COMMUNITY BANK OF SMITH COUNTY
1300 MAIN STREET NORTH
CARTHAGE, TENNESSEE 37030

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON MARCH 24, 2005

To Community Bank of Smith County Shareholders:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting in lieu of an annual meeting of shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County will be held at the Community Bank of Gordonsville, 7 New Middleton Highway, Gordonsville, TN 38563 on March 24, 2005, at 6:30 p.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated November 16, 2004, among Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to the attached proxy statement/prospectus, pursuant to which, among other things, Community Bank of Smith County will merge with and into Wilson Bank and Trust; and
2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting.

We have fixed the close of business on February 1, 2005 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of Community Bank of Smith County common stock of record at the close of business on that date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, Wilson Bank Holding Company and its directors and officers owned 194,722 of the 387,866 shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock issued and outstanding.

A form of proxy and a proxy statement/prospectus containing more detailed information with respect to the matter to be considered at the special meeting accompanies this notice. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to the proxy statement/prospectus.

Dissenting shareholders who comply with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, are entitled to dissent from the merger and receive payment of the fair value of their shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock if the merger is consummated. A copy of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is attached as Appendix B to the proxy statement/prospectus. Please see the section entitled "The Merger - Dissenters' Rights" in the proxy statement/prospectus for a summary of the procedures to be followed in asserting these dissenters' rights. A dissenting shareholder will be entitled to payment only if written notice of intent to demand payment is delivered to Community Bank of Smith County before the vote is taken and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the merger agreement.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to approve and adopt the merger agreement. Because Wilson Bank Holding Company and its directors and affiliates own in excess of 50% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock, approval of the merger is highly likely.

Your board of directors has determined that the merger agreement is in the best interests of Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders and recommends that shareholders vote For approval and adoption of the merger.

By Order of the Board of Directors

J. Randall Clemons, Secretary

Carthage, Tennessee

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q. What am I being asked to vote on?

- A. Community Bank of Smith County shareholders are being asked to vote on the merger of Community Bank of Smith County with and into Wilson Bank and Trust and the merger agreement related to the merger. As a result of the merger, each outstanding share of Community Bank of Smith County common stock, other than shares owned by Wilson Bank Holding Company and shareholders who properly perfect their dissenters' rights of appraisal, will be converted into the right to receive 1.0043 shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. In lieu of any fractional share that Community Bank of Smith County shareholders would otherwise receive Community Bank of Smith County shareholders will receive cash equal to their fractional share amount multiplied by the last sale price of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock on the date closest to, but not after, the closing date of the merger. You may also be asked to consider other matters as may properly come before the special meeting. Community Bank of Smith County does not know of any other matters other than the approval of the merger that will be presented for consideration at its special meeting.

Q. Why is Wilson Bank Holding Company choosing to combine Wilson Bank and Trust with Community Bank of Smith County?

- A. Wilson Bank Holding Company owns 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of the common stock of Wilson Bank and Trust along with 50% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of DeKalb Community Bank and the Community Bank of Smith County, two banks organized by Wilson Bank Holding Company in 1996 to serve DeKalb and Smith County Tennessee. Following the formation of Community Bank of Smith County, Community Bank of Smith County issued additional shares of its common stock to residents of Smith County to reduce Wilson Bank Holding Company's initial ownership interest to 50% of the outstanding shares. Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors includes three of Wilson Bank Holding Company's directors and eight other directors. Randall Clemmons, Wilson Bank Holding Company's Chief Executive Officer, serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Community Bank of Smith County but the Chairman, President, Vice President and other officers of Community Bank of Smith County are officers only of Community Bank of Smith County.

Since July 2002, Wilson Bank Holding Company and its three bank subsidiaries have incurred significantly higher internal control, auditing and accounting costs related to their compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the related rules and regulations imposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission as a result of that act. These costs, which have increased substantially during 2004 as a result of the requirement that Wilson Bank Holding Company document, and have its independent public accountants attest to, the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting, are increased over bank holding companies of similar size, by the fact that Wilson Bank Holding Company maintains three separate bank subsidiaries. Prompted by these elevating costs, management of Wilson Bank Holding Company began consideration of combining Wilson Bank and Trust, DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County. The boards of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust, DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County thereafter agreed that it was in the best interests of each of the company's respective shareholders to merge DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County with and into Wilson Bank and Trust. The boards of directors believe that combining these entities will result in cost savings to the combined companies related to both Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and the centralization of certain back office functions.

Q. What do I need to do now?

A. First, carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety. Then, vote your shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock by marking, signing, dating and returning your proxy card in the enclosed prepaid envelope. You may also attend the special meeting and submit a properly executed proxy or ballot, although we ask that you cast your vote now, even if you intend to attend the special meeting. If a broker holds your shares in street name, you are not the record owner and you will need to ask your broker how you can vote at the special meeting.

Q. Why is my vote important?

A. A majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock must be represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting for there to be a quorum. If you do not vote using one of the methods described above, it will be more difficult for Community Bank of Smith County to obtain the necessary quorum to hold its special meeting. In addition, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to approve and adopt the merger agreement. Therefore, abstentions or failures to vote have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement. While Wilson Bank Holding Company and its directors and officers own over 50% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock, and as such, approval of the merger is highly likely, Community Bank of Smith County encourages all of its shareholders to vote on the merger.

Q. If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A. No. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares that are held in street name, your broker will not be permitted to vote them. Therefore, you should be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote these shares.

Q. Can I change my vote?

A. Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, there are several ways you can change your vote after you have submitted a proxy.

First, you may send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy to Community Bank of Smith County's Corporate Secretary, J. Randall Clemons, at 1300 Main Street North, Carthage, Tennessee 37030 before the special meeting;

Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy card. Any earlier proxy will be revoked automatically; or

Third, you may attend the meeting and vote in person. Any earlier proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the meeting without voting will not revoke your earlier proxy.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions you receive from your broker to change your vote.

Q: What are the principal risks relating to the merger?

A. The anticipated benefits of combining the three bank subsidiaries, including the expected compliance cost savings, may not be realized. The merger is subject to certain conditions, including receipt of certain governmental approvals which, if delayed or not satisfied, may jeopardize or postpone the merger, result in additional expense or reduce the anticipated benefits of the transaction. These and other risks are discussed under the caption Risk Factors beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q. As a Community Bank of Smith County shareholder, what are the U.S. federal income tax consequences to me?

A. We expect that for U.S. federal income tax purposes, your exchange of shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock for shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock by virtue of the merger generally will not cause you to recognize any gain or loss. You will, however, have to recognize gain in connection with any cash received instead of fractional shares. The holding period for the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock received in the merger generally will include the holding period for the Community Bank of Smith County common stock exchanged in the merger. That period determines how any gain or loss should be treated for United States federal income tax purposes upon future sales of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock

We provide a more detailed review of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger at page 32 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q. Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A. No. You should not send in your stock certificates at this time. Instructions for surrendering your Community Bank of Smith County stock certificate, in exchange for the merger consideration, will be sent to you after we complete the merger.

Q. When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A. We currently expect to complete the merger as promptly as practicable following the special meeting, assuming all the conditions to completion of the merger, including receipt of regulatory approvals, have been satisfied. Fulfilling some these conditions, such as receiving certain regulatory approvals, is not entirely within our control. If all the conditions to completion of the merger have not been satisfied at that time, we expect to complete the merger as quickly as practicable once the conditions are satisfied.

Q. As a Community Bank of Smith County shareholder, do I have to accept Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock in exchange for my shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock if the merger is approved?

A. No. If you are a Community Bank of Smith County shareholder and you follow the procedures prescribed by Tennessee law, you may dissent from the merger and have the fair value of your stock appraised by a court and paid in cash. If you follow those procedures, you won't receive Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. The fair value of your Community Bank of Smith County common stock, determined in the manner prescribed by Tennessee law, will be paid to you in cash. That amount could be more or less than the market value of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock as of the closing date of the merger. For a more complete description of these dissenters' rights, see pages 33 and 39 of this document.

Q. Whom do I call if I have questions about the special meeting or the merger?

A. You should direct any questions regarding the special meeting of shareholders or the merger to Randall Clemons, the Chief Executive Officer of Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County at 623 West Main Street, Lebanon, Tennessee 37087, (615) 444-2265 or to Joe Vance, the President of Community Bank of Smith County, at 1300 Main Street North, Carthage, Tennessee 37030, (615) 735-3990.

To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting.

Risk Factors (page 14)

See Risk Factors beginning on page 14 for a discussion of the factors you should carefully consider before deciding how to vote your shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock at the special meeting.

Reasons for the Merger (page 21)

Since July 2002, Wilson Bank Holding Company and its three bank subsidiaries have incurred significantly higher internal control, auditing and accounting costs related to their compliance with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the related rules and regulations imposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission as a result of that act. These costs, which have increased substantially during 2004 as a result of the requirement that Wilson Bank Holding Company document, and have its independent public accountants attest to, the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting, are increased over bank holding companies of similar size, by the fact that Wilson Bank Holding Company maintains three separate bank subsidiaries. Prompted by these elevating costs, management of Wilson Bank Holding Company began consideration of combining Wilson Bank and Trust, DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County. The boards of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust, DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County thereafter agreed that it is in the best interests of each of the company's respective shareholders to merge DeKalb Community Bank and Community Bank of Smith County with and into Wilson Bank and Trust. The boards of directors believe that combining these entities will result in cost savings to the combined companies related to both Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and the centralization of certain back office functions.

