The Fund s Board of Directors has a separately designated Audit Committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ) which is responsible for reviewing financial and accounting matters. The Fund s Audit Committee is composed of directors who are independent (as defined in the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (NYSE) listing standards, as may be modified or supplemented) and not interested persons of the Fund and its actions are governed by the Fund s Audit Committee Charter, which is attached as Appendix A. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Canavan, Holland, Lo, Rogers and Shen. The Audit Committee convened four times during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008.

The Fund s Board of Directors has determined that the Fund has at least one Audit Committee financial expert. Mr. M. Christopher Canavan, Jr., an independent director, is the Audit Committee s financial expert.

The Fund s Board of Directors has a Nominating Committee, which is responsible for recommending individuals to the Board for nomination as members of the Board and its Committees. The Nominating Committee does not consider nominees recommended by the security holders. The Board believes that it is appropriate for the Fund to have such a policy regarding nominees recommended by security holders because the Committee has not previously received any director candidate recommendations from a non-director stockholder. The Fund s Nominating Committee is composed of directors who are not interested persons of the Fund (as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act ) ( Independent Directors ), and independent (as defined in the NYSE listing standards), and its actions are governed by the Fund s Nominating Committee Charter, attached hereto as Appendix B. The current members of the Nominating Committee are Messrs. Canavan, Chang, Lo and Ms. Liu. The Nominating Committee convened once during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008.

Persons recommended by the Fund s Nominating Committee as candidates for nomination as directors are required to possess such knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity so as to enhance the Board s ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Fund, including, when applicable, to enhance the ability of committees of the Board to fulfill their duties and/or to satisfy any independence requirements imposed by law, regulation or any listing requirements of the NYSE.

The Fund s Board of Directors has a Fair Valuation Committee which is responsible for establishing and monitoring policies and procedures reasonably designed to ensure that the Fund s assets are valued appropriately, objectively and timely, reflecting current market conditions. The Fund s Fair Valuation Committee is composed of directors who are not interested persons of the Fund as well as certain employees of the Fund s Adviser. The current Directors who are members of the Fair Valuation Committee are Messrs. Holland, Lo and Rogers. The Fair Valuation Committee met once during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008.

The Fund s Board of Directors has an Investment Management Oversight Committee which is responsible for overseeing and evaluating the nature and quality of the investment services provided to the Fund by the Adviser in order to assist the Board in overseeing the investment services being provided to the Fund by the Adviser. The current members of the Investment Management Oversight Committee are Messrs. Chang and Hu and Ms. Liu. The Investment Management Oversight Committee convened four times during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008.

The Board of Directors of the Fund held four regular meetings and two special meeting during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008. For the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008, each Director attended at least seventy-five percent of the aggregate number of meetings held during the fiscal year of the Board and of any committee on which he or she served.

For annual or special stockholder meetings, directors may but are not required to attend the meetings; and for the Fund s last annual stockholder meeting, eight Directors attended the meeting.

Stockholder Communications

Stockholders may send communications to the Fund s Board of Directors by addressing the communication directly to the Board (or individual Board members) and/or clearly indicating that the communication is for the Board (or individual Board members). The communication may be sent to either the Fund s office or directly to such Board member(s) at the address specified for each Director above. Other stockholder communications received by the Fund not directly addressed and sent to the Board will be reviewed and generally responded to by management, and will be forwarded to the Board only at management s discretion based on the matters contained therein.

PROPOSAL 2 APPROVAL OF A NEW FORM OF DISCRETIONARY INVESTMNT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

On October 27, 2008, the Board and all of the Independent Directors, voted to approve and recommend to shareholders a new form of Discretionary Investment Management Contract (the New Management Agreement ) between the Fund and Adviser. The New Management Agreement, if approved, will replace the two agreements pursuant to which the Adviser currently manages the assets of the Fund: 1) the Securities Investment Trust-Investment Management and Custodian Contract, dated August 22, 2001 (the Current Management Contract ), and 2) the Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, dated August 22, 2001 (the Current Advisory Agreement, and together with the Current Management Contract, the Current Agreements ). The Current Management Contract provides for management of the assets of the Fund held through an investment trust (the Trust ) established by the Current Management Contract. Assets held in the Trust are invested in Taiwan, primarily in equity securities listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange. (the TSE ). Assets of the Fund held outside of the Trust are managed by the Adviser under the Current Advisory Agreement, which has been supplemented by a Direct Investment Management Agreement (the DIM Agreement ) between the Fund and the Adviser. The DIM Agreement supplements the Current Advisory Agreement with provisions required by Taiwan law to permit the Adviser to manage the assets of the Fund that are invested in Taiwan but not through the Trust.

