will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

North Bay Shareholders May Have Dissenting Shareholders Rights (page)

Under California law, as a North Bay shareholder you have the right to dissent from the merger and to have the appraised fair market value of your shares of North Bay common stock paid to you in cash. You have the right to seek appraisal and be paid the appraised value of your shares in cash if:

you deliver to North Bay, before the special meeting, a written demand for payment of your shares;

holders of at least 5% of the total number of shares (including you) of North Bay common stock timely make the required written demand;

you vote against the merger; and you comply with California law governing dissenters' rights.

Table of Contents

If you dissent from the merger and the conditions outlined above are met, your only right will be to receive the appraised value of your shares in cash, which appraised value may be more or less than the value of the merger consideration.

Conditions to the Merger (page)

Completion of the merger depends upon a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally possible, waived, including among others:

approval of the merger proposal by North Bay shareholders;

receipt of required regulatory approvals and waivers;

absence of an injunction or regulatory prohibition to completion of the merger;

accuracy of the respective representations and warranties of Umpqua and North Bay, subject to violations of the representations and warranties that would not have a material adverse effect on Umpqua or North Bay, individually or in the aggregate;

receipt by each party of an opinion of Umpqua's tax counsel that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization;

the average daily balance of North Bay's core deposits for the calendar month immediately preceding the projected effective date of the merger being not less than 94% of the average daily balance of core deposits for the month of November 2006;

compliance in all material respects by Umpqua and North Bay with their respective covenants in the merger agreement; and amended and restated employment agreements with North Bay executives being in full force and effect.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

The merger agreement contains provisions that prohibit North Bay from, and each director of North Bay has entered into an agreement that prohibits such director from, taking any action to solicit or encourage or engage in discussions or negotiations with any person or group with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal. North Bay and its directors may not provide non-public information to any other person in connection with a possible alternative transaction, except to the extent specifically authorized by its board of directors in the good faith exercise of its fiduciary duties after consultation with legal counsel. North Bay must notify Umpqua of any alternative acquisition proposal.

Our boards of directors may agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to completing the merger, even after shareholder approval. Either Umpqua or North Bay may terminate the merger agreement if the merger has not been completed by October 1, 2007; or if, after notice and an opportunity to cure, the other party has made a material misrepresentation or materially breached the merger agreement. North Bay's board of directors may also terminate the merger agreement upon advice of legal counsel that the fiduciary duties of the North Bay directors so require or as described in the next paragraph.

Termination or Adjustment due to Decline in Umpqua's Stock Price (page)

North Bay may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period is less than $26.42.

Upon receipt of such notification, Umpqua has the option to increase the exchange ratio by an amount sufficient to achieve an exchange ratio equal to $32.15 divided by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period. Umpqua may also elect to pay additional consideration in cash instead of increasing the exchange ratio. For example, if the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period is $26.00 and North Bay notifies Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement, Umpqua could elect to:

accept the termination;

adjust the exchange ratio to 1.2365; or maintain the 1.217 exchange ratio and pay $0.508 per share to each North Bay shareholder.

If the merger agreement is terminated by either party because North Bay's shareholders do not approve the merger proposal; by Umpqua because of an uncured material misrepresentation or material breach by North Bay; or by North Bay pursuant to its fiduciary duties upon advice of legal counsel, then North Bay will pay Umpqua its reasonable expenses up to $500,000. If Umpqua terminates the merger agreement because of North Bay's willful failure to comply with a material covenant, North Bay will pay Umpqua an additional $2,000,000.

If the merger agreement is terminated by North Bay because of an uncured material misrepresentation or material breach by Umpqua, then Umpqua will pay North Bay its reasonable expenses up to $500,000. If North Bay terminates the merger agreement because of Umpqua's willful failure to comply with a material covenant, Umpqua will pay North Bay an additional $2,000,000, which is North Bay's sole remedy for termination.

In addition, and subject to exceptions discussed in detail in this document, if North Bay enters into any alternative acquisition transaction within twelve months of termination of the merger agreement, North Bay will pay $5,000,000 (less any termination fee already paid) to Umpqua if the alternative acquisition transaction had been proposed prior to the date of the North Bay special shareholder meeting to vote on the Umpqua merger. The termination fees described above are Umpqua's sole remedies for termination.

To complete the merger, we must obtain approvals or waivers from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services Division of Finance and Corporate Securities (Oregon DFCS) and Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Federal Reserve Board). Umpqua submitted a merger application to the FDIC and Oregon DFCS, on , 2007, and a request for waiver of prior approval to the Federal Reserve Board on , 2007.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consideration (page)

In general, when you exchange your North Bay common stock for shares of Umpqua common stock, you will not recognize any gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes. Taxes may be payable with respect to cash received by North Bay shareholders:

in lieu of fractional shares,

in the event Umpqua's stock price is less than $26.42 over the Umpqua measuring period and Umpqua elects to fill with cash instead of increasing the exchange ratio, or who have properly exercised dissenters' rights.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This document contains and incorporates by reference forward-looking statements about Umpqua, North Bay and the combined company, which statements are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements may include statements regarding business strategies and prospects, management plans and objectives for future operations and projected expenses incurred to complete the merger as well as the performance and financial condition of Umpqua and North Bay after the merger. Statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. You can find many of these statements by looking for words such as anticipates, believes, estimates, expects, intends, may, possible, potential, projects, strategy, and similar words or phrases. Forward-looking statements involve substantial risks and uncertainties, many of which are uncertain and difficult to predict and are generally beyond the control of North Bay and Umpqua. Some factors that could cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from historical or expected results include, but are not limited to, those discussed in the Risk Factors section of this document and in Umpqua's and North Bay's SEC filings incorporated by reference into this document, as well as:

the inability to obtain required approvals on acceptable terms, on the anticipated schedule or at all;

loss of customers and personnel during the integration process;

costs in completing the merger exceeding estimates;

revenues following the merger being lower than expected;

Umpqua's ability to successfully integrate acquired entities and achieve expected synergies, operating efficiencies or cost savings;

the ability to attract new deposits and loans;

increases in competitive pressure among financial institutions;

deterioration in economic conditions that could result in greater than anticipated loan losses;

inflation, interest rate, market and monetary fluctuations;

changes in legal or regulatory requirements; and the ability to recruit and retain certain key management and staff.

Umpqua and North Bay do not intend, and disclaim any duty or obligation, to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by securities laws. You should consider any written or oral forward-looking statements in light of this explanation, and we caution you about relying on forward-looking statements.

RISK FACTORS

Completion of the merger represents an investment by North Bay shareholders in Umpqua's common stock and an investment by Umpqua in North Bay's assets and liabilities, each of which will subject the respective investor to various risks. You should carefully consider the following risk factors, as well as the matters addressed in the CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION section of this document and the information contained in Umpqua's and North Bay's filings with the SEC incorporated into this document by reference, before deciding how to vote on the merger proposal.

The market value of Umpqua common stock to be received by North Bay shareholders will fluctuate before and after the merger and will be influenced by the performance of both Umpqua and North Bay prior to closing.

As long as Umpqua's average closing price for the fifteen consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is no less than $26.42 and no greater than $33.58 per share, each share of North Bay common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock. The exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of North Bay common stock. The exchange ratio will be automatically adjusted downward if Umpqua's stock price is more than $33.58 over the measuring period. If Umpqua's stock price is less than $26.42, North Bay exercises its right to terminate the merger and Umpqua elects to adjust the exchange ratio, the exchange ratio will be adjusted upward. See THE MERGER Merger Consideration. The value of the consideration that North Bay shareholders receive upon completion of the merger will depend on the market value of Umpqua shares at that time and could vary significantly from the market value on the date of this document or the date of the North Bay special meeting. An unexpected change in the performance or prospects of either Umpqua or North Bay and other factors that are beyond our control such as general market and economic conditions will likely influence the market value of Umpqua's common stock. The market value of Umpqua shares will continue to fluctuate after the merger is completed.

The combined company may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The merger is expected to generate expense reductions of budgeted North Bay non-interest expense and after-tax cost savings when the operations of Umpqua and North Bay are completely integrated, which is expected to be at least six months following closing. The expense reductions are intended to be achieved by eliminating duplicative technology, operations, outside services and redundant staff, and through facility consolidations and purchasing efficiencies. The anticipated cost savings may not be realized fully or at all and could take longer to realize than expected. Any failure to realize the potential benefits could have a material adverse effect on the value of Umpqua common stock.

The integration of banking operations may not be completed efficiently, which could result in the loss of customers and employees.

At the time of the merger, The Vintage Bank and its Solano Bank division will merge with and into Umpqua Bank and operate under the Umpqua Bank name and charter. The integration of Umpqua's and North Bay's banking operations will involve substantial resources and could be disruptive to the employees and customers of The Vintage Bank and Solano Bank.

The Vintage Bank and Solano Bank customers are accustomed to traditional community bank branch facilities and services under two distinct brands. Umpqua Bank's facilities operate under a single brand. Customers may not react favorably to re-branding following the merger. Umpqua Bank has transformed itself from a traditional community bank into a community-oriented financial services retailer. In implementing this strategy, Umpqua has remodeled many of its banking branches to resemble retail stores that include distinct physical areas or boutiques such as a serious about service center, an investment opportunity center and a computer café. Over a period of months following the merger, Umpqua intends to remodel and convert some of The Vintage Bank's and Solano Bank's branches in a similar fashion. Conversion to the Umpqua model involves significant costs and disrupts banking activities during the remodeling period, and presents a new look and feel to the banking services and products being offered. There is a risk that existing customers and employees will not stay with Umpqua Bank during the remodeling period or after the conversion is completed. There is also a risk that some existing customers and employees may not react favorably to Umpqua Bank's retail delivery system. There may be delays in completing the conversion, which could cause confusion and disruption in the banking operations. The failure to integrate banking operations efficiently, on budget and in a timely manner could have an adverse effect on the combined company and could result in lower than expected revenues or higher than expected costs following completion of the merger.

Umpqua is pursuing an aggressive growth strategy, which may place heavy demands on its management and infrastructure resources.

Umpqua is one of the faster-growing community financial services organizations in the United States. Umpqua Bank merged with Valley of the Rogue Bank in December 2000 and, in a series of transactions effective December 2001, acquired IFN Bank/Security Bank, Pacific State Bank, Family Security Bank, Lincoln Security Bank, McKenzie State Bank, Oregon State Bank and Linn-Benton Bank. Umpqua completed the acquisition of Centennial Bancorp in November 2002. In July 2004, Umpqua expanded its footprint into California with the acquisition of Humboldt Bancorp. In June 2006, Umpqua acquired Western Sierra Bancorp and its subsidiary banks Western Sierra National Bank, Auburn Community Bank, Central California Bank and Lake Community Bank. From time to time, Umpqua has also explored other merger and acquisition opportunities and expects to continue to do so. Umpqua expects that a substantial amount of its management's attention and effort will need to be directed at deriving the benefits and efficiencies expected from the merger with North Bay. Moreover, the combined company will be dependent on the efforts of key management personnel to achieve the integration of the merger and any other acquisitions Umpqua may undertake. The loss of one or more key persons could have a material adverse effect upon Umpqua's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Continued growth by Umpqua may present operating and other problems that could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our growth may place a strain on our administrative, operational, personnel and financial resources and increase demands on our systems and controls. We anticipate that our business growth may require continued enhancements to and expansion of our operating and financial systems and controls may significantly challenge them. Our inability to continue to upgrade or maintain effective operating and financial control systems and to recruit and hire necessary personnel or to successfully integrate new personnel into our operations could adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. We cannot assure you that our existing operating and financial control systems and infrastructure will be adequate to maintain and effectively monitor future growth.

We may not be successful in overcoming these risks or other problems encountered in connection with acquisitions. Our integration of operations of banks or branches that we acquire may not be successfully accomplished and may take a significant amount of time. Our inability to improve the operating performance of acquired banks and branches or to successfully integrate their operations could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. We expect to hire additional employees and retain consultants to assist with integrating our operations, and we cannot assure you that those individuals or firms will perform as expected or be successful in addressing these issues.

Umpqua is involved in non-bank business, which may not perform well in the future.

Umpqua has a licensed retail broker-dealer subsidiary, Strand, Atkinson, Williams & York, Inc. Retail brokerage operations present special risks not generally borne by community banks. For example, the brokerage industry is subject to fluctuations in the stock market that may have a significant adverse impact on transaction fees and customer activity. A decline in fees and commissions could adversely affect the subsidiary's contribution to Umpqua's income, and might increase the subsidiary's capital needs. In its continuing expansion, Umpqua may acquire other financial services companies whose successful integration is not assured and may present additional management challenges and new risks.

Table of Contents

North Bay shareholders will own approximately 8.1% of the combined company after the merger and will have less influence over management.

After the merger's completion, North Bay shareholders will own 8.1% of the combined company, a significantly smaller percentage of Umpqua than their 100% ownership of North Bay. In addition, the Umpqua board of directors will remain the same following the merger and none of the existing North Bay directors will join Umpqua's board of directors. Consequently, North Bay shareholders will not be able to exercise influence over the management and policies of Umpqua to the same level they currently influence management and policies of North Bay.

The merger agreement limits North Bay's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains non-solicitation covenants that make it more difficult for North Bay to discuss or commit to third-party proposals to acquire North Bay. North Bay's board of directors is permitted to take these actions in connection with receipt of a competing acquisition proposal if it determines that the failure to do so would violate its fiduciary duties, but taking such actions would entitle Umpqua to terminate the merger agreement. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT No Solicitation. The merger agreement also requires North Bay to pay Umpqua a termination fee of $5 million if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances relating to an alternative acquisition proposal. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination Effect of Termination. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of North Bay from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire North Bay than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

North Bay directors have entered into agreements that could have the effect of limiting North Bay's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of North Bay common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. The directors of North Bay, who in the aggregate have the power to vote approximately []% of the outstanding shares of North Bay common stock, have each executed agreements with Umpqua pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. Each director has agreed, in his or her individual capacity as a shareholder and not in the capacity of a director, that he or she shall not, directly or indirectly, initiate contact with any person or entity in an effort to solicit any alternative acquisition transaction. As a result, only an additional [] shares, or []% of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, are required to approve the merger proposal.

North Bay's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from the interests of shareholders who are not employees or directors of North Bay.

North Bay's executive officers and a special committee of the North Bay board of directors negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, and North Bay's board of directors unanimously approved and recommended that North Bay's shareholders vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this document, you should be aware that North Bay's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from and in addition to the interests they share with you as a North Bay shareholder. See THE MERGER Interests of North Bay Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger for detailed information about these interests, including the accelerated vesting of stock options and restricted stock awards, payments pursuant to employment agreements and accelerated vesting of supplemental executive retirement benefits.

A signed proxy that is submitted without voting instructions will be voted by the named proxy holders FOR the merger proposal and, if necessary, FOR adjournment or postponement of the meeting to solicit additional proxies. In addition, the named proxy holders will vote in their discretion on such other matters that may be considered at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

If you do not instruct your broker or other nominee how to vote, the broker may submit a proxy without a vote, which is referred to as a broker non-vote. Brokers holding shares of North Bay common stock as nominees will not have discretionary authority to vote in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owners on the merger proposal. The failure to provide voting instructions and the resulting broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal.

Table of Contents

How We Determine a Quorum

North Bay must have a quorum to conduct any business at the special meeting. Shareholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of North Bay's common stock must attend the meeting in person or by proxy to have a quorum. If you attend the meeting or submit a proxy, but abstain from voting on a given matter, your shares will be counted as present for determining a quorum. Broker non-votes will also be counted as present for determining a quorum.

How We Count Votes

Each share is entitled to one vote. The named proxies will vote shares as instructed on the proxies. Abstentions or broker non-votes will not be counted for or against the merger proposal, but they will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Vote Required to Approve the Merger

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of North Bay common stock outstanding on the record date is required to approve the merger proposal. An abstention or a broker non-vote will therefore have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement. North Bay's board of directors urges you to submit your proxy by mail, touch-tone telephone or the Internet. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Proxy Solicitation

The accompanying North Bay proxy is being solicited by the North Bay board of directors. North Bay will bear the cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders. In addition to using the mail, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone and electronic communication. Banks, brokerage houses, other institutions, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward proxy soliciting materials to their principals and obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. Officers and other employees or agents of North Bay and its subsidiaries, acting on North Bay's behalf, may solicit proxies personally. North Bay has also made arrangements with The Altman Group, Inc., to assist in soliciting proxies, and has agreed to pay The Altman Group $7,500 plus reasonable expenses estimated at approximately $5,000. North Bay will pay, upon request, the standard charges and expenses of banks, brokerage houses, other institutions, nominees, and fiduciaries for forwarding proxy materials to and obtaining proxies from their principals. However, no such payment will be made to any of the officers, directors or employees of North Bay or any of its subsidiary banks.

THE MERGER

The following description of the merger is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement attached as Appendix A and the plan of merger attached as Appendix B. We urge you to carefully read the merger agreement and the plan of merger.