Community Bank of Smith County's Recommendation to Shareholders (page 19)

Community Bank of Smith County's board believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests, and the members of the board, other than those directors abstaining from the vote because of the fact that they also serve on the board of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company, unanimously recommend that you approve the merger agreement attached hereto as Appendix A.

Record Date; Vote Required (page 18)

You may vote at the Community Bank of Smith County special meeting if you owned Community Bank of Smith County common stock at the close of business on February 1, 2005. On that date, there were 387,866 shares Community Bank of Smith County common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, 193,933 of which were owned by Wilson Bank Holding Company, 328 of which were owned by officers and directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company other than those persons who are also directors of Community Bank of Smith County, and 41,159 of which were owned by the officers and directors of Community Bank of Smith County. You are entitled to cast one vote for each share of common stock you owned on that date.

In order for the merger to be approved, under Tennessee law, Community Bank of Smith County shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date must vote in favor of the merger. Because Wilson Bank Holding Company and its officers and directors own in excess of 50.2% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock, approval of the merger is highly likely.

Community Bank of Smith County will merge with and into Wilson Bank and Trust with Wilson Bank and Trust as the surviving corporation of the merger. After the merger, Community Bank of Smith County shareholders, other than those who properly perfect their dissenters' rights, will be shareholders of Wilson Bank Holding Company. Wilson Bank and Trust will, however, operate Community Bank of Smith County's branches as Community Bank of Smith County, a Wilson Bank and Trust branch.

We have attached the agreement and plan of merger by and among Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement. It is the legal document that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration That You Will Receive (page 28)

As merger consideration, you will receive 1.0043 shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock plus cash in lieu of fractional shares in an amount equal to your fractional share amount multiplied by the last sale price of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock on the date closest to, but not after, the closing date of the merger.

Opinion of Community Bank of Smith County's Financial Advisor (page 24)

It is a condition to the parties' obligation to consummate the merger that Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors shall have received the written opinion of PBS, Community Bank of Smith County's financial advisor, as to the fairness to Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration. The full text of PBS's opinion is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. PBS's opinion, which has been provided to Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors in connection with the transaction, does not address any other aspect of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote or act on matters relating to the merger.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 37)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met, including the following:

Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders approving the merger; receipt of all required regulatory approvals and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

the absence of any governmental order blocking completion of the merger, or of any proceedings by a governmental body trying to block it; receipt of all regulatory and material non-regulatory consents that are required to complete the merger;

receipt by Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors of the written opinion of PBS to the effect that the merger consideration to be received by the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders is fair to the holders of Community Bank of Smith County common stock from a financial point of view;

the absence of any litigation which, if adversely determined might, in the reasonable opinion of Wilson Bank Holding Company, have a material adverse effect on Community Bank of Smith County; and

PBS shall have performed its review of the book values of Wilson Bank Holding Company's and Community Bank of Smith County's common stock prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus to its shareholders and made its determination as to the adequacy and calculation methodologies of Wilson Bank Holding Company's and Community Bank of Smith County's loan loss reserves and allowance for doubtful accounts, among other items, by such date and as a result thereof recommended any adjustments to the book value of Community Bank of Smith County's or Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock, with all such recommended adjustments being acceptable to the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County.

In cases where the law permits, a party to the merger agreement could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger although it is entitled not to. We can't be certain whether or when any of the conditions we've listed will be satisfied (or waived, where permissible), or that the merger will be completed.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 32)

We have structured the transaction with the intent that Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in the merger, except in connection with cash received instead of fractional shares.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you can be complicated. They will depend on your specific situation and many variables not within our control. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences.

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting for financial reporting purposes.

Interests of Other Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 29)

Directors and executive officers of Community Bank of Smith County have interests in the merger that are different from the interests of a Community Bank of Smith County shareholder generally. Three of the Community Bank of Smith County directors, Charles Bell, Randall Clemons and James Comer, also serve as directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company. In addition, certain of the directors and executive officers of Wilson Bank Holding Company own shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock. The directors of Community Bank of Smith County, who are not also directors of Wilson Bank and Trust, will serve as members of the community advisory board of directors of the Community Bank of Smith County branches of Wilson Bank and Trust following consummation of the merger. In addition, the executive officers of Community Bank of Smith County will retain their positions with the Community Bank of Smith County branches of Wilson Bank and Trust.

Restrictions on Ability to Sell Wilson Bank Holding Company Common Stock (page 34)

All shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock you receive in connection with the merger will be freely transferable unless you are considered an affiliate of either Community Bank of Smith County, Wilson Bank and Trust or Wilson Bank Holding Company for the purposes of the Securities Act of 1933 as of the date of the special meeting, in which case you will be permitted to sell the shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock you receive in the merger only pursuant to an effective registration statement or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. This proxy statement/prospectus does not register the resale of stock held by affiliates.

Effective Time (page 29)

The merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee, or at such later time that the parties hereto shall have agreed upon and designated in such filings as the effective time of the merger.

Dissenters Rights (page 33)

Tennessee law permits you to dissent from the merger and to have the fair value of your stock appraised by a court and paid to you in cash. To do this, you must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with us and refraining from voting your shares in favor of the merger. If you properly dissent from the merger, your shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock will not be exchanged for shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock in the merger, and your only right will be to receive the appraised value of your shares in cash.

A dissenting shareholder will be entitled to payment only if written notice of intent to demand payment is properly delivered to Community Bank of Smith County before the vote on the merger is taken and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 39)

Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders have already voted to approve it. Also, Community Bank of Smith County can terminate the merger agreement if, within five (5) business days of its board of directors being advised by PBS of its proposed adjustments to the book value of Wilson Bank Holding Company's or Community Bank of Smith County's common stock, the Community Bank of Smith County board of directors determines, in its sole discretion, to terminate the merger agreement.

Moreover, either Wilson Bank Holding Company or Community Bank of Smith County can terminate the merger agreement in, among others, the following circumstances:

if the other party makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or seeks or consents to any reorganization or similar relief under any present or future bankruptcy act or similar law, or is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or if a third party commences any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar proceeding involving the other;

if the merger isn't completed by April 30, 2005;

in the event the approval of any governmental authority required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such governmental authority or an application therefor shall have been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority;

if the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders don't approve the merger; or if the other party violates or breaches, in a material way, any of its agreements, representations, and warranties under the merger agreement.

Regulatory Approvals (page 32)

Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County can't complete the merger unless they obtain certain approvals from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or FDIC, and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. The U.S. Department of Justice has input into the Federal Reserve Board's approval process.

While Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County don't know of any reason why they shouldn't obtain the regulatory approvals in a timely manner, they can't be certain when they will obtain them or that they will obtain them.

Surrender of Stock Certificates (page 29)

Following the effective time of the merger, Wilson Bank Holding Company will cause a letter of transmittal to be mailed to all holders of Community Bank of Smith County common stock containing instructions for surrendering their stock certificates. Certificates should not be surrendered until the letter of transmittal is received, fully completed and returned as instructed in the letter of transmittal. DeKalb Community Bank Merger

As described above, Wilson Bank Holding Company's board of directors also believes it is in the best interest of Wilson Bank Holding Company and its shareholders to merge its other 50% owned subsidiary, DeKalb Community Bank, with Wilson Bank and Trust. To that end, on November 16, 2004, Wilson Bank Holding Company also entered into a merger agreement with DeKalb Community Bank, pursuant to which DeKalb Community Bank will merge with and into Wilson Bank and Trust with Wilson Bank and Trust continuing as the surviving entity of the merger. At a special meeting of DeKalb Community Bank's shareholders to be held on March 14, 2005, DeKalb Community Bank's shareholders will be asked to approve the merger of DeKalb Community Bank with and into Wilson Bank and Trust.

RISK FACTORS

Before you vote for adoption of the merger agreement, you should carefully consider the risks described below in addition to the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the section entitled Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 17. By voting for adoption of the merger agreement, you will be choosing to invest in Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones facing Wilson Bank Holding Company. If any of the following risks actually occur, Wilson Bank Holding Company's business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially adversely affected, the value of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock could decline and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Risks Associated with the Merger

Because Wilson Bank Holding Company and certain of its board members and executive officers own in excess of 50% of the outstanding common stock of Community Bank of Smith County there are certain conflicts of interest related to the merger.

