Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 19, 2013, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) announced that Harbinger Capital Partners LLC, Harbinger Capital Partners Offshore Manager, L.L.C., Harbinger Capital Partners Special Situations GP, L.L.C., and Philip A. Falcone (collectively, the “HCP Parties”) agreed to a settlement with the SEC to resolve all matters related to the two pending civil actions filed by the SEC against the HCP Parties. The two civil actions were previously disclosed by the Company.

The settlement has been approved by Commissioners of the SEC but remains subject to the approval of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The Consent reflecting the settlement is available on the SEC’s website. The material terms of the settlement are also described in the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for Harbinger Group Inc. (the “Company”) filed with the SEC on May 9, 2013 under Item 1A. Risk Factors — “We are dependent on certain key personnel and our affiliation with Harbinger Capital; Harbinger Capital and certain key personnel exercise significant influence over us and our business activities; and business activities, legal matters and other matters that affect Harbinger Capital and certain key personnel could adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy,” except that the settlement contains certain admissions of fact by the HCP Parties and increases to five years the period during which Mr. Falcone is barred and enjoined from acting as or being an associated person of any “broker,” “dealer,” “investment adviser,” “municipal securities dealer,” “municipal adviser,” “transfer agent,” or “nationally recognized statistical rating organization,” as those terms are defined in Section 3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 202 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, each as amended (after which Mr. Falcone may seek the consent of the SEC to have the bar and injunction lifted).

Under the settlement, Mr. Falcone may continue to own and control the Company and serve as its Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of its board. The Company and its subsidiaries are not parties to the settlement and the duties and obligations described therein are the duties and obligations of the HCP Parties and not of the Company or its subsidiaries.

Forward Looking Statements
