Each non-employee director will also receive 10,000 options to purchase common stock as a part of the Company's annual stock incentive grants, in accordance with the provisions of the Neoprobe Corporation Amended and Restated 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. The options granted to purchase common stock vest on the first anniversary of the date of grant and have an exercise price of $0.362, the closing price of the Company's common stock as reported on the OTC Bulletin Board regulated quotation service on January 3, 2008. Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Amendments to Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers

Effective January 3, 2008, Neoprobe Corporation (the Company) adopted amendments to the employment agreements between the Company and each of: (a) David C. Bupp, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer; (b) Brent L. Larson, the Company's Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer; and (c) Anthony K. Blair, the Company's Vice President, Manufacturing Operations. The employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Bupp has a stated term of 36 months, commencing January 1, 2007, and terminating December 31, 2009. The employment agreements between the Company and Messrs. Larson and Blair have stated terms of 24 months, each commencing January 1, 2007, and terminating December 31, 2008. The following is a description of the substantially identical material terms of the aforementioned amended employment agreements.

Each employee will receive an annual base salary as set forth on the schedule filed herewith as Exhibit 10.2, which schedule sets forth the material details in which each employment agreement differs from the form filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1. Each employee shall also receive an annual bonus at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company, in accordance with any bonus plan adopted by the Company's Compensation, Governance and Nominating Committee. The amended employment agreements also provide for the employees' participation in the Company's employee benefit programs, stock based incentive compensation plans and other benefits as described in the employment agreements.

In the event of termination of an employee for cause all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of termination, and the Company shall have no further obligations to the employee. If an employee resigns for any reason other than a Change of Control (as that term is defined in the employment agreements) as described below, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time such resignation becomes effective. If an employee dies or his employment is terminated because of disability, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of death or disability, provided, however, that the Company shall: (a) continue to provide Mr. Bupp with such health, dental and similar insurance or benefits as were provided to Mr. Bupp immediately before his termination for the longer of 24 months after such termination or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement; and (b) continue to provide either of Messrs. Larson or Blair with such health, dental and similar insurance or benefits as were provided to Messrs. Larson or Blair immediately before his termination for the longer of 12 months after such termination or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement.

In the event of termination of an employee by the Company without cause, the Company shall, at the time of such termination, pay to the employee the respective severance amount set forth on Exhibit 10.2, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. Additionally, the Company shall continue to: (a) provide Mr. Bupp with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 36 months or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement; (b) provide Mr. Larson with the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for a period of 12 months; and (c) provide Mr. Blair with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 12 months or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement.

The Company also must pay severance, under certain circumstances, in the event of a Change of Control. The employment agreements provide that if there is a Change in Control and an employee is concurrently or subsequently terminated (a) by the Company without cause, (b) by the expiration of the term of his employment agreement, or (c) by the resignation of the employee because he has reasonably determined in good faith that his titles, authorities, responsibilities, salary, bonus opportunities or benefits have been materially diminished, that a material adverse change in his working conditions has occurred, that his services are no longer required in light of the Company's business plan, or the Company has breached his employment agreement, the Company shall pay the employee the appropriate Change of Control severance set forth on Exhibit 10.2, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of termination and shall continue to: (a) provide Mr. Bupp with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 36 months or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement; and (b) provide to either of Messrs. Larson or Blair the benefits provided to them pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 12 months after such termination or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement.

Each employment agreement also contains non-competition and non-solicitation covenants. These covenants, as described in the employment agreements, are effective during employment and for a period of 12 months following termination of employment.

The foregoing description of the employment agreements between the Company and Messrs. Bupp, Larson and Blair is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form employment agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and which is incorporated herein by reference.