Wilson Bank Holding Company owns 50% of the issued and outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock. Additionally, the executive officers and directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company, including those persons who are also directors of Community Bank of Smith County, own 0.29% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County. Under Tennessee law and Community Bank of Smith County's organizational documents, the merger must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock entitled to vote at the meeting. Because of the ownership of Wilson Bank Holding Company and its officers and directors (all of whom are anticipated to vote in favor of the merger), approval of the merger by the required shareholder vote is highly likely. Furthermore, Wilson Bank Holding Company proposed the merger and its principal terms to the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County, and was not willing to condition the merger on the approval of the shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County who were not affiliated with Wilson Bank Holding Company. The board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County was aware of these facts when it approved the merger and the board members recommended that the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders vote in favor of the merger. Messrs. Charles Bell, Randall Clemons, and James Comer, all of whom are directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company, abstained from voting on the merger. As described below in the sections entitled The Merger, Opinion of Community Bank of Smith County's Financial Advisor and The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger, the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County must receive the opinion of its financial advisor prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus to the effect that the merger consideration to be received by the shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County is fair from a financial point of view.

The anticipated benefits of consolidating Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank and Trust may not be realized.

Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County have entered into the merger agreement with the expectation that the merger will result in various benefits including, among other things, that the expenses for the combined bank will be significantly less than those experienced by the separate stand alone operations, particularly with respect to expenses associated with Wilson Bank Holding Company's accounting, auditing and internal control function and its Sarbanes-Oxley compliance efforts. The parties also anticipate that the combined structure will result in additional savings and operating efficiencies with the centralization of certain back office activities. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including the ability to integrate the operations of Community Bank of Smith County in an efficient and effective manner. Failure to achieve these expense savings and operating efficiencies could result in unanticipated additional cost to Wilson Bank Holding Company.

If the conditions to the merger are not met, the merger may not occur.

Specified conditions set forth in the merger agreement must be satisfied or waived to complete the merger. For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the merger, please see The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 37. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived, the merger will not occur or will be delayed, and each of Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County may lose some or all of the intended benefits of the merger. The following conditions must be satisfied or waived, if permissible, before Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County are obligated to complete the merger:

Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders must approve the merger;

All required regulatory approvals must be received, and any regulatory waiting periods must have expired;

No governmental order blocking completion of the merger shall have been received, or shall a proceeding by a government body trying to block the merger have been initiated;

All regulatory and material non-regulatory consents that are required to complete the merger shall have been received;

Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors shall have received the written opinion of PBS to the effect that the merger consideration to be received by the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders is fair to the holders of Community Bank of Smith County common stock from a financial point of view;

No litigation which, if adversely determined might, in the reasonable opinion of Wilson Bank Holding Company, have a material adverse effect on Community Bank of Smith County shall have been commenced; and

PBS shall have performed its review of the book values of Wilson Bank Holding Company's and Community Bank of Smith County's Common Stock prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus and made its determination as to the adequacy and calculation methodologies of the Wilson Bank Holding Company's and Community Bank of Smith County's loan loss reserves and allowance for doubtful accounts, among other items, by such date and as a result thereof recommended any adjustments to the book value of Community Bank of Smith County's or Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock, with all such recommended adjustments being acceptable to the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County.

Risks Related to Wilson Bank Holding Company's Business

Wilson Bank Holding Company is geographically concentrated in Wilson County, Tennessee and its surrounding counties and changes in local economic conditions impact its profitability.

Wilson Bank Holding Company operates primarily in Wilson, DeKalb and Smith counties and the surrounding counties and substantially all of its loan customers and most of its deposit and other customers live or have operations in this same geographic area. Accordingly, Wilson Bank Holding Company's success significantly depends upon the growth in population, income levels, and deposits in these areas, along with the continued attraction of business ventures to the area, and its profitability is impacted by the changes in general economic conditions in this market. In addition, and like Community Bank of Smith County, unfavorable local or national economic conditions could reduce Wilson Bank Holding Company's growth rate, affect the ability of its customers to repay their loans and generally affect its financial condition and results of operations. Wilson Bank Holding Company is less able than a larger institution to spread the risks of unfavorable local economic conditions across a large number of diversified economies.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's key management personnel may leave at any time.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's future success depends to a significant extent on the continued service of its key management personnel, especially Randall Clemons, its president and chief executive officer and Elmer Richerson, the president of Wilson Bank and Trust. While Wilson Bank Holding Company does not have employment agreements with any of its personnel and can provide no assurance that it will be able to retain any of its key officers and employees or attract and retain qualified personnel in the future, it has entered into non-competition agreements with such persons which would prevent them in most circumstances, from competing with Wilson Bank and Trust for one year following their termination. In addition, these persons are parties to certain deferred compensation and equity incentive plans, the benefits of which would cease to accrue upon the termination of the person's employment with Wilson Bank Holding Company or Wilson Bank and Trust.

Wilson Bank Holding Company, as well as Wilson Bank and Trust, operate in a highly regulated environment and are supervised and examined by various federal and state regulatory agencies who may adversely affect Wilson Bank Holding Company's ability to conduct business.

The Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve supervise and examine Wilson Bank and Trust and Wilson Bank Holding Company, respectively. Because Wilson Bank and Trust's deposits are federally insured up to $100,000, the FDIC also regulates its activities. These and other regulatory agencies impose certain regulations and restrictions on Wilson Bank and Trust, including:

explicit standards as to capital and financial condition;

limitations on the permissible types, amounts and extensions of credit and investments;

restrictions on permissible non-banking activities; and restrictions on dividend payments.

Federal and state regulatory agencies have extensive discretion and power to prevent or remedy unsafe or unsound practices or violations of law by banks and bank holding companies. As a result, Wilson Bank Holding Company must expend significant time and expense to assure that it is in compliance with regulatory requirements and agency practices.

Wilson Bank Holding Company, as well as Wilson Bank and Trust, also undergoes periodic examinations by one or more regulatory agencies. Following such examinations, Wilson Bank Holding Company or Wilson Bank and Trust may be required, among other things, to make additional provisions to its allowance for loan loss or to restrict its operations. These actions would result from the regulators' judgments based on information available to them at the time of their examination. Wilson Bank and Trust's operations are also governed by a wide variety of state and federal consumer protection laws and regulations. These federal and state regulatory restrictions limit the manner in which Wilson Bank Holding Company and Wilson Bank and Trust may conduct business and obtain financing. These laws and regulations can and do change significantly from time to time, and any such change could adversely affect Wilson Bank Holding Company's results of operations.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock is thinly traded, and recent prices may not reflect the prices at which the stock would trade in an active trading market.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock, like that of Community Bank of Smith County, is not traded through an organized exchange, but rather is traded in individually-arranged transactions between buyers and sellers. Therefore, recent prices, including those reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus may not necessarily reflect the actual value of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock. Your ability to sell the shares of common stock you acquire as a result of the merger in a timely manner and at a price similar to those prices set out in this document may be substantially limited by the lack of a trading market for the common stock.

Table of Contents

Based on the 387,866 shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock outstanding on February 1, 2005, a total of 193,934 shares must be voted in favor of the proposal for the merger agreement and merger to be approved by the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders. As of February 1, 2005, the directors and executive officers of Community Bank of Smith County, and their affiliates, as a group, beneficially owned 41,159 of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock and the directors and executive officers of Wilson Bank Holding Company, and their affiliates, as a group, other than those persons who are also directors of Community Bank of Smith County, beneficially owned 328 of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock. Because it is expected that Wilson Bank Holding Company and its directors and executive officers owning Community Bank of Smith County common stock will vote in favor of the merger, approval of the merger is highly likely.

Quorum; Broker Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

The required quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting is a majority of the shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock issued and outstanding on the record date. Abstentions and broker non-votes each will be included in determining the number of shares present and voting at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Because adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock entitled to vote, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against adoption of the merger agreement. In addition, the failure of a Community Bank of Smith County shareholder to return a proxy will have the effect of a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

The actions proposed in this proxy statement/prospectus are not matters that can be voted on by brokers holding shares for beneficial owners without the owners' specific instructions. If your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you do not instruct such broker, bank or other nominee, they will not vote your shares. General Description of the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Community Bank of Smith County will merge with and into Wilson Bank and Trust. Upon completion of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Community Bank of Smith County will cease and Wilson Bank and Trust will continue as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wilson Bank Holding Company. Wilson Bank and Trust will, however, operate the Community Bank of Smith County branches as Community Bank of Smith County, a Wilson Bank and Trust branch.

Each share of Community Bank of Smith County common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted automatically into the right to receive 1.0043 shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. Wilson Bank Holding Company will not issue fractional shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. Instead, in lieu of any fractional share that Community Bank of Smith County shareholders would otherwise receive, Community Bank of Smith County shareholders will receive cash equal to their fractional share amount multiplied by the last sale price of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock on the date closest to, but not after, the closing date of the merger.

Based on the exchange ratio and the number of shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock and Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock outstanding and assuming that none of the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders exercise their dissenters' rights, approximately 195,000 shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock will be issued to shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County, other than Wilson Bank Holding Company, pursuant to the merger agreement, representing approximately 4.16% of the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock outstanding immediately after the merger.

