PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (the "Company") is unable to timely file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 without unreasonable effort and expense because the Company has been unable to complete the audits of its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2007. Based on the Company's review of its 2006 financial statements, the Company has concluded that it will restate previously issued 2004 and 2005 financial statements, which will also reflect adjustments to prior years. The Company continues to work diligently with its outside auditors to complete the audit of its financial statements for 2006. After finalization of the 2006 financial statements, the Company will turn its attention to completing the audits for its 2007 and 2008 financial statements.

1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). [ ] Yes [X] No

As discussed above, the Company continues to be unable to file its annual reports on Form 20-F for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006, December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2008.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? [X] Yes [ ] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously announced, the Company expects to report net sales of approximately $339 million and net income of approximately $50 million for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to estimated net sales of approximately $315 million and net income of approximately $29 million for the year ended December 31, 2007. These estimates are subject to possible change resulting from further review by the Company and audit by the Company's outside auditors of the Company's financial statements for 2008 and prior years as the Company seeks to become current with its Form 20-F filing obligations.
