ITEM 1. SUMMARY TERM SHEET.

The Company has initiated a program whereby the Company is offering to all holders of Company stock options the opportunity to tender their existing Company stock options and to receive new stock options carrying an option price no less than the market price of the Company's common stock at the time of the grant of the new options.

What is the offer?

The Company is offering to accept for cancellation all currently outstanding stock options. In return, the Company will grant to those individuals who accept the Company's offer new stock options carrying an option price no less than the then current market price of the Company's common stock at the time of such grant. (See the Offer to Acquire All Outstanding Stock Options For New Stock Options, dated April 20, 2001 (the "Offer"), a copy of which accompanies this Tender Offer Statement in the form of Schedule TO.)

Why is the Company making this offer?

Unfortunately, like many stock option programs throughout the country,

Edgar Filing: PARK OHIO HOLDINGS CORP - Form SC TO-I

the Company's outstanding stock options are not achieving the purpose for which they were intended because they carry option prices that are significantly higher than the current market price for the Company's common stock, effectively causing them to have little or no real value. The Company believes this offer will allow it to adequately compensate directors and employees for the substantial contributions they have made to the Company and to motivate them to maximize shareholder value.

To whom is the offer being made?

The Offer is being made to all individuals who currently hold outstanding options to acquire shares of the Company's common stock (see the information provided in the Offer).

What will happen to my old options?

As soon as practicable after the offer expires, the Company will cause your old options that are tendered in connection with this offer to be cancelled. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Cancellation of Old Options") If you do not tender any options, your old options will remain in place with no changes.

When will my new options be granted?

Your new options will be granted as soon as practicable after the passage of six months from the date on which your old options are cancelled. This delay is required to insure that the Company will be able to take advantage of favorable accounting treatment.

As a result of this delay, you will be subject to the risk that the market price of the Company's common stock at the time of the grant of your new options will have risen to a point in excess of the option price associated with your old options. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheadings "Grant of New Options" and "Accounting Treatment.")

PLEASE NOTE THAT YOU WILL BE GRANTED NEW OPTIONS ONLY IF THE CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER DESCRIBED BELOW ARE SATISFIED. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Conditions to Offer.")

How many new options will I receive?

New options will be granted on a one for one basis for each old option tendered for cancellation. NO NEW OPTIONS WILL BE GRANTED IF THE CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER DESCRIBED BELOW ARE NOT SATISFIED. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Conditions to Offer.")

What will be the terms and conditions of my new options?

Your new options will be granted under the Company's 1998 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "1998 Plan"). (See the description of the 1998 Plan attached to the Offer as EXHIBIT A.) The Company's Compensation Committee will determine at the time of the grant of the new options the terms and conditions of the new options, consistent with the terms of the 1998 Plan, including the vesting period associated with such options.

Edgar Filing: PARK OHIO HOLDINGS CORP - Form SC TO-I

Are there any conditions to the offer?

The Company's shareholders are being asked to amend the 1998 Plan at the Company's 2001 annual meeting of shareholders to increase the number of shares available for award under the plan in order to have enough shares available to cover the new options to be granted in return for the old options tendered pursuant to this offer. The offer is subject to the shareholders approving such amendment. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Conditions to Offer.")

In addition, an offeree must remain an employee or director of the Company throughout the period prior to the date on which the new options are granted. In the event an offeree's employment or his or her directorship is terminated prior to the date on which the new options are granted, that offeree will lose his or her right to receive a grant of new options and will receive nothing in return for the options tendered by him or her.

What happens if the shareholders fail to amend the 1998 Plan?

If the shareholders fail to amend the 1998 Plan to increase the number of shares available for award under the plan, then there will not be enough shares available for award under the 1998 Plan to carry out the offer as proposed, in which case no new options will be granted and those offerees who tendered options will receive nothing in return for the options tendered by them. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Conditions to Offer")

Will I have to pay taxes if I participate in the offer?

The Company believes that you will not be required under current law to recognize income for federal income tax purposes if you participate in the offer. Both the tender of your old options and the grant of your new options should not require you to recognize income for federal income tax purposes. The Company recommends that you consult with your own tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of tendering options pursuant to the offer.

What is the procedure for accepting the offer?

The offer may be accepted by completing the letter of transmittal that accompanies the offer and delivering it to the Company at the specified address. The completed letter of transmittal must indicate the number of options that are being tendered for cancellation and must be signed by the offeree. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Procedure for Tendering Options")

Can I withdraw my tender?

A tender may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, May 18, 2001, by delivering to the Company a written notice of withdrawal. The written notice must state the number of tendered old options that are being withdrawn and an affirmative statement that those old options are being withdrawn. (See the information provided in the Offer under the subheading "Withdrawal Rights")

ITEM 2. SUBJECT COMPANY INFORMATION.

(a) Name and address. The subject company and issuer of the securities subject to the issuer tender offer is Park-Ohio Holdings Corp., an Ohio

(b) Use of securities acquired. The Company stock options turned in by those employees who wish to accept the offer will be cancelled by the Company. The information set forth under the subheading "Cancellation of Old Options" in the Offer is incorporated herein by reference.

(c) Plans. None

ITEM 7. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

(a) Source of funds. The existing Company stock options shall be exchanged for new Company stock options granted under the Company's 1998 Plan, subject to the terms and conditions of such plan (see the description of the 1998 Plan attached to the Offer as EXHIBIT D). The Company's Compensation Committee will determine at the time of the grant of the new options the terms and conditions of the new options, consistent with the terms of the 1998 Plan, including the vesting period associated with such options. The information set forth under the subheading "Grant of New Options" in the Offer is incorporated herein by reference.

(b) Conditions. The Company's shareholders will be asked to amend the 1998 Plan at the Company's 2001 annual meeting of shareholders to increase the number of shares available for award under the Plan in order to have enough shares available to cover the new options to be granted in return for the old options tendered pursuant to this offer. In the event the shareholders fail to amend the 1998 Plan to increase the number of shares available for award under the plan, then there will not be enough shares available for award under the 1998 Plan to carry out the offer as proposed, in which case no new options will be granted and those offerees who tendered options will receive nothing in return for the options tendered by them.

In addition, an offeree must remain an employee or director of the Company throughout the period prior to the date on which the new options are granted. In the event an offeree's employment or his or her directorship is terminated prior to the date on which the new options are granted, that offeree will lose his or her right to receive a grant of new options and will receive nothing in return for the options tendered by him or her. The information set forth under the subheading "Conditions to Offer" in the Offer is incorporated herein by reference.

(d) Borrowed Funds. Not applicable.