Background of the Merger

Community Bank of Smith County was organized in 1996 by Wilson Bank Holding Company. Wilson Bank and Trust, a wholly owned subsidiary of Wilson Bank Holding Company, applied to the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions to open a branch in Carthage and to simultaneously organize and incorporate that branch as Community Bank of Smith County. Thereafter, Community Bank of Smith County issued additional shares to residents of Smith County sufficient to reduce Wilson Bank Holding Company's initial ownership to 50% of the shares outstanding. Community Bank of Smith County has remained a 50% owned subsidiary of Wilson Bank Holding Company since that time. Wilson Bank Holding Company has included Community Bank of Smith County as a consolidated subsidiary in its consolidated financial statements; however, eight of the eleven members of the Community Bank of Smith County board of directors are independent of any association with Wilson Bank Holding Company. Randall Clemons, Chief Executive Officer of Wilson Bank Holding Company and Wilson Bank and Trust, serves as Chief Executive Officer of Community Bank of Smith County, but the Chairman, President, Vice Presidents and other officers of Community Bank of Smith County are officers only of Community Bank of Smith County.

As a result of recent changes in U.S. securities laws, primarily the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, Wilson Bank Holding Company incurred significantly higher internal control, accounting and auditing costs because Community Bank of Smith County was a separate corporate entity with substantial minority ownership. As a result of these increased costs, and similar increased costs with respect to the operations of DeKalb Community Bank, its other 50% owned subsidiary, Wilson Bank Holding Company's management began consideration of combining DeKalb Community Bank and the Community Bank of Smith County with Wilson Bank and Trust.

At a Wilson Bank Holding Company board meeting held on August 23, the board of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company engaged in preliminary discussions regarding acquiring the other 50% of the shares of Community Bank of Smith County.

At a Community Bank of Smith County board of directors meeting held on September 7, 2004, Randall Clemons, the Chief Executive Officer of Wilson Bank Holding Company and a director of Community Bank of Smith County, presented a proposal from Wilson Bank Holding Company to acquire the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock not owned by Wilson Bank Holding Company. At that meeting, the proposed terms of the merger were discussed, including that the shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County, other than Wilson Bank Holding Company, would receive shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock in exchange for their shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock based on the respective book values of each company's common stock as of December 31, 2004, as determined by an outside financial advisory firm. At that meeting, the Community Bank of Smith County board of directors discussed the concerns of its members as they related to the shareholders and employees of Community Bank of Smith County and all of the directors present at the meeting, other than Messrs. Bell, Clemons and Comer, unanimously approved the transaction.

At its September 27, 2004 board meeting, a representative of PBS made a presentation to the board of Wilson Bank Holding Company regarding the acquisition of the remaining 50% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock. At this meeting, the board of directors further considered the potential acquisition and engaged in general discussion regarding possible valuation levels for the interest.

On October 12, 2004, the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County held a meeting to discuss the terms of the draft of the merger agreement and to engage PBS as its financial advisor. At that meeting, representatives of PBS discussed with the Community Bank of Smith County board of directors the procedures to be used by PBS to evaluate the book values of Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank Holding Company in connection with establishing the merger consideration, and the board of directors approved the engagement of PBS as its financial advisor. At this meeting, the members of the board of directors were also given a copy of a draft of the merger agreement to review for discussion at a future meeting of the board of directors.

During the next three weeks, certain members of the board of directors of Community Bank of Smith County had discussions with Mr. Clemons about concerns they had with the breadth of the representations and warranties being requested of Community Bank of Smith County in the merger agreement along with concerns regarding the manner in which the merger consideration was determined.

On October 25, 2004, the board of directors of Wilson Bank and Trust met to consider the terms of the merger agreement and the merger. Following a discussion about the terms of the merger, the board approved the merger agreement and the merger.

On October 25, 2004, the board of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company reviewed the terms of the merger agreement and, following a discussion on the terms, approved the merger agreement and the merger.

At the November 9, 2004, meeting of the Community Bank of Smith County board of directors, a revised draft of the merger agreement was presented to the board in response to the concerns expressed by certain members of the board following its October 12, 2004 meeting. The changes to the merger agreement were reviewed by the board and a general discussion followed regarding the manner in which the book values of Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank Holding Company could be adjusted by PBS in determining the merger consideration. Following a discussion of the merger agreement, the board of directors voted to approve the merger agreement and all of the directors voted in favor of the merger and to approve and adopt the merger agreement and to recommend that the shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County vote For approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Messrs. Charles Bell, Randall Clemons and James Comer, each of whom is a director of Wilson Bank Holding Company, abstained from voting.

On November 16, 2004, Wilson Bank Holding Company, Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County executed the merger agreement. On January 24, 2005 and January 25, 2005, representatives of PBS met with the boards of directors of Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County to present the fairness opinion and to discuss the fairness, from a financial perspective, of the merger consideration.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's Reasons for the Merger

In approving, adopting and authorizing the merger and the merger agreement, Wilson Bank Holding Company's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, those described in the following paragraphs. The Wilson Bank Holding Company board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. The board viewed its position and recommendations as being based on all of the information available to it and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weight to different factors. In reaching its decision, the Wilson Bank Holding Company board consulted with management and with its legal counsel with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The Wilson Bank Holding Company board identified the potential benefits of the merger that it believes will contribute to the success of the combined enterprise. These potential benefits include:

cost savings related to Wilson Bank Holding Company's Sarbanes-Oxley Act compliance efforts, including, particularly those related to that act's Section 404 internal control requirements and Wilson Bank Holding Company's accounting and auditing function; cost savings related to the centralization of certain back office operations and loan review operations for the combined bank;

cost savings related to a reduction in the number of regulatory examinations for Wilson Bank Holding Company's bank subsidiaries;

similarities between the banking philosophies of Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County; and the financial terms of the merger, including the expectation that the merger consideration will not be taxable to the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders.

The Wilson Bank Holding Company board of directors also considered the structure of the transaction and the terms of the merger agreement, including:

the consideration to be paid to the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders;

the representations and warranties of Community Bank of Smith County;

the covenants of Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County;

the conditions required to be satisfied or waived, if permissible, prior to completion of the merger; and the rights of Wilson Bank Holding Company and Community Bank of Smith County to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances.

The Wilson Bank Holding Company board of directors also considered a number of uncertainties and risks associated with the merger. These negative factors included:

the risk that the potential benefits of the merger might not be realized;

the risk of decline in the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock price upon announcement of the transaction;

the risk that the merger might not be completed; the conditions to the merger agreement requiring receipt of certain regulatory approvals; and various other applicable risks associated with the combined banks and the merger, including those described under the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14.

The Wilson Bank Holding Company board weighed the benefits, advantages and opportunities against the challenges inherent in the combination of the two banks. The board realized that there can be no assurance about the future results of the combined banks and the expected cost savings, including results expected or considered in the factors described above. However, Wilson Bank Holding Company's board concluded that the potential benefits outweighed the potential risks of consummating the merger.

After taking into account these and other factors, the Wilson Bank Holding Company board determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were in the best interests of Wilson Bank Holding Company and its shareholders, and approved, adopted and authorized the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Community Bank of Smith County's Reasons for the Merger

In approving, adopting and authorizing the merger and the merger agreement, Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, those described in the following paragraphs. The Community Bank of Smith County board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. addition, individual directors may have given different weight to different factors. In reaching its decision, the Community Bank of Smith County board consulted with management, representatives of Wilson Bank Holding Company and with its legal counsel with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The Community Bank of Smith County board identified the potential benefits of the merger that it believes will contribute to the success of the combined enterprise. These potential benefits include:

cost savings and improved internal controls related to the centralization of certain back office operations and loan review operations for the combined bank;

similarities between the banking philosophies of Wilson Bank and Trust and Community Bank of Smith County and Community Bank of Smith County's historic relationship with Wilson Bank and Trust;

the belief that the merger would lead to improved lending and asset quality controls;

the increased marketability and liquidity of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock compared to Community Bank of Smith County's common stock;

the financial terms of the merger, including the expectation that the merger consideration will not be taxable to the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders; and the absence of any apparent regulatory impediments and the corresponding likelihood that the proposed transactions would be consummated.

The Community Bank of Smith County board of directors also considered the structure of the transaction and the terms of the merger agreement, including:

the consideration to be paid to the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders and the fact that the exchange ratio would be calculated on a book value to book value basis, which the board considered to be fair given the absence of an active trading market in the stock of either company;

the representations and warranties of Wilson Bank Holding Company;

the covenants of Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank Holding Company;

the conditions required to be satisfied or waived, if permissible, prior to completion of the merger; and the strong likelihood that because of the shares owned by Wilson Bank Holding Company and its officers and directors, the merger would be approved by the required vote of shareholders if it was approved by Community Bank of Smith County board of directors;

the fact that Wilson Bank Holding Company was instrumental in the organization of Community Bank of Smith County, and was not willing to consider sale of its interest to a third party or a group of shareholders, or the sale of substantially all or all of Community Bank of Smith County to a third party;

the rights of Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank Holding Company to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances, including in the event that the board is not satisfied with the proposed adjustments of PBS to the book values of the common stock of each of Community Bank of Smith County and Wilson Bank Holding Company; and the fact that Community Bank of Smith County would receive an opinion from PBS, a bank financial advisory firm, that the financial terms of the merger were fair to the shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County. The Community Bank of Smith County board of directors also considered a number of uncertainties and risks associated with the merger. These negative factors included:

the ownership position of Wilson Bank Holding Company and its officers and directors in Community Bank of Smith County, and the conflict of interest that created;

the risk that the potential benefits of the merger might not be realized;

the risk of decline in the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock price following consummation of the merger;

the risk that the merger might not be completed; and the conditions to the merger agreement requiring receipt of certain regulatory approvals.

