Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

ITEM 4 OF THIS STATEMENT IS HEREBY AMENDED TO READ IN ITS ENTIRETY AS FOLLOWS:

The primary objective of the 1997 Trust is to maintain the editorial independence of The New York Times and to perpetuate it "as an independent newspaper, entirely fearless, free of ulterior influence and unselfishly devoted to the public welfare," in accordance with the wishes of Adolph S. Ochs as expressed in his will. This purpose has been effectuated by maintaining control of The New York Times in the hands of a small number of the descendants of Adolph S. Ochs acting as Trustees of the 1997 Trust for the benefit of all such descendants. The 1997 Trust holds approximately 91.4% of the outstanding shares of the Class B Stock, which is not publicly traded, and the holders of which have the right to elect approximately 70% of the Company's board of directors.

The Reporting Persons are no longer the beneficial owners of more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of Class A Stock, and thus are no longer subject to the requirements of Section 13(d) or 13(g) of the Act with respect to their beneficial ownership of Class A Stock. Except as described in Item 6 of this Amendment No. 11, the Reporting Persons currently have no plan or proposal, as shareholders of the Company, which relates to or would result in:

(a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company, or the disposition of securities of the Company, except that the Reporting Persons may continue to make gifts of Class A Stock to or for the benefit of members of their immediate families and charitable institutions;

(b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization, or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

- (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Company, including any plan or proposal to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board of directors;

-11-

- (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company;
- (f) any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure;
- (g) changes in the Company's charter or by-laws or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person;
- (h) a class of securities of the Company being delisted from a national securities exchange or ceasing to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;
- (i) a class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or
- (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

However, such plans or proposals may have been considered, and may from time to time hereafter be considered, by Hays N. Golden, Steven B. Green, Arthur G. Sulzberger and Arthur Sulzberger, Jr. in their capacities as directors of the Company, and by Arthur G. Sulzberger in his capacity as an executive officer of the Company.

As of January 1, 2018, such group is the beneficial owner in the aggregate of 7,937,048 shares of Class A Stock, representing approximately 4.9% of the outstanding shares of Class A Stock, which shares include (i) 743,632 shares of Class A Stock issuable upon the conversion of an aggregate of 743,632 outstanding shares of Class B Stock held by the group members individually and by the 1997 Trust; (ii) 655,247 shares of Class A Stock issuable to group members upon the exercise of options granted under the Company’s stock option plans; and (iii) 14,476 shares of Class A Stock underlying RSUs awarded under the Company’s 2010 Incentive Compensation Plan that certain of the Reporting Persons have the right to acquire within 60 days.

The filing of this Amendment No. 11 represents the final amendment to the Schedule 13D and constitutes an exit filing for the Reporting Persons.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

ITEM 6 OF THIS STATEMENT IS HEREBY AMENDED AND RESTATED TO READ IN ITS ENTIRETY AS FOLLOWS:

The 1997 Trust was established by an indenture dated June 24, 1997 (the “Original Indenture”), between Marian S. Heiskell, Ruth S. Holmberg, Judith P. Sulzberger and Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, as grantors (each a “Grantor,” and collectively, the “Grantors”), and the Grantors and Lynn G. Dolnick, as Trustee. On December 14, 2000, the Grantors and the Trustees entered into a first amendment to the Original Indenture (the “Amended Indenture”). The Amended Indenture was filed with Amendment No. 7 to this Statement as Exhibit G and is incorporated herein by reference. The following summary of the material terms of the Amended Indenture is qualified in its entirety by such reference to Exhibit G.

Among other things, the Amended Indenture increased the number of Trustees of the 1997 Trust from five to eight, by appointing Jacqueline H. Dryfoos, Michael Golden and Arthur Sulzberger, Jr. as additional Trustees. In addition, the Amended Indenture created a structure surrounding the succession of Trustees whereby four of them would be “appointed” (an “Appointed Trustee,” and collectively, the “Appointed Trustees”) and four of them would be “elected” (an “Elected Trustee,” and collectively, the “Elected Trustees”). As outlined further below, Elected Trustees are replaced by Elected Trustees, and Appointed Trustees are replaced by Appointed Trustees, so that there will always be four Trustees who are Appointed Trustees and four Trustees who either are Grantors or Elected Trustees.

Lynn G. Dolnick, Jacqueline H. Dryfoos, Michael Golden and Arthur Sulzberger Jr. were the initial Appointed Trustees. Upon the death, resignation or incapacity of any Appointed Trustee, the Trustees will appoint a successor Appointed Trustee. Currently, Steven B. Green, Hays Golden, Arthur G. Sulzberger, and Arthur Sulzberger, Jr. are the four appointed Trustees.