General

Umpqua, Umpqua Bank, North Bay and The Vintage Bank have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of January 17, 2007. The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization is generally referred to as the merger agreement in this document.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with Oregon law, when the merger becomes effective, North Bay will merge with and into Umpqua. Umpqua will be the surviving corporation, and the separate corporate existence of North Bay will cease upon completion of the merger. Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws will be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the combined company. See

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS for, among other things, a discussion of the differences between Umpqua's and North Bay's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Immediately after the merger of North Bay into Umpqua, The Vintage Bank will merge with and into Umpqua Bank, with Umpqua Bank surviving the merger.

In connection with the merger of North Bay into Umpqua, as long as the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is no less than $26.42 and no greater than $33.58, North Bay shareholders will receive 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock in exchange for each share of North Bay common stock held. See Merger Consideration Participation in Subsequent Transactions. After completion of the merger, North Bay shareholders who receive Umpqua common stock in exchange for their North Bay common stock will own approximately 8.1% of the combined company, and continuing Umpqua shareholders will own approximately 91.9%.

Background of the Merger

In July 2004, Umpqua acquired Humboldt Bancorp, which operated a branch in Napa, California. The acquisition was Umpqua's first step in its strategy of expanding into markets from Sacramento to Seattle. In May 2005, Umpqua opened its first next generation retail and commercial store in California at a Napa location replacing a former Humboldt Bancorp branch. In June 2006, Umpqua acquired Western Sierra Bancorp which significantly enhanced Umpqua's presence in Northern California, particularly in and around Sacramento.

At the annual strategic planning retreat of North Bay's board of directors held on October 21 and 22, 2006, the North Bay board received and discussed an annual situational and risk assessment presentation from management together with a presentation regarding the banking environment generally and North Bay's valuation from Joseph Colmery, or Colmery, an industry consultant to the board with extensive experience in bank mergers and acquisitions. After considering these presentations, pressure on interest margins, the ability of North Bay to continue to achieve its financial performance goals in the future, and consolidation in the banking industry, the North Bay board, among other alternatives discussed, considered the possibility of engaging in a strategic transaction with another financial institution. As a result, the board established a special committee to, with the assistance of Colmery, identify potential financial advisors, evaluate merger and acquisition options and assess the interest of selected strategic partners. At this meeting, Terry L. Robinson, President and Chief Executive Officer of North Bay, also updated the board on periodic unsolicited expressions of interest that had been received from representatives of other financial institutions, including Umpqua, regarding interest in a transaction with North Bay.

As part of Umpqua's ongoing strategic expansion, Umpqua continuously develops and analyzes potential acquisition candidates. In California, Raymond P. Davis, President and Chief Executive Officer of Umpqua, and William T. Fike, President of Umpqua Bank - California Region, periodically meet with their counterparts at financial institutions in Umpqua's market areas and surrounding communities. In May 2006, Messrs. Davis and Fike met with Mr. Robinson to discuss Umpqua's and North Bay's general strategic directions. On May 26, 2006, Mr. Davis reported to the Executive/Governance Committee of Umpqua's board of directors that he and Mr. Fike had met with Mr. Robinson.

In early November 2006, the North Bay special committee and Colmery held discussions with representatives of Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett Investments, Inc., or Howe Barnes, and developed and ranked a list of potential strategic partners, including Umpqua. On November 8, 2006 the special committee determined that it would recommend the engagement of Howe Barnes as a financial advisor to North Bay. Thereafter, on November 14, 2006, the North Bay board, upon the recommendation of the special committee, approved the engagement of Howe Barnes as a financial advisor to North Bay and to solicit interest among potential strategic partners selected by the special committee.

At Umpqua's annual board strategic planning retreat, held November 10-12, 2006, the board and senior management of Umpqua confirmed the strategy of continued growth in Northern California, including markets surrounding Sacramento, through strategic opportunities and de novo branching. In November 2006, Mr. Davis contacted Mr. Robinson to determine North Bay's interest in a potential transaction. Using publicly available information, the potential transaction was analyzed by Umpqua and Milestone Advisors, its financial advisor, and discussions regarding price and structure of the potential transaction progressed.

On November 17, 2006, Umpqua sent an initial, non-binding term sheet and offer letter to North Bay proposing an all stock merger transaction with a proposed fixed exchange ratio, subject to completion of a due diligence review of North Bay's business and assets.

On December 1, 2006, Howe Barnes reported to the North Bay special committee that indications of interest had been solicited from the top five potential strategic partners selected by the committee and that, after entering into confidentiality agreements in connection with the sharing of non-public information with each other, indications of interest had been received from Umpqua and two other companies. The Howe Barnes report included an analysis of the indications of interest received, an analysis of the potential strategic partners, and a report regarding comparable merger and acquisition transactions. The indications of interest from the two other companies were not as financially attractive as the then existing proposal of Umpqua. The special committee discussed each of the indications of interest received, considered the comments and recommendations of Howe Barnes and Colmery and considered the interests of North Bay's customers and employees and the communities in which North Bay does business. The special committee requested that Howe Barnes develop a summary of the indications of interest for further review by the committee and presentation to the North Bay board.

On December 4, 2006, Howe Barnes presented a summary of the indications of interest to the North Bay special committee. In its discussion of this summary, the special committee also considered the information reported by Howe Barnes on December 1. This discussion concluded with the recommendation by the North Bay special committee to the board of directors that Howe Barnes be authorized to extend its talks with Umpqua to further gauge Umpqua's interest and commence exclusive negotiations.

Table of Contents

On December 4, 2006, Howe Barnes presented the summary of indications of interest to the North Bay board. After considering the presentation by Howe Barnes and the recommendations of Colmery and the special committee, the board authorized Howe Barnes to negotiate with Umpqua to improve its indication of interest. The board delegated to the special committee the authority to approve price protection terms.

On December 5, 2006, Howe Barnes reported to the special committee that Umpqua had increased its proposed fixed exchange ratio and proposed revised price protection terms. Following discussion the committee authorized Howe Barnes to seek an improvement of Umpqua's proposed price protection terms.

On December 6, 2006, Umpqua provided North Bay with an updated non-binding term sheet that proposed an all stock merger with North Bay with a revised proposed fixed exchange ratio subject to completion of a due diligence review of North Bay. The non-binding term sheet was accompanied by a standstill letter agreement providing for mutual confidentiality of non-public information exchanged by Umpqua and North Bay in connection with conducting due diligence investigations and exclusive negotiation with Umpqua through January 12, 2007.

On December 8, 2006, Mr. Davis gave a presentation to the North Bay board regarding Umpqua, the prospects for the combined company should a potential transaction be consummated and the rationales for North Bay's shareholders, including greater liquidity, cash dividend increase and positioning for additional growth. Following this presentation, a representative of Howe Barnes updated the North Bay board on the status of discussions with Umpqua. The North Bay board then authorized management and the special committee to conduct exclusive negotiations through Howe Barnes with Umpqua consistent with the December 6, 2006 non-binding term sheet and letter agreement for confidentiality and exclusive negotiations. On December 8, 2006, the standstill letter agreement was executed by North Bay that, among other things, obligated North Bay to cease negotiations with potential acquirers other than Umpqua through January 12, 2007.

From December 11 to December 15, 2006, Umpqua conducted off-site due diligence with respect to North Bay and its business. From December 20 to December 21, 2006, North Bay conducted on-site due diligence with respect to Umpqua and its businesses. Umpqua, North Bay and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to conduct due diligence with respect to each other and each other's businesses throughout the remainder of December and into January 2007. During this period, North Bay's special committee met numerous times to monitor the results of the due diligence investigations, receive due diligence reports from Howe Barnes, Gaw Van Male Smith Myers & Miroglio, PLC, or Gaw Van Male, North Bay's general counsel, and Nixon Peabody LLP, North Bay's legal counsel, and remain abreast of business issues requiring negotiation and approve resolution of those issues.

On December 20, 2006, Mr. Davis reported to Umpqua's board of directors at its regularly scheduled meeting on the strategic opportunity with North Bay, including the status of due diligence of negotiations with North Bay regarding business terms. Mr. Davis also reported on the relative expense of de novo branching in the markets served by North Bay, and requested that the board delegate authority to the Executive/Governance Committee to approve matters related to the merger negotiations if necessary prior to Umpqua's regularly scheduled January board of directors meeting.

In the afternoon on December 20, 2006, Foster Pepper LLP, Umpqua's counsel, provided the first draft of the merger agreement to North Bay, Gaw Van Male and Nixon Peabody. Over the following week, Foster Pepper provided proposed amended and restated employment agreements for members of North Bay's management, and voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements for members of North Bay's board. North Bay and Umpqua and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to negotiate the terms of a transaction between the two parties, including the terms of the draft merger agreement, proposed amended and restated employment agreements, director voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements and proposed amendment and restatement of North Bay's executive supplemental retirement plan. Between December 20, 2006 and January 15, 2007, North Bay's special committee conducted eleven meetings, attended by representatives of management, Howe Barnes, Gaw Van Male, Nixon Peabody and Colmery, to update the committee on the status of negotiations between the parties and to seek the committee's guidance with respect to various issues.

On January 8, 2007, a special meeting of North Bay's board was held to apprise the board of the status of the proposed transaction, follow-on negotiations and the results of due diligence investigation of Umpqua. Also, in attendance at this meeting were Colmery and representatives of Howe Barnes, Gaw Van Male and Nixon Peabody. At this meeting the director voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements were reviewed and discussed, as well as Umpqua's then current proposal with respect to the exchange ratio and other terms of the proposed transaction. The committee recommended no action until it was clear that there were no additional unresolved business issues. Subsequently, the committee authorized an extension of the exclusive negotiation period under the standstill letter agreement to allow additional time to reach agreement upon unresolved business issues. An updated standstill agreement was executed on January 11, 2007 that extended the non-solicitation period contained therein through January 18, 2007.

On January 15, 2007, after considering the final business and pricing issues as well as employee related issues over the course of a series of meetings, North Bay's special committee determined to recommend that North Bay's board approve a fixed exchange ratio of 1.217. The North Bay special committee made its recommendation subject to approval of the definitive agreements, final reports of North Bay's financial and legal advisors and receipt of an opinion from Howe Barnes that the proposed transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of North Bay.

On January 16, 2007, North Bay's special committee reviewed with North Bay's financial and legal advisors the terms of the proposed transaction and the draft definitive agreements. Management and representatives of the advisors reported to the committee that the terms of the proposed merger and draft definitive agreements were in substantially final form. The Committee was presented with written due diligence reports from the financial and legal advisors and also with a documentation report from Howe Barnes relating to the fairness of the proposed merger. After a review of the terms of the proposed transaction and discussion, the committee unanimously agreed to recommend to the North Bay board of directors that they approve the transaction with Umpqua.

On January 16, 2007, North Bay's board of directors held a special meeting to consider the proposed transaction with Umpqua. Also in attendance at this meeting were representatives of Howe Barnes, Gaw Van Male and Nixon Peabody. A representative of Nixon Peabody reviewed with the board its fiduciary duties, following which the representative of Nixon Peabody, a representative of Gaw Van Male and management reviewed with the board the proposed terms of the transaction with Umpqua and the definitive agreements, including the proposed amendments to the employment agreements, amendment and restatement of North Bay's supplemental executive retirement plan, and director voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements. The representatives of Howe Barnes then made a presentation to the board regarding the proposed transaction with Umpqua which, based on the closing price for Umpqua of $29.14 per share on January 8, 2007, equated to an offering price of $35.46 per share for all of the outstanding North Bay common stock and stock equivalents, equating to an aggregate deal value of approximately $157.8 million. The representatives of Howe Barnes delivered to the North Bay board its written opinion, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth in Howe Barnes opinion, the proposed fixed exchange ratio of 1.217 was fair, from a financial point of view to North Bay's shareholders. The board of directors asked questions of, and received answers from, North Bay's financial and legal advisors. Based on all relevant factors they considered material, including among other things, the opinion, competency and reliability of Howe Barnes and the recommendation of the special committee, the purchase price, the greater liquidity for shareholders, the cash dividend increase and prospects for additional growth, the board of directors of North Bay unanimously approved the merger and the definitive agreements and determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of North Bay and its shareholders and determined to recommend that the shareholders of North Bay approve the principal terms of the merger agreement.

On January 17, 2007, at Umpqua's regularly scheduled board meeting, the board of directors considered the proposed merger with North Bay. Management summarized the results of their due diligence investigation and the projected financial results of the proposed merger. A representative from each of Foster Pepper and Milestone Advisors attended the meeting. The directors received and considered a detailed analysis and fairness opinion stating that the consideration to be paid by Umpqua to North Bay shareholders as provided in the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Umpqua's shareholders from Milestone Advisors. Mr. Davis and a representative of Foster Pepper reviewed the terms of the merger agreement with the board. Foster Pepper's representative reviewed with the board its fiduciary duties. The board asked questions of, and received answers from, Umpqua's financial and legal advisors and considered the factors they deemed relevant to the proposal before voting unanimously to approve the transaction.

After the close of business on January 17, 2007, the parties executed and delivered the merger agreement. On January 18, 2007, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the proposed merger.

Umpqua's Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, including the issuance of shares of Umpqua common stock to North Bay shareholders, Umpqua's board of directors considered and reviewed with senior management and outside financial and legal advisors a significant amount of information and factors relevant to the merger, including Umpqua's strategic plan. Umpqua's board of directors determined that the merger would advance Umpqua's strategic plan and that the proposed merger is in the best interests of Umpqua and its shareholders. Umpqua's board of directors carefully considered the following potentially positive factors in its deliberations:

The opinion of Milestone Advisors, LLC, which is attached as Appendix C, that as of January 17, 2007, the consideration to be paid to North Bay shareholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Umpqua shareholders. The board considered the factors discussed in Milestone Advisors' analysis but did not assign or consider any specific weighting to those factors.

The effectiveness of the merger in implementing Umpqua's growth strategy. The board reviewed the markets served by North Bay and recognized in the merger the ability for Umpqua to enhance its presence in Northern California, in communities adjacent to markets currently served by Umpqua but with minimal overlap.

A presentation by management of its due diligence review of North Bay, including the business, operations, earnings, asset quality, financial condition and corporate culture of North Bay on a historical, prospective, and pro forma basis. These reviews found North Bay to be financially sound and well capitalized.

Umpqua management's prior record of integrating acquired financial institutions, and the likelihood of being able to effectively complete the merger and integrate the two companies.

The compatibility of corporate goals and the respective contributions the parties would bring to a combined institution. The board noted the similar community banking philosophies of the management and employees of both institutions.

The complementary customer bases, products and services of Umpqua and North Bay could result in opportunities to obtain synergies as products are cross-marketed and distributed over broader customer bases and best practices are compared and applied across the combined company.

The compatibility of each company's data processing systems that should significantly reduce the integration costs and risk of errors in customer account conversions.

The minimal overlap of store locations with Umpqua having one branch in Napa, which, when coupled with the new markets served by The Vintage Bank and its Solano Bank division in surrounding areas, the Umpqua board believed presented a desirable strategic opportunity for expansion of its existing store network.

The expanded opportunities for revenue enhancement and synergies that are expected to result from the merger. The board assessed possible synergies and recognized that the combined organization could reduce aggregate expenses that Umpqua and North Bay incur in areas such as salaries and benefits, occupancy expense, professional and outside service fees, and communications expense.

The execution of amended and restated employment agreements and supplemental executive retirement plans by executive officers of North Bay and The Vintage Bank, which provide incentives to key employees to remain with Umpqua during the integration period following completion of the merger. The board considered the commitments of such officers as indications that the integration process and Umpqua's move into new markets would be successful and that the presence of senior management from North Bay would help assure continuity in the operation of the combined company.

Table of Contents

The terms of the merger agreement and the Voting, Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreements executed by each director of North Bay in connection with the merger. The board viewed the commitment of all directors to support the merger as indications that the merger would likely be consummated.

The tax effects of the merger. The board considered that the merger would qualify as a corporate reorganization entitled to favorable tax treatment for the parties to the merger and for their shareholders.

The Umpqua board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weight to the information it reviewed in the course of its consideration.

North Bay's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of North Bay's Board of Directors

In reaching its determination to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the board of directors of North Bay consulted with North Bay's management, its financial advisors and consultants, and legal advisors, and considered a number of favorable and unfavorable factors, including without limitation the following:

The opinion of Howe Barnes, which is attached as Appendix D, that, as of January 16, 2007, the exchange ratio, as set forth in the merger agreement, was fair, from a financial point of view, to North Bay's shareholders.

The terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio, and various other documents related to the merger.

The results of the due diligence review of Umpqua's business, operations, financial condition, legal affairs, asset quality and corporate culture conducted by North Bay management with the assistance of its advisors.

The concerns of the North Bay board with regard to the banking environment, including continued consolidation in the banking industry, competition, pressure on interest margins and the ability of North Bay to continue to meet its goals and to execute on its business plan.

The current and prospective economic and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, including the increased importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term.

The fact that the merger will allow North Bay shareholders, as shareholders of Umpqua, to share in the potential growth and increased diversification of a significantly larger three-state financial holding company, including better future prospects than North Bay was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis, a more diversified customer base, and more diversified revenue sources.