The Community Bank of Smith County board weighed the benefits, advantages and opportunities against these and other risks. The board realized that there can be no assurance about the future results of the combined banks or the future performance of the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. However, Community Bank of Smith County's board concluded that the potential benefits outweighed the potential risks of consummating the merger.

After taking into account these and other factors, the Community Bank of Smith County board determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were fair to, and in the best interests of, Community Bank of Smith County and its shareholders, and approved, adopted and authorized the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

PBS was engaged by Community Bank of Smith County to advise Community Bank of Smith County's board of directors as to the fairness of the consideration, from a financial perspective, to be paid by Wilson Bank Holding Company to Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders in connection with the merger.

PBS determined that one adjustment was warranted. PBS increased the Community Bank of Smith County's equity by $2,601,000 to reflect an estimated increase in the value of the core deposits on Community Bank of Smith County's books as of December 31, 2004. The aggregate adjusted net asset value of Community Bank of Smith County was determined to be $8,811,000 or $22.98 per Community Bank of Smith County common share.

Discounted Earnings Analysis: A dividend discount analysis was performed by PBS pursuant to which a range of values of Community Bank of Smith County was determined by adding (i) the present value of estimated future dividend streams that Community Bank of Smith County could generate over a five-year period and (ii) the present value of the terminal value of Community Bank of Smith County's earnings and equity at the end of the fifth year. The terminal value of the Community Bank of Smith County's earnings and equity at the end of the five-year period was determined by applying a multiple of 1.96 times the projected terminal year's equity. The 1.96 multiple represents the median price paid as a multiple of equity for all comparable group bank transactions effected since June 30, 2001 when Financial Accounting Statements 141 and 142 went into effect.

Dividend streams and terminal values were discounted to present values using a discount rate of 13%. This rate reflects assumptions regarding the required rate of return of holders or buyers of Community Bank of Smith County's common stock. The aggregate value of Community Bank of Smith County, determined by adding the present value of the total cash flows, was $11,974,000 or $31.23 per share. In addition, using the five-year projection as a base, a twenty-year projection was prepared assuming an annual growth rate in assets of 6.0% in years one through five and 4.0% in years six through twenty. Community Bank of Smith County's return on assets was assumed to equal 1.30% in year one, 1.30% in year two and 1.35% in years three through five and then increase to 1.40% by year six and remain constant at this level for the remainder of the analysis. Dividends equal to 40.0% of net income were assumed to be paid in years one through five then were assumed to increase to 70.0% of net income in years six through twenty. This long-term projection resulted in an aggregate value of $9,063,000 or $23.64 per share of Community Bank of Smith County common stock.

The fairness opinion is directed only to the question of whether the consideration to be received by Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders under the Agreement is fair and equitable from a financial perspective and does not constitute a recommendation to any Community Bank of Smith County shareholder to vote in favor of the affiliation. No limitations were imposed on PBS regarding the scope of its investigation or otherwise by Community Bank of Smith County.

Based on the results of the various analyses described above, PBS concluded that the consideration to be received by Community Bank of Smith County's shareholders under the merger agreement is fair and equitable from a financial

Regulatory Matters

The acquisition of 100% of the outstanding shares of Community Bank of Smith County by Wilson Bank Holding Company is subject to prior approval by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. The Bank Holding Company Act and Federal Reserve Regulation Y require the Federal Reserve Board, when approving the acquisition of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of a bank by an existing bank holding company, to take into consideration (1) the financial and managerial resources (including the competence, experience, and integrity of officers, directors and principal shareholders); (2) future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions; and (3) the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In considering financial resources and future prospects, the Federal Reserve Board will, among other things, evaluate the adequacy of the capital levels of the parties to a proposed transaction.

The Bank Holding Company Act prohibits the Federal Reserve Board from approving an acquisition if (1) it would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States; (2) its effect in any section of the country would be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly; or (3) it would in any other manner result in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of a merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the record of performance of the existing institutions in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, served by such institutions.

The merger of Community Bank of Smith County with and into the Wilson Bank and Trust, a Tennessee state nonmember bank, requires prior approval from the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act, and the approval of the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions, pursuant to Part 13 of the Tennessee Banking Act.

Applicable federal and Tennessee law provides for the publication of notice and public comment on applications or notices filed with the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions and authorizes those agencies to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, this intervention could delay the regulatory approvals required for consummation of the merger.

Wilson Bank Holding Company made application to the Federal Reserve on January 28, 2005, the FDIC on January 27, 2005, and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions on January 25, 2005 for the requisite approvals. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, none of the required approvals had been received.

The merger generally may not be consummated until 30 days (which may be shortened to 15 days with the consent of the United States Department of Justice) following the date of Federal Reserve Board approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action by the United States Department of Justice, if it occurred, would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve Board's approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following summary discloses some of the federal income tax consequences of the merger. The summary is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury regulations and administrative rulings and judicial authority as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. All of the foregoing are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and the change could affect the continuing validity of the discussion. The discussion assumes that Community Bank of Smith County shareholders hold their shares as capital assets. Further, the discussion does not address the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular Community Bank of Smith County shareholder subject to special treatment under federal income tax laws, like dealers in securities, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting, non-United States persons, tax-exempt organizations, or Community Bank of Smith County shareholders that hold Community Bank of Smith County common stock as part of a straddle or conversion transaction. The discussion does not address any consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or foreign jurisdiction.

Community Bank of Smith County shareholders will not recognize income, gain or loss upon the receipt of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock in exchange for their shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock pursuant to the merger. The aggregate tax basis of the shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock received by Community Bank of Smith County shareholders, including any fractional share of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock for which cash is received, will be the same as the tax basis of the shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock exchanged for the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. The holding period of the shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock received by Community Bank of Smith County shareholders will include the holding period of Community Bank of Smith County common stock exchanged for the Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock. Cash received by a shareholder of Community Bank of Smith County in lieu of a fractional share of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock will be treated as received in exchange for the fractional interest, and gain or loss will be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Community Bank of Smith County common stock allocated to such fractional share. This gain or loss generally will be treated as capital gain or loss if the shareholder holds his or her Community Bank of Smith County common stock as a capital asset at the effective time.

The discussion above does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects relevant to the merger. Thus, you are urged to consult your own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to you of the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and the effect of federal, state, local and other applicable tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Accounting Treatment

The acquisition of the noncontrolling interest in Community Bank of Smith County will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting by Wilson Bank Holding Company as prescribed by Statement of Financial Accounting Board Standard No. 141 (SFAS No. 141). Any intangibles resulting from the merger will be accounted for in subsequent years pursuant to the provisions of SFAS No. 142. Intangible assets with a finite life will be amortized over their useful life. Intangible assets with indefinite lives such as goodwill are not subject to amortization; however, these intangibles must be tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Tennessee law, if you do not vote in favor of the merger you have the right to seek an appraisal of the fair value of your Community Bank of Smith County common stock and receive a cash payment of such fair value. Community Bank of Smith County shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights must comply with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act in order to perfect their rights. Community Bank of Smith County will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures. A copy of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Tennessee statutory procedures required to be followed by a shareholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect the shareholder's appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the full text of which appears as Appendix B of this proxy statement.

Holders of common stock who do not want to accept the merger consideration, who do not vote in favor of (or who abstain from voting on) the merger agreement, and who perfect their dissenters' rights by complying with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, will have the right to receive cash payment for the fair value of their common stock.

In order to be eligible to exercise the right to dissent, a shareholder must file with Community Bank of Smith County a written objection to the merger, stating that he intends to dissent if the merger is effected. Such statement must be filed before the vote is taken at the special meeting, and it must be addressed as follows: Community Bank of Smith County, 1300 Main Street North, Carthage, Tennessee 37030, Attention: J. Randall Clemons, Corporate Secretary. It is not necessary for a dissenting shareholder to vote against the merger to preserve dissenters' rights; however, such rights will be lost if the shareholder votes in favor of the merger.

If the merger is approved, Community Bank of Smith County will deliver a written notice to dissenting shareholders no later than ten days after approval of the merger, unless the merger is terminated and abandoned. The notice will set forth where the dissenting shareholders' payment demands must be sent and where and when stock certificates must be deposited. The notice will also supply a form for dissenting shareholders to use in demanding payment. A dissenting shareholder must deliver his payment demand to Community Bank of Smith County no later than the date set forth in such notice, which may not be fewer than one nor more than two months after the written notice is delivered. Merely abstaining from or voting against the merger will not satisfy the two requirements that the shareholder (i) object in writing to the merger and (ii) file a written demand for payment within such two-month period. Failure of a shareholder to take the required action during the two-month period binds such shareholder to the terms of the merger and precludes exercise of dissenters' rights.

Within the two-month period, a dissenting shareholder must submit his stock certificates representing his shares of common stock to Community Bank of Smith County in accordance with the terms of notice of Community Bank of Smith County.

