Notice of Event of Default on Convertible Notes

Environmental Power Corporation (the Company) is party to that certain First Supplemental Trust Indenture, dated as of March 1, 2009 (the First Supplemental Indenture), between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Trustee (the Note Trustee) relating to the Company's 14% Convertible Notes due January 1, 2014 (the Convertible Notes). As previously disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K dated December 14, 2009, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 8, 2010, the Company failed to make the semi-annual interest payment in the amount of $560,000 due on the $8,000,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes currently outstanding, which interest payment was due on January 4, 2010. The failure to make this interest payment become an event of default under the First Supplemental Indenture and the Indenture, dated as of March 1, 2009, between the Company and the Note Trustee to which the First Supplemental Indenture relates (the Indenture), insofar as such failure was not cured by February 3, 2010 (30 days from the date on which the interest payment became due and payable). The Note Trustee delivered a notice, dated February 3, 2010, of this event of default to the Company and the holders of the Convertible Notes, which notice the Company received on February 11, 2010.

The Note Trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes outstanding may now declare the principal of and premium, if any, and all accrued interest on the Convertible Notes immediately due and payable, but neither has done so at this time. Under the Indenture and the First Supplemental Indenture, holders of at least 50% in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes outstanding are authorized to direct the time, place and method of conducting collection proceedings, subject to refusal by the Note Trustee to follow any direction that conflicts with law, the Indenture or the First Supplemental Indenture, is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other holders of the Convertible Notes or would involve the Note Trustee in personal liability. The Indenture also permits the Note Trustee to require adequate indemnity against any loss, liability, expense or fee that might be incurred by it in complying with any such direction.