The Fund is in the process of redeeming its interest in the Trust in other words, removing assets from the Trust so that those assets can be invested directly by the Fund. The Fund is doing this so that it can have greater flexibility in how it invests its assets in the future for example, investing in securities of Taiwan companies that are listed on stock exchanges other than the TSE. The Fund anticipate that it will have fully redeemed its interest in the Trust during the first calendar quarter of 2009, at which point the Trust and the Current Management Contract will terminate. The Fund is proposing to enter into the New Management Contract with the Adviser to take the place of the Current Agreements at the time that the Current Management Contract terminates.

The New Management Agreement provides for the Adviser to provide the same investment advisory and management services as it provides under the Current Agreements except that it would apply to all of the assets of Fund regardless of where they are held. The Adviser s duties under the New Management Agreement include making investment decisions, supervising the acquisition and disposition of investments and selecting brokers or dealers to execute these transactions in accordance with the Fund s investment objective and policies and within the guidelines and directions established by the Fund s Board of Directors.

Under both the New Management Agreement and the Current Agreements, the Fund bears expenses for (i) the acquisition costs of assets of the Fund, (ii) the disposal cost arising on the disposal of assets of the Fund, (iii) stamp and similar duties and charges in respect of the Fund, (iv) the cost of registering assets in the name of the Fund s custodian, (v) expenses incurred in the collection and distribution of income derived from assets held in the Fund, (vi) expenses of any auditors or legal advisers in connection of the Fund s assets, (vii) all taxation payable in respect of income of (including stock dividends), or the holdings of or dealing with assets held in, the Fund, (viii) all proper expenses incurred by the custodian in connection with the acquisition or disposal of any assets held in the Fund, (ix) any compensation payable to the Adviser or the custodian, (x) the cost relating to the publication of Unit prices of the net assets of the Fund, (xi) the costs for any regular report sent to stockholders of the Fund, (xii) the expenses incurred by the Fund in connection with its organization, the public offering of its shares to investors in the United States and elsewhere, its registration and operation as a registered investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and its qualification as a regulated investment company under the United States Internal Revenue Code and (xiii) all other expenses incurred by the Adviser on behalf of the Fund in the course of performing its duties. Under both the New Management Agreement and the Current Agreements, the Adviser bears all other expenses associated with the performance of its duties (including employee salaries and overhead) other than expenses to be paid by the Fund, as specifically provided above. The Adviser is also required to bear the fees and expenses of the Fund s officers and directors who are interested persons of the Adviser, if any.

The New Management Agreement may be terminated by the Fund upon the vote of a majority of the directors or by the vote of a majority of the Fund s outstanding shares of common stock as defined in the 1940 Act, without payment of any penalty, upon 60 days written notice to the Adviser, and will terminate automatically in the event of its assignment (as defined in the 1940 Act) by the Adviser. The New Management Agreement will also terminate (i) if required by Taiwan regulators, (ii) if in the opinion of the Adviser further operation of the Fund in accordance with the New Management Agreement is illegal, impractical or inadvisable having regard solely to the interests of the Fund, or (iii) upon the removal of the Adviser (liquidation or bankruptcy or revocation of the ROC license of the Adviser being deemed to be a removal of the Adviser).

If approved by stockholders, the New Management Agreement would remain in effect for an initial period of two years from the date of its execution by the Fund. Thereafter, the New Management Agreement would continue in effect from year to year if its continuance is specifically approved at least annually by (i) a vote of a majority of the Independent Directors, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval, and (ii) either a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors as a whole or a majority of the Fund s outstanding shares of common stock as defined in the 1940 Act.

FEE PROVISIONS OF THE NEW MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

The compensation to be paid to the Adviser under the New Management Agreement is identical to the compensation currently being paid to the Adviser under the Current Agreements. Under the terms of the Current Management Agreement, the Adviser is entitled to receive for its services, a monthly basic fee, payable in NT dollars, at an annual rate of 1.30% of the Fund s average daily net assets (including both Taiwan and U.S. assets). In addition, the basic fee payable to the Adviser is subject to performance adjustments which may increase or decrease the basic fee (up to 0.30% per annum of the Fund s average net assets) on a monthly basis, depending on the performance of the Fund s investment compared to the performance of the Taiwan Stock Exchange Index during a rolling performance period of 36 months. Effective for the period from January 1, 2008 to August 31, 2008, the Adviser pursuant to a written agreement began waiving a portion of the basic fee so that the basic fee will not exceed an annual rate of 1.00% of the Fund s average daily net assets (the Waiver ). On September 1, 2008, the Waiver automatically renewed for an additional 12 months. The Adviser must provide 90 days advance notice of its intention to terminate the Waiver. Under the New Management Agreement, the basic fee will be 1.00% of the Fund s average daily net assets and the base fee will be subject to the same performance adjustment as under the Current Agreements, as described above. The aggregate amount of advisory fees paid by the Fund to the Adviser were US $3,445,557.39, for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008. There were no additional payments made to the Adviser by the Fund for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008.