As soon as practicable after the merger is effected, or upon receipt of a dissenting shareholder's payment demand, whichever is later, Community Bank of Smith County shall pay each dissenting shareholder the fair value of his shares, plus accrued interest.

If a dissenting shareholder believes that the amount paid by Community Bank of Smith County is less than the fair value of the shares or that interest due was incorrectly calculated, the dissenting shareholder must, within one month after Community Bank of Smith County has made payment to the dissenting shareholder, demand payment of his estimate of the fair value. If a demand for payment remains unsettled, Community Bank of Smith County must commence a suit in a court having equity jurisdiction located in Smith County, Tennessee, within two months after receiving the dissenting shareholder's payment demand. All dissenting shareholders will be made a party to the proceeding and will be served with a copy of the petition. The court shall determine the dissenting shareholder's right to receive payment or the fair value of his shares or both. The costs and expenses of such proceedings shall be assessed against Community Bank of Smith County unless the court shall find the actions of a dissenting shareholder who is party to the suit to be arbitrary, vexatious or not in good faith. If Community Bank of Smith County fails to bring such a suit within such time, it shall pay each dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

Section 48-23-101 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that the fair value of shares shall be determined immediately before the effectuation of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation of shares in anticipation of such corporate action. The value so determined could be more or less than the value of the merger consideration into which shares of the common stock are to be converted pursuant to the merger. Any dissenting shareholder who perfects such holder's rights to be paid the fair value of such holder's shares will recognize taxable gain or loss upon receipt of cash for such shares for federal income tax purposes. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on Page 32.

Any shareholder contemplating the exercise of dissenters' rights should carefully review Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. A shareholder who fails to comply with all requirements of such Chapter 23 will forfeit such holder's dissenters' rights and, upon consummation of the merger, such holder's shares of common stock will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration to which such shareholder is entitled under the merger agreement.

In view of the complexities of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the material provisions of which are briefly summarized above, shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County who consider pursuing dissenters' rights are urged to consult with legal counsel.

The above summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is reprinted in full as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

No fractional shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, in lieu of any fractional share that Community Bank of Smith County shareholders would otherwise receive, Community Bank of Smith County shareholders will receive cash equal to your fractional share amount multiplied by the last sale price of Wilson Bank Holding Company's common stock on the date closest to, but not after, the closing date of the merger.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS FOR COMMUNITY BANK OF SMITH COUNTY SHAREHOLDERS

Under Tennessee law, if you do not vote in favor of the merger you have the right to seek an appraisal of the fair value of your Community Bank of Smith County common stock and receive a cash payment of such fair value. Community Bank of Smith County shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights must comply with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act in order to perfect their rights. Community Bank of Smith County will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures. A copy of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Tennessee statutory procedures required to be followed by a shareholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect the shareholder's appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the full text of which appears as Appendix B of this proxy statement.

Holders of common stock who do not want to accept the merger consideration, who do not vote in favor of (or who abstain from voting on) the merger agreement, and who perfect their dissenters' rights by complying with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, will have the right to receive cash payment for the fair value of their common stock.

In order to be eligible to exercise the right to dissent, a shareholder must file with Community Bank of Smith County a written objection to the merger, stating that he intends to dissent if the merger is effected. Such statement must be filed before the vote is taken at the special meeting, and it must be addressed as follows: Community Bank of Smith County, 1300 Main Street North, Carthage, Tennessee 37030, Attention: J. Randall Clemons, Corporate Secretary. It is not necessary for a dissenting shareholder to vote against the merger to preserve dissenters' rights; however, such rights will be lost if the shareholder votes in favor of the merger.

If the merger is approved, Community Bank of Smith County will deliver a written notice to dissenting shareholders no later than ten days after approval of the merger, unless the merger is terminated and abandoned. The notice will set forth where the dissenting shareholders' payment demands must be sent and where and when stock certificates must be deposited. The notice will also supply a form for dissenting shareholders to use in demanding payment. A dissenting shareholder must deliver his payment demand to Community Bank of Smith County no later than the date set forth in such notice, which may not be fewer than one nor more than two months after the written notice is delivered. Merely abstaining from or voting against the merger will not satisfy the two requirements that the shareholder (i) object in writing to the merger and (ii) file a written demand for payment within such two-month period. Failure of a shareholder to take the required action during the two-month period binds such shareholder to the terms of the merger and precludes exercise of dissenters' rights.

Within the two-month period, a dissenting shareholder must submit his stock certificates representing his shares of common stock to Community Bank of Smith County in accordance with the terms of notice of Community Bank of Smith County. As soon as practicable after the merger is effected, or upon receipt of a dissenting shareholder's payment demand, whichever is later, Community Bank of Smith County shall pay each dissenting shareholder the fair value of his shares, plus accrued interest.

If a dissenting shareholder believes that the amount paid by Community Bank of Smith County is less than the fair value of the shares or that interest due was incorrectly calculated, the dissenting shareholder must, within one month after Community Bank of Smith County has made payment to the dissenting shareholder, demand payment of his estimate of the fair value. If a demand for payment remains unsettled, Community Bank of Smith County must commence a suit in a court having equity jurisdiction located in Smith County, Tennessee, within two months after receiving the dissenting shareholder's payment demand. All dissenting shareholders will be made a party to the proceeding and will be served with a copy of the petition. The court shall determine the dissenting shareholder's right to receive payment or the fair value of his shares or both. The costs and expenses of such proceedings shall be assessed against Community Bank of Smith County unless the court shall find the actions of a dissenting shareholder who is party to the suit to be arbitrary, vexatious or not in good faith. If Community Bank of Smith County fails to bring such a suit within such time, it shall pay each dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

Section 48-23-101 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that the fair value of shares shall be determined immediately before the effectuation of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation of shares in anticipation of such corporate action. The value so determined could be more or less than the value of the merger consideration into which shares of the common stock are to be converted pursuant to the merger. Any dissenting shareholder who perfects such holder's rights to be paid the fair value of such holder's shares will recognize taxable gain or loss upon receipt of cash for such shares for federal income tax purposes. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on Page 32.

Any shareholder contemplating the exercise of dissenters' rights should carefully review Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. A shareholder who fails to comply with all requirements of such Chapter 23 will forfeit such holder's dissenters' rights and, upon consummation of the merger, such holder's shares of common stock will be converted into the right to the merger consideration to which such shareholder is entitled under the merger agreement.

In view of the complexities of Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the material provisions of which are briefly summarized above, shareholders of Community Bank of Smith County who consider pursuing dissenters' rights are urged to consult with legal counsel.

The above summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is reprinted in full as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

The summaries are subject to, and are qualified entirely by, the provisions of Wilson Bank Holding Company s charter and bylaws, all of which are included or incorporated by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. You are encouraged to read the Wilson Bank Holding Company charter and bylaws.

Common Stock

The holders of Wilson Bank Holding Company s common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be voted on by shareholders, including the election of directors. Holders of common stock have no preemptive rights, and there are no conversion rights or redemption or sinking fund provisions with respect to shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company s common stock. All shares of Wilson Bank Holding Company common stock being offered to the Community Bank of Smith County shareholders under this proxy statement/prospectus will be fully paid and not liable for further calls or assessment by Wilson Bank Holding Company.

Anti-Takeover Effect of Wilson Bank Holding Company s Charter and Bylaw Provisions

Wilson Bank Holding Company s charter and bylaws contain provisions that could make it more difficult to consummate an acquisition of Wilson Bank Holding Company by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest or otherwise.

Board of Directors. Wilson Bank Holding Company s bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be no fewer than five nor more than 15. The Wilson Bank Holding Company charter provides that the directors will be classified into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible with each class to serve for staggered three year terms. Under the Wilson Bank Holding Company bylaws, the shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him without cause. The Wilson Bank Holding Company bylaws provides that if so provided in the Wilson Bank Holding Company charter, any of the directors may be removed for cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire board of directors; however, such a method of removal is not provided for in the Wilson Bank Holding Company charter. A director may be removed by the shareholders or directors only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing him, and the meeting notice must state the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is the removal of directors. Directors may be removed without cause only by vote of a majority of the shareholders entitled to vote at a regular or special meeting. The Wilson Bank Holding Company charter provides that any vacancy on the board of directors, including a vacancy that results from an increase in the number of directors or a vacancy that results from the removal of a director with cause, may be filled only by the board of directors. Any director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next annual meeting following his or her election to the board of directors at which time such person will be subject to election and classification. Under the Wilson Bank Holding Company bylaws, if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board of directors, they may fill such vacancies by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

Charter Provisions. The Wilson Bank Holding Company charter provides that the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors shall be required to amend, alter, change or repeal, or to adopt any provision as part of the charter or as part of Wilson Bank Holding Company's bylaws inconsistent with the purpose and intent of Article 8 of the charter, which creates staggered terms for the board of directors.

Tennessee's Anti-takeover Provisions

Provisions in Tennessee law could make it harder for someone to acquire Wilson Bank Holding Company through a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise.

