Recent Events

•

During February 2012, the Company entered into two interest rate swap agreements for a total notional amount of $700.0 million maturing on April 2016. These agreements were entered into to hedge the Company s exposure to interest rate fluctuations by fixing our 3 month LIBOR rates at approximately 0.9% up to April 2016.

•

On February 9, 2012, Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. announced that it has awarded 15 year term charters to a Consortium in which Ocean Rig is a participant for five ultra deep water units at an average day rate of $548,000.

•

On February 6, 2012 the Company announced that it has signed a new drilling contract for its semi-submersible drilling rig Leiv Eiriksson with a consortium coordinated by Rig Management Norway for drilling on the Norwegian Continental Shelf. The maximum total revenue backlog is estimated at $653 million for a minimum period of 1,070 days. The new contract is a well-based contract for 15 wells and will commence in the fourth quarter of 2012 or the first quarter of 2013. The contract includes three options of 6 wells with an exercise date well in advance of the expiry of the firm period.

(1) As Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP measure, please see later in this press release for a reconciliation to net income.

•

In February 2012, we extended the existing drilling contract for the 6th generation drillship Ocean Rig Olympia by 47 days. The additional backlog is estimated at just over $28 million.

•

On January 27, 2012, the Company extended the date of its option agreements to construct three additional 7th generation drillships at Samsung, to April 2, 2012.

•

On January 23, 2012, the Company announced that it entered into a new drilling contract for its semi-submersible drilling rig Eirik Raude with an independent operator, for work offshore West Africa. The maximum total revenue backlog, to complete the 3 well program is estimated at $52 million for a period of 60 days. The new contract will commence in direct continuation after the completion of the existing Eirik Raude contract. The operator has an option to drill one additional well for an estimated duration of 20 days.

George Economou, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company commented:

We are pleased to report Ocean Rig s earnings for the fourth quarter of 2011. Despite of the high non-revenue days during the quarter due to mobilization of our drilling units to drilling locations for start up, we reported healthy earnings per share, exceeding analyst consensus estimates. While the third quarter of 2011 represented a successful execution of our original business plan, the fourth quarter represents the beginning of the next growth phase, as partly evidenced by the following recent developments:

•

With our latest charter for the Leiv Eiriksson with a consortium coordinated by Rig Management Norway, we continue to further increase our backlog, currently standing at $2.3 billion, with solid counterparties.

•

We extended the exercise date of our options with Samsung to construct three additional 7th generation drillships to April 2, 2012 thereby keeping our organic growth option open.

•

We have maintained close ties with Brazil, the fastest growing ultra deepwater drilling market worldwide, as evidenced by the latest press release from Petrobras announcing that a Consortium in which Ocean Rig is a participant was awarded certain long-term contracts. While we do not expect to take any construction and financing risk, we look forward to participating in a meaningful manner in Brazil s oil and gas development.

With interest rates at historic lows, we executed favorable amortizing interest rate swap agreements which lock-in our 3 month LIBOR rates on a notional amount of $700 million at approximately 0.90% all the way up to April 2016.

We believe outlook for the ultra deepwater drilling industry is very positive give the high level of demand we are seeing from all over the globe. Capital expenditure from oil companies is expected to increase by close to 15% this year and a major portion of this will be targeted towards exploration and development. An increasing number of large discoveries have also been announced in deepwater and ultra deepwater in several new oil and gas provinces, which should provide long-term work for rigs not just in 2012 but for the foreseeable future. Given strong industry fundamentals, we expect to further increase our backlog by entering into lucrative contracts for our remaining 2012 open units, Ocean Rig Olympia and Eirik Raude.

Adjusted EBITDA Reconciliation

Adjusted EBITDA represents net income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and gains or losses on interest rate swaps. Adjusted EBITDA does not represent and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or cash flow from operations, as determined by United States generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and our calculation of adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to that reported by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is included herein because it is a basis upon which the Company measures its operations and efficiency. Adjusted EBITDA is also used by our lenders as a measure of our compliance with certain covenants contained in our loan agreements and because the Company believes that it presents useful information to investors regarding a company's ability to service and/or incur indebtedness.
