On July 21, 2014, Registrant announced that its chief executive officer, Michael J. Kowalski, will retire effective March 31, 2015. Mr. Kowalski, who is also a member of Registrant's Board of Directors (the "Board") will continue to serve on the Board, in the role of non-Executive chairman. Mr. Kowalski, 62, has served as Registrant's chief executive officer since 1999 and assumed the role of chairman of the Board in 2003.

Registrant also announced that the Board has named Frederic Cumenal to succeed Mr. Kowalski as chief executive officer, effective April 1, 2015. In September 2013, Mr. Cumenal, 54, was appointed president of Registrant, with responsibilities for worldwide sales and distribution as well as Registrant's design, merchandising and marketing functions. At that time he was also appointed to a newly created seat on the Board. Mr. Cumenal initially joined Registrant in March 2011 as an executive vice president with responsibilities for sales and distribution. In the preceding 15 years, he held senior leadership positions in LVMH Group's wine and spirits businesses, most recently as president and chief executive officer of Moët & Chandon, S.A. Mr. Cumenal previously served as chief executive officer of Domaine Chandon, and was managing director of Moët Hennessy Europe.

The material plans, contracts and arrangements to which Mr. Cumenal is a party or in which he participates are disclosed in Registrant's Proxy Statement Pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on April 10, 2014, and are incorporated by reference herein.
