(Unaudited)

(1) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions and requirements of Form 10-QSB and, therefore, do not include all information and footnotes necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, results of operations, and cash flows in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In the opinion of Management, such financial statements reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring items) necessary for a fair statement of the results of operations, cash flows and financial position for the interim periods presented. Operating results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2001, filed on Form 10-KSB (SEC File Number 33-70334-A).

Current Subsidiaries:

As used in this Form 10-QSB, the term "Company" refers, unless the context requires otherwise, to International Assets Holding Corporation and its four wholly owned subsidiaries; INTLTRADER.COM, INC. ("ITCI"), International Asset Management Corp. ("IAMC"), International Financial Products, Inc. ("IFP") and OffshoreTrader.com Ltd. ("OTCL"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

On December 13, 2001 the Company sold its 50% interest in International Assets New York, LLC, a 50/50 Joint Venture with Lakeside Investments, LLC of New York.

(2) Sale of Certain Operations

On December 13, 2001 the Company sold its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, International Assets Advisory, LLC and Global Assets Advisors, LLC, and its 50% membership interest in International Assets New York, LLC (IANY) to Lakeside Assets, LLC. In connection with the disposition transaction, Lakeside Assets, LLC also purchased 80,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The Company received total proceeds of $907,240 for these sale transactions. The Company allocated $827,240 of the proceeds to the sale of the two wholly owned subsidiaries and the 50% interest in IANY. The Company allocated $80,000 of the proceeds to the sale of common shares. The Company had a book basis of $414,231 related to the sale of the two wholly owned subsidiaries and IANY. The $413,009 gain on sale of retail activity recorded in December 2001 was determined by deducting the book basis of $414,231 from the sales proceeds of $827,240.

Commission revenues from retail private client securities brokerage activity amounted to $406,175 and $2,492,643 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively and $1,675 and $724,448 for the three months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Though certain costs associated with this activity are distinct and clearly identifiable; many are not and management has not historically operated, monitored or specifically allocated expenses to this activity in such a manner as to determine profitability by activity. In the same sale transaction, International Assets Holding Corporation agreed to sell its money management activity, which had revenues from management and investment advisory fees of $6,292 and $81,516 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively and $5,613 for the three months ended June 30, 2001. The money management activity was primarily related and tied into the retail private client activity including the same sales staffing, operations and research support. It was separated for purposes of securities licensing and regulation.

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to current period presentation. These changes had no impact on previously reported results of operations or stockholders' equity.

(5) Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

Basic loss per share for the nine months and three months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001 have been computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding.

Diluted loss per share for the nine months and three months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001 are the same as basic loss per share because of the anti-dilutive impact of the potential common shares, due to the net loss for each of the periods. No options to purchase shares of common stock were considered in the calculation of diluted loss per share for the nine months and three months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001 because of the anti-dilutive impact of the potential common shares, due to the net loss for the periods.

The Company's principal operating activities, market-making and trading in international securities are highly competitive and extremely volatile. The earnings of the Company are subject to wide fluctuations since many factors over which the Company has little or no control, particularly the overall volume of trading and the volatility and general level of market prices, may significantly affect its operations.

Results of Operations:

On December 13, 2001 the Company sold its full service private client retail brokerage and money management activities. Accordingly, these activities are no longer a source of revenues or expense for the Company after December 13, 2001. While the revenues (commissions and management and investment advisory fees) and certain costs associated with the business activities which have been sold are readily identifiable, many costs associated with these activities are not. The costs that are not identifiable were included in prior legal entity financial statements combined with other business activities that were operated together for previous strategic, regulatory and synergistic purposes.

In December 2001 the Company reported a gain on the sale of retail activity of $413,009 included in the nine months ended June 30, 2002. The gain is based on sale proceeds of $827,240 less the book cost basis of $414,231, for the transaction costs and for the book value of the assets that were included in the sale of this business activity.

As of June 30, 2002 the Company had 18 full time employees.

the Nine Months Ended June 30, 2001

Edgar Filing: INTERNATIONAL ASSETS HOLDING CORP - Form 10QSB

The Company's revenues were derived primarily from trading revenue (net dealer inventory and investment gains) as well as commissions earned on the sale of securities. For the nine months ended June 30, 2002, 83% of the Company's revenues were derived from trading revenue and 11% of revenues were derived from commissions. For the nine months ended June 30, 2001, 24% of the Company's revenues were derived from trading revenue and 69% of revenues were derived from commissions. Total revenues decreased 2% to $3,542,633 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $3,627,700 for the same period in 2001.