THE FACTORS CONSIDERED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS REGARDING THE NEW AGREEMENT

On October 27, 2008, the Board, including all of the Independent Directors, met and unanimously voted to approve the New Management Agreement and recommend it to stockholders. In considering whether to approve the New Management Agreement, the Board, reviewed and evaluated information provided by the Adviser and also obtained additional information from other sources. The information reviewed by the Board of Directors concerned, among other things (i) the nature, quality and extent of the advisory, administrative, compliance and shareholder services provided by the Adviser to the Fund and the stockholders, (ii) the amount of advisory fees paid under the current fee calculation relative to other advisers fees for comparable services and the Fund s expense ratio in relationship to industry norms, (iii) the feasibility of obtaining similar services from another investment manager qualified to provide such services in Taiwan, (iv) the extent to which, relative to industry practice, the Adviser has passed on any economies of scale to the Fund and the stockholders in the administration of the Fund, (v) the responsibility and liability assumed by the Adviser in managing the Fund entrusted to it and (vi) the income received by the Adviser after deducting the cost of services provided to the Fund. The Board of Directors had also been provided previously with a memorandum prepared by the counsel to the Fund describing the directors legal duties in connection with its consideration of the continuation or modification of the New Management Agreement. In addition, the Independent Directors who serve on the Fund s Audit Committee met privately to discuss what they believed would be an appropriate level or levels of the advisory fee to be paid by the Fund to the Adviser, and the Independent Directors discussed such issues with the other directors.

In making its decision to approve the New Management Agreement, the Board considered a number of additional factors, including the fact that the Fund s portfolio would continue to be managed by the current HSBC Taiwan portfolio management team, that over a number of years this portfolio management team had achieved what the Board considers to be acceptable investment results for the Fund and the good reputation of HSBC Taiwan as an investment manager in Taiwan. In addition, the Board considered the fact that HSBC is a major global asset management company with extensive resources and expertise in Asia. The Board also considered that over the many years that HSBC had acted as an investment manager for the Fund s assets, it provided high quality service to the Fund and has been attentive and responsive to Board requests for information. In view of these factors, and in an effort to maximize continuity in the management of the Fund, the Board is approving and recommending the New Management Agreement and has decided to maintain the same management relationship with HSBC Taiwan. The Board expressed its desire that the Fund continue to be managed by the current portfolio management team, based on the Fund s performance record and HSBC Taiwan s highly regarded investment capability in Taiwan. The Board also determined that the current fee level is appropriate and fair to the Fund.

REQUIRED VOTE

The 1940 Act requires that an investment advisory contract between an investment company and an investment adviser be in writing, that such contact specify, among other things, the compensation payable to the adviser pursuant thereto and that such contracts be approved by the holders of a majority of the Fund s outstanding shares of common stock as defined in the 1940 Act and discussed below.

Approval of the New Management Agreement will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the Fund s outstanding shares of common stock. As defined in the 1940 Act, a majority of the outstanding shares means the lesser of 67% of the voting securities present at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, if a quorum is present, or 50% of the outstanding securities. For this purpose, both abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote to disapprove the proposed amendment. The Fund will continue under the Current Agreements if this proposal is not approved by stockholders.

A form of the New Management Agreement is attached as Appendix C.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE NEW MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FUND AND HSBC.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Funds audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008 with management, the Adviser and Tait, Weller & Baker LLP, the Funds independent registered public accounting firm (Tait Weller), and has discussed with Tait Weller the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU Section 380), as may be modified or supplemented. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and letter from Tait Weller required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as may be modified or supplemented, and has discussed with Tait Weller its independence. Based on the Audit Committee review and discussions referred to in the two preceding sentences, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of the Fund for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008 be included in its annual report to stockholders and the Funds annual report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

M. Christopher Canavan, Jr., Chairman of the Audit Committee

Joe O. Rogers, Member of the Audit Committee
