(1) EBITDA, EBITDA margin percentage, EBITDA as adjusted and EBITDA margin percentage as adjusted are non-GAAP financial measures. Other companies may calculate these measures (or similarly titled measures) differently. We believe these measures provide useful information to investors in evaluating our capital-intensive business because they reflect our operating performance before the impacts of non-cash items and are indicators of our ability to service debt, pay taxes and fund discretionary spending such as capital expenditures. Management also uses EBITDA for a number of purposes, including setting targets for compensation and assessing the performance of our operations.

RECONCILIATION OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES FREE CASH FLOW FROM OPERATIONS (1)

(Dollars in millions)

| | Years Ended December 31, | | |
|---|---------------------------------|-------------|-------------|
| | 2007 | 2008 | 2009 |
| Free cash flow from operations: | | | |
| Cash provided by operating activities | $ 3,026 | $ 2,931 | $ 3,307 |

| Add: certain one-time settlements | 445 | 285 | 32 |
| Adjusted free cash flow from operations | $ 1,802 | $ 1,439 | $ 1,930 |

(1) Free cash flow and adjusted free cash flow from operations are non-GAAP financial measures that indicate cash generated by our business after operating expenses, capital expenditures, interest expense and income tax expense. We believe these measures provide useful information to our investors for purposes of evaluating our ability to satisfy our debt and other mandatory payment obligations and because they reflect cash flows available for financing activities, voluntary debt repayment and to strengthen our balance sheet. This is of particular relevance for our business given our significant debt balance. We also use free cash flow and adjusted free cash flow from operations internally for a variety of purposes, including setting targets for compensation and budgeting our cash needs. These measures are not determined in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered as a substitute for income before income taxes or cash provided by operating activities or any other measure determined in accordance with GAAP.

RECONCILIATION OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES NET DEBT (1)

|---|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| Net debt: | | | | |
| Current portion of long-term borrowings | $ 1,688 | $ 852 | $ 587 | $ 2,046 |
| Long-term borrowings net | 13,013 | 13,261 | 12,755 | 11,500 |

| Less: cash and cash equivalents | (887) | (634) | (541) | (1,196) |

| Ratio of net debt to annualized EBITDA as adjusted | 3.0 | 2.9 | 2.8 | 2.7 |

(1) Net debt is a non-GAAP financial measure that we calculate as our total borrowings net (current plus long-term) less our cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments. We believe net debt is helpful in analyzing our leverage, and management uses this measure in making decisions regarding potential financings. Net debt is not a measure determined in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered as a substitute for current portion of long-term borrowings or long-term borrowings net or any other measure determined in accordance with GAAP.

(2) EBITDA as adjusted is a non-GAAP financial measure that reflects our operating performance before the impacts of certain non-cash items and after removing the effects of items that we believe are not representative of our core ongoing telecommunications operations, such as severance charges, restructuring charges and charges for securities-related litigation. We provide this information to supplement our GAAP financial measures because we believe that investors commonly use this information to analyze the results of our core operations, to identify financial trends in these results and to compare our operating performance to that of our competitors. Management also uses these measures for a number of purposes, including setting targets for compensation and assessing the performance of our operations.

(3) The ratio of net debt to annualized EBITDA as adjusted is a non-GAAP financial measure that we calculate as net debt divided by a rolling four quarters of EBITDA as adjusted. Other companies may calculate this measure differently. We believe this measure provides useful information to our investors about our debt level relative to our performance and about our ability to meet our financial obligations.
