RJF Shareholders: Vote

As shareholders, you are always encouraged to review the proxy materials and vote your shares. Your vote is important, no matter the size of your holdings.

The proxy materials for the February 21 Raymond James Financial Annual Meeting of Shareholders are in the mail.

Among the items to be voted on by shareholders - including common stock shareholders and all associates who are participants in the firm's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) - are:

• Election of 10 nominees to our Board of Directors;

• Ratification of the appointment by the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm;

• Approval of an advisory (non-binding) resolution on the Company's executive compensation.

We Need Your Vote

While broker/dealers may sometimes vote shares without specific instructions from their customers for shares held in their customers' accounts, this action is only allowed for appointment of auditors, one of three items on the RJF agenda this year. Please consider the voting recommendations of the Board of Directors contained in the proxy statement.

How to Vote

All shareholders will receive proxy materials in the mail. Your proxy card explains how you can vote online, by telephone or by returning the card by mail. You will need your proxy card to vote, as it contains important shareholder-specific information.

If you lose or do not receive your proxy information, and own RJF shares in an account other than ESOP, contact the Corporate Actions department at ext. 73724 or email corporateactions@raymondjames.com by 5 p.m. ET Wednesday, February 13, 2013, to request the control number associated with your respective RJF shares held in street name through RJ&A. You can then vote online (www.proxyvote.com/) or by telephone (1-800-454-8683) using your shareholder-specific control number.

NOTE: The instructions above are for employees only and are only for shares held in street name through RJ&A.

If you lose or do not receive the proxy card for your shares held in your ESOP account, contact the Corporate Actions department at ext. 73724 or email corporateactions@raymondjames.com by 5 p.m. ET Wednesday, February 13, 2013, to request the control number associated with your respective RJF shares held in your ESOP account. You should provide Corporate Actions your name and address that is associated with your ESOP account. As soon as you receive your control number, you can vote online (www.investorvote.com/rjf) or by telephone (1-800-652-8683) using your shareholder specific control number.