The North Bay board of directors' review, based in part on presentations by its financial advisors and consultants and North Bay's management, of the business, operations, financial condition and earnings of Umpqua on an historical and prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis and the historical stock performance of Umpqua's common stock and Umpqua's greater market capitalization and liquidity relative to North Bay.

The terms of the merger agreement, including a provision permitting North Bay to terminate the merger agreement if the weighted average closing price of Umpqua's common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected merger closing date is less than $26.42, thereby limiting the risk to North Bay's shareholders of possible significant and disproportionate declines in the trading price of Umpqua's common stock unless Umpqua elects to increase the exchange ratio or pay additional cash consideration.

The fact that, based on the closing price of Umpqua's common stock on January 12, 2007, the value of the per share merger consideration to be received by North Bay shareholders represented a multiple of North Bay's diluted earnings per share (based on estimated 2006 earnings) of 23.23x and a multiple of book value per share as of September 30, 2006 of 2.83x.

The fact that, based on the closing price of Umpqua's common stock on January 12, 2007, the value of the per share consideration to be received by North Bay shareholders represented a premium of 25.72% over the closing price of North Bay common stock on that date, and a premium of 26.34% over the average closing price North Bay common stock for the fifteen trading days prior to the announcement of the transaction.

The fact that the merger agreement permits North Bay to declare a cash dividend in the amount of $0.14 per share so long as the dividend is paid prior to the effective time of the merger if the merger is not consummated by March 31, 2007 and the probability that North Bay's shareholders will receive higher dividend income with respect to the shares of Umpqua's common stock to be received in the merger, based on Umpqua's historical dividend rate.

The fact that North Bay's management has interests in the transactions that are in addition to North Bay's shareholders generally, which may create a conflict of interest.

The North Bay board's belief that a merger with Umpqua would enable North Bay shareholders to participate in a combined company that would have better future prospects than North Bay was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis, including a more diversified customer base and, therefore, more diversified revenue sources.

The expectation that the Umpqua/North Bay merger will be tax-free for federal income tax purposes to North Bay and North Bay's shareholders.

The common business philosophy and compatibility of the management and staff of North Bay and Umpqua.

The greater number of shareholders and the increased market capitalization of the combined company, which may result in improved liquidity for shareholders.

The provisions of the merger agreement entitling North Bay's board to withdraw its recommendation of the merger to the North Bay shareholders and the provisions permitting North Bay's board to terminate the merger agreement with Umpqua to the extent specifically authorized by its board of directors in the good faith exercise of its fiduciary duties after consultation with legal counsel.

The $5 million termination fee, representing approximately 3% of the total merger consideration, that would have to be paid to Umpqua under specified circumstances, including the risk that payment of the termination fee might discourage third parties from offering to acquire North Bay, and that the termination fee was a condition to Umpqua's willingness to enter into the merger agreement with North Bay.

The interests of certain North Bay directors and officers in the merger, as described under the caption "Interests of North Bay Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 69 of this document, and the fact some of those interests are different from or are in addition to the interests of North Bay shareholders in the merger generally.

The effect of the merger on North Bay's shareholders, employees, its customers, and the communities in which it conducts business.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by North Bay's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include the material factors considered by the board of directors. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement, North Bay's board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

For the reasons set forth above, the North Bay board determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are in the best interests of North Bay and its shareholders. The North Bay board recommends that North Bay shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

Public Comparable Company Analysis

This method applies the comparative public market information of comparable companies to Umpqua and North Bay. The methodology assumes companies in the same industry share similar markets, and the potential for revenue and earnings growth is usually dependent upon the characteristics of the growth rates of these markets, and companies that operate within the same industry or line of business experience similar operating characteristics and business opportunities and risks. The underlying component in the comparable company analysis assumes the companies are ongoing concerns.

Those transactions were as follows:

For each transaction, Milestone Advisors analyzed data illustrating, among other things, the multiple of purchase price to LTM earnings, the multiple of purchase price to tangible book value, and the ratio of the premium (i.e., purchase price in excess of tangible book value) to core deposits.

A summary of the average and median multiples and ratios for the Comparable Transactions Group in the analysis follows:

An analysis of the results of the foregoing necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of North Bay and the companies included in the selected merger transactions and other factors that could affect the acquisition value of the companies to which it is being compared. Mathematical analyses such as determining the median or average is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable transaction data.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

In performing the Discounted Cash Flow analysis, Milestone Advisors estimated the future cash earnings of North Bay on both a stand-alone basis and a pro forma basis (including the operational benefits that are expected to result from the transaction), and then discounted those values back to the present using discount rates of 8.0%, 10.0%, and 12.0%. Free cash flow in our analysis is equal to the cash earnings of North Bay less the amount of retained earnings necessary to maintain an equity-to-assets ratio of 8.1%. Terminal values assume a cash earnings growth rate of 3.0% into perpetuity.

This analysis indicates that the present value of North Bay's future cash flows ranged from $25.06 to $46.42 per share on a stand-alone basis and from $33.47 to $55.79 on a pro forma basis, compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.2170, or $35.01 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

Present Value Analysis

In performing the Present Value analysis, Milestone Advisors applied a price-to-earnings multiple ranging from 12x to 24x and a price-to-book value ratio ranging from 150% to 250% to North Bay's projected future earnings per share and book value per share, resulting in an implied projected stock price range. The projected stock prices were discounted to the present using discount rates of 8.0% to 12.0%.

On a stand-alone basis, this analysis indicates that the present value of North Bay's future stock price based on the price-to-earnings multiple averaged $29.37 and ranged from $17.86 to $42.79 per share, and based on the price-to-book value ratios averaged $29.53 and ranged from $20.20 to $40.33 per share compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.2170, or $35.01 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

On a pro forma basis, this analysis indicates that the present value of North Bay's future stock price based on the price-to-earnings multiple averaged $35.49 and ranged from $21.59 to $51.71 per share, and based on the price-to-book value ratios averaged $30.21 and ranged from $20.67 to $41.26 per share compared to the value of Umpqua's stock offer equal to an exchange ratio of 1.2170, or $35.01 per share as of the date of the Agreement.

Accretion Analysis

Milestone Advisors analyzed the projected 2007 through 2009 earnings per share for one original share of Umpqua common stock, adjusted for the exchange ratio assuming 100% stock conversion. We compared the projected earnings per share for the holders of Umpqua common stock on a stand-alone basis and on a combined pro forma basis for Umpqua and North Bay. This analysis assumes, among other things, that the transaction is completed in the second quarter of 2007, and expense savings are partially realized in 2007 and fully realized in 2008 and all periods thereafter. This analysis results in marginal earnings dilution in 2007 and positive earnings accretion ranging from 1% to 2% in 2008 and 2009.

This analysis suggests that there are higher potential earnings per share and therefore higher potential value per share for the holders of Umpqua common stock if the merger is completed.

This analysis relies on financial projections for Umpqua and North Bay, which projections may be significantly different from actual results. Therefore, the accretion experienced by Umpqua and/or North Bay may be significantly different than projected.

While the foregoing summaries describe several analyses and examinations that Milestone Advisors deemed material in its opinion, it is not a comprehensive description of all analyses and examinations actually conducted by Milestone

Advisors. The preparation of a fairness opinion necessarily involves various determinations of the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Each of the analyses conducted by Milestone Advisors was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the transaction and to add to the total mix of information available. Milestone Advisors did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered alone, supported or failed to support an opinion as to fairness from a financial point of view. Rather, in reaching its conclusion, Milestone Advisors considered the results of the analyses as a whole and did not place particular reliance or weight on any individual factor. Therefore, selecting portions of the analyses and factors considered, without considering all such analyses and factors, would create an incomplete or misleading view of the process underlying the analysis. The range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis should not be taken to be Milestone Advisors' s view of the actual value or predicted future value of Umpqua' s common stock.

In performing its analyses, Milestone Advisors made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance and general business and economic conditions such as industry growth, inflation, interest rates and many other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Umpqua, North Bay and Milestone Advisors. Any estimates contained in Milestone Advisors' s analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by the analyses. Additionally, estimates of the values of the business and securities do not purport to be appraisals of the assets or market value of Umpqua and North Bay or their securities, nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which transactions may actually be consummated.

In arriving at its opinion, Milestone Advisors assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to or reviewed by Milestone Advisors, including publicly available information, and Milestone Advisors did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any such information. With respect to financial projections and other information provided to or reviewed by Milestone Advisors, Milestone Advisors was advised by the managements of Umpqua and North Bay that such projections and other information were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of Umpqua and North Bay as to the expected future financial performance of Umpqua and North Bay, and Milestone Advisors assumed that, after the merger, Umpqua and North Bay and its subsidiaries will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. Milestone Advisors' s opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Umpqua to enter into the Agreement or complete the merger.

Pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter with Umpqua, Milestone Advisors will receive a fee of $675,000 from Umpqua, which is contingent upon completion of the merger. Umpqua has also agreed to reimburse Milestone Advisors for its expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Milestone Advisors against certain liabilities. Milestone Advisors has not previously provided investment banking and financial advisory services to North Bay or Umpqua. Milestone Advisors provides a full range of financial advisory services. Milestone Advisors does not effect transactions or hold securities of North Bay or Umpqua for its own account or for the accounts of customers. A managing director of Milestone Advisors, who prepared the fairness opinion and advised Umpqua regarding the transaction with North Bay, previously worked for Hoefer & Arnett, Inc., now known as Howe Barnes Hoefer& Arnett, Inc. During his employment with Hoefer & Arnett, Inc., he provided financial advice to and prepared a fairness opinion for Umpqua in connection with its acquisition of Western Sierra Bancorp.

Milestone Advisors' s opinion is for the benefit and use of the members of the board of directors of Umpqua in connection with their evaluation of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Umpqua common stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the merger.

Opinion of North Bay' s Financial Advisor

North Bay' s board of directors retained Howe Barnes to render financial advisory and investment banking services. Howe Barnes is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the proposed transaction and is familiar with North Bay and its business. As part of its investment banking activities, Howe Barnes is regularly engaged in the independent valuation of financial institutions and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, sales and distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

Howe Barnes has assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that has been provided to it by North Bay, Umpqua, and their respective representatives, and of the publicly available information that was reviewed by it. Howe Barnes is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and has not independently verified such allowances, and has relied on and assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the balance sheets of each of North Bay and Umpqua are adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. Howe Barnes was not retained to and it did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of North Bay or Umpqua, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of North Bay or Umpqua, was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files.

Howe Barnes' opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date of issuance of the opinion, including but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the assets or liabilities of North Bay or Umpqua could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing the opinion. Howe Barnes assumed that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement are not waived.

No limitations were imposed by North Bay's board of directors upon Howe Barnes with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed in rendering its opinion. Howe Barnes' opinion as expressed herein is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid by Umpqua to holders of North Bay common stock in the merger and does not address North Bay's underlying business decision to proceed with the merger. Howe Barnes has been retained on behalf of the board of directors of North Bay, and its opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any director of North Bay as to how such director should vote with respect to the merger.

Howe Barnes relied upon the managements of North Bay and Umpqua as to the reasonableness of the financial and operating forecasts, and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefor) provided to or reviewed by Howe

Barnes, and Howe Barnes assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of North Bay and Umpqua management. North Bay and Umpqua do not publicly disclose internal management forecasts, projections or estimates of the type furnished to or reviewed by Howe Barnes in connection with its analysis of the financial terms of the proposed transaction, and such forecasts and estimates were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. These forecasts and estimates were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and which may not be within the control of the managements of North Bay or Umpqua, including without limitation to, the general economic, regulatory and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such forecasts and estimates.

In delivering its opinion to the board of directors of North Bay, Howe Barnes prepared and delivered to North Bay's board of directors written materials containing various analyses and other information. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Howe Barnes in connection with the preparation of its opinion and does not purport to be a complete description of all the analyses performed by Howe Barnes. The summary includes information presented in tabular format, which should be read together with the text that accompanies those tables. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, an opinion is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Howe Barnes believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the analyses and the processes underlying its opinion. In its analyses, Howe Barnes made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of North Bay, Umpqua and Howe Barnes. Any estimates contained in Howe Barnes' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold.

Analysis of Selected Bank Merger Transactions

Howe Barnes reviewed certain publicly available information regarding seven selected merger and acquisition transactions (the Comparable Transactions) announced from January 1, 2005 to January 8, 2007 involving California banking organizations with total assets between $400 million and $1 billion. This data was obtained from SNL Financial. The transactions included in the group were (survivor/acquired entity):

East West Bancorp, Inc./United National Bank

First Community Bancorp/Cedars Bank

First Community Bancorp/Foothill Independent Bancorp

Placer Sierra Bancshares/Southwest Community Bancorp

First Community Bancorp/Community Bancorp, Inc.

First Republic Bank/BWC Financial Corp.

National Mercantile Bancorp/FCB Bancorp

Howe Barnes reviewed the multiples of transaction value to stated book value, transaction value to tangible book, transaction value to last twelve months earnings, transaction value to assets and tangible book premium to core deposits and calculated high, low, mean and median multiples for the Comparable Transactions. The median multiples were then applied to North Bay's balance sheet information as of September 30, 2006 and last twelve months earnings to derive an imputed range of values for North Bay's. The following table sets forth the median multiples as well as the imputed values based upon those median multiples.

| Comparable Transaction | Implied Value (000s) |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|

| | Median Multiple | | |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------------|----|---------|
| Transaction Value/Book Value | 2.81x | $ | 156,705 |
| Transaction Value/Tangible Book Value | 3.15x | $ | 173,600 |
| Transaction Value/Earnings | 18.44x | $ | 125,281 |
| Transaction Value/Assets | 28.32% | $ | 183,792 |
| Tangible Premium/Core Deposits | 27.87% | $ | 171,015 |

The aggregate transaction value of $157.8 million falls within the range of values computed in using the Comparable Transactions, which supports the fairness of the transaction.

Present Value Analysis

Howe Barnes calculated the present value of theoretical future earnings of North Bay and compared the transaction value to the calculated present value of North Bay's stock on a stand-alone basis. Based on projected earnings for North Bay for 2007 through 2011, discount rates ranging from 10% to 18%, and including a residual value, the stand-alone present value of North Bay ranged from $59.0 million to $129.4 million.

Table of Contents

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using a discounted cash flow analysis, Howe Barnes estimated the net present value of the future streams of after-tax cash flow that North Bay could produce to benefit a potential acquiror, referred to as dividendable net income, and added a terminal value. Based on projected earnings for North Bay for 2007 through 2011, Howe Barnes calculated assumed after-tax distributions to a potential acquiror such that its tier 1 leverage ratio would be maintained at 7.00%. The terminal values for North Bay were calculated based on North Bay's projected 2011 equity and earnings, the median price to book and price to earnings multiples paid in the Comparable Transactions and utilized a discount rate of 12%. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated implied values of $133.3 million and $143.6 million.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

Howe Barnes performed pro forma merger analyses to calculate the financial implications of the merger to the North Bay stockholders. This analysis assumes, among other things, the terms of the transaction as indicated above, that the merger closes at June 30, 2007 and cost savings and revenue enhancement opportunities equaling approximately 30% of North Bay's 2006 overhead expenses. This analysis indicated that the merger would be approximately 20% accretive to North Bay's projected earnings per share in 2007.

Howe Barnes has previously provided investment banking and financial advisory services to North Bay and Umpqua for which it received compensation. Howe Barnes provides a full range of financial advisory and securities services and, in the course of its normal trading activities, may effect transactions and hold securities of North Bay and Umpqua for its own account and for the accounts of customers.

Pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter with North Bay, Howe Barnes will receive a fee from North Bay. In addition, North Bay has agreed to indemnify Howe Barnes against certain liabilities and expenses arising out of or incurred in connection with its engagement, including liabilities and expenses which may arise under the federal securities laws. Howe Barnes's fee is 0.75% of the Total Consideration received by North Bay. Total Consideration is defined as (a) all cash, (b) the market value of any securities issued as consideration toward the transaction, and (c) any other amounts that are reasonably taken into account by Howe Barnes in issuing its fairness opinion.

Merger Consideration

When the merger is completed, as long as Umpqua's average closing price for the fifteen consecutive trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is no less than $26.42 and no greater than $33.58 per share, North Bay shareholders will have the right to exchange each share of North Bay common stock they own for 1.217 shares of Umpqua common stock.

Possible Adjustment to the Merger Consideration

North Bay may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger, the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger, or the Umpqua measuring period, is less than $26.42.

If North Bay's board of directors gives notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement due to a decline in Umpqua's stock price, Umpqua's board of directors may elect to:

increase the total number of shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued to North Bay shareholders in the merger by adjusting the exchange ratio such that the exchange ratio, carried to five significant digits, is equal to the quotient of $32.15 divided by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period;

maintain the exchange ratio at 1.217 and pay additional consideration to North Bay shareholders in cash equal to $32.15 minus the product of 1.217 and the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the Umpqua measuring period; or accept the termination notice from North Bay.