Tennessee Business Combination Act. The Tennessee Business Combination Act provides that a party owning shares equal to 10% or more of the voting power of any class or series of the then outstanding voting stock of a resident domestic corporation is an interested shareholder. An interested shareholder also includes a party that is an affiliate or associate, as defined in the Tennessee Business Combination Act, of a resident domestic corporation. Wilson Bank Holding Company is currently a resident domestic corporation within the meaning of this act. An interested shareholder cannot engage in a business combination with the resident domestic corporation unless the combination:

takes place at least five years after the interested shareholder first acquired 10% or more of the voting power of any class or series of the then outstanding voting stock of the resident domestic corporation; and either is approved by at least two-thirds of the non-interested voting shares of the resident domestic corporation or satisfies fairness conditions specified in the Tennessee Business Combination Act.

These provisions apply unless one of the following exemptions is available:

a business combination with an entity can proceed without delay when approved by the target corporation's board of directors before that entity becomes an interested shareholder;

a business combination is exempt, if in its original charter or original bylaws, the resident domestic corporation elects not to be governed by the Tennessee Business Combination Act;

unless the charter of the resident domestic corporation provides otherwise, the Tennessee Business Combination Act does not apply to a business combination of a resident domestic corporation with, or proposed by or on behalf of, an interested shareholder if the resident domestic corporation did not have, on such interested shareholder's share acquisition date, a class of voting stock registered or traded on a national securities exchange or registered with the securities and exchange commission pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act; or the resident corporation may enact a charter or bylaw amendment to remove itself entirely from the Tennessee Business Combination Act that must be approved by a majority of the shareholders who have held shares for more than one year before the vote and which cannot become operative until two years after the vote.

Wilson Bank Holding Company has not adopted a charter amendment or bylaw to remove it from the Tennessee Business Combination Act.

Tennessee Greenmail Act. The Tennessee Greenmail Act prohibits Wilson Bank Holding Company from purchasing or agreeing to purchase any of its securities, at a price higher than fair market value, from a holder of 3% or more of any class of its securities who has beneficially owned the securities for less than two years. Wilson Bank Holding Company can, however, make this purchase if the majority of the outstanding shares of each class of voting stock issued by it approves the purchase or if it makes an offer of at least equal value per share to all holders of shares of the same class of securities as those held by the prospective seller.

Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act. The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act strips a purchaser's shares of voting rights any time an acquisition of shares in a Tennessee corporation which has elected to be covered by the Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act (which Wilson Bank Holding Company at this time has not) brings the purchaser's voting power to one-fifth, one-third or a majority of all voting power. The purchaser's voting rights can be restored only by a majority vote of the other shareholders. The purchaser may demand a meeting of shareholders to conduct such a vote. The purchaser can demand a meeting for this purpose before acquiring shares in excess of the thresholds described above, which we refer to as a control share acquisition, only if it holds at least 10% of the outstanding shares and announces a good faith intention to make the acquisition of shares having voting power in excess of the thresholds stated above. If a target corporation so elects prior to the date on which a purchaser makes a control share acquisition, a target corporation may redeem the purchaser's shares if the shares are not granted voting rights.

The effect of these provisions may make a change of control of Wilson Bank Holding Company harder by delaying, deferring or preventing a tender offer or takeover attempt that you might consider to be in your best interest, including those attempts that might result in the payment of a premium over the market price for Wilson Bank Holding Company's shares. They may also promote the continuity of Wilson Bank Holding Company's management by making it harder for you to remove or change the incumbent members of the board of directors.

Limitations on Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if:

the director or officer acted in good faith;

in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, the director or officer reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interest;

in all other cases, the director or officer reasonably believed that his or her conduct was not opposed to the best interest of the corporation; and in connection with any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instituted because of his or her status as an officer or director of a corporation, the Tennessee Business Corporation Act mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The Tennessee Business Corporation Act also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if the officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that the individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, notwithstanding the fact that:

the officer or director was adjudged liable to the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation;

the officer or director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her; or the officer or director breached his or her duty of care to the corporation.

Wilson Bank Holding Company's charter provides that to the extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the company may indemnify every officer, director or employee, his heirs, executors and administrators, against judgments resulting from the expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action to which he may be made a party by reason of his being an officer, director or employee of the company, including any action based upon any alleged act or omission on his part as an officer, director or employee of the company, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action to be liable for negligence or misconduct. Under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, this provision relieves Wilson Bank Holding Company's directors from personal liability to it or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability arising from a judgment or other final adjudication establishing:

any breach of the director's duty of loyalty;

acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or any unlawful distributions.

Tennessee Investor Protection Act:

Tennessee's Investor Protection Act applies to tender offers directed at corporations (called "offeree companies") that have substantial assets in Tennessee that are either incorporated in or have a principal office in Tennessee. The Investor Protection Act requires an offeror making a tender offer for an offeree company to file with the Commission of Commerce and Insurance a registration statement. When the offeror intends to gain control of the offeree company, the registration statement must indicate any plans the offeror has for the offeree company. The commissioner may require additional information material to the takeover offer and may call for hearings. The Investor Protection Act does not apply to an offer that the offeree company's board of directors recommends to shareholders.

In addition to requiring the offeror to file a registration statement with the commissioner, the Investor Protection Act requires the offeror and the offeree company to deliver to the commissioner all solicitation materials used in connection with the tender offer. The Investor Protection Act prohibits fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices by either side, and gives the commissioner standing to apply for equitable relief to the Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, or to any other chancery court having jurisdiction whenever it appears to the commissioner that the offeror, the offeree company, or any of its respective affiliates has engaged in or is about to engage in a violation of the Investor Protection Act. AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER ( Agreement ) made this 16th day of November, 2004 by and among WILSON BANK HOLDING COMPANY, a Tennessee corporation ( Parent ), WILSON BANK AND TRUST, a state chartered bank incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee (the Bank ), and COMMUNITY BANK OF SMITH COUNTY, a state chartered bank incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee ( CBSC ).

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Parent, the Bank and CBSC each have determined that a business combination between Parent, the Bank, and CBSC is in the best interests of their respective companies and shareholders and presents an opportunity for their respective companies to achieve long-term strategic and financial benefits, and accordingly have agreed to effect the merger provided for herein upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, and of the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, CBSC shall be merged with and into the Bank in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the TBCA ) (the Merger ), the separate corporate existence of CBSC shall cease and the Bank shall survive and continue to exist as a corporation incorporated under the TBCA and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Bank, as the surviving corporation in the Merger, sometimes being referred to herein as the Surviving Corporation ). The Merger shall be consummated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, which has been approved and adopted by the respective Boards of Directors of Parent, the Bank and CBSC.

1.2 The Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing ) shall take place at the offices Bass, Berry & Sims PLC, 315 Deaderick Street, Suite 2700, Nashville, TN 37238, at 10:00 a.m., local time, on March 31, 2005 or, if later, the first business day immediately following the day on which the last to be fulfilled or waived of the conditions set forth in Articles 8 and 9 shall be fulfilled or waived in accordance herewith or at such other time, date, or place as Parent and CBSC may agree. The date on which the Closing occurs is hereinafter referred to as the Closing Date.

1.3 Effective Time. If all the conditions to the Merger set forth in Articles 8 and 9 shall have been fulfilled or waived in accordance herewith and this Agreement shall not have been terminated as provided in Article 10, the parties hereto shall cause Articles of Merger, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, to be properly executed and filed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the TBCA on the Closing Date. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee, or at such later time that the parties hereto shall have agreed upon and designated in such filings as the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time ).

ARTICLE 2
CHARTER, BYLAWS, AND OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

2.1 Charter and Bylaws. The Charter and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation immediately after the Merger shall be the Charter and Bylaws of the Bank in effect immediately prior to the Merger.

2.2 Directors and Executive Officers of the Surviving Corporation. The directors and executive officers of the Surviving Corporation immediately after the Merger shall be the directors and executive officers of the Bank immediately prior to the Merger, each of whom shall serve until such time as their successors shall be duly elected and qualified.

2.3 CBSC Board and Branches. After the Merger, the directors of the CBSC shall become members of the CBSC Community Board, shall meet monthly to provide advice regarding CBSC operations to the Board of Directors of the Bank and shall be compensated therefore in the same amount as previously compensated as directors of CBSC. The branches of CBSC after the Merger shall operate as Community Bank of Smith County, an office of Wilson Bank and Trust.

ARTICLE 3
CONVERSION OF CBSC STOCK

3.1 Conversion of CBSC Common Stock in the Merger. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of any capital stock of CBSC, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of CBSC ( CBSC Common Stock ) shall be converted into and become a number of shares of Parent common stock ( Parent Common Stock ), equal to the quotient of the (i) book value per share of the CBSC Common Stock at December 31, 2004 divided by (ii) the book value per share of the Parent Common Stock, at December 31, 2004 as such book values may be adjusted by Professional Bank Services, Inc. ( PBS ) (the Merger Consideration ). No fractional shares shall be issued and in lieu thereof, a cash payment shall be made pursuant to Section 3.4 hereof

3.2 Surrender and Exchange of Shares.

(a) The Bank shall act as Exchange Agent hereunder (the Exchange Agent ). Prior to Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with or for the account of the Exchange Agent stock certificates representing the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 3.1 in exchange for outstanding shares of CBSC Common Stock, which shares of Parent Common Stock shall be deemed to have been issued at the Effective Time and which certificates shall be returned to Parent if such Effective Time does not occur.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time (but not later than the first business day after the Effective Time), Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of CBSC Common Stock (the Certificates ) that were converted pursuant to Section 3.1 into the right to receive shares of Parent Common Stock (i) a form of letter of transmittal specifying that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and (ii) instructions for use in surrendering such Certificates in exchange for certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (x) a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article 3 and (y) cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.4, after giving effect to any required tax withholdings, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of CBSC Common Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of the CBSC, a certificate representing the proper number of shares of Parent Common Stock may be issued to a transferee if the Certificate representing such CBSC Common Stock is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer, and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.2(b), each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender a certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock as contemplated by this Article 3. In no event will the holder of any such surrendered Certificate be entitled to receive interest on any cash to be received in lieu of fractional shares.

