Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 18, 2012, Georgia Gulf Corporation (the Company), PPG Industries, Inc. (PPG), Eagle Spinco Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of PPG (Spinco), and Grizzly Acquisition Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which the Company will acquire PPG's chlor-alkali and derivatives business (the Business) in a Reverse Morris Trust transaction (the Merger). Prior to the Merger and pursuant to a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement), dated as of July 18, 2012, between PPG and Spinco, PPG will, among other things, transfer the Business to Spinco and, thereafter, PPG will distribute to PPG stockholders all of the issued and outstanding shares of Spinco (the Distribution). Immediately following the Distribution, Spinco will be merged with the Company or one of the Company's subsidiaries.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Separation Agreement, the shares of Spinco common stock then-outstanding are expected to be automatically converted into the greater of 35.2 million shares of the Company's common stock (the Company Common Stock) and 50.5% of the Company Common Stock. The Company's existing stockholders will continue to hold the remaining approximately 49.5% of the Company Common Stock.

The Separation Agreement

The Separation Agreement governs the rights and obligations of PPG and Spinco regarding the separation of the Business from the other businesses of PPG (the Separation and, together with the Distribution and the Merger, the Transaction) and the subsequent Distribution, including assets to be transferred, liabilities to be assumed and contracts to be assigned to each of PPG and Spinco or their respective affiliates. The Separation Agreement also sets forth other agreements between PPG and Spinco related to the Separation, including provisions concerning the termination and settlement of intercompany accounts, governmental approvals and third party consents and working capital adjustments. In addition, the Separation Agreement sets forth agreements that govern certain aspects of the relationship between PPG and Spinco following the Distribution, including provisions with respect to releases of claims, indemnification, insurance, access to financial and other information and treatment of outstanding guarantees.

The Separation Agreement governs the rights and obligations of PPG and Spinco regarding the Distribution. Prior to the Distribution, PPG will receive from Spinco distributions of cash and debt instruments of Spinco with an aggregate value of $900 million (collectively, the Cash and Debt Distribution). PPG has entered into agreements giving it the right, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to deliver the Spinco debt instruments received in the Cash and Debt Distribution in satisfaction of certain debt obligations that will be issued by PPG prior to the closing of the transaction (the Exchange). In combination with the cash portion of the Cash and Debt Distribution, the Exchange would result in PPG receiving a total of $900 million in cash in connection with the Separation and Distribution. This amount is subject to adjustment to reflect working capital at the time of the Separation, and to reduction by $130 million if PPG does not transfer its interests in Taiwan Chlorine Industries, Ltd. as part of the Separation.

Consummation of the Separation and Distribution is subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by PPG) of certain conditions, including, among other things, (i) that each of the conditions to PPG's obligations to effect the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement shall have been satisfied or waived (other than the condition concerning the consummation of the Separation and Distribution or conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the completion of the Distribution); (ii) consummation of the Separation, (iii) receipt of certain rulings from the Internal Revenue Service, (iv) receipt of certain tax opinions from tax counsel to PPG, and (v) PPG having received the Cash and Debt Distribution.

The Separation Agreement provides that the Company is a third party beneficiary of the rights and obligations of Spinco under the Separation Agreement.

The Merger Agreement

As described above, the Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the consummation of the Distribution, Spingo will be merged with the Company or one of the Company's subsidiaries, and that, as of the effective time of the Merger, Spingo common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of Company Common Stock. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that in connection with the Merger, the Company will increase the size of its board of directors (the Company Board) by three members, and that three individuals selected by PPG and approved by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Company Board will be appointed to the Company Board to fill the vacancies. In accordance with the Merger Agreement, these individuals will also be nominated for re-election to the Company Board at the Company's 2013 annual meeting of stockholders.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to various customary closing conditions, including (i) approval by the Company's stockholders, (ii) expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act of 1976, as amended, (iii) completion of the Distribution, (iv) confirmation by applicable tax authorities of the intended tax treatment of the Transaction, (v) obtaining other regulatory approvals necessary to complete the Merger, and (vi) the absence of any law or order from any court or governmental authority restraining, enjoining or prohibiting the Transaction.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by each of PPG, the Company, Spingo and Merger Sub. PPG and the Company have also agreed to various covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, covenants (i) to conduct their respective material operations in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and (ii) not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without prior consent of the other.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both PPG and the Company and further provides that the Company must pay to PPG a termination fee of $24.5 million upon termination of the Merger Agreement under the following circumstances:

- if (1) a competing acquisition proposal is presented by a third party to the Company or otherwise becomes publicly known, (2) the Merger Agreement is thereafter terminated by either party for failure to close before the termination date, by PPG as a result of a breach by the Company of its covenants that results in the failure of a closing condition that cannot be cured, or by either party because the Company has failed to obtain stockholder approval (unless, in the case of failure to obtain stockholder approval, the proposal had been previously withdrawn) and (3) within 12 months after the termination, the Company enters into an agreement for or consummates an acquisition proposal made by a third party; or
- if the Merger Agreement is terminated by PPG following a change in the Company Board's recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the Merger.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Separation Agreement, certain additional agreements have been or will be entered into, including, among others:

Edgar Filing: GEORGIA GULF CORP /DE/ - Form 8-K

- a Tax Matters Agreement among the Company, PPG and Spinco, which will govern the parties' respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to taxes, tax attributes, the preparation and filing of tax returns, the control of audits and other tax proceedings and assistance and cooperation in respect of tax matters, in each case related to tax matters of PPG and the Business after the Transaction;
- a Transition Services Agreement between PPG and Spinco, pursuant to which the parties will, on a transitional basis, provide each other with certain support services and other assistance after the Transaction;

Edgar Filing: GEORGIA GULF CORP /DE/ - Form 8-K

- an Employee Matters Agreement among the Company, PPG and Spinco, which will govern the parties' obligations with respect to employment related matters and liabilities associated with employees and retirees of the Business after the Transaction; and
- a Shared Facilities, Services and Supply Agreement between PPG and Spinco, which will govern the parties' rights, responsibilities and obligations regarding facilities and services in Lake Charles, Louisiana that will be shared by PPG and Spinco following the Transaction.

Completion of the Transaction is anticipated to occur in late 2012 or early 2013, although there can be no assurance the Transaction will occur within the expected timeframe or at all.

The foregoing summary descriptions of the Merger Agreement and the Separation Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are subject to and qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement and Separation Agreement, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 10.1, respectively, and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