Trading revenue (net dealer inventory and investment gains) increased by approximately 233% to $2,956,210 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $888,224 in 2001. This increase in trading revenue was due in large measure to our trading department's ongoing efforts to provide reliable market making for our trading clients with high quality customer service and trade execution in the international securities trading market. The Company has been successful in developing new clients as well as in retention of existing trading clients.

The increase in trading revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 comes after the Company had to rehire and rebuild the entire trading department since the disruption of the Company's trading operations caused by the abrupt departure of the Company's head of capital markets and his related recruitment of the entire trading department to his own firm in December 2000. This matter was previously discussed in the Company's 10-QSB for the period ended December 31, 2000 as well as its Form 8-K filed as of December 29, 2000.

Commission revenue decreased by approximately 84% to $406,175 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $2,492,643 in 2001. Commission revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 include retail brokerage commissions earned for the period October 1, 2001 through December 13, 2001. On December 13, 2001 the Company sold its membership interests in International Assets Advisory, LLC. These retail brokerage commission revenues are no longer a source of revenue for the Company after December 13, 2001 due to the sale of this retail brokerage activity. During January 2002, the Company sold substantially all of its' retail online accounts to Ameritrade Holding Corporation and ceased offering its online retail brokerage operation. The elimination of these retail activities has allowed the Company to focus all of its resources on its core market making trading operation.

Revenues from management and investment advisory fees decreased by approximately 92% to $6,292 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $81,516 in 2001. These revenues from management and investment advisory fees are no longer a source of revenue for the Company after December 13, 2001 due to the sale of this business.

Interest and dividend revenue decreased by 16% to $154,127 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $183,521 in 2001. This decrease is due to lower balances of interest producing assets, including money market balances and fixed income securities and decreased interest returns on these short-term liquid assets during the nine months ended June 30, 2002 compared to the same period in 2001. Interest income decreased $108,521 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 compared to the same period in 2001. Partly offsetting this decrease is a $79,127 increase in dividend income. The increase in dividend income is derived from the Company's American

Depository Receipt (ADR) conversion strategy where the Company holds paired and offsetting long and short foreign ordinary and ADR positions. When these paired positions are held over a dividend record date the Company has offsetting dividend income and dividend expense. Dividend income of $140,904 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 is offset by the $148,945 of dividend expense for the same period.

Loss from joint venture was $20,353 for the nine months ended June 30, 2001. The loss from joint venture ended in March 2001 when the Company wrote off its investment in joint venture in accordance with the equity method of accounting. The loss from the Company's joint venture represented the Company's 50% share of the operating loss from the activity of International Assets New York, LLC, a 50/50 joint venture with Lakeside Investments, LLC of New York. On December 13, 2001 the Company's interest in International Assets New York, LLC was sold.

Other revenues were $19,829 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 up from $2,149 for the same period in 2001. Other revenues in 2002 includes $14,800 collected for the sale proceeds from the retail online accounts sold to Ameritrade.

The major expenses incurred by the Company relate to direct costs of its securities operations such as compensation and benefits, clearing and related expense, occupancy and equipment rental expense and professional fees. Total expenses decreased by approximately 36% to $4,551,026 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002, from $7,120,266 for the same period in 2001. This decrease in total expenses is mainly due to reductions in compensation and benefits, promotions, communications, technology and other operating expenses. The decrease in total expenses reflects the cost decreases related to the sale of the retail brokerage activity and the additional cost reductions the Company began to implement in August 2001.

Compensation and benefits expense decreased by $2,134,734 or 58% to $1,554,104 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $3,688,838 in 2001 due to lower commission expense caused by lower commission revenues and a decrease in base salaries due to an overall reduction in the number of employees. Included in the total $1,554,104 compensation and benefits expense for 2002 is $165,854 related to commission expense that will no longer be an ongoing expense for the Company after December 13, 2001, due to the sale of the related retail private client activity.

Clearing and related expenses increased 38% to $1,323,578 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002, up from $956,685 in 2001. This increase is related to the volume increase in the number of trades processed and increased costs for American Depository Receipt (ADR) conversions due to the necessity of these conversions as a trading strategy to facilitate liquidity within the Company's overall investment portfolio. Also, included in the total $1,323,578 clearing and related expenses for 2002 is $35,416 related to retail private client activities that will no longer be an ongoing expense for the Company after December 13, 2001, due to the sale of the related activity.