Table of Contents

See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination for additional information regarding the effect of termination of the merger agreement.

If the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is greater than $33.58, the exchange ratio will automatically adjust to an exchange ratio equal to the quotient of $40.87 divided by the average closing price over the Umpqua measuring period. This adjustment would have the effect of reducing the number of shares of Umpqua common stock North Bay shareholders would receive.

Participation in Subsequent Transaction

If, prior to the effective date of the merger or the earlier termination of the merger agreement, Umpqua enters into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party concerning any purchase or acquisition of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank or substantially all of their respective assets, the agreement between Umpqua and the third party acquirer must expressly provide for the acquisition of North Bay on the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and that if such acquisition occurs before the effective time of the merger, North Bay shareholders will be entitled to receive consideration as if their North Bay shares had been converted into Umpqua common stock, without giving effect to the automatic downward adjustment to the exchange ratio described above.

Changes to Umpqua's Common Stock Prior to the Effective Date

If, prior to the effective date of the merger, Umpqua changes the number of shares of Umpqua common stock issued and outstanding as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Umpqua common stock, or exchanges Umpqua common stock for a different number or kind of shares or securities, the exchange ratio will be proportionately adjusted.

Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Umpqua common stock will be issued to any holder of North Bay common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, Umpqua will pay cash in an amount calculated by the exchange agent based on the average closing price of Umpqua common stock for the fifteen trading days through and including the fifth business day prior to the effective date of the merger.

Interest

No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Umpqua common stock or as merger consideration.

Rights of Holders of North Bay Stock Certificates Prior to Surrender

From the effective date of the merger until each North Bay shareholder surrenders his or her stock certificates, he or she will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared or payable to holders of record of Umpqua common stock as of any time subsequent to the effective date. Each North Bay shareholder's rights to dividends or other distributions will be held by the exchange agent for the benefit of the shareholder until he or she submits his or her stock certificates. No interest will be paid on dividends or distributions on the Umpqua common stock held by the exchange agent.

Until completion of the merger, North Bay shareholders will be entitled to receive a $0.14 per share cash dividend provided such dividend is declared by North Bay prior to March 31, 2007 and paid prior to the effective date of the merger if the merger has not occurred by March 31, 2007.

Conversion of North Bay Common Stock

Following the effective date of the merger, an exchange agent will mail to each North Bay shareholder a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering North Bay stock certificates. To ensure timely receipt of Umpqua common stock, North Bay shareholders should complete and sign the letter of transmittal and submit their stock certificates as instructed immediately upon receipt.

Table of Contents

Certificates representing shares of North Bay common stock should not be returned at this time. You should return your certificates when you receive transmittal materials from the exchange agent. Upon surrender of certificates representing shares of North Bay common stock registered in your name, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, the exchange agent will mail to you the Umpqua common stock to which you are entitled.

Lost Certificates

If your stock certificate has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, before you can receive the merger consideration for the shares represented by such certificate, you must submit an affidavit that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required, post a reasonable bond as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Umpqua with respect to such certificate.

Effective Date of the Merger

The merger will become effective when Umpqua files articles of merger with the Oregon Secretary of State. Umpqua will file the articles of merger within fifteen days following the date upon which all conditions to closing have been satisfied or, if permitted, waived, or at such time and date as North Bay and Umpqua agree. The parties currently anticipate that the merger will be completed during the second quarter of 2007.

Treatment of Outstanding Stock Options

As of March , 2007, there were options outstanding under various North Bay stock option plans to purchase [474,126] shares of North Bay common stock at exercise prices ranging from $9.92 to $28.70 per share.

When the merger becomes effective, Umpqua will assume North Bay's obligations with respect to each option outstanding under North Bay's stock option plans. Neither Umpqua nor North Bay will grant additional options under the North Bay plans.

After completion of the merger:

Each option may be exercised only for Umpqua common stock.

Each option will become an option to purchase the number of shares of Umpqua common stock equal to the exchange ratio multiplied by the number of shares of North Bay common stock subject to such option.

Following the merger, each option will be fully vested but all other terms and conditions will continue.

The exercise price per share of each option will be equal to the exercise price of such option prior to the completion of the merger divided by the exchange ratio.

The above adjustments will be made in a manner that preserves the status of incentive stock options (as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) to avoid a disqualifying disposition of the stock underlying the options.

All previously outstanding Umpqua stock options will remain outstanding and will not be affected by the merger.

Board of Directors of Umpqua

Immediately following completion of the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will consist of the current Umpqua directors. Information regarding current Umpqua directors is incorporated by reference into this document.

Interests of North Bay Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of North Bay's board of directors, North Bay shareholders should be aware that members of North Bay's management have interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that are in addition to the interests of North Bay's shareholders generally, which may create potential conflicts of interest. The North Bay board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the other proposed transactions.

North Bay Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards

Pursuant to the merger agreement and the terms and conditions of North Bay's outstanding incentive compensation plans, all unvested North Bay stock options and restricted stock awards will become fully vested and all North Bay stock options will convert into the right to receive options to acquire shares of Umpqua common stock as described in

Treatment of Outstanding Stock Options above. After the merger, each share of North Bay stock which is the subject of an outstanding restricted stock award will be automatically converted into the right to receive the number of shares of Umpqua common stock equal to the product of the number of such shares and the exchange ratio of 1.217.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

The merger agreement requires Umpqua to indemnify, following the effective time of the merger, the present and former directors and officers of North Bay to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, unless it is determined that the person seeking indemnification acted in bad faith and not in a manner that such person believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of North Bay. In addition, Umpqua is required to maintain North Bay's existing directors and officers liability insurance for a period of three years after the effective time of the merger or otherwise provide comparable insurance coverage for such period.

Employment Agreements

North Bay entered into amended employment agreements with its executive officers in December 2006; the agreements provide for payment of a severance benefit under circumstances related to termination following a change in control of North Bay. As a result of amendments to their employment agreements, on December 1, 2006, Messrs. Robinson, Terry and Nerland agreed to reduce the severance amounts payable in connection with a change in control such that Mr. Robinson's severance benefit was reduced to 2 times annual salary plus average cash incentive compensation for the last two years from 3 times annual salary plus average cash incentive compensation for the last two years and the severance benefit for Messrs. Terry and Nerland was reduced to 1.5 times their respective annual salary plus average cash incentive compensation for the last two years from 2 times annual salary plus average cash incentive compensation for the last two years. Each executive officer is also entitled to receive a pro rata portion of his or her annual incentive compensation upon termination under the circumstances described below.

In connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, each of Messrs. Robinson and Nerland agreed to additional amendments to their respective employment agreements. North Bay also entered into employment agreements with Mr. Wengel and Ms. Rode with the same terms as the amended employment agreements. Umpqua desired to create an incentive for North Bay executive officers to continue employment, as needed, to assist with the post-merger integration. Prior to the amendments in connection with the merger agreement, each of the executive officers would have been entitled to receive the severance benefit immediately following the change in control if the officer terminated his or her employment on account of either substantial diminishment of the officer's position, responsibilities or working conditions or material reduction in the officer's compensation or benefits.

Under the amended employment agreements and the new agreements, executive officers Nerland, Wengel, Robinson and Rode will be entitled to receive a severance benefit paid monthly commencing upon termination of employment

if:

within one year of the effective date of the merger the officer's employment is terminated by Umpqua without cause or on account of an election not to continue the term of the officer's employment;

Table of Contents

within one year of the effective date of the merger the officer terminates his or her employment on account of either a requirement to relocate to an office that is 35 miles or more from the office where the officer is located on the effective date of the change in control or a material reduction in the officer's compensation, or between one year and 13 months of the effective date of the change in control the officer terminates his or her employment on account of either substantial diminishment of the officer's position, responsibilities or working conditions or material reduction in the officer's compensation or benefits.

For North Bay's executive officers, the maximum amount payable in these circumstances under the employment agreements are as follows:

| Executive Officer | Total Amount Payable |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| John A. Nerland | $ 425,375 |
| Terry L. Robinson* | $ 660,500 |
| Stephanie Rode | $ 272,700 |
| Glen Terry | $ 565,500 |
| Michael Wengel | $ 427,133 |

* Payable in equal monthly installments over 24 months

 Payable in equal monthly installments over 18 months

 Assumes closing as of April 30, 2007 and termination as of December 31, 2007

Mr. Terry, President of The Vintage Bank, who is party to an employment agreement with North Bay on the same terms as Messrs. Nerland and Wengel and Ms. Rode, has entered into an agreement with Umpqua that will be effective with the completion of merger. The agreement with Umpqua provides that Mr. Terry will receive a change in control payment in January 2008 equal to $175,000 if employed on that date. If he remains employed with Umpqua, he will be entitled to retention bonus payments of $85,000 in both January 2009 and January 2010. If Mr. Terry's employment terminates following the merger due to death, disability, termination by Umpqua without cause or termination by Mr. Terry due to a forced relocation or reduction in base salary, the change in control and retention bonus amounts are payable upon termination. In addition, if Mr. Terry is terminated without cause or leaves for good reason, he will be eligible to receive 12 or 18 months salary, depending on when his employment terminates, and a pro rata portion of his annual incentive compensation.

A total of seven of North Bay's and The Vintage Bank's officers, including the executive officers listed above, may be entitled to severance benefits totaling approximately $2.7 million under existing or amended and restated employment agreements.

Supplemental Retirement Benefits

North Bay and three of its named executive officers previously entered into supplemental executive retirement benefit participation agreements pursuant to North Bay's Executive Supplemental Retirement Benefit Plan, under which they are eligible to receive a retirement benefit for life starting at retirement age, subject to vesting. In the event of a termination pursuant to a change of control of North Bay, the participating officers, if not already vested, become entitled to receive the full amount of the benefit payable in monthly installments commencing upon retirement. Under the supplemental retirement plan, a termination is considered pursuant to a change in control if within two years of a change in control the participant's employment is terminated without cause or the participant terminates employment on account of his position, responsibilities or working conditions being substantially diminished or a material reduction in his compensation or benefits.

For North Bay's executive officers participating in the supplemental retirement plan, the amounts payable commencing at age 65 in these circumstances are as follows:

Table of Contents

| | Current | % Vested Upon Termination Pursuant to Change | Annual Benefit |
|-------------------|-----------------|---|---------------------------|
| | Vested % | in Control | |
| Terry L. Robinson | 100% | 100% | $ 120,000 |
| Glen C. Terry | 60% | 100% | $ 75,000 |
| John A. Nerland | 0% | 100% | $ 75,000 |

Internal Revenue Code Section 280G

As a result of amendments to their employment agreements and the supplemental retirement plan required by Umpqua under the merger agreement, each of North Bay's executive officers have agreed to have his or her benefits reduced to the extent required such that those benefits, including severance and supplemental retirement benefits, do not give rise to the payment of an excise tax under applicable federal tax law.

Commitments of Directors

Each director of North Bay has expressly agreed to vote all of his or her shares for approval of the merger proposal. Each such director has agreed to recommend that, subject to his or her fiduciary duties, their respective shareholders approve the applicable merger proposal.

Further, except with the consent of Umpqua and except as discussed below, each non-employee director of North Bay and its subsidiary banks have agreed that, from January 17, 2007 through the date that is two years from the effective date of the merger, he or she will not, directly or indirectly:

participate as a shareholder, director, officer, founder, promoter, consultant, incorporator, organizer, exploratory committee member or employee (including activities leading to the attempted or actual formation of a financial institution) of any bank or financial holding company, bank, insured depository, credit union, securities brokerage firm, mortgage company or similar financial services company that has or plans to have offices in the counties in which North Bay does business on the effective date of the merger;

solicit any customer of North Bay or a customer of Umpqua that does business in the counties in which North Bay does business on the effective date to divert its business from North Bay or Umpqua;

solicit any employee of North Bay as of January 17, 2007 or who becomes an employee prior to the effective date of the merger or any employee of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank that lives or works in the counties in which North Bay does business on the effective date of the merger, to leave his or her employment with North Bay or Umpqua;

employ or assist in employing any of the North Bay or Umpqua employees described above to perform services for any bank or financial holding company, bank, insured depository, credit union, securities brokerage firm, mortgage company or similar financial services company; or disparage North Bay or Umpqua or their affiliates, directors or employees.

Directors Dennis Schmal and Gary Wallace, who joined the North Bay board in October 2006 and do not reside or conduct business in Napa or Solano County, are permitted to participate as a shareholder, director, officer, founder, promoter, consultant, incorporator, organizer, exploratory committee member or employee of any bank or financial holding company, bank, insured depository, credit union, securities brokerage firm, mortgage company or similar financial services company. Directors Thomas Gavin is permitted to continue his existing role of selling investments and securities as a life insurance agent and registered representative with the firms which he is currently affiliated with. Director Stephen Spencer is permitted to continue his existing roles of making and arranging loans as an owner, director, officer and manager with the real estate brokerage firm, mortgage company, property management company and related retirement plans which he is currently affiliated with.

Resales of Stock by Affiliates

The Umpqua common stock to be issued in the merger will be freely transferable by North Bay shareholders. However, North Bay affiliates, or controlling persons, such as all directors, executive officers and holders of more than 10% of North Bay's outstanding stock immediately prior to the merger, may not sell their Umpqua shares received in the merger:

except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

except pursuant to the provisions of Rule 145(d) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; or unless an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to Umpqua states that those shares may be sold pursuant to an exemption from registration.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following describes the anticipated, material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to North Bay shareholders. This discussion addresses only North Bay shareholders who hold their stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code and does not address all of the federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to North Bay shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States;

shareholders who hold their shares as part of a hedge, straddle, or other risk-reduction transaction; or shareholders who acquired their North Bay common stock through stock options or otherwise as compensation.

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the merger under foreign, state, or local tax laws or the tax consequences of transactions completed before or after the merger, such as the exercise of options or rights to purchase North Bay common stock or the vesting of restricted stock awards in anticipation of the merger. The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions, and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this document, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect.

You are urged to consult your own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences to you of the merger based on your own circumstances, including the effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, and foreign taxes.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. It is a condition to Umpqua's and North Bay's obligation to complete the merger that the parties receive an opinion from Foster Pepper LLP, counsel to Umpqua, dated as of the closing date of the merger, that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a). The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service or preclude the Internal Revenue Service from adopting a contrary position. The opinion will be based upon facts and assumptions, and on specific representations and assurances made by Umpqua and North Bay. Neither Umpqua nor North Bay has requested or intends to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to any of the tax consequences of the merger.

Table of Contents

The Foster Pepper LLP opinion will state that:

the merger agreement will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a);

the parties to the agreement and to the plans of merger will each be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code;

no taxable gain or loss will be recognized by Umpqua, Umpqua Bank, North Bay or The Vintage Bank as a result of the merger; and no taxable gain or loss will be recognized by North Bay shareholders who exchange all of their shares of North Bay common stock for Umpqua common stock in the merger (except with respect to cash, if any, received in such exchange).

Consequences to North Bay Shareholders

If you are a North Bay shareholder, you will not recognize taxable gain or loss to the extent you receive Umpqua common stock in exchange for your shares but will with respect to cash, if any, received in the exchange. The aggregate tax basis of the Umpqua common stock you receive as a result of the merger will be the same as your aggregate tax basis in the North Bay common stock you exchange, increased by the amount of gain recognized in the merger, if any. The holding period of Umpqua common stock you receive as a result of the exchange will include the holding period of the North Bay common stock you exchange. Taxes may be payable with respect to cash received by North Bay shareholders:

in lieu of fractional shares;

in the event Umpqua's average closing price over the Umpqua measuring period is less than $26.42 and Umpqua elects to fill with cash instead of increasing the exchange ratio.

who have properly exercised dissenters' rights.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under purchase accounting, North Bay's assets and liabilities will be recorded at their respective fair values as of the closing date of the merger and added to Umpqua's assets and liabilities. Financial statements and reported results of operations of Umpqua after the closing date would reflect these values, but would not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of North Bay. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values of North Bay's assets and liabilities will be recorded as goodwill, which may be charged off against earnings in the future if the goodwill is subsequently determined to be impaired in accordance with applicable accounting rules. The goodwill will be tested for impairment on at least an annual basis.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

Umpqua and North Bay have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or FDIC. We have completed, or will complete, the filing of all applications and notices required in order to complete the merger.

The merger is subject to the prior approval of the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act, which requires that the FDIC take into consideration the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the institutions' effectiveness in combating money laundering activities. Section 5 of the Bank Merger Act prohibits the FDIC from approving a merger if:

it would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States; or its effect in any section of the country would be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly, or if it would in any other respect result in a restraint of trade, unless the FDIC finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, the FDIC will take into account the records of performance of The Vintage Bank and Umpqua Bank in meeting the credit needs of the communities served by such institutions, including low and moderate income neighborhoods. The Vintage Bank and Umpqua Bank have received satisfactory ratings in their most recent Community Reinvestment Act evaluation.

