SBA Communications Corporation is restating its financial statements for fiscal years 2003 and 2002 to reflect: (1) the reclassification of 14 towers previously classified as discontinued operations into continuing operations; and (2) the discontinued operations treatment of its site development services business in the West (collectively, the Reclassifications ).

Selected historical financial information for fiscal years 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003 and supplemental disclosure to Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for fiscal years 2003 and 2002 regarding the Reclassifications are attached as Exhibit 99.1. On November 29, 2004, SBA Communications Corporation released the following information: for the 2005 fiscal year, it expects to incur capital expenditures of approximately $15.0 million to $25.0 million in connection with 1) its plans to build 50 to 100 new towers, 2) maintenance capital expenditures on its towers, 3) tower upgrades and other capital improvements and 4) general corporate expenditures. The exact amount of our future capital expenditures will depend on a number of factors including any earn-outs that may become due, any acquisitions that we may consummate, and other factors that may increase the amounts necessary to support our tower portfolio.
