placement to "qualified institutional buyers" pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The $105 million amount includes the exercise by the initial purchaser of its option to purchase an additional $15 million aggregate original principal amount of notes.

The notes will bear interest at a rate of 2.0% per year and, during certain periods and subject to certain conditions, the notes will be convertible into shares of Comtech's common stock at an initial conversion price of $47.25 per share (a conversion rate of 21.1640 shares per $1,000 original principal amount of notes), subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. Upon conversion of the notes, in lieu of delivering common stock, Comtech may, in its discretion, deliver cash or a combination of cash and common stock. Comtech may, at its option, redeem some or all of the notes on or after February 4, 2009. Holders of the notes will have the right to require Comtech to repurchase some or all of the outstanding notes on February 1, 2011, February 1, 2014 and February 1, 2019 and upon certain events, including a change in control.

Comtech intends to use the net proceeds of the offering for working capital and general corporate purposes and potentially for future acquisitions of businesses or technologies or repurchases of Comtech's common stock.

Comtech has agreed to file a registration statement for the resale of the notes and the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes within 90 days after the closing of the offering.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy securities. Any offers of the securities will be made only by means of a confidential offering memorandum. The notes and the common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws.