The FDIC will furnish notice and a copy of the application for approval of the merger to the Federal Reserve Board, which we refer to as the FRB. The FRB has 30 days to submit their views and recommendations to the FDIC. The FDIC is required to hold a public hearing in the event it receives a written recommendation of disapproval of the application from the FRB within this 30-day period. A copy of the application is also provided to the United States Department of Justice, or DOJ, which will review the merger for adverse effects on competition. Furthermore, applicable federal law provides for the publication of notice and opportunity for public comment on the application. Any hearing or meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is under review by the FRB.

The merger may not be completed until the 30th day after the FDIC has approved the transaction, which may be reduced to 15 days by the FDIC with the concurrence of the Attorney General of the United States. The commencement of an antitrust action by the Department of Justice would stay the effectiveness of the FDIC's approval unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

An application requesting approval must also be submitted by Umpqua to the Oregon Division of Finance and Corporate Securities.

We cannot assure you that we will obtain the required regulatory approvals, when we will receive such approvals, or that we will obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms. We also cannot assure you that the Department of Justice will not attempt to challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds or for other reasons. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Complete the Merger. We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above.

DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

Under California law, each North Bay shareholder has the right to dissent from the merger and to have the appraised fair market value of their shares of North Bay common stock as of January 17, 2007 to the dissenting shareholders paid in cash if:

his or her shares were outstanding immediately prior to the record date;

the merger is approved by North Bay's shareholders;

demands are made for payment with respect to 5% or more of the outstanding shares of the common stock of North Bay; and such shareholder complies with Sections 1300 through 1312 of the California General Corporation Law, or CGCL.

Sections 1300 through 1312 of the CGCL, which include the procedures required to perfect dissenters' rights, are attached to this document as Appendix E. The description of dissenters' rights contained in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 13, commencing with Section 1300, of the CGCL.

Table of Contents

For a North Bay shareholder to exercise dissenters' rights, he or she must:

make a timely written demand upon North Bay for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of January 17, 2007, which demand includes:

the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demand that North Bay purchase, and what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of January 17, 2007;

have his or her demand received by North Bay on or before the date of the North Bay special meeting of shareholders;

vote against the approval of the principal terms of the merger agreement;

submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

Failure to follow the procedures set forth in the CGCL will result in a waiver of dissenters' rights. Further, if a North Bay shareholder returns his or her proxy without instructions, which will result in a vote for the approval of the principal terms of the merger, he or she will not be entitled to dissenters' rights. Any demand notices or other documents to be delivered to North Bay may be sent to Terry L. Robinson, North Bay Bancorp, 1190 Airport Road, P.O. Box 2200 Suite 101, Napa, California 94558.

The statement of fair market value by a dissenting North Bay shareholder constitutes an offer to sell his or her shares at the fair market value as of January 17, 2007. A demand may not be withdrawn without the consent of North Bay. A proxy or vote against the approval of the merger proposal does not in and of itself constitute a proper demand.

If a North Bay shareholder holds dissenting shares, North Bay will mail a notice of the approval of the merger by North Bay shareholders within ten days after the date of such approval, accompanied by:

a copy of Sections 1300, 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304 of Chapter 13 of the CGCL;

a statement of the price determined by North Bay to represent the fair market value as of January 17, 2007 of the dissenting shares; and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if he or she desires to exercise his or her dissenters' rights under such sections.

The statement of price constitutes an offer by North Bay to purchase at the price stated for such dissenting shares.

A North Bay shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must submit to North Bay at its principal office or at the office of its transfer agent the certificates representing any shares that he or she is demanding that North Bay purchase, for endorsement as dissenting shares, within 30 days after the date on which notice of approval of the merger by North Bay shareholders was mailed to him or her.

If North Bay denies that shares submitted to it as dissenting shares are dissenting shares, or if North Bay and a dissenting shareholder fail to agree on the fair market value of his or her shares, then either the dissenting shareholder or North Bay may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county in California requesting that the court determine such issue. Such complaint must be filed within six months after the date on which notice of the approval of the merger is mailed to such dissenting shareholder.

On trial of the action, the court will first determine if the shares are dissenting shares, and if so determined, the court will either determine the fair market value or appoint one or more impartial appraisers to do so. If both North Bay and a dissenting shareholder fail to file a complaint within six months after the date on which notice of the approval of the merger was mailed to such dissenting shareholder, his or her shares will cease to be dissenting shares. In addition, if a dissenting shareholder transfers his or her shares prior to their submission for the required endorsement, such shares will lose their status as dissenting shares.

Failure to take any necessary step will result in a termination or waiver of dissenters' rights under Chapter 13 of the CGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in North Bay common stock that is held of record in the name of another person, such as a trustee or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the requirements of Chapter 13 of the CGCL in a timely manner if such person elects to demand payment of the fair market value of such shares.

Table of Contents

Conditions to Complete the Merger

The merger is subject to conditions set forth in the merger agreement. In the event the merger has not been completed by October 1, 2007, either party may terminate the merger agreement. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination below.

The merger can only occur if:

North Bay's shareholders approve the merger proposal; and Umpqua and North Bay procure all required regulatory consents, orders and approvals, and satisfy legal requirements of regulators including the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services, and the California Department of Financial Institutions.

Umpqua has filed or will file the required applications with the appropriate regulatory agencies and expects to receive the necessary approvals in due course.

Each party's respective obligations are conditioned on satisfaction by the other party of its obligations under the merger agreement and the above-mentioned conditions. The following additional conditions must be satisfied, or waived where permissible, and events must occur before the parties will be obligated to complete the merger:

there are no actions or proceedings commenced or threatened against any party to restrain, prohibit or invalidate the merger or restrict the operations of the business of the parties;

there is no banking moratorium or other suspension of payment by banks in the United States;

each party has received good standing certificates or certificates of existence of the other party;

each party has received certified resolutions of the board of directors and shareholders of the other party evidencing approval of the proposed merger the representations and warranties given by each party are true in all material respects as of the effective date of the merger;

each party has complied in all material respects with its covenants in the merger agreement;

there has been no material adverse change in the business or financial condition of either party since January 17, 2007, the date on which the parties entered into the merger agreement;

each party has received a certificate of the other party's President and Chief Financial Officer certifying the fulfillment of conditions to completion of the merger;

each party has received an opinion of Foster Pepper LLP as to the tax treatment of the merger; and the SEC has issued an order of registration relating to the shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued in the merger to North Bay shareholders and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement relating to such shares has been issued or is pending or threatened.

Conditions to Umpqua's Obligation to Complete the Merger

The following conditions must be satisfied, unless waived in writing and not required by law, before Umpqua is obligated to complete the merger:

shareholders holding less than 10% of the outstanding shares of North Bay common stock have perfected their right to become dissenting shareholders under California law;

the average daily balance of core deposits (defined as all deposits other than brokered deposits, time deposits greater than $100,000 and any deposits that were subject to off balance sheet deposit sweep programs in November 2006 or have been subject to such sweep programs since November 30, 2006) for the calendar month preceding the effective date of the merger is not less than the product of 94.0% and the average daily balance of core deposits for the month of November 2006;

Table of Contents

each amended and restated severance, employment or salary continuation agreement entered into by executive officers of North Bay has not been amended or restated and remains in full force and effect;

each agreement entered into by directors of North Bay relating to voting, competition and solicitation has not been amended or rescinded and is in full force and effect; and receipt of required third party consents.

Waiver of Conditions

The merger agreement provides that North Bay or Umpqua may waive any condition precedent to its own obligations under the merger agreement, including any default in the performance of any obligation of the other party, and may waive the time for compliance or fulfillment of any obligation of the other party, provided that such a waiver is permitted by law.

Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended at any time prior to the effective date upon approval of each party's board of directors, including after approval by North Bay's shareholders, except that amendments that decrease the amount or modify the form of consideration to be received by the North Bay shareholders must be approved by North Bay shareholders.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated, and the merger abandoned, at any time prior to the effective date by:

the mutual consent of the boards of directors of Umpqua and North Bay acknowledged in writing;

either North Bay or Umpqua acting through their respective board of directors any time after October 1, 2007, if the merger has not been consummated by that date through no fault of the terminating party;

either Umpqua or North Bay acting through their respective board of directors in the event of a material breach by the other party of its representations, warranties or covenants in the merger agreement, which has not been cured within thirty days notice to the breaching party;

North Bay upon a good faith determination by its board of directors that such action is required for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties;

North Bay if Umpqua's stock price, based on average closing prices, is less than $26.42, and Umpqua's board of directors does not elect to increase the total consideration payable to North Bay's shareholders, as discussed in Decline in Umpqua's Stock Price below;

either Umpqua or North Bay if any order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the holding company or bank merger becomes final and non-appealable; or either Umpqua or North Bay if North Bay's shareholders fail to approve the merger proposal.

Decline in Umpqua's Stock Price

North Bay may notify Umpqua of its intent to terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger, the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger is less than $26.42. North Bay must notify Umpqua of termination within two business days following the end of the measuring period for Umpqua's stock price. Upon receipt of such notice, Umpqua's board of directors may elect to increase the total consideration payable to North Bay shareholders by either:

increasing the number of shares of Umpqua common stock to be issued to North Bay shareholders in the merger by adjusting the exchange ratio so that it is equal to the quotient of $32.15 divided by the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger; or maintaining the exchange ratio at 1.217 and paying additional consideration to North Bay shareholders in cash in a per share amount equal to $32.15 minus the product of 1.217 times the average closing price of Umpqua common stock over the fifteen trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the projected effective date of the merger.

If Umpqua elects to adjust the exchange ratio or pay cash consideration it must notify North Bay of such election by the second business day after the later of receipt of North Bay's notice to terminate or the end of the measuring period for Umpqua's stock price and, thereafter, North Bay may not terminate the merger agreement due to the decline in Umpqua's stock price.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated by the mutual consent of both parties, or either party terminates because the merger has not been completed by October 1, 2007, through no fault of the terminating party, the merger agreement will be void and neither party will have any liability as a result of the termination.

North Bay must pay Umpqua's reasonable expenses of up to $500,000 if:

either party terminates the merger agreement due to the failure of North Bay's shareholders to approve the merger proposal;

Umpqua terminates the merger agreement due to North Bay's uncured material breach; or

North Bay terminates the merger agreement pursuant to a determination by its board of directors that such action is required in order for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties.

Umpqua must pay North Bay's reasonable expenses up to $500,000 if North Bay terminates the merger agreement due to Umpqua's uncured material breach.

In addition, if either Umpqua or North Bay terminates the merger agreement as a result of the other party's willful failure to comply with any of such party's material covenants in the merger agreement, the breaching party will pay the terminating party an additional $2.0 million.

North Bay must pay a $5.0 million termination fee to Umpqua, within thirty days of Umpqua's request, if all of the following occur:

the merger agreement is terminated:

by either party because North Bay shareholders fail to approve the merger proposal, by North Bay pursuant to a good faith determination by its board of directors after consultation with Nixon Peabody LLP, its legal counsel, that such action is required for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties, or by Umpqua because of an uncured material breach by North Bay;

North Bay enters into an alternative acquisition transaction prior to twelve months after the date of termination;

the alternative acquisition transaction had been proposed:

prior to or at the time of North Bay's special meeting of shareholders concerning the merger proposal with Umpqua if either party terminates the merger agreement because North Bay shareholders fail to approve the merger proposal, or prior to the date of termination if Umpqua terminates the merger agreement because of an uncured material breach by North Bay or if North Bay terminates the merger agreement to comply with their fiduciary duties;

there was no material failure by Umpqua to comply with its covenants in the merger agreement at the time of North Bay's special meeting of shareholders.

Table of Contents

If, in connection with the termination of the merger agreement, North Bay pays any of Umpqua's expenses or pays the additional $2.0 million to Umpqua as a result of North Bay's material breach of the agreement, the $5.0 million termination fee will be reduced by such payments. For Umpqua and North Bay, receipt of the proper termination fee is the sole remedy for termination of the merger agreement.

Expenses

The merger agreement provides, in general, that each party will pay its own expenses in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of its own financial and other consultants, accountants, and legal counsel except under termination events as discussed above. Upon completion of the merger, other expenses, including severance payments, will be paid by Umpqua.

DESCRIPTION OF UMPQUA CAPITAL STOCK

In the merger, North Bay shareholders will exchange their shares of North Bay common stock for Umpqua common stock. The following summarizes the material features of Umpqua common stock and is subject to the provisions of Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the relevant portions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act, or OBCA.

Description of Common Stock

Umpqua is authorized to issue up to 100 million shares of common stock without par value and 2 million shares of preferred stock without par value. As of , 2007, there were shares of common stock outstanding. Following the merger, a total of approximately shares are expected to be outstanding. No preferred shares have been issued. The terms of the preferred stock are not established in the articles of incorporation, but may be designated in one or more series by the board of directors when the shares are issued. Umpqua's board of directors is authorized to issue or sell additional capital stock of Umpqua, at its discretion and for fair value, and to issue future cash or stock dividends, without prior shareholder approval, except as otherwise required by law or the listing requirements of the Nasdaq National Market.

A total of 2 million shares of common stock are reserved for issuance under Umpqua's 2003 Stock Incentive Plan. As of , 2007 there were a total of shares in the plan available for future grants, of which were immediately exercisable. Awards of stock options and restricted stock grants under the plan, when added to options under all other plans, are limited to a maximum 10% of Umpqua's outstanding shares on a fully-diluted basis. An additional shares are reserved for issuance under grants made under Umpqua's 2000 Stock Option Plan and other equity based award plans. Approximately additional Umpqua shares will be reserved for the exercise of awards granted under North Bay's stock incentive plans, which will be assumed by Umpqua.

Voting and Other Rights

Each outstanding share of common stock has the same relative rights as each other share of common stock, including rights to the net assets of Umpqua upon liquidation. Each share is entitled to one vote on matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. A majority of the votes cast on a matter is sufficient to take action upon routine matters. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares is required to approve a merger or dissolution or sale of all of Umpqua assets. In general, amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares. Amendments to Umpqua's articles of incorporation concerning the following subject matters, however, currently require the approval of at least 75% of all votes entitled to be cast on the amendment:

- limitation of director liability;
- indemnification of directors; and
- anti-takeover provisions.

Umpqua's directors are each elected annually and may be removed with or without cause. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast and holders of common stock may not cumulate votes in the election of directors. All issued and outstanding shares are, and all shares to be issued to North Bay shareholders pursuant to the merger will be, fully paid and non-assessable.

In the event of Umpqua's liquidation, holders of Umpqua's common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata any assets legally available for distribution to Umpqua shareholders, subject to any prior rights of any Umpqua preferred stock then outstanding.

Umpqua's common stock does not have any preemptive rights, sinking fund provisions, redemption privileges or conversion rights. Umpqua's articles of incorporation permit the repurchase of outstanding shares of common stock.

Mellon Investor Services, LLC is the registrar and transfer agent for Umpqua's common stock.

Table of Contents

Dividend Rights

Subject to any prior rights of any outstanding preferred stock, holders of Umpqua's common stock are entitled to receive dividends or distributions, whether payable in cash or otherwise, as Umpqua's board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for these payments. The board of directors' dividend policy is to review Umpqua's financial performance, capital adequacy, regulatory compliance and cash resources on a quarterly basis, and, if such review is favorable, to declare and pay a cash dividend to shareholders. Umpqua's ability to pay cash dividends is largely dependent on the dividends it receives from its principal subsidiary, Umpqua Bank. Although Umpqua expects to continue to pay cash dividends, future dividends are subject to the discretion of the board.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

Umpqua's articles of incorporation authorize the board of directors, when evaluating a merger, tender offer or exchange offer, to consider the social, legal and economic effects on employees, customers and suppliers of the company, and on the communities and geographical areas in which the company operates, as well as the state and national economies and the short- and long-term interests of the company and its shareholders. This provision may be amended only by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares. Such provision may have the effect of discouraging potential acquirers, and may be considered an anti-takeover defense. Under the OBCA, a proposed merger or plan of exchange requires the approval of the board of directors and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation contain certain other provisions that could make more difficult their acquisition by means of an unsolicited tender offer or proxy contest. Umpqua's articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of voting preferred stock, which, although intended primarily as a financing tool and not as a defense against takeovers, could potentially be used by management to make uninvited attempts to acquire control more difficult by, for example, diluting the ownership interest or voting power of a substantial shareholder, increasing the consideration necessary to effect an acquisition, or selling unissued shares to a friendly third party.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Umpqua and North Bay are incorporated in Oregon and California, respectively. Upon consummation of the merger, the rights of North Bay shareholders who receive Umpqua common stock in exchange for their shares will be governed by Umpqua's articles of incorporation and bylaws and by the Oregon Business Corporations Act, or OBCA.

The following table presents a comparison of the rights of North Bay and Umpqua shareholders. It is not a complete statement of the provisions affecting and the differences between the rights of North Bay and Umpqua shareholders. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Umpqua's and North Bay's respective articles of incorporation and bylaws, as each has been amended or restated, and to the OBCA and the California General Corporations Law, or CGCL.

