Dear Fellow CME Member and B-3 Shareholder,

The CME Group annual meeting is May 22, 2013 with internet voting ending on May 21st. The CME Group has mailed the proxy cards and materials or made them available to you electronically that included the control number to allow you to vote electronically by going to: www.proxyvote.com or to mail in the proxy card as directed.

This election is important since it is about increasing share values and member opportunities as I will seek to reduce the costs of doing business, oppose CFTC restrictive regulations and increase the growth of the CME Group. With 35 years as an equity member, independent trader (21 years on the trading floor), former Vice Chairman, Treasurer and Director of the CME, attorney, futures industry expert witness and NFA arbitrator, I have the experience and knowledge to accomplish these goals.

If you did not receive my campaign letter or you have any questions, please call or email me.
