GOL Begins Ticket Sales to Santa Cruz de la Sierra, Bolivia

São Paulo, September 29, 2005 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-fare, low-cost airline, begins today ticket sales to Santa Cruz de la Sierra, Bolivia, its second international destination. The inaugural flight is confirmed for November 7th, 2005. GOL will offer flights departing four times a week from Campo Grande, in the Brazilian State of Mato Grosso do Sul (MS), at 11:30 p.m. Flights from Santa Cruz de la Sierra will depart at 1:40 a.m. four times a week, with an immediate connection to São Paulo, and additional connections to all other destinations served by GOL.

For Tarcísio Gargioni, Vice-president of Marketing and Services at GOL, beginning regular service to Santa Cruz de la Sierra demonstrates the Company's success in popularizing air transportation in South America and offering the option of low cost travel and high quality service to more passengers. "We believe the route to Bolivia will reach the same levels of success that GOL has achieved with its first international flights to Buenos Aires, Argentina, which operates with an average load factor of above 70 percent."

Bolivia, which has a population of 8.8 million, is the fourth most frequented destination by Brazilians flying to neighboring countries. Approximately 150,000 passengers flew between Brazil and Bolivia in 2003. Bolivia is an associated country of the Mercosul and one of the main natural gas exporters to Brazil and Argentina.

Tickets can now be purchased by calling 0300 789 2121 (in Brazil only) or through your travel agency. Beginning October 7, tickets will be available for purchase through GOL's website, www.voegol.com.br.