North Bay's bylaws set the number of directors at not less than 9 nor more than 17 directors with the number of directors set by the board. The number of directors is currently set at 12.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; CUMULATIVE VOTING

The OBCA provides that shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes unless the corporation's articles of incorporation so provide. Umpqua's shareholders are not entitled to cumulate their votes for the election of directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

The CGCL provides for cumulative voting for directors, unless the corporation's articles or bylaws provide otherwise. North Bay's bylaws do not permit cumulative voting. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

CLASSIFIED BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The OBCA permits classification of an Oregon corporation's board of directors. Umpqua does not have a classified board of directors. Umpqua's articles of incorporation require that all directors be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders for a term of one year.

The CGCL permits classification of a California corporation's board of directors. North Bay's board is divided into three classes, with as close as possible to one-third of the directors elected annually for three-year terms. Generally, only one class of directors is elected in any particular year.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

The OBCA provides that directors may be removed with or without cause, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

Under Umpqua's articles of incorporation, shareholders holding a majority of shares entitled to vote for election of directors may remove any director with or without cause.

The CGCL provides that directors may be removed without cause, if the removal is approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. The CGCL further provides that, with respect to directors of corporations not having classified boards of directors, no director can be removed (unless the entire board is removed) if the votes cast against removal of the director would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively (without regard to whether cumulative voting is permitted) at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

North Bay's bylaws substantially restate the applicable CGCL provisions.

In addition, a director may be removed by the board of directors if the director is declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony.

The CGCL provides that vacancies created by removal of a director may be filled only by shareholder approval unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise.

Umpqua's bylaws provide that shareholder nominations may be brought before an annual meeting only upon delivery of a notice to Umpqua's Secretary not later than the close of business 90 calendar days before the calendar date of Umpqua's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

North Bay's bylaws provide that shareholder nominations for election of directors must be delivered to North Bay's President by the later of (i) the close of business 21 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors, or (ii) if less than 21 days' notice of a meeting is provided to shareholders, 10 days after the date of mailing of notice of a meeting to shareholders.

ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS WITHOUT A MEETING

Under the OBCA and Umpqua's bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholder meeting may be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote execute a written consent describing the action. The OBCA permits a corporation to provide in its articles of incorporation that action may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. Umpqua's articles do not include such a provision.

The CGCL provides that, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any action that may be taken at a special or annual meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Except with respect to filling vacancies on the board of directors, other than vacancies created by removal, the CGCL does not permit election of directors by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote in the election of directors.

North Bay's bylaws substantially restate the statutory provisions.

ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

Umpqua's articles of incorporation permit the board to consider factors in determining what is in the best interest of the corporation including a merger's or reorganization's social, legal, and economic effect on employees, suppliers, customers, the community, the economy of the state and nation, short- and long-term interests Umpqua and its shareholders, and other relevant factors.

Extraordinary Transactions. The CGCL generally requires approval of a merger, consolidation, dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter. North Bay's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares and the affirmative vote of at least a majority of all outstanding shares other than those owned by an interested shareholder (the owner of at least 20% of the outstanding shares) for most actions involving an interested shareholder, including, but not limited to, mergers or consolidations and sales, but not limited to, mergers or consolidations and sales, loans or transfers of more than 10% of the company assets. However, the voting provisions are not required, except as required by law, if certain conditions are met. These conditions include that the consideration is equal to the highest price paid by the interested shareholder for a share or the price of a share on the announcement date, a proxy or informational statement by sent to shareholders, and a regulatory agency deem the transaction fair.

AMENDMENT TO CHARTER DOCUMENTS

Articles of Incorporation. The OBCA provides that amendments to the articles of incorporation must be approved by the board of directors and by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment (if the amendment gives rise to dissenters' rights) or by a vote of shareholders with the votes cast in favor of the amendment exceeding the votes cast in opposition to the amendment (if the amendment does not give rise to dissenters' rights). The board alone may adopt immaterial amendments.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation require a supermajority vote to amend provisions relating to the limitation of director's liability and indemnification, and consideration of other constituencies in the context of a merger or similar extraordinary transaction. These provisions may be amended or revised only by approval of holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote. Amendments to include other terms that would be inconsistent with the provisions above must also be approved by holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote.

Bylaws. The OBCA provides that the corporation's board may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless the articles of incorporation reserve the power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or in part or the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw. The OBCA permits shareholders to amend or repeal bylaws. Umpqua's bylaws substantially restate the statutory provisions.

Articles of Incorporation. To amend the articles of incorporation, the CGCL requires the approval of the corporation's board of directors and a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. North Bay's articles also require 66 2/3% to amend the provision requiring a supermajority for certain business combinations and sale of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets. In addition, North Bay's articles require 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock to amend the Articles in any way which would materially alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Series A Preferred Stock.

Bylaws. The CGCL provides that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote and the corporation's board of directors each have the power to adopt, amend or repeal a corporation's bylaws, although the articles or bylaws of the corporation may restrict or eliminate the power of the board to take such action. The fixed number or the minimum number of directors may not be reduced to less than five if the votes cast against adoption of the amendment to the bylaws or articles are equal to or more than 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Neither North Bay's articles nor bylaws restrict the power of the board to adopt, amend or repeal its bylaws, other than amendments to the bylaws specifying or changing a fixed number of directors or the maximum or minimum number or changing from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa.

2.2.2 As of the date set forth in the Certificate of Merger, TVB will merge with Umpqua Bank, with Umpqua Bank being the resulting bank and having its head office in Roseburg, Oregon.

2.2.3 Umpqua Bank's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and banking charter in effect immediately before the date set forth on the Certificate of Merger shall be the articles of incorporation, bylaws and banking charter of the resulting bank.

respect to such shares as in effect prior to the Bank Merger, and each outstanding share of TVB held by NBB will be cancelled.

2.3 Exchange Procedures.

2.3.1 Prior to the Effective Date, Umpqua shall appoint an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to NBB for the purpose of exchanging certificates representing shares of NBB Common Stock (other than Dissenters' Shares) for Umpqua Common Stock and, as applicable, Cash Consideration as required by Section 2.1 (the Exchange Agent). On or about the Effective Date, Umpqua will issue and deliver to the Exchange Agent certificates representing a sufficient number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable in the Holding Company Merger and an estimate of the cash required to make cash payable in lieu of fractional shares and, after the Effective Time, if applicable, any Cash Consideration and any cash and dividends or other distributions of Umpqua Common Stock to be issued or paid pursuant to Section 2.3.3.

2.3.2 Promptly after the Effective Time, Umpqua shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of shares (other than holders of Dissenters' Shares) a notice advising such holders of the effectiveness of the Holding Company Merger, including appropriate transmittal materials specifying that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to certificates for shares of NBB Common Stock (Old Certificates) shall pass, only upon delivery of the Old Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof, as provided in Section 2.3.5) and instructions for surrendering the Old Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Exchange Agent. Upon surrender for cancellation to the Exchange Agent of one or more Old Certificates, accompanied by a duly executed letter of transmittal in proper form, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to each holder of such surrendered Old Certificates new certificates representing the appropriate number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock (New Certificates), together with checks for payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares to be issued in respect of the Old Certificates plus any Cash Consideration and any dividends (including the $0.14 cash dividend permitted pursuant to Section 6.1(b) if the Effective Time is on or before March 31, 2007 and such dividend is declared but unpaid at such time) or other distributions that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2, less any taxes required to be withheld with respect thereto.

2.3.3 Until Old Certificates have been surrendered and exchanged for New Certificates as herein provided, each outstanding Old Certificate shall be deemed, for all corporate purposes of Umpqua, to represent the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock into which the shares of NBB Common Stock were exchanged pursuant to Section 2.1.5. All shares of Umpqua Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Holding Company Merger shall be deemed issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time and whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Umpqua in respect of the Umpqua Common Stock, the record date for which is at or after the Effective Time, that declaration shall include dividends or other distributions in respect of all shares issuable pursuant to this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions that are declared on Umpqua Common Stock into which shares of NBB Common Stock have been converted after the Effective Date will be paid to persons otherwise entitled to receive the same until the Old Certificates have been surrendered in exchange for New Certificates in the manner herein provided. In no event shall the persons entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of NBB Common Stock that is not registered in the transfer records of NBB, a New Certificate, together with a check for any cash to be paid upon due surrender of the Old Certificate and any other dividends or distributions in respect thereof, may be issued and/or paid to such a transferee if the Old Certificate formerly representing such shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required by Umpqua and the Exchange Agent to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

2.3.4 Any Umpqua Common Stock or cash delivered to the Exchange Agent (together with any interest or dividends thereon) and not issued pursuant to this Section 2.3 at the end of twelve months from the Effective Date shall be returned to Umpqua, in which event the persons entitled thereto shall look only to Umpqua for payment thereof.

2.3.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, if any holder of NBB Common Stock shall be unable to surrender his or her Old Certificates because such certificates have been lost or destroyed, such holder may deliver in lieu thereof a lost stock certificate affidavit and, unless waived, at the sole option of Umpqua or the Exchange Agent, an indemnity bond in customary amount together with a surety, each in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Umpqua or the Exchange Agent.

2.3.6 The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of Umpqua Common Stock or NBB Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares of Umpqua Common Stock for the account of the persons entitled thereto.

2.4 Dissenters' Shares. Any Dissenting Shareholder who shall be entitled to be paid the fair market value of such shareholder's shares of NBB Common Stock, as provided in Section 1300 of the CGCL, shall not be entitled to shares of Umpqua Common Stock at the Exchange Ratio or, as applicable, shares of Umpqua Common Stock and Cash Consideration in respect thereof unless and until such Dissenting Shareholder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such Dissenting Shareholder's right to dissent from the Holding Company Merger under the CGCL, and shall be entitled to receive only the payment provided for by Section 1300 of the CGCL with respect to such Dissenters' Shares.

2.5 Anti-Dilution Provision. If Umpqua changes or proposes to change the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date as a result of a stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Umpqua Common Stock, or exchanges Umpqua Common Stock for a different number or kind of shares or securities or is involved in any transaction resulting in any of the foregoing, and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Date, the Exchange Ratio shall be proportionately adjusted.

Each of NBB and TVB is qualified to do business and is in good standing in every jurisdiction in which such qualification is required except where the failure to so qualify or be in good standing would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect with respect to NBB. North Bay Bancorp Statutory Trust I is a statutory trust organized and validly existing under Connecticut law and the trust's activities do not require it to be qualified to do business in any jurisdiction other than Connecticut. VCT was a subsidiary of TVB and a statutory real estate investment trust organized under Maryland law and qualified to do business in California. All grants of NBB Options were properly approved by NBB's Board of Directors or a committee duly authorized by the Board of Directors and validly issued in accordance with the applicable NBB Stock Plan and applicable law. No grant of an NBB Option involved any backdating.

4.3 Public Reports: Sarbanes-Oxley Compliance.

(a) Since January 1, 2004, NBB has timely filed with the SEC all NBB Public Reports required to be so filed, and TVB has timely filed with the FRB, FDIC and the California Commissioner all reports including without limitation Call Reports required to be so filed.

(b) The financial statements included in the NBB Public Reports have been and will be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP), consistently applied, and fairly present the financial position and results of operation of NBB and TVB on the dates and for the periods covered thereby.

As of their respective dates, none of the NBB Public Reports or TVB Call Reports contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading.

(d) Section 4.3 of the NBB Disclosure Schedule lists, and NBB has delivered to Umpqua true and correct copies of the documentation creating or governing, all securitization transactions and off-balance sheet arrangements (as defined in Item 303(a) of Regulation S-K of the SEC) effected by NBB or any NBB Subsidiary from January 1, 2004 through the date hereof.

(f) NBB and the NBB Subsidiaries maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that: (i) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorizations, (ii) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP and to maintain asset accountability, (iii) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization and (iv) the recorded accountability for assets is compared with the existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate actions are taken with respect to any differences. NBB has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to its auditors and the audit committee of its Board of Directors (1) any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect in any material respect its ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data and has identified for its auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls and (2) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in its internal controls. NBB has implemented disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) reasonably designed to ensure that all information required to be disclosed by NBB in the NBB Public Reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and regulations of the SEC, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to NBB's management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(g) Each NBB Public Report that was required to be accompanied by the certifications contemplated by Item 601 of Regulation S-K was so accompanied, and at the time of filing or submission of each such certification, such certification complied with such item and was accurate in all material respects as of the date of such certificate.

(h) The audit committee of the NBB Board of Directors has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding the accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of NBB of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing practices. No attorney representing NBB or any NBB Subsidiary, whether or not employed by NBB or any NBB Subsidiary, has reported evidence of a material violation (within the meaning of Part 205 of the Standards of Professional Conduct for Attorneys Appearing and Practicing Before the Commission in the Representation of an Issuer) by NBB or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to the NBB Board of Directors or any committee thereof, to NBB's chief executive officer. 4.5 No Holding Company, Joint Venture, or Other Subsidiaries. Other than as to NBB with respect to TVB, no corporation or other entity is registered or, to the Knowledge of NBB or TVB, is required to be registered as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, because of ownership or control of NBB or TVB. Except for NBB with respect to TVB and North Bay Bancorp Statutory Trust I, neither NBB nor TVB, directly or indirectly, beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder) any shares of capital stock of any other corporation or entity, other than shares held in a fiduciary or custodial capacity in the ordinary course of business, and shares representing less than five percent of the outstanding shares of such corporation acquired in partial or full satisfaction of debts previously contracted. Except for regulatory examinations conducted in the normal course of regulation of NBB and TVB, there are no actions, suits, proceedings, claims or governmental investigations pending or, to the Knowledge of NBB, threatened against or affecting NBB or any NBB Subsidiary before any court, administrative officer or agency, other governmental body, or arbitrator that, if determined adversely to NBB or any NBB Subsidiary, would reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to NBB or to materially hinder or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.9 Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to NBB:

(a) The conduct by each of NBB and TVB of its respective business and, except for matters covered by Section 4.18, the operation of the properties or other assets owned or leased by it does not violate or infringe any domestic laws, statutes, ordinances, rules or regulations or, to the Knowledge of NBB, any foreign laws, statutes, ordinances, rules or regulations including, but without limitation, every local, state or federal law or ordinance, and any regulation or order issued thereunder, now in effect and applicable to it governing or pertaining to fair housing, anti-redlining, equal credit opportunity, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, fair credit reporting and every other prohibition against unlawful discrimination in residential lending, or governing consumer credit, including, but not limited to, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Consumer Credit Protection Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, Truth-in-Lending Act, Regulation Z promulgated by the FRB, and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974.

Each of them has been executed and delivered in compliance, in form and substance, with any and all federal, state or local laws applicable to NBB or TVB, or to the other party or parties to the contract(s) or commitment(s), including without limitation the Truth-in-Lending Act, Regulations Z and U of the FRB, laws and regulations providing for nondiscriminatory practices in the granting of loans or credit, applicable usury laws, and laws imposing lending limits; and all such contracts or commitments have been administered in compliance with all applicable federal, state or local laws or regulations.

All such information shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.8 Proxy Statement. NBB shall provide to Umpqua such information with respect to NBB, TVB and their respective businesses and such assistance as may be reasonably necessary to permit Umpqua to file with the SEC a registration statement (the S-4 Registration Statement) covering the issuance of the shares of Umpqua Common Stock required hereby (including a proxy statement to be used by NBB to solicit proxies from NBB shareholders for a shareholder meeting at which NBB shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the principal terms of this Agreement (in its definitive form, the Proxy Statement)). Unless it is contesting the same in good faith and, if appropriate, has established reasonable reserves therefore, Umpqua will promptly pay all Taxes and assessments indicated by tax returns as due or otherwise lawfully levied or assessed upon it or any of its properties and withhold or collect and pay to the proper governmental authorities or hold in separate bank accounts for such payment all Taxes and other assessments which are required by law to be so withheld or collected.

Subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, Umpqua shall provide NBB an opportunity to review in advance, and to the extent practicable will consult with NBB and consider in good faith the views of NBB in connection with, all of the information relating to NBB and NBB Subsidiaries that appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party and/or any governmental entity in connection with the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing rights, NBB shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. During the period between the date hereof and the earlier of the Effective Date or the termination of this Agreement, promptly upon obtaining Knowledge of the occurrence or the pending or threatened occurrence of any event which would reasonably be expected to cause or constitute a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Umpqua or materially adversely delay the ability of Umpqua, Umpqua Bank, NBB or TVB to obtain any necessary approvals, consents or waivers of any governmental or regulatory authorities or to perform its covenants or agreements under this Agreement, Umpqua will give reasonably detailed written notice thereof to NBB. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, supplementation of the Umpqua Disclosure Schedule following the execution of this Agreement shall not be deemed a modification of Umpqua's representations or warranties contained herein.