Total promotion expense decreased by approximately 73% to $170,465 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 compared to $619,903 for 2001. This decrease is primarily due to decreases in retail promotional activity, public relations, and travel and entertainment due to cost saving initiatives undertaken. Future promotion expense will be determined by incremental promotions that are undertaken to support the Company's current and ongoing operations.

Occupancy and equipment rental expense decreased by 19% to $308,341 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $382,490 in 2001. Decreases in rental expense were related to the Company's decreased leased office space. As of February 1, 2002 the Company relocated to a new, smaller and less costly leased office space. Offsetting a portion of this savings are several new equipment leases for phone system and network equipment. The net savings from this office relocation are currently anticipated to be over $150,000 on an annualized basis.

Communications expense decreased by $133,773, or 63% to $77,418 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $211,191 for the nine months ended June 30, 2001. This decrease is due to reduced telephone, postage and printing expense related to the sale of the retail brokerage activity.

Interest and dividend expense increased by $94,658, or 169% to $150,690 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $56,032 for the nine months ended June 30, 2001. This increase is due to increased dividend expense related to the Company's American Depositary Receipt (ADR) conversion strategy where the Company holds paired and offsetting long or short foreign ordinary and ADR positions. When these paired positions are held over a dividend record date the Company has offsetting dividend expense and dividend income. Dividend expense of $148,945 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 is largely offset by the $140,904 of dividend income for the same period.

Professional fees increased by approximately 99% to $368,110 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $184,606 in 2001. This increase is primarily due to legal fees related to the arbitration and injunction matters further discussed in Part II, Item 1 of this Form 10-QSB.

Insurance expense decreased by approximately 32% to $99,940 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $147,602 in 2001. This decrease is primarily due to decreases in health, life, disability and workers compensation insurances due to reductions in total employment headcount and the related and reduced payroll expense.

Depreciation and amortization expense decreased approximately 26% to $284,357 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $383,513 in 2001. The decrease in 2002 is due to lower depreciation expense associated with the disposition of fixed assets related to the sale of the retail private client activity in December 2001.

Technology expense was down approximately 75% to $40,890 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 from $164,865 in 2001. The decrease is due to the completion of technology enhancements to increase the quote system and trading platform's capacity as well as reduced technology expenditures for web site content due to the elimination of the retail online brokerage activity in January 2002.

Other operating expenses decreased approximately 47% to $173,133 for the nine months ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $324,542 in 2001. This decrease is due to cutbacks and reductions in director's fees and expense, office supplies and expense, training expense and annual report expense.

This increase in trading revenue was due to the trading department's ongoing efforts to provide reliable market making for our trading clients with high quality customer service and trade execution in the international securities trading market. The increase in trading revenues for the three months ended June 30, 2002 comes after the Company had to rehire and rebuild the entire trading department since the disruption of the Company's trading operations caused by the abrupt departure of the Company's head of capital markets and his related recruitment of the entire trading department to his own firm in December 2000.

When these paired positions are held over a dividend record date the Company has offsetting dividend income and dividend expense. Dividend income of $106,820 for the three months ended June 30, 2002 is offset by the $122,851 of dividend expense for the same period. Partly offsetting this increase in dividend income is a $20,798 decrease in interest income for the three months ended June 30, 2002 compared to the same period in 2001. This decrease is primarily due to lower balances of interest producing assets, including money market balances and fixed income securities as well as decreased interest returns on these short-term liquid assets during the three months ended June 30, 2002 compared to the same period in 2001.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Substantial portions of the Company's assets are liquid with the majority of the assets consisting of securities inventories which fluctuate depending on the levels of customer business. At June 30, 2002, approximately 91% of the Company's assets consisted of cash, cash equivalents, receivable from clearing organization and marketable securities. All assets are financed by the Company's equity capital, short-term borrowings from securities sold, not yet purchased and other payables.

Distributions to the Company from INTLTRADER.COM, INC., the Company's primary source of liquidity, are restricted as to amounts which may be paid by applicable law and regulations. The Net Capital Rules are the primary regulatory restrictions regarding capital resources. The Company's rights to participate in the assets of any subsidiary are also subject to prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors, including customers of INTLTRADER.COM, INC.