(c) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond, in such reasonable and customary amount as Parent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue the corresponding Certificate representing Parent Common Stock to which the person is entitled to hereunder in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate.

3.3 Dividends; Transfer Taxes; Withholdings; Escheat. No dividends or distributions that are declared on shares of Parent Common Stock after the Effective Time will be paid to persons entitled to receive certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock until such persons surrender their Certificates. Subject to applicable law, upon such surrender, there shall be paid, to the person in whose name the certificates representing such shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued, any dividends or distributions with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock which have a record date after the Effective Time and shall have become payable between the Effective Time and the time of such surrender. In no event shall the person entitled to receive such dividends or distributions be entitled to receive interest thereon. As soon as practicable following the date which is six months after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to the Surviving Corporation all cash, certificates and other documents in its possession relating to the transactions described in this Agreement, and any holders of CBSC Common Stock who have not theretofore complied with this Article 3 shall look thereafter only to the Surviving Corporation for the shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or distributions thereon, and any cash in lieu of fractional shares thereof to which they are entitled pursuant to this Article 3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Exchange Agent nor any party hereto shall be liable to a holder of CBSC Common Stock for any shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or distributions thereon or any cash in lieu of fractional shares thereof delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws upon the lapse of the applicable time periods provided for therein. Parent or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of a Certificate such amounts as Parent or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Certificate in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by Parent or the Exchange Agent.

3.4 No Fractional Securities. No certificates or scrip representing less than one whole share of Parent Common Stock shall be issued pursuant to this Agreement. In lieu of any such fractional share, each holder of record of CBSC Common Stock who would otherwise have been entitled to such fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be paid cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the fractional share amount to which such holder would be otherwise entitled multiplied by the closing sale price of Parent's Common Stock on the date closest to, but not after, the Closing Date. As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash to be paid to the holders of CBSC Common Stock in lieu of any fractional share interests, the Exchange Agent shall make available in accordance with this Agreement such amounts to such holders. The fractional Parent Common Stock interests of each such holder will be aggregated, and no such holder will receive cash in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one whole share of Parent Common Stock.

3.5 No Further Rights; Closing of CBSC Transfer Books. All shares of Parent Common Stock issued pursuant to this Article 3 shall be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the corresponding shares of CBSC Common Stock, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by CBSC on such shares of CBSC Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or prior to the date of this Agreement and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of CBSC shall be closed and no transfer of shares of CBSC Common Stock shall thereafter be made on such stock transfer books. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article 3; provided, however, if any Certificate has not been surrendered prior to five years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which Parent Common Stock or any dividends or distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock as contemplated by Section 3.5 in respect of such Certificate would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Government), any such shares, cash, dividends or distributions in respect of such Certificate shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

3.6 Dissenting Shares. Each outstanding share of CBSC Common Stock the holder of which has perfected his right to dissent under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the TBCA ) and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the Dissenting Shares ) shall not be converted into or represent a right to the Merger Consideration hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the TBCA. CBSC shall give Parent prompt notice upon receipt by CBSC of any such written demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of CBSC Common Stock and of withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments provided pursuant to the TBCA. If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall fail to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost the right to dissent at or prior to the Effective Time, the Dissenting Shares held by such holder shall be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall have effectively withdrawn or lost the right to dissent (through failure to perfect or otherwise) after the Effective Time, the Dissenting Shares held by such holder shall be converted on a share by share basis into the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement as Parent or the Exchange Agent shall determine. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by the Surviving Corporation.

  - (D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or
  - (E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share, if the fractional share is to be acquired for cash under § 48-16-104; or
- (5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the charter, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.
- (b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), no shareholder may dissent as to any shares of a security which, as of the date of the effectuation of the transaction which would otherwise give rise to dissenters' rights, is listed on an exchange registered under § 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or is a national market system security, as defined in rules promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

48-23-103. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners. (a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares of any one (1) or more classes held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:

(1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(2) Does so with respect to all shares of the same class of which the person is the beneficial shareholder or over which the person has power to direct the vote.

PART 2 PROCEDURE FOR EXERCISE OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

48-23-201. Notice of dissenters' rights. (a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

(b) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in § 48-23-203.

(c) A corporation's failure to give notice pursuant to this section will not invalidate the corporate action.

48-23-202. Notice of intent to demand payment. (a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must:

(1) Deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) Not vote the shareholder's shares in favor of the proposed action. No such written notice of intent to demand payment is required of any shareholder to whom the corporation failed to provide the notice required by § 48-23-201.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

48-23-203. Dissenters' notice. (a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of § 48-23-202.

(b) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten (10) days after the corporate action was authorized by the shareholders or effectuated, whichever is the first to occur, and must:

(1) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(3) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters rights certify whether or not the person asserting dissenters rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(4) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than one (1) nor more than two (2) months after the date the subsection (a) notice is delivered; and

(5) Be accompanied by a copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to § 48-23-201.

48-23-204. Duty to demand payment. (a) A shareholder sent a dissenters notice described in § 48-23-203 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters notice pursuant to § 48-23-203(b)(3), and deposit the shareholder s certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(b) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder s share certificates under subsection (a) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

(c) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder s share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder s shares under this chapter.

(d) A demand for payment filed by a shareholder may not be withdrawn unless the corporation with which it was filed, or the surviving corporation, consents thereto.

48-23-205. Share restrictions. (a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is effectuated or the restrictions released under § 48-23-207.

(b) The person for whom dissenters rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

48-23-206. Payment. (a) Except as provided in § 48-23-208, as soon as the proposed corporate action is effectuated, or upon receipt of a payment demand, whichever is later, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with § 48-23-204 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of each dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

(b) The payment must be accompanied by:

(1) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under § 48-23-209; and

(5) A copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to § 48-23-201 or § 48-23-203.

48-23-207. Failure to take action. (a) If the corporation does not effectuate the proposed action that gave rise to the dissenter's rights within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(b) If, after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation effectuates the proposed action, it must send a new dissenter's notice under § 48-23-203 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

48-23-208. After-acquired shares. (a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by § 48-23-206 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action.

(b) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (a), after effectuating the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under § 48-23-209.

48-23-209. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer. (a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate (less any payment under § 48-23-206), or reject the corporation's offer under § 48-23-208 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:

(1) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under § 48-23-206 or offered under § 48-23-208 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(2) The corporation fails to make payment under § 48-23-206 within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment; or

(3) The corporation, having failed to effectuate the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives the dissenter's right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (a) within one (1) month after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

PART 3 JUDICIAL APPRAISAL OF SHARES

48-23-301. Court action. (a) If a demand for payment under § 48-23-209 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within two (2) months after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the two-month period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(1) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(2) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under § 48-23-208.

48-23-302. Court costs and counsel fees. (a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under § 48-23-301 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under § 48-23-209.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable against:

(1) The corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of part 2 of this chapter; or

(2) Either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Tennessee Business Corporation Act ( TBCA ) provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if (i) the director or officer acted in good faith, (ii) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, the director or officer reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interests, (iii) in all other cases, the director or officer reasonably believed that his or her conduct was not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and (iv) in connection with any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the TBCA provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instigated because of his or her status as an officer or director of a corporation, the TBCA mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The TBCA also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if such officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the TBCA provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, whether or not the standard of conduct set forth above was met.

The Registrant's bylaws provide that the Registrant shall indemnify and advance expenses to each director or officer of Registrant, or any person who may have served at the request of Registrant's board of directors or its Chief Executive Officer, as a director or officer of another corporation (and, in either case, his heirs, executors and administrators), to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of the State of Tennessee, both as now in effect or hereafter adopted. The bylaws also provide that the Registrant may indemnify and advance expenses to any employee or agent of the Registrant who is not a director or officer (and his heirs, executors and administrators) to the same extent as to a director or officer, if the board of directors determines that to do so is in the best interests of the Registrant.

The Registrant's bylaws also provide that the indemnification rights contained in the bylaws do not exclude other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled under any statute, charter provision, bylaw, resolution adopted by the shareholders, resolution adopted by the board of directors, agreement, insurance, purchase by the Registrant or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity.

The Registrant believes that its Charter and Bylaw provisions are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

The Registrant has in effect a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy which provides coverage for its directors and officers. Under this policy, the insurer agrees to pay, subject to certain exclusions, for any claim made against a director or officer of the Registrant for a wrongful act by such director or officer, but only if and to the extent such director or officer becomes legally obligated to pay such claim.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