7.6 S-4 Registration Statement. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof, Umpqua shall prepare and file with the SEC the S-4 Registration Statement including the Proxy Statement. Umpqua agrees, as to itself and any Umpqua Subsidiary, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it or any Umpqua Subsidiary for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the S-4 Registration Statement will, at the time the S-4 Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (ii) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to NBB shareholders and at the times of the NBB shareholder meeting to be held in connection with the Holding Company Merger, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. (b) From and after the Effective Time, for employees of NBB or TVB who are employed by Umpqua or Umpqua Bank as of the Effective Time and who remain employed with Umpqua or Umpqua during such period, Umpqua will (the Benefits Integration) shift NBB and TVB employees to the benefit programs then made available to similarly situated Umpqua or Umpqua Bank employees with credit for service with NBB and TVB accrued from the most recent hire date prior to the Benefits Integration deemed service with Umpqua for eligibility purposes; provided, however, nothing in this section 7.9(b) shall prevent Umpqua from electing to (i) continue one or more of the NBB

Employee Benefit Plans in effect at the Effective Date (provided that Umpqua may subsequently shift NBB and TVB employees to benefit programs then made available to similarly situated Umpqua or Umpqua Bank employees with credit for service with NBB and TVB accrued from the most recent hire date prior to the Benefits Integration deemed service with Umpqua for eligibility purposes) or (ii) to the extent permitted by law and the NBB Employee Benefit Plans modify one or more of the NBB Employee Benefits Plans to provide for benefits that would be substantially similar to those provided to similarly situated Umpqua or Umpqua

Bank employees at the Effective Date. Nothing in this Section 7.9 shall limit the ability of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank to amend or terminate any of the Employee Benefits Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 7.9(a) with respect to individuals with employment or other written agreements that provide for severance payments and severance payable to individuals pursuant to the NBB and TVB Employee Handbook, NBB and TVB employees, (i) who are terminated other than for cause in connection with the Mergers will be provided with severance benefits by Umpqua based on the North Bay Bancorp & Subsidiaries Separation Pay Policy set forth in Section 10.2 of the copy of the NBB Employee Handbook provided to Umpqua subject to Umpqua's ability to elect to pay such severance in a lump sum at termination or (ii) who by reason of the Mergers become employees of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank and are thereafter terminated other than for cause will be provided with severance benefits by Umpqua based on the Umpqua Bank Severance Policy as currently in effect as of the date of this Agreement. Consistent with Section 7.9(b), NBB and TVB employees who become entitled to severance benefits, whether as a result of the Mergers or otherwise, will receive full credit for prior service accrued with NBB and TVB from their most recent hire date, plus service following the Effective Time, for purposes of determining the amount of such severance benefits.

(d) For purposes of vacation benefits, service accrued with NBB and TVB from the most recent hire date shall be credited for determining an employee's eligibility and length of vacation under the Umpqua vacation plan, and any vacation taken prior to the Benefits Integration will be subtracted under the Umpqua plan from the employee's vacation entitlement for the calendar year in which the Benefits Integration occurs.

(f) Umpqua shall waive all pre-existing conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to employees of NBB and TVB under any Umpqua health and welfare plans in which such employees may be eligible to participate after the Effective Time and Umpqua shall cause each such plan to honor any deductible and payment toward out-of-pocket maximums paid by such employees during the portion of the calendar year prior to such employees participation under the Umpqua plans.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, this Agreement is not intended, and it shall not be construed, to create third party beneficiary rights in any current or former employee or director of TVB or NBB, including the continuing employees (including any beneficiaries or dependents thereof), under or with respect to any plan, program or arrangement described in or contemplated by this Agreement and shall not confer upon any such current or former employee, including each continuing employee, the right to continued employment for any period of time following the Effective Time.

7.10 Indemnification of Directors and Officers; D&O Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Umpqua shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law (and Umpqua shall also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law provided the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification), each present and former director and officer of NBB and TVB (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities (collectively, Costs) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that Umpqua shall not be required to indemnify any Indemnified Party pursuant hereto if it shall be determined that the Indemnified Party acted in bad faith and not in a manner such Party believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of NBB.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 7.10, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify Umpqua thereof, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve Umpqua of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not materially prejudice the indemnifying party. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Umpqua shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and Umpqua shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Umpqua elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between Umpqua and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Umpqua shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that Umpqua shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (b) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction unless the use of one counsel for such Indemnified Parties would present such counsel with a conflict of interest, (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter and (iii) Umpqua shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; and provided, further, that Umpqua shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party if and when a court of competent jurisdiction shall ultimately determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable law.

(c) All rights to indemnification for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time now existing in favor of an Indemnified Party as provided in their respective articles of incorporation or bylaws and any existing indemnification agreements set forth in Section 7.10(c) of the NBB Disclosure Schedule, shall survive the Merger and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, it being understood that nothing in this sentence shall require any amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank.

(d) Umpqua shall maintain NBB's existing officers' and directors' liability insurance for a period of 3 years after the Effective Time or otherwise provide comparable coverage for such period.

(e) If Umpqua or any of its successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the surviving corporation shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 7.10.

(f) The provisions of this Section 7.10 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their representatives.

material terms of the options and derivative securities with respect to Umpqua Common Stock to be acquired, including that price is determined based on the Exchange Ratio and that non-price terms are determined by reference to the terms of NBB Options and derivative securities with respect to shares of NBB Common Stock that have been converted into options and derivative securities with respect to Umpqua Common Stock and (D) that the approval is granted for purposes of exempting

The obligations of NBB under this Agreement and the Plans of Merger to consummate the Holding Company Merger and the Bank Merger, shall be subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date, of the following conditions (unless waived by NBB in writing and not required by law):

9.1 Shareholder Approval. Approval of the principal terms of this Agreement by the shareholders of NBB.

9.2 No Litigation. No court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Order.

9.3 No Banking Moratorium. Absence of a banking moratorium or other suspension of payment by banks in the United States or any new material limitation on extension of credit by commercial banks in the United States.

assets, which would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Umpqua or NBB; and the expiration of all applicable waiting periods.

9.5 Compliance with Securities Laws. The S-4 Registration Statement having become effective under the Securities Act. No stop order suspending the effectiveness of the S-4 Registration Statement shall have issued, and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or be threatened, by the SEC.

(b) A copy, certified by each Secretary of Umpqua and Umpqua Bank, of the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of each approving this Agreement and the respective Plan of Merger.

9.8 Continuing Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. Receipt of a favorable opinion of Foster Pepper Tooze LLP, special counsel to Umpqua, dated as of the Effective Date, in form and substance satisfactory to NBB to the effect that on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion, the Holding Company Merger will be a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; that each of NBB and Umpqua will be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code; and that no taxable gain or loss will be recognized by the shareholders of NBB who exchange all of their NBB Common Stock for Umpqua Common Stock pursuant to the Holding Company Merger (except with respect to cash, if any, received for any fractional share interest in Umpqua Common Stock). In rendering its opinion, Foster Pepper Tooze LLP may require and rely upon representations contained in letters from NBB and Umpqua.

11. Termination; Price Protection.

11.1 Procedure for Termination. This Agreement may be terminated before the Effective Date:

(a) By the mutual consent of the Boards of Directors of Umpqua and NBB acknowledged in writing;

(b) By Umpqua or NBB acting through their Boards of Directors upon written notice to the other party, if at the time of such notice the Mergers shall not have become effective by October 1, 2007 (or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Umpqua and NBB acting through their respective Boards of Directors) except to the extent that the failure of the Mergers then to be consummated arises out of or results from the knowing action or inaction of such party, which action or inaction is in violation of its obligations under this Agreement;

(c) By Umpqua, acting through its Board of Directors upon written notice to NBB, if there has been a breach by NBB in its representations, warranties or covenants set forth herein such that Section 8.8 or 8.9 would not be satisfied and which misrepresentation, breach or failure is not cured within thirty (30) days notice to NBB of such misrepresentation, breach or failure; or by NBB, acting through its Board of Directors upon written notice to Umpqua, if there has been a breach by Umpqua in its representations, warranties or covenants set forth herein such that Section 9.7 or 9.8 would not be satisfied and which misrepresentation, breach or failure is not cured within thirty (30) days notice to Umpqua of such misrepresentation, breach or failure;

(d) By NBB, if its Board of Director determines in good faith (after consultation with Nixon Peabody LLP) that such action is required in order for the directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law; or

(e) By NBB, if (1) the Umpqua Measuring Price is less than $26.42, (2) NBB delivers written notice to Umpqua of its intention to terminate this Agreement within two business days following the close of the Umpqua Measuring Period and (3) Umpqua does not elect to pursue a Decline Adjustment or Cash Fill Option as set forth below; provided, however, that, if Umpqua effects a stock dividend, stock split, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction after the date hereof and prior to the date on which the Umpqua Measuring Price is determined, the provisions of this Section 11.1(e) shall be appropriately adjusted so that such event does not in and of itself trigger a termination right on behalf of NBB.

The following terms have the following meanings:

(i) Umpqua Measuring Period means the fifteen trading days ending on the fifth business day prior to the Effective Date.

(ii) Umpqua Measuring Price means the mathematical average of the per share closing prices of Umpqua Common Stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (as reported in The Wall Street Journal or another authoritative source) over the Umpqua Measuring Period.

Except as provided in Section 11.4, NBB shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1(e) if Umpqua elects, no later than the close of business on the second succeeding Business Day after the later of (i) the close of the Umpqua Measuring Period and (ii) receipt of notice of NBB's intent to terminate, either to:

(A) adjust the Exchange Ratio (a Decline Adjustment) such that the Exchange Ratio (carried to five significant digits) shall equal the quotient of (i) $32.15 divided by (ii) the Umpqua Measuring Price, or

(B) maintain the Exchange Ratio at 1.217 and pay additional consideration to NBB Shareholders (the Cash Fill Option) in cash (Cash Consideration) per share equal to $32.15 minus the product of (i) 1.217 times (ii) the Umpqua Measuring Price.

Upon Umpqua s election of the Decline Adjustment or the Cash Fill Option, no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 11.1(e) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the term Exchange Ratio, as applicable, shall have been so modified), and in the event of a Decline Adjustment any references in this Agreement to Exchange Ratio shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio, as applicable, as adjusted pursuant to this Section 11.1(e).

(f) By NBB or Umpqua, acting through its Board of Directors, if any Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of any of the Mergers shall become final and non-appealable (whether before or after the approval by the shareholders of NBB or Umpqua).

(g) By either party if NBB shareholders fail to approve the principal terms of this Agreement at a meeting held pursuant to Section 6.10 or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

11.2 Effect of Termination.

11.2.1 In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1(a) or 11.1(b), 11.1(e) or 11.1(f), this Agreement shall become wholly void and of no further force and effect and there shall be no liability on the part of any party or its respective Board of Directors as a result of such termination or abandonment.

11.2.2 If this Agreement is terminated by NBB or Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(g) (provided that no failure of any covenant, condition, representation or warranty on the part of Umpqua or within the reasonable control of NBB shall have proximately caused the failure of NBB shareholders to have approved the principal terms of this Agreement), by Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(c) or by NBB pursuant to Section 11.1(d), then NBB agrees to pay to Umpqua its reasonable expenses incurred in entering into and attempting to consummate the transaction up to a maximum of $500,000, to be paid within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request; provided, however, if Umpqua has terminated the Agreement as a result of NBB's willful failure to comply with any material covenant set forth in Section 6, it agrees to pay Umpqua an additional $2,000,000, to be paid within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1(g) or Section 11.1(d), or by Umpqua pursuant to Section 11.1(c) and NBB enters into an Alternative Acquisition Transaction prior to the date that is 12 months from the date of termination and such Alternative Acquisition Transaction had been proposed prior to the date of the NBB shareholder meeting in the case of termination pursuant to Section 11.1(g) or prior to the date of termination in the case of termination pursuant to Section 11.1(c) or 11.1(d); and provided that in any of such events if, at the time of NBB's shareholder meeting there was no material failure by Umpqua to comply with the covenants set forth in Section 7 and to satisfy the conditions set forth in Sections 9.7 and 9.9, then NBB will, within thirty (30) days after Umpqua's request, pay Umpqua the sum of $5,000,000 (reduced by any amounts paid or payable pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph). This Section 11.2.2 shall be the sole remedy in favor of Umpqua for termination of this Agreement pursuant to the sections named in the first sentence, and Umpqua specifically waives the protections of any other legal or equitable remedies that otherwise might be available to Umpqua.

11.2.3 If this Agreement is terminated by NBB pursuant to Section 11.1(c), then Umpqua agrees to pay to NBB its reasonable expenses incurred in entering into and attempting to consummate the transaction up to a maximum of $500,000; provided, however, if NBB has terminated the Agreement as a result of Umpqua's willful failure to comply with any material covenant set forth in Section 7, it agrees to pay NBB an additional $2,000,000. This Section 11.2.3 shall be the sole remedy in favor of NBB for termination of this Agreement pursuant to the sections named in the first sentence, and NBB specifically waives the protections of any other legal or equitable remedies that otherwise might be available to NBB.

11.3 Price Protection. Except as provided in Section 11.4, in the event the Umpqua Measuring Price is greater than $33.58 the Exchange Ratio (carried to five significant digits) shall equal the quotient of (i) $40.87 divided by (ii) the Umpqua Measuring Price. If the Exchange Ratio is adjusted pursuant to this Section 11.3, this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified), and any references in this Agreement to Exchange Ratio shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio as adjusted pursuant to this Section 11.3.

11.4 Participation in Subsequent Transaction. From the date hereof through the Effective Time or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Umpqua shall not enter into any agreement with any unaffiliated third party concerning any purchase or acquisition of Umpqua or Umpqua Bank or substantially all of their respective assets by any unaffiliated third party through any type of corporate reorganization, stock acquisition or exchange, asset purchase or other similar transaction (an Umpqua Transaction), unless such Umpqua Transaction expressly provides (i) for the acquisition of NBB by Umpqua or a successor entity on the same terms and conditions as provided for in this Agreement and (ii) that if such Umpqua Transaction is completed before the Effective Time, the shareholders of NBB will be entitled to receive consideration in such transaction as if their shares of NBB had been converted into Umpqua Common Stock at the effective time of such transaction, without giving effect to any adjustment of the Exchange Ratio that would otherwise be required pursuant to Section 11.3 hereof.

11.5 Documents from NBB. In the event of termination of this Agreement, Umpqua will promptly deliver to NBB all originals and copies of documents and work papers obtained by Umpqua from NBB, whether so obtained before or after the execution hereof.

11.6 Documents from Umpqua. In the event of termination of this Agreement, NBB will promptly deliver to Umpqua all originals and copies of documents and work papers obtained by NBB from Umpqua, whether so obtained before or after the execution hereof.

12. Miscellaneous Provisions.

Prior to the Effective Date, this Agreement and the Plans of Merger may be amended or modified, either before or after approval by the shareholders of NBB and Umpqua, only by an agreement in writing executed by the parties hereto upon approval of their respective Boards of Directors, except to the extent shareholder approval is required under applicable law.

12.2 Public Statements. No party to this Agreement shall issue any press release or other public statement concerning the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without first providing the other parties hereto with a written copy of the text of such release or statement and obtaining the consent of the other parties to such release or statement, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The consent provided for in this Section 12.2 shall not be required if the delay would preclude the timely issuance of a press release or public statement required by law or any applicable regulations. No such waiver or extension of time shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent or other performance or compliance. No such waiver shall require the approval of the shareholders of any party.

12.5 Expenses. Each of the parties hereto shall pay their respective expenses in connection with this Agreement and the Plans of Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, except as otherwise may be specifically provided.

12.6 Financial Advisors. Each of Umpqua and NBB is solely responsible for the payment of its own financial advisor fees.

12.7 Binding Effect, No Assignment. This Agreement and all the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, but neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder, shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties.

12.8 Representations and Warranties. The respective representations and warranties of each party hereto contained herein shall not be deemed to be waived or otherwise affected by any investigation made by the other parties, and except for claims based upon fraud of the parties or their representatives, shall expire as of the Effective Date.

12.9 Remedies. Except for claims based upon fraud of the parties or their representatives, the only remedy available to any party hereunder is for amounts payable pursuant to Section 11.2.

4.2 At the Effective Time, the corporate existence of Umpqua and NBB shall, as provided by Oregon and California law, be merged into and continued in the Surviving Corporation, and the separate existence of NBB shall terminate. All rights, franchises and interests of NBB in and to every type of property (whether real, personal, tangible or intangible) and choses in action shall be transferred to and vested in the Surviving Corporation by virtue of the Merger without any deed or other transfer, and the Surviving Corporation, without any order or action on the part of any court or otherwise, shall hold and enjoy all such rights and property, franchises, and interests, including appointments, designations and nominations, and in every other fiduciary capacity, in the same manner and to the

7. EXCHANGE OF SHARES. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any party or any shareholder, the following shall occur:

Exchange Ratio means 1.217 shares of Umpqua Common Stock for each share of NBB Common Stock.

7.3 NBB Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards.

7.3.1 Without any action on the part of any holder of any such option, each outstanding option to acquire NBB Common Stock (each an NBB Option) shall be automatically converted into an option to purchase Umpqua Common Stock (each, a Converted Option) as follows: (i) the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Converted Option shall be equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of NBB Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the NBB Option, and (B) the Exchange Ratio; and (ii) the exercise price per share of Umpqua Common Stock shall be equal to the result of (A) the exercise price of the NBB Option, divided by (B) the Exchange Ratio. Instead, Umpqua will pay to each holder of NBB Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Umpqua Common Stock an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying such fraction by $.

