Thank you.

Barrick Gold Corporation and Placer Dome have reached an agreement pursuant to which Barrick has among other things, (i) increased its offer price to acquire Placer Dome and (ii) extended the expiry of the Offer to January 19, 2006. Following an extensive review of strategic alternatives and the opinion of its financial advisors, the Board of Directors of Placer Dome has unanimously recommended that its shareholders accept the Revised Barrick Offer. The terms of the purchase and the reasons why you should accept the Revised Barrick Offer are discussed in the Notice of Extension and Variation dated January 4, 2006 and Placer Dome's Directors Circular dated January 4, 2006 that has been mailed to you. These documents can be found online at www.barrick.com/offertoplacer, www.sedar.com or www.sec.gov.

Here are a few reasons why you should accept the Revised Barrick Offer:

1. The Revised Barrick Offer represents improved value to Placer Dome shareholders at a premium of 39% based on the average closing price of the last ten trading days on the NYSE prior to the announcement of the Initial Barrick Offer. This is an increase of over 12% to the Initial Barrick Offer and is consistent with the premium in comparable gold industry acquisition transactions;
2. Placer Dome shareholders will receive either US$22.50 (the cash alternative) or 0.8269 of a Barrick common share and US$0.05 in cash (the share alternative) for each common share of Placer Dome, in each case subject to pro ration;
3. Additional Reasons to Accept the Revised Barrick Offer:
 - The Placer Board has concluded that the Revised Barrick Offer is the best alternative available;
 - Creation of a Highly-Respected Global Gold Mining Company:
