Item 3: SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

Item 3 is hereby amended to add the following information:

Richard J. Roberts used personal funds exclusively in purchasing 36,900 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Issuer. Roy Van Cleave used personal funds exclusively in purchasing 5,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Issuer. No funds of, or other consideration from, the Marital Trusts were used in connection with the acquisition of such shares.

Item 4: PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

On August 19, 2002, the Issuer entered into an agreement with the Marital Trusts to make a tender offer to purchase all of the Issuer's Class B Common Stock owned by the Marital Trusts at a price per share of $20.00 in cash (the Tender Offer). By amendment dated December 26, 2002, the Issuer entered into an agreement with the Marital Trusts to amend the agreement to tender for all of the Issuer's outstanding Class B Common Stock. Pursuant to the amendment, the Issuer agreed to call a special meeting of its Class A Stockholders for the purpose of obtaining approval of the Tender Offer by a majority of the shares of Class A Common Stock present or represented by proxy at the special meeting (excluding shares of Class A Common Stock held by the Marital Trusts and certain McGinley family members). Pursuant to the amendment, the Issuer's obligation to commence the Tender Offer and the obligation of the Marital Trusts and certain McGinley family members to tender their Class B shares was also subject to, among other things, the approval of the Tender Offer by the Issuer's Class A stockholders and the receipt of a favorable supplemental private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that the proposed tender offer will not affect the tax consequences relating to the Stratos Lightwave, Inc. spin-off. The shareholders' meeting was scheduled to be held on July 10, 2003, but before the time of the meeting, the board of directors of the Issuer amended the By-laws of the Issuer to provide authority to the board of directors to adjourn shareholders' meetings and thereupon the board of directors adjourned the meeting until July 24, 2003.

The reason for the adjournment of the special shareholders' meeting was to allow the board of directors of the Issuer to consider a tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding Class B shares commenced on July 8, 2003 by MEI Investment Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Dura Automotive Systems, Inc. (collectively, Dura), at a price of $23.00 per share, cash to the sellers. The Dura tender offer is conditioned upon, among other things, a tender of at least a majority of the Class

B shares, and Dura being satisfied, in its reasonable discretion, that the associated preferred share purchase rights are inapplicable to Dura as a result of the offer, and Dura being satisfied, in its reasonable discretion, that the restrictions on business combinations with interested stockholders set forth in Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware are inapplicable to Dura.

On July 11, 2003, the Issuer approached the Special Fiduciaries to discuss modifications to the Tender Offer that the Issuer believed were warranted in light of the offer by Dura. No agreement respecting modifications was reached. On July 14, 2003, the Marital Trusts exercised their contractual right to terminate the August 19, 2002 Agreement with the Issuer so that the Special Fiduciaries could have the opportunity to consider the tender offer made by Dura while also being engaged in discussions with the Issuer regarding a possible modified transaction. In the event of the consummation of all elements of a transaction with the Issuer, it is contemplated that directors Robert McGinley, James McGinley and Roy Van Cleave, all Special Fiduciaries of the Marital Trusts, would resign from the board of directors. In the event of a closing of the tender offer made by Dura, it is likely that the Class B members of the board of directors of the Issuer would be replaced by representatives of Dura. Either transaction could require a second step merger to convert any remaining Class B shares to cash. Following closing of any sale of all or substantially all of the Class B shares, it is unlikely that the Class B shares would not continue to be registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or listed on the NASDAQ National Market System.

Other than as set forth above, none of the Marital Trusts or the Special Fiduciaries currently have plans or proposals pending which relate to or would result in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Issuer, or the disposition of securities of the Issuer; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; (f) any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person; (h) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted on an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of The Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.