9. EXCHANGE PROCEDURES. Umpqua has appointed Mellon Investor Services LLC as the Exchange Agent for the purpose of exchanging certificates representing shares of NBB Common Stock (other than Dissenters Shares) for Umpqua Common Stock. On or about the Effective Date, Umpqua will issue and deliver to the Exchange Agent certificates representing a sufficient number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable and an estimated amount of the cash required to make cash payable in the Merger.

9.1 Upon surrender for cancellation to the Exchange Agent of one or more certificates for shares of NBB Common Stock (Old Certificates), accompanied by a duly executed letter of transmittal in proper form, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to each holder of such surrendered Old Certificates new certificates representing the appropriate number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock (New Certificates), together with checks for payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares to be issued in respect of the Old Certificates.

9.2 Until Old Certificates have been surrendered and exchanged for New Certificates as herein provided, each outstanding Old Certificate shall be deemed, for all corporate purposes of Umpqua, to be whole shares of Umpqua Common Stock. No dividends or other distributions which are declared on Umpqua Common Stock into which shares of NBB Common Stock have been converted after the Effective Date will be paid to persons otherwise entitled to receive the same until the Old Certificates have been surrendered in exchange for New Certificates in the manner herein provided. In no event shall the persons entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions.

9.3 Any Umpqua Common Stock or cash delivered to the Exchange Agent (together with any interest or dividends thereon) and not issued pursuant to this Section 9 at the end of twelve months from the Effective Date shall be returned to Umpqua, in which event the persons entitled thereto shall look only to Umpqua for payment thereof.

9.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, if any holder of NBB Common Stock shall be unable to surrender his or her Old Certificates because such certificates have been lost or destroyed, such holder may deliver in lieu thereof a lost stock certificate affidavit and, unless waived, at the sole option of Umpqua or the Exchange Agent, an indemnity bond together with a surety, each in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Umpqua or the Exchange Agent.

9.5 The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of Umpqua Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares of Umpqua Common Stock for the account of the persons entitled hereto.

10. DISSENTERS RIGHTS.

10.1 The shareholders of Umpqua have no rights under Oregon law to dissent from this Plan of Merger.

10.2 All shares of NBB Common Stock that are dissenting shares within the meaning of California General Corporation Law § 1300 (Dissenters Shares) shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive Umpqua Common Stock unless and until such shares have lost their status as dissenting shares under CGCL § 1300, at which time such shares shall be converted into Umpqua Common Stock pursuant to Section 7.2. Any Dissenting Shareholder who shall be entitled to be paid the value of such shareholder's shares of NBB Common Stock, as provided in Section 1300 of the CGCL, shall not be entitled to shares of Umpqua Common Stock at the Exchange Ratio in respect thereof unless and until such Dissenting Shareholder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such Dissenting Shareholder's right to dissent from the Merger under the CGCL, and shall be entitled to receive only the payment provided for by Section 1300 of the CGCL with respect to such Dissenters' Shares.

11. APPROVAL. This Plan of Merger has been ratified and approved by the Board of Directors and shareholders of each of Umpqua and NBB at meetings called and held in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and their respective articles of incorporation and bylaws. Board of Directors
Umpqua Holdings Corporation
Umpqua Bank Plaza
One SW Columbia Street, Suite 1200
Portland, Oregon 97258

Directors of Umpqua Holdings Corporation:

We understand that Umpqua Holdings Corporation and its subsidiary Umpqua Bank (collectively, hereinafter, Umpqua) and North Bay Bancorp and its subsidiaries The Vintage Bank and Solano Bank, (collectively, hereinafter, North Bay) are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of January 17, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which North Bay will be merged with and into Umpqua (the Merger). Pursuant to the Merger, as more fully described in the Merger Agreement and as further described to us by management of Umpqua, we understand that, subject to the exercise of dissenters' rights, each outstanding share of common stock of North Bay is to be converted into the right to receive 1.2170 Umpqua common shares, equal to $35.83 as of the date of the Merger Agreement. We further understand that the aggregate consideration payable by Umpqua to the shareholders of North Bay will equal approximately 5.103 million Umpqua common shares, plus conversion of North Bay options to Umpqua options, subject to adjustment as provided for and as more fully described in the Merger Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are set forth in more detail in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked us whether, in our opinion, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be paid by Umpqua to North Bay shareholders as provided in the Merger Agreement (the Merger Consideration) is fair to Umpqua and its shareholders from a financial point of view.

Milestone Advisors, LLC is an investment banking firm and is regularly engaged as part of its business in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, private placements, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, and valuations for corporate purposes.

For purposes of this opinion and in connection with our review of the Merger, we have, among other things: (1) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (2) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Umpqua and North Bay that we deem to be relevant, (3) reviewed certain internal information, primarily financial in nature, including financial projections and other financial and operating data relating to the strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated to result from the Merger, furnished to us by Umpqua and North Bay, (4) reviewed certain publicly available and other information concerning the reported prices and trading history of, and the trading market for, the common stock of Umpqua and North Bay, (5) reviewed certain publicly available information with respect to other companies that we believe to be comparable in certain respects to Umpqua and North Bay, (6) considered the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected recent business combinations of companies in the banking industry which we deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to the Merger, and (7) made inquiries regarding and discussed the Merger and the Merger Agreement and other matters related thereto with Umpqua and Umpqua's counsel. In addition to the foregoing, we have conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other financial, economic and market criteria as we deem appropriate to arrive at our opinion.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to or reviewed by us, whether or not publicly available, and we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any such information. With respect to financial projections and other information provided to or reviewed by us, we have been advised by the management of Umpqua that such projections and other information were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of Umpqua and North Bay as to the expected future financial performance of Umpqua and North Bay and the strategic implications and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, and we have assumed that, after the Merger, Umpqua and its subsidiaries will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. We further relied on the assurances of the management of Umpqua that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information or projections provided to us incomplete or misleading. We have not made or been provided with any independent evaluations or appraisals of any of the assets, properties, liabilities or securities, nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets, of Umpqua or North Bay. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for Umpqua are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. In addition, we have not assumed responsibility for reviewing any individual credit files relating to Umpqua or North Bay.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Umpqua to enter into the Merger Agreement or complete the Merger.

Our opinion is based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion.

We have acted as financial advisor to Umpqua and will receive a fee from Umpqua for our services if the proposed Merger is consummated.

This opinion is for the benefit and use of the members of the Board of Directors of Umpqua in connection with their evaluation of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Umpqua common stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Merger. This opinion may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to Umpqua and the holders of Umpqua common stock from a financial point of view.

Board of Directors
North Bay Bancorp
1190 Airport Road, Suite 101
Napa, California 94558

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of North Bay Bancorp, Napa, California (NBB) of the consideration to be received by NBB in the merger (the Merger) of NBB with and into Umpqua Holdings Corporation, Portland, Oregon (Umpqua), pursuant to the draft of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, by and between Umpqua and NBB (the Merger Agreement). All capitalized items used herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

As of the Effective Time, each outstanding share of NBB Common Stock (other than Dissenters Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive: (i) the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio of 1.217, subject to adjustment in accordance with the Merger Agreement, (ii) cash in lieu of any resulting fractional shares, (iii) any dividend or distribution pursuant to Section 2.3.3, and (iv) in the event Umpqua elects the Cash Fill Option, an amount in cash equal to the Cash Consideration. No fractional shares of Umpqua Common Stock will be issued and any holder of shares of NBB Common Stock entitled to receive a fractional share of Umpqua Common Stock shall be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof, which payment shall represent such holder s proportionate interest in a share of Umpqua Common Stock based on the Umpqua Measuring Price.

As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of any such option, each outstanding option to acquire NBB Common Stock (each an NBB Option) shall be automatically converted into an option to purchase Umpqua Common Stock (each a Converted Option) as follows: (i) the number of shares of Umpqua Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Converted Option shall be equal to the product of: (A) the number of shares of NBB Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the NBB Option and (B) the Exchange Ratio; and (ii) the exercise price per share of Umpqua Common Stock shall be equal to the quotient of: (A) the exercise price of the NBB Option divided by (B) the Exchange Ratio. Provided, further, if Umpqua elects the Cash Fill Option, the exercise price per share of the NBB options as calculated pursuant to this Section 2.1.6(a) will be reduced by the amount of the Cash Consideration. All terms and conditions of the Converted Options other than the number of shares and exercise price as adjusted pursuant to the Merger Agreement shall remain the same as the terms and conditions of the NBB Options.

For purposes of this opinion and in connection with our review of the proposed transaction, we have, among other things:

1. Participated in discussions with representatives of NBB and Umpqua concerning NBB s and Umpqua s financial condition, businesses, assets, earnings, prospects, and such senior management s views as to its future financial performance;
2. Reviewed the terms of the draft of the Merger Agreement;

Table of Contents

3. Reviewed certain publicly available financial statements, both audited (where available) and un-audited, and related financial information of NBB and Umpqua, including those included in their respective annual reports for the past three years and their respective quarterly reports for the past two years;
4. Held discussions with members of senior management of NBB and Umpqua regarding financial forecasts and projections of NBB and Umpqua, as well as the amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses and synergies expected to result from the Merger;
5. Held discussions with members of senior management of NBB and Umpqua regarding past and current business operations, regulatory matters, financial condition and future prospects of the respective companies;
6. Reviewed reported market prices and historical trading activity of NBB and Umpqua common stock;
7. Reviewed certain aspects of the financial performance of NBB and Umpqua and compared such financial performance of NBB and Umpqua, together with stock market data relating to NBB and Umpqua common stock, with similar data available for certain other financial institutions and certain of their publicly traded securities;
8. Compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed to be relevant; and
9. Reviewed the potential pro forma impact of the Merger.

We have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that has been provided to us by NBB, Umpqua, and their respective representatives, and of the publicly available information that was reviewed by us. We are not experts in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and have not independently verified such allowances, and have relied on and assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the balance sheets of each of NBB and Umpqua at September 30, 2006 are adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. We were not retained to and we did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of NBB or Umpqua, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of NBB or Umpqua, were not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof.

Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc. (Howe Barnes), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of banks and bank holding companies, thrifts and thrift holding companies, and various other financial services companies, in connection with mergers and acquisitions, initial and secondary offerings of securities, and valuations for other purposes. In rendering this fairness opinion, we have acted on behalf of the Board of Directors of NBB and will receive a fee for our services.

Howe Barnes' opinion as expressed herein is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Umpqua to holders of NBB common stock in the Merger and does not address NBB's underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger. We have been retained on behalf of the Board of Directors of NBB, and our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any director of NBB as to how such director should vote with respect to the Merger Agreement.

This letter is addressed and directed to the Board of Directors of NBB in your consideration of the Merger and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger. We hereby consent to the reference to our firm in the proxy statement related to the transaction and to the inclusion of our opinion as an exhibit to the proxy statement related to the transaction.

APPENDIX E

Excerpt from the California General Corporation Law Concerning Dissenters' Rights

CORPORATIONS CODE
TITLE 1. CORPORATIONS
DIVISION 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW
CHAPTER 13. DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

§ 1300. Reorganization or short-form merger; dissenting shares; corporate purchase at fair market value; definitions

(a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed action, but adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend which becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, dissenting shares means shares which come within all of the following descriptions:

1) Which were not immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger either (A) listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100 or (B) listed on the National Market System of the NASDAQ Stock Market, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any class of shares described in subparagraph (A) or (B) if demands for payment are filed with respect to 5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of that class.

2) Which were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), were voted against the reorganization, or which were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

3) Which the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

4) Which the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, dissenting shareholder means the recordholder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

§ 1301. Notice to holders of dissenting shares in reorganizations; demand for purchase; time; contents

(a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, such corporation shall mail to each such shareholder a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of such approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under such sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase such shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of such shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in clause (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1300 (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what such shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as of the day before the announcement of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at such price.

§ 1302. Submission of share certificates for endorsement; uncertificated securities

Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

§ 1303. Payment of agreed price with interest; agreement fixing fair market value; filing; time of payment

(a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

§ 1304. Action to determine whether shares are dissenting shares or fair market value; limitation; joinder; consolidation; determination of issues; appointment of appraisers

(a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

Table of Contents

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

§ 1305. Report of appraisers; confirmation; determination by court; judgment; payment; appeal; costs

(a) If the court appoints an appraiser or appraisers, they shall proceed forthwith to determine the fair market value per share. Within the time fixed by the court, the appraisers, or a majority of them, shall make and file a report in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon, on the motion of any party, the report shall be submitted to the court and considered on such evidence as the court considers relevant. If the court finds the report reasonable, the court may confirm it.

(b) If a majority of the appraisers appointed fail to make and file a report within 10 days from the date of their appointment or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or the report is not confirmed by the court, the court shall determine the fair market value of the dissenting shares.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, judgment shall be rendered against the corporation for payment of an amount equal to the fair market value of each dissenting share multiplied by the number of dissenting shares which any dissenting shareholder who is a party, or who has intervened, is entitled to require the corporation to purchase, with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date on which judgment was entered.

(d) Any such judgment shall be payable forthwith with respect to uncertificated securities and, with respect to certificated securities, only upon the endorsement and delivery to the corporation of the certificates for the shares described in the judgment. Any party may appeal from the judgment.

(e) The costs of the action, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable, but, if the appraisal exceeds the price offered by the corporation, the corporation shall pay the costs (including in the discretion of the court attorneys' fees, fees of expert witnesses and interest at the legal rate on judgments from the date of compliance with Sections 1300, 1301 and 1302 if the value awarded by the court for the shares is more than 125 percent of the price offered by the corporation under subdivision (a) of Section 1301).

§ 1306. Prevention of immediate payment; status as creditors; interest

To the extent that the provisions of Chapter 5 prevent the payment to any holders of dissenting shares of their fair market value, they shall become creditors of the corporation for the amount thereof together with interest at the legal rate on judgments until the date of payment, but subordinate to all other creditors in any liquidation proceeding, such debt to be payable when permissible under the provisions of Chapter 5.

§ 1307. Dividends on dissenting shares

Cash dividends declared and paid by the corporation upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the reorganization by the outstanding shares (Section 152) and prior to payment for the shares by the corporation shall be credited against the total amount to be paid by the corporation therefor.

§ 1308. Rights of dissenting shareholders pending valuation; withdrawal of demand for payment Except as expressly limited in this chapter, holders of dissenting shares continue to have all the rights and privileges incident to their shares, until the fair market value of their shares is agreed upon or determined. A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw a demand for payment unless the corporation consents thereto.

§ 1309. Termination of dissenting share and shareholder status

Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares and the holders thereof cease to be dissenting shareholders and cease to be entitled to require the corporation to purchase their shares upon the happening of any of the following:

(a) The corporation abandons the reorganization. Upon abandonment of the reorganization, the corporation shall pay on demand to any dissenting shareholder who has initiated proceedings in good faith under this chapter all necessary expenses incurred in such proceedings and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(b) The shares are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 or are surrendered for conversion into shares of another class in accordance with the articles.

(c) The dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree upon the status of the shares as dissenting shares or upon the purchase price of the shares, and neither files a complaint or intervenes in a pending action as provided in Section 1304, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(d) The dissenting shareholder, with the consent of the corporation, withdraws the shareholder's demand for purchase of the dissenting shares.

§ 1310. Suspension of right to compensation or valuation proceedings; litigation of shareholders' approval

If litigation is instituted to test the sufficiency or regularity of the votes of the shareholders in authorizing a reorganization, any proceedings under Sections 1304 and 1305 shall be suspended until final determination of such litigation.

§ 1311. Exempt shares

This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.

§ 1312. Right of dissenting shareholder to attack, set aside or rescind merger or reorganization; restraining order or injunction; conditions

(a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.

(b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded,

(1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

As an Oregon corporation, Umpqua is subject to the provisions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act (the OBCA). The OBCA permits a corporation to indemnify an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because such individual is or was a director of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

his or her conduct was in good faith;

he or she reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interest, or at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and in the case of a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, indemnification is mandatory if the director is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in such a proceeding, or if a court of competent jurisdiction orders the corporation to indemnify the director. Umpqua's articles of incorporation do not limit the statutory right to indemnification.

Under the OBCA, a corporation may not, however, indemnify the individual if the individual was adjudged liable:

to the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation; or in any proceeding charging improper personal benefit on the basis that he or she improperly received a personal benefit.

The OBCA also provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation may limit or eliminate the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, provided that no such provision shall eliminate the liability of a director for:

any breach of the directors' duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

any unlawful distribution; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers against reasonable expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes or settlement payments incurred or suffered by reason of service as a director or officer or at Umpqua's request as a director, officer, partner or trustee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

Umpqua's articles of incorporation limit monetary liability of our directors for their conduct as directors to the fullest extent permitted under the OBCA. If the OBCA is amended to further limit the directors' liability, Umpqua's articles would incorporate such amendment on its effective date.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415 (§230.415 of this chapter), will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of such registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