INTLTRADER.COM, INC., a wholly owned registered securities broker-dealer subsidiary, is subject to the requirements of the SEC and the NASD relating to liquidity and net capital levels. At June 30, 2002, INTLTRADER.COM INC. had adjusted net capital of $1,730,059, which was $1,375,559 in excess of its minimum net capital requirement at that date.

The Company's total assets and liabilities and the individual components thereof may vary significantly from period to period because of changes relating to customer needs and economic and market conditions. The Company's total assets at June 30, 2002 and September 30, 2001, were $14,680,565 and $10,733,698, respectively. The Company's operating activities generate or utilize cash resulting from net income or loss earned during the period and fluctuations in its assets and liabilities. The most significant fluctuations have resulted from changes in the level of customer activity and securities inventory changes resulting from proprietary arbitrage trading strategies dictated by prevailing market conditions.

In addition to normal operating requirements, capital is required to satisfy financing and regulatory requirements. The Company's overall capital needs are continually reviewed to ensure that its capital base can appropriately support the anticipated capital needs of the operating subsidiaries. The excess regulatory net capital of the Company's broker-dealer subsidiary may fluctuate throughout the year reflecting changes in inventory levels and/or composition and balance sheet components.

In the opinion of management, the Company's existing capital and cash flow from operations will be adequate to meet the Company's capital needs for at least the next twelve months in light of known and reasonably estimated trends. At this time additional private financing is being sought for trading capital, technology, staffing and promotional efforts based upon the Company's strategic plan. This plan has an operational emphasis on technology driven international securities order flow. In conjunction with the Company's strategic plan, the Company has engaged UBS Warburg as its financial advisor to arrange and negotiate a private placement of securities issued by the Company or to find a strategic partner. UBS Warburg has been engaged to use its best efforts in connection with a private placement and does not have any obligation to purchase any securities issued by the Company or to provide financing of any kind to the Company.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is party to certain litigation as of June 30, 2002, which relates primarily to matters arising in the ordinary course of business. While the Company cannot absolutely predict the outcome of these actions at this time, it is the opinion of management, given the probability of success by the Company, that the resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial condition of the Company.

On January 4, 2001 the Company filed an arbitration matter with the NASD regarding several breaches (including but not limited to raiding, unfair competition and misappropriation of trade secrets) related to the sudden departure, on December 19, 2000, of the head of the foreign trading desk and his related recruitment of the entire Company's trading staff. This arbitration claim was filed against the broker/dealer who became the employer of the recruited employees, two principals of the broker/dealer, two affiliated securities firms of the broker/dealer and four principals of the parent firm. On March 14, 2001 the broker/dealer who became the employer and two of its principals responded and filed a counterclaim against the Company. On March 19, 2001 the two affiliated securities firms of the broker/dealer also filed a counterclaim as well as a claim for attorney's fees. The Company disputes the counterclaims and intends to vigorously defend them. The NASD arbitration for this matter, which was originally scheduled for the week beginning April 29, 2002, has been continued (delayed) until November 2002. The parties involved in the arbitration have agreed to participate in a mediation scheduled for September 2002.

On April 1, 2002, the Company filed suit and a motion for temporary injunction, which was granted, in Circuit Court in Orange County, Florida. The suit and motion were filed against a New York Stock Exchange listed company for breach of a confidentiality agreement and misappropriation of trade secrets. The Company was required to post a $50,000 cash bond with the court as a condition of the temporary injunction. On April 9, 2002, the Court denied a motion to dissolve the temporary injunction. On April 12, 2002 the defendant filed an appeal of the denial of the motion. That appeal has not yet been resolved. On April 29, 2002 the defendant filed three motions with the Circuit Court in Orange County, Florida to; 1) dissolve the temporary injunction, 2) to compel an NASD arbitration and 3) to dismiss the claims. Also on April 29, 2002 the defendant filed an NASD arbitration claim seeking damages in excess of $450,000. On May 30, 2002 the Circuit Court of Orange County, Florida; 1) denied a motion to dissolve the temporary injunction, 2) reserve ruling on the motion to compel arbitration and 3) granted a motion to dismiss the original claim; however, the Company was given 10 days to amend the complaint. This amended complaint was filed on August 1, 2002.

The Company plans to defend its position against the appeal of the injunction and defend its position that the circuit court rather than the NASD has jurisdiction to decide this matter.
