Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 16, 2011, Movado Group, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an amendment dated as of June 1, 2011 (the “Third Amendment”) to its license agreement dated as of November 18, 2005 (as previously amended, the “License Agreement”) with L.C. Licensing, Inc. (“Licensor”) pursuant to which Licensor agreed to license to the Company certain intellectual property, including the trademark JUICY COUTURE and related marks. The Third Amendment extends the term of the License Agreement for an additional five years through December 31, 2016; establishes minimum Net Sales and a Guaranteed Minimum Royalty (each as defined in the License Agreement) for each year through 2016; and clarifies that a portion of Licensee’s advertising contribution shall be used for co-op marketing activities in connection with retail operations and e-commerce.

The Company intends to file the Third Amendment as an exhibit to its next periodic report and will seek confidential treatment of certain terms of the Third Amendment at such time.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

At the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company held on June 16, 2011, the shareholders approved an amendment and restatement, effective as of February 1, 2011, of the Company’s Executive Performance Plan (the “Executive Plan”), originally established effective February 1, 2001 and subsequently amended and restated effective February 1, 2007. The Executive Plan will terminate on January 31, 2016.

Purpose of the Executive Plan. The purpose of the Executive Plan is to establish a program of incentive compensation for the Company’s principal executive officer and the other three most highly compensated executive officers (the “Covered Employees”) that is directly related to the performance results of the Company.

Administration. The Executive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Committee”). The Committee is composed of two or more members of the Board, each of whom is required to be an “outside director” (within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 162(m))). The Committee has the authority that may be necessary or helpful to enable it to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Executive Plan, including authority to establish the maximum bonus award which may be earned by each Covered Employee, to establish the performance goals upon which such bonus awards shall be based, calculate and determine each Covered Employee’s level of attainment of such performance goals, and calculate the bonus award for each Covered Employee based upon such level of attainment.

Bonus Awards and Performance Goals. The Executive Plan provides that for each fiscal year (the “Performance Period”), no bonuses shall be payable thereunder to the Covered Employees unless the Company’s earnings per share for the Performance Period, calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as consistently applied by the Company (“EPS”), equal or exceed the EPS target (the “Performance Goal”) for the Performance Period. If the Committee determines that a change in the business, operations, corporate structure or capital structure of the Company, or the manner in which it conducts its business, or other events or circumstances render the Performance Criteria to be unsuitable, the Committee may modify such Performance Criteria or the related minimum acceptable level of achievement, in whole or in part, as the Committee deems appropriate and equitable; provided, however, that no such modification shall be made if the effect would be to cause a bonus award to fail to qualify for the performance-based compensation exception to Section 162(m). If the Performance Goal is met or exceeded for any Performance Period, the maximum aggregate bonus amount payable to all of the Covered Employees may not exceed a total of $5 million which also means that no individual Covered Employee may receive more than that amount for any Performance Period and if that total maximum amount were to be paid to any one such Covered Employee for any Performance Period then the others could not be paid any bonus under the Executive Plan. The Committee retains the right to reduce or eliminate entirely any bonus payments to any or all of the Covered Employees. If the minimum Performance Goal for a Performance Period is not met, no bonus payments will be made to the Covered Employees under the Executive Plan.

The preceding description of the Executive Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Executive Plan. The Executive Plan was filed as Appendix A to the Company's 2011 Proxy Statement, and the terms thereof are incorporated herein by reference.