Upon the death, resignation or incapacity of any Grantor-Trustee (Marian S. Heiskell, Ruth S. Holmberg, Judith P. Sulzberger and Arthur Ochs Sulzberger) or any "Elected Trustee," a successor Elected Trustee will be elected by a majority vote of those beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust who are over the age of twenty-five years and who are descendants of Iphigene Ochs Sulzberger or who are both married to and living with a descendant of Iphigene Ochs Sulzberger, and who wish to vote, in an election called by the Trustees of the 1997 Trust for that purpose. Any determination made by the Trustees regarding the procedures and rules for such election or the outcome thereof will be conclusive as to all persons interested or claiming to be interested in the 1997 Trust. Currently, Theresa Dryfoos, David Golden, Gertrude A.L. Golden, and Margot Golden Tishler are the Elected Trustees who have been duly elected by the eligible beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust.

The beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust are: (1) the Grantors; (2) the descendants of the Grantors other than those descendants who are excluded from the term by the provisions of Article TWO of the 1997 Trust (i.e., who request at any time after all of the Grantors are deceased, and who receive in the absolute discretion of the Trustees, a distribution of a fractional share of the 1997 Trust corpus as permitted by the Amended Indenture), and the spouse of any such descendant; (3) spouses of the Grantors or of their descendants; and (4) organizations described in Sections 170(c), 2055(a) and 2522(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under the Amended Indenture, all actions of the Trustees of the 1997 Trust require the affirmative vote of six of the eight Trustees. No Trustee of the 1997 Trust (other than a Grantor) may participate in any decision or other action of the Trustees with respect to any discretionary distribution of principal or income in favor of such Trustee.

Any Trustee may resign at any time, such resignation to be effective upon the appointment or election of a successor Trustee. Any Trustee (other than a Grantor) may be removed without cause by vote of six Trustees. The Original Indenture provided that each Trustee other than a Grantor would serve for a term of five years. The Amended Indenture does not provide for any term limits apart from the above-mentioned provisions for resignation or removal.

The Trustees of the 1997 Trust, subject to the limited exceptions described below, are directed to retain the Class B Stock held in the 1997 Trust and not to sell, distribute or convert such shares into Class A Stock, and to vote such Class B Stock against any merger, sale of assets or other transaction pursuant to which control of The New York Times newspaper passes from the Trustees of the 1997 Trust, unless they determine that the primary objective of the 1997 Trust, which is to maintain the editorial independence and integrity of The New York Times and to continue it “as an independent newspaper, entirely fearless, free of ulterior influence and unselfishly devoted to the public welfare,” in accordance with the wishes of Adolph S. Ochs as expressed in his will, can be best achieved by the sale, distribution or conversion of such stock or by the implementation of such transaction. If upon such determination any Class B Stock is distributed to the beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust, it must be distributed only to descendants of Iphigene Ochs Sulzberger, subject to the provisions of that certain shareholders agreement dated August 5, 1986 (the “Shareholders Agreement”). Similarly, any sale by the 1997 Trust of Class B Stock upon such determination can be made only in compliance with the Shareholders Agreement. See Item 6 of Amendment No. 5 to this Statement for a summary of the provisions of the Shareholders Agreement.

The Trustees of the 1997 Trust may make distributions of trust principal, apart from shares of Class B Stock, in such amount or amounts as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion determine to such of the beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion select, provided that as long as any of the Grantors is alive, the Trustees may only distribute equal amounts to each living Grantor and to the descendants of a deceased Grantor, such descendants to take per stirpes. In exercising this discretionary power, the Trustees of the 1997 Trust are required to bear in mind the need to retain in the 1997 Trust assets other than shares of Class B Stock of sufficient value to pay any estate, transfer, or generation-skipping taxes that may have to be paid out of the 1997 Trust.

The Trustees shall pay out of the net income of the 1997 Trust such amount or amounts as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion determine to such one or more of the beneficiaries of the 1997 Trust as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion select, provided that as long as any of the Grantors is alive, the Trustees shall distribute one-quarter of the income either to that Grantor or to such of the beneficiaries and in such amounts and proportions as that Grantor may from time to time in writing direct. Any net income not so distributed shall be added to principal.

The Trustees of the 1997 Trust are granted various powers and rights, including among others: (i) to vote all the shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock held by the 1997 Trust; and (ii) to amend certain provisions of the Indenture, but not the provisions relating to retaining the Class B Stock or the manner in which the Class B Stock may be distributed, sold or converted.

The 1997 Trust will continue in existence until the expiration of 21 years after the death of the last survivor of all of the descendants of Iphigene Ochs Sulzberger in being on December 14, 2000. Upon the termination of the 1997 Trust at the end of the stated term thereof, all of the trust property (including the shares of Class B Stock) will be divided and distributed among the descendants then living of Iphigene Ochs Sulzberger.
